PREFACE

Criminal justice information exists in the dynamic environment of high-technology information systems, and a rapidly changing body of law and policy governing the handling of criminal justice information. The components of this environment form an integrated structure that, over the last 25 years, has evolved into a sophisticated capability for processing massive amounts of criminal justice information. It is a system which is assaulted constantly by new demands for information, by hundreds of new laws and policies each year, and by rapid changes in technology.

The Bureau of Justice Statistics has long been concerned with the need for current and accurate statistical and operational information about the criminal justice system, and has long supported the development of law and policy for the handling of criminal justice information.

In particular, BJS recognizes that laws and procedures must reflect the need to collect accurate and reliable information on crimes and criminals while still protecting the privacy interests of individuals and insuring that appropriate levels of protection are provided for security and privacy of data.

The development of today's criminal history record law and policy has its roots at the federal level. With the passage of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, states were provided with the incentive to pass laws providing for the security and privacy of criminal history record information collected, stored or disseminated. Over the past ten years, almost all states have enacted their own criminal history standards, laws and regulations. Such laws and procedures have established the framework for the development of individual state operating policies and have been critical to the establishment of standards for data quality, dissemination, security, access by record subjects, and audits of criminal history record information.

Consideration of changing national legislative trends is especially significant at this time because of the impact of program or legislative initiatives on existing criminal justice information systems and policy. The increased need for inter-jurisdictional data exchange in order to maximize cost effective utilization of available data resources, and new demands placed on the information capabilities of operating criminal justice agencies, demonstrates the need to make this a conscious area of planning and analysis by legislators, executives, administrators, and others who have a primary stake in how well our criminal justice system will operate in the years ahead.

This is the fifth compendium of state privacy legislation issued by this office. It is anticipated that this document will serve as a valuable guide for those persons interested in reviewing both individual state legislation and overall trends in this critical area.

FOREWORD

This compendium is the latest in a series of manuals that compile and analyze state laws and regulations relating to privacy and security of criminal history record information. The compendiums, begun in 1974-75, include: (1) compilations of state laws and administrative regulations addressing criminal history record information, and (2) analyses of findings and trends reflected in that body of law and policy documents. The purpose of the compendiums is to allow legislators, planners, administrators and other interested individuals to review state statutes and regulations on the maintenance and use of criminal records and to analyze national trends in this critical area.

The first compendium<sup>1</sup> was published by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in 1974 as part of its efforts in connection with the promulgation of regulations covering privacy and security of criminal history information.<sup>2</sup>

A second compendium was published in 1978<sup>3</sup> documenting the growth of state criminal justice privacy laws subsequent to the earlier survey. At that time a companion document was also published,<sup>4</sup> which provided an overview of the significant changes in state laws that had occurred, largely as a result of the impact of the federal regulations, and analyzed policy issues in specific areas of privacy law.

Updating supplements to the compendiums were published in 1979<sup>5</sup> and in 1981<sup>6</sup> covering state legislation and regulations up to July 1981.

This 1984 compendium is a complete two-volume document which replaces all of the earlier compendiums. It includes all current state laws and regulations up to January 1984, as well as an analysis of findings and trends. The analysis includes discussions of trends and conclusions concerning critical information policy issues, such as the requirements imposed on criminal justice agencies to maintain record quality, authority for record subjects to inspect and challenge information contained in their files, limits placed on dissemination and use of criminal history information, and access to criminal records for research purposes.

The format and classification categories used in this edition are similar to those used in the earlier editions. Slight changes have been made, however, because the current compendium is a compilation of all laws and regulations including those from prior volumes. These changes, as well as recommendations on how best to use this supplement are discussed in the Introduction.

INTRODUCTION

A wealth of survey data from 1970 to the present shows a growing concern by the public over the collection of personal information by both government and law enforcement agencies.<sup>1</sup> National opinion polls and legislative activity during the past decade evidence strong public support for limiting the scope of government information-gathering and information-sharing, as well as insuring that the privacy and confidentiality of certain types of information are maintained. A comprehensive nationwide survey conducted by Louis Harris and Associates for Southern New England Telephone Company in 1983 found that the American people are greatly concerned about personal privacy and the negative impact on their lives that may result from pervasive applications of computer technology and the trend toward more widespread collection and use of personal information. The survey reported that three out of four Americans now believe that the right to privacy should be a fundamental right of the individual and protected from government action.

With respect to criminal justice information policy, the past decade has been one of considerable activity and progress at both the federal and state levels. As the 1970's began, few states had adopted comprehensive criminal history information statutes. Today almost every state has enacted legislation dealing with at least some aspects of the collection, maintenance and dissemination of criminal history record information, and over half of the states have adopted comprehensive legislative or regulatory rules.

The most significant impact on the development of state standards was the adoption in 1973 of an amendment (Section 524(b))<sup>2</sup> to the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, requiring that all criminal history record information collected, stored or disseminated by state and local criminal justice agencies utilizing federal funding for such purposes must be kept complete and secure, must be made available for review and challenge by record subjects, and must be used only for law enforcement and other lawful purposes. The Law Enforcement Assistance Administration was given jurisdiction over this new law and was responsible for drafting regulations and providing broad support to those states attempting to implement comprehensive and uniform standards. These Federal regulations are now usually referred to as the "Department of Justice Regulations."<sup>3</sup> The regulations impose minimum general requirements for the maintenance, use and dissemination of criminal history record information, leaving the development of comprehensive programs and specific procedures to the states.

The federal regulations were instrumental in stimulating many states to enact their own laws to comply with the requirements of the federal government. In addition, the regulations triggered a reassessment of existing state privacy and security laws that has gone beyond mere compliance, as evidenced by the fact that many states have enacted comprehensive criminal history laws that greatly exceed the requirements of the regulations.

This reference document is intended for those working in the area of criminal justice information law and policy. It should be useful to legislators and administrators who are constantly developing information policy or implementing information practices, as well as to legal analysts, researchers, planners, and others who are interested in this subject. By contrasting and comparing the various approaches reflected in the many state laws and regulations collected here, planners and administrators should be assisted in developing effective and fair policies for their jurisdictions. By facilitating such comparisons and by furthering research in this area, this compendium will hopefully contribute to the evolution of enlightened privacy and information policy. Researchers should be cautioned, however, that further review of state laws or regulations may be appropriate depending on the detail of the researcher's inquiries.

Scope of the 1984 Compendium

The 1984 publication, Privacy and Security of Criminal History Information: Compendium of State Legislation, is a complete compilation of all prior volumes and supplements, and includes more recent enactments up to January 1984. It is generally limited to state statutes, although regulations, executive orders and attorney general's opinions are included where applicable.

This Compendium contains four sections. Section 1 sets out an overview and brief analysis of the statutes and regulations included in the two volumes. Section 2 defines the 28 subject-matter categories into which state laws are classified. Section 3 consists of graphic representations depicting developments in all 28 categories of criminal justice information law and policy. Section 4 sets out in two volumes the full text of state statutes and regulations with complete citations to the official state codes or other state compilations where they appear.

The compilation methodology included extensive library research in state codes and a survey of state officials concerned with criminal record programs and policy. The survey compiled the laws of 53 jurisdictions: the 50 States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. In the compendium, all of these jurisdictions are referred to as "states."

How to Use the 1984 Compendium

Because this edition is a complete compilation of all prior compendiums and supplements, it will not be necessary to consult prior volumes.

To facilitate use of the compendium, the laws and regulations have been classified into 28 subject-matter categories which are defined in Section 2. The numerous tables have been included to assist in finding laws dealing with particular subjects or to determine which aspects of information policy have been addressed by particular statutes. The Summary Tables list citations to all state statutes and regulations under each of the 28 classification categories. For example, the table for the category "State Regulatory Authority" (p. 15) indicates whether a particular state has a provision establishing or designating an agency to promulgate statewide privacy and security regulations and, if so, provides the legal citation to the provision to facilitate referencing the text in this volume. In addition to finding particular citations, the reader is able to quickly identify the concentration of states addressing a particular policy area.

Another view of state privacy trends is reflected in the Table on p. 11, entitled "Survey Comparison of Changes in State Statutes and Regulations by Classification Category." At a glance, the table indicates the degree of attention that a particular area of information policy has received in the states over the past ten years, as reflected by surveys conducted in 1974, 1977, 1979, 1981, and 1984. Again, the table retains the classification categories utilized in the previous volumes for continuity of data analysis.

A summary table for each state is included in Section 4 preceding the text of each state's statutes and regulations. These tables utilize the 28 classification categories referred to above and set out citations to all of the laws and regulations of particular states. If no entry appears under one or more classification categories for a particular state, it means that the state has no law or regulation addressing that policy area, or that research has failed to discover any.

It should be noted that the individual state tables presented in Section 4 include subdivisions of four classification categories. Category 3, "Regulation of Dissemination," has been subdivided to show whether the states permit or prohibit access by various types of groups or individuals (criminal justice agencies, non-criminal justice governmental agencies, and private agencies or individuals) to various types of information (conviction information, non-conviction information and arrest information). Category 4, "Right to Inspect," has been subdivided to show whether the states permit an individual to make notes or obtain a copy of information contained in his criminal record. Category 14, "Accuracy and Completeness," has been subdivided to permit statutes to be classified as relating to disposition reporting, audit, or other accuracy and completeness requirements. Finally, Category 22, "Security," has been subdivided to enable statutes to be classified as relating to physical security, administrative security or computer security. It is felt that these classification subcategories will present a more accurate and detailed view of state legislative and regulatory activity in these four important policy areas and will make the compendium a much more useful research tool.

The full texts of the statutes, regulations and other policy documents of each state are presented in Section 4. Statutes dealing specifically with criminal history records are presented first, followed by other relevant statutes, such as public records laws or freedom of information acts, and other materials, including regulations, executive orders and attorney general's opinions.

Section 1

FINDINGS AND TRENDS

The following findings and trends reflect a review and analysis of the laws and regulations set out in Section 4. The laws were analyzed with reference to the 28 classification categories defined in Section 2.

Although the analysis focuses specifically on the substantive requirements of the laws, the conclusions were also influenced by two related factors. First, careful attention was paid to comprehensive state statutes. It is significant if a state addresses the multiplicity of policy issues systematically rather than treating various requirements on an individual or piecemeal basis. Second, the level of state legislative activity over the last ten years has been carefully weighed to permit an accurate portrayal of trends. Findings and trends become clearer when factors which have developed over an extended period of time are examined.

Viewed from these perspectives, the laws and regulations set out in this volume support the following general findings:

1. All states have laws which address at least one aspect of security and privacy policy (see categories defined in Section 2). On an average, each state has addressed 17 of the categories. This is an increase of 3 categories since the 1981 survey was conducted.
2. Thirty-two states (60%) have developed and promulgated comprehensive laws and/or regulations. The states appear to exhibit a definite preference for broad legislation establishing a policy framework, leaving fine grained policy and procedure to regulations. This indicates that states are moving from what has been a patchwork approach of policy development to a more systematic and comprehensive approach.

3. The Federal Regulations appear to have played a major role in stimulating the states to pass legislation and regulations governing not only the privacy and security of criminal histories, but also the quality of state criminal justice information systems. The Regulations addressed five aspects of security and privacy policy: (1) individual access, (2) dissemination, (3) completeness and accuracy, (4) security, and (5) audits.
4. The greatest concentration of legislative activity occurred during 1976 through 1978, immediately following the issuance of the Federal Regulations in 1976. Tabulating the 1984 results (see table on page 11) as a baseline of 100% of legislative activity for all categories thus far, the laws passed through 1976-1978 represented 44% of the total activity.
5. Although a substantial amount of activity occurred after passage of the Federal Regulations in 1976, there is still continued legal activity in this area. Up to 1978, states on the average had enacted 37% of the total laws and regulations which could potentially be passed if all 28 categories were considered for each of the 53 states. This was a 23% increase in legislative and regulatory activity since the first survey was conducted in 1974. Up to this date, 58% of the total laws and regulations have now been enacted for all 28 categories. This is a 21% increase in legislative and regulatory activity since 1978.

6. The states frequently distinguish between original records (police blotters, court dockets and other chronological entries) and dossiers, which are compilations of information indexed by name or other identifiers. Even when non-conviction information in dossiers is restricted, the original records usually remain available, although in most cases it would be impractical to search for them. This seems to be a way for states to provide some privacy while not completely restricting records of historic facts.

7. The states generally accept the concept that restrictions should be placed on the release of non-conviction information. Although the Federal Regulations allow states to disseminate such information pursuant to law or rule, the states generally choose not to make non-conviction information (including arrests without dispositions after one year) available outside of the criminal justice system.
8. There is some willingness on the part of the states to restrict dissemination of conviction data in narrow circumstances, such as first offenses, simple misdemeanors, or drug or alcohol related offenses, or if there has been an executive pardon.
9. Sixteen states (30%) have chosen to regulate the collection of investigative and intelligence data and twenty-five states (47%) have regulated the dissemination of such data.
10. All fifty-three states (100%) permit persons to inspect their criminal history record, either pursuant to a public records act or a statute dealing directly with criminal history information, but only 41 states (77%) have specifically provided by law or regulation for amendment or correction of an inaccurate record pursuant to the record subject's request. While such review and challenge provisions do not deal with the confidentiality of information, they are generally considered to be the heart of "privacy" rights, since they permit the record subject to know what information is recorded and give him a role in monitoring the accuracy of these records.

11. Thirty states (57%) require that transaction logs be maintained when criminal history information is disclosed to third parties. Most of these states require that corrected information be automatically forwarded to criminal justice agencies which have received erroneous or incomplete information, although most of the states do not provide for automatic notification to non-criminal justice agencies. The record subject, who is entitled to a copy of the transaction log in most cases, is given discretion to communicate corrections to non-criminal justice recipients.
12. Forty-eight states (90%) provide that a specified state agency shall provide general oversight of criminal history record management policy, and twenty-seven states (51%) have established separate privacy and security councils.
13. Fifty-two states (98%) have established some sort of central state repository, although not all of them are fully operational statewide and only a few of them conform to the model contemplated by the Federal Regulations.
14. During the ten years covered by these surveys, the largest gain in record management regulation has been with respect to accuracy and completeness requirements. Now fifty-one states (96%) have such provisions, although only fourteen dealt with this matter as of 1974, a 264% increase. Most states specifically address accuracy and completeness of records; some only require that criminal justice agencies establish procedures to encourage accuracy.

15. Thirty-eight states (72%) have provisions dealing with information system security. Frequently such legislation is detailed in its requirements, probably reflecting the fact that the security requirements in the federal regulations are the most detailed provisions of the federal regulations.
16. Thirty-eight states (72%) provide for purging of non-conviction information (simple arrests without disposition or when the disposition is favorable to the accused). Twenty-one states (40%) provide for the sealing of such information. Twenty-six states (49%) provide for purging of certain conviction information (relating, for example, to drug abuse, minor or first-and-only offenses after a reasonable time with a "clean" record). Twenty-five states (47%) provide for sealing of conviction information in some circumstances.
17. Remedies and penalties for failure to comply with laws or regulations for privacy and security may include civil or criminal sanctions, or both. This survey shows that thirty-six of the states (68%) provide civil remedies that may include punitive as well as compensatory damages, and sometimes the recovery of attorney fees. Civil penalties against agency personnel for violation or neglect of their duties may include job transfer, suspension or dismissal. Criminal penalties for willful transgressions, authorized by forty-three states (81%), usually classify such conduct as a misdemeanor which could entail imposition of a fine or imprisonment, although a few states impose felony penalties ranging up to five years in prison or fines up to $5,000.

18. The interstate exchange of criminal histories may impact on privacy protection. There is a lack of uniformity among the states regarding information disclosure policy even though there may be general agreement as to overall privacy policy. Although LEAA and the Bureau of Justice Statistics have stimulated and guided policy development, the federal regulations nevertheless leave much room for state variance. To the extent that the interchange of criminal history records between states is desirable, additional devices for uniformity and continuity are necessary.

SUMMARY TABLES

A. Survey Comparison of Changes in State Statutes/Regulations by Classification Category

The table on the following page graphically depicts comparative results of legislative survey findings for the years 1974, 1978, 1979, 1981 and 1984. The reader should note, however, that each survey year is included in the results of the succeeding survey, with the sum of the legislative activity reflected in the current survey year.

The 1984 survey shows an increase in the amount of both statutory and regulatory activity since the 1981 compendium was published. Although most increases reflect statutory additions or changes within particular categories, others indicate the increased passage of regulations. For example, since 1981 at least five states passed regulations to include "Training of Employees."

In four categories the cumulative number of state provisions for 1981 and 1984 is less than the number shown for 1979. This reflects a more stringent review and classification of state laws in the recent surveys rather than repeal of laws by the states. For example, in counting the numbers of laws that regulate training of personnel, only laws specifically directed at training in some aspect of privacy and security were counted in both the 1981 and 1984 surveys. Previously, some broad police training provisions not specifically directed at privacy and security were counted. Similarly, laws referring to "administrative" review of challenged information were also included under the category of "judicial review" in the earlier surveys. Both the 1981 and 1984 surveys counted only laws which provide for a right of appeal to a state court upon adverse agency decision concerning challenged information, rather than including appeals to an administrative body.

STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

This section of the Compendium sets forth the actual text of the state laws and implementing agency regulations enacted or amended since 1981. It is the purpose of this collection to make available to the researcher the variety of approaches and alternatives taken by the states in regard to their criminal history information practices. However, the reader is cautioned that this effort is current through January, 1984, and thus further review of a particular state's legislation may be appropriate to include the most recent enactments.

Sec. 12.62.030. Access and use. (a) Except as provided in (b) and (c) of this section, access to specified classes of criminal justice information in criminal justice information systems is available only to individual law enforcement agencies according to the specific needs of the agency under regulations established by the commission under AS 12.62.010. Criminal justice information may be used only for law enforcement purposes or for those additional lawful purposes necessary to the proper enforcement or administration of other provisions of law as the commission may prescribe by regulations established under AS 12.62.010. No criminal justice information may be disseminated to an agency before the commission determines the agency's eligibility to receive that information.

(b) Criminal justice information may be made available to qualified persons for research related to law enforcement under regulations established by the commission. These regulations must include procedures to assure the security of information and the privacy of individuals about whom information is released.

(c) A person shall have the right to inspect criminal justice information which refers to him. If a person believes the information to be inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, he may request the criminal justice agency having custody or control of the records to purge, modify or supplement them. If the agency declines to do so, or if the person believes the agency's decision to be otherwise unsatisfactory, the person may in writing request review by the commission within 60 days of the decision of the agency. The commission, its representative or agent shall, in a case in which it finds a basis for complaint, conduct a hearing at which the person may appear with counsel, present evidence, and examine and cross-examine witnesses. Written findings and conclusions shall be issued. If the record in question is found to be inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the commission shall order it to be appropriately purged, modified or supplemented by an explanatory notation. An agency or person in the state with custody, possession or control of the record shall promptly have every copy of the record altered in accordance with the commission's order. Notification of a deletion, amendment and supplementary notation shall be promptly disseminated by the commission to persons or agencies to which records in question have been communicated, as well as to the person whose records have been altered.

(d) An agency holding or receiving criminal justice information shall maintain, for a period determined by the commission to be appropriate, a listing of the agencies to which it has released or communicated the information. These listings shall be reviewed from time to time by the commission or staff members of the commission to determine whether the provisions of this chapter or any applicable regulations have been violated.

(e) Reasonable hours and places of inspection, and any additional restrictions, including fingerprinting, that are reasonably necessary both to assure the record's security and to verify the identities of those who seek to inspect them may be prescribed by published rules. Fingerprints taken under this subsection may not be transferred to another agency or used for any other purpose.

ALASKA

(f) A person or agency aggrieved by an order or decision of the commission under (c) of this section may appeal the order or decision to the superior court. The court shall in each case conduct a de novo hearing and may order the relief it determines to be necessary. If a person about whom information is maintained by an agency challenges that information in an action under this subsection as being inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the burden is on the agency to prove that the information is not inaccurate, incomplete or misleading. (§ 1 ch 161 SLA 1972)

Sec. 12.62.040. Security, updating, and purging. (a) Criminal justice information systems shall

(1) be dedicated to law enforcement purposes and be under the management and control of law enforcement agencies unless exempted under regulations prescribed under AS 12.62.010;

(2) include operating procedures approved by the commission which are reasonably designed to assure the security of the information contained in the system from unauthorized disclosure, and reasonably designed to assure that criminal offender record information in the system is regularly and accurately revised to include subsequently furnished information;

(3) include operating procedures approved by the commission which are designed to assure that information concerning an individual shall be removed from the records, based on considerations of age, nature of record, and reasonable interval following the last entry of information indicating that the individual is still under the jurisdiction of a law enforcement agency.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, any criminal justice information relating to minors which is maintained as part of a criminal justice information system must be afforded at least the same protection and is subject to the same procedural safeguards for the benefit of the individual with respect to whom the information is maintained, in matters relating to access, use and security as it would be under AS 47.10.090. (§ 1 ch 161 SLA 1972)

Sec. 12.62.050. Interstate systems for the exchange of criminal justice information. (a) The commission shall regulate the participation by all state and local criminal justice agencies in an interstate system for the exchange of criminal justice information, and shall be responsible to assure the consistency of the participation with the provisions and purposes of this chapter. The commission may not compel any criminal justice agency to participate in an interstate system.

(b) Direct access to an interstate system for the exchange of criminal justice information shall be limited to those criminal justice agencies that are expressly designated for that purpose by the commission. When the system employs telecommunications access terminals, the commission shall limit the number and placement of the terminals to those for which adequate security measures may be taken and as to which the commission may impose appropriate supervisory regulations. (§ 1 ch 161 SLA 1972)

Sec. 12.62.060. Civil and criminal remedies. (a) A person with respect to whom criminal justice information has been wilfully maintained, disseminated, or used, or intelligence information has been collected, obtained or used, in violation of this chapter has a civil cause of action against the person responsible for the violation and shall be entitled to recover actual damages and reasonable attorney fees and other reasonable litigation costs.

(b) A person who wilfully disseminates or uses criminal justice information knowing such dissemination or use to be in violation of this chapter, or who knowingly collects, obtains or uses intelligence information in violation of this chapter, upon conviction, is punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both.

(c) A good faith reliance upon the provisions of this chapter or of applicable law governing maintenance, dissemination, or use of criminal justice information, or upon rules, regulations, or procedures prescribed under this chapter is a defense to a civil or criminal action brought under this chapter. (§ 1 ch 161 SLA 1972; am § 3 ch 38 SLA 1976)

Effect of amendment. — The 1976 amendment inserted "or intelligence information has been collected, obtained or used" in subsection (a) and "or who knowingly collects, obtains or uses intelligence information in violation of this chapter" in subsection (b).

40. Agency security

6 AAC 60.030. PROTECTION OF COMPUTERIZED CRIMINAL JUSTICE INFORMATION AND LINKAGE TO INVESTIGATORY INFORMATION. (a) Criminal justice information within an automated criminal justice information system must be stored in such a manner that it cannot be destroyed, accessed, changed, or overlaid in any fashion by any person not authorized to do so under this chapter.

(b) Each automated criminal justice information system must contain a program that will prevent criminal justice information from being destroyed, accessed, changed, or overlaid in any fashion from any terminal other than one under the management and control of the criminal justice agency maintaining that information within its system.

(c) Each automated criminal justice information system must contain a classified program to detect, and store for classified output, all attempts to penetrate any criminal justice information system.

(d) The Alaska justice information system coordinator has sole authority to release, upon formal application, information and documentation relating to criminal justice information system control, including information maintained under (b) and (c) of this section. This information may not be released unless it is necessary for the maintenance or continued operation of a criminal justice information system and then only where the information will be kept continuously under appropriate security conditions.

(e) Constituent parts of the Alaska justice information system may not be linked in such a manner that a criminal history record information inquiry from one agency would result in the dissemination of information which indicates the existence in another agency of an investigatory or management file that is not a criminal case referred for prosecution.

(f) Constituent parts of the Alaska justice information system may be linked so that criminal history record information files can be accessed by an investigatory or management inquiry.

(g) The computer hardware of a criminal justice information system is exempt from the requirement of dedication to law enforcement purposes, as provided for in AS 12.62.040 (a) (1). (Eff. 10/9/72, Reg. 44; am 3/10/73, Reg. 45; am 5/29/82, Reg. 82) information, and may initiate administrative action leading to the transfer or termination of an employee if the employee has willfully violated a provision of this chapter or another security requirement established for the collection, storage, processing, and dissemination of criminal justice information;

6 AAC 60.070. RESTRICTIONS ON DISSEMINATION OF CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD INFORMATION. (a) Except as authorized in this chapter, criminal history record information may be used only for law enforcement purposes, for research related to law enforcement, or for those additional lawful purposes necessary to the proper enforcement or administration of other provisions of law. Except as authorized under (c) of this section, criminal history record information may only be disseminated to an individual, agency, or other entity associated with the agencies listed in 6 AAC 60.060, an attorney representing a criminal defendant, an individual under 6 AAC 60.080, or a research program under 6 AAC 60.090.

(b) Confirmation of the existence or nonexistence of criminal history record information may not be given to any individual agency or entity that would not be eligible to receive information under (a) of this section or another provision of this chapter.

(c) When necessary for the administration or enforcement of state, municipal, or federal law, an individual, agency, or other entity, not listed in (a) of this section, may receive criminal history record information upon the approval of the commission or, in the interim between commission meetings, the chairman of the commission. Upon appropriate approval, and before receiving information, the individual, agency, or other entity must sign a contractual agreement approved by the commission or the chairman that specifically limits the use of that data to those legitimate purposes for which access was granted, ensures the security and confidentiality of data consistent with this chapter, and provides sanctions for violations of the agreement or the provisions of this chapter. The commission will, in its discretion, at any time, disapprove dissemination to any individual, agency, or other entity and rescind any agreement entered into under this subsection. In the interim between commission meetings, the chairman of the commission may disapprove dissemination and rescind such an agreement.

(d) A criminal justice agency, other than an agency which is the source of the information, shall contact the central repository before disseminating any criminal history record information, to assure that the most up-to-date disposition data is being used. This requirement does not apply in those cases where time is of the essence and the central repository is technically incapable of responding within the necessary time period. Criminal justice agencies shall establish procedures to ensure that the potential recipient is in fact permitted to receive information under this chapter.

(e) Each criminal justice agency shall maintain listings of the individuals, agencies, or other entities, both within and outside this state, to which it has disseminated criminal history record information. Each listing must be preserved until the commission expressly authorizes its destruction. Each listing must indicate the individual, agency, or other entity to which information was disseminated, the date of the dissemination, and the individual to whom the information relates. These listings must be made available for inspection by the commission or the coordinator, and individuals exercising their rights of access and review of under AS 12.62.030(c) and 6 AAC 60.080.

ALASKA

(f) This section does not prevent a criminal justice agency from disclosing to the public criminal justice information related to the offense for which an individual is currently within the criminal justice system.

(g) This section does not apply to the dissemination of criminal history record information contained in:

(1) posters, announcements, or lists for identifying or apprehending fugitives or wanted persons;

(2) original records of entry maintained by criminal justice agencies, if the records are routinely organized on a chronological or other easily accessible basis; or

(3) records, or statutory or regulatory offenses, maintained for the purpose of regulating the issuance, suspension, revocation, or renewal of drivers', pilots', or other operators' licenses. (Eff. 10/9/72, Reg. 44; am 3/10/73, Reg. 45; am 5/29/82, Reg. 82)

6 AAC 60.080. INDIVIDUAL'S RIGHT TO INFORMATION. (a) Each individual has the right to review, in accordance with (b) of this section, criminal justice information relating to him. Each criminal justice agency shall make available facilities and personnel necessary to permit review of that information.

(b) Reviews must be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) Reviews may take place only within the facilities of a criminal justice agency and only under the supervision and in the presence of a designated employee or agent of that agency.

(2) Reviews may be permitted only after proper verification that the requesting individual is the subject of criminal justice information.

(3) This section does not prevent a criminal justice agency from refusing to allow an individual to review criminal justice information related to the offense for which the individual is currently within the criminal justice system if that information would compromise an ongoing investigation, jeopardize institutional security, endanger any individual, or constitute nondiscoverable material under applicable rules of criminal law and procedure.

(4) Each criminal justice agency shall maintain a record of each review. The supervisory employee or agent present at the review shall complete and sign each review form. The form must include the name of the reviewing individual, the date of the review, and a statement as to whether any exception was taken to the accuracy, completeness, or contents of the information reviewed.

(5) An individual exercising his right to review criminal justice information may compile a written summary or make notes of information reviewed, and may take copies of it with him. Individuals may not, however, take any copy that might reasonably be confused with the original, unless the copy

(A) is clearly established to be necessary for the purpose of challenge or correction, and then only that part of the record which is being challenged or corrected may be released;

(B) consists solely of data pertaining to an individual's operator's license application and any operating record; or

(C) is necessary for purposes of international travel, such as issuing visas and granting citizenship.

(6) Each individual exercising his right to review criminal justice information must be informed of his right to challenge the inclusion of information, under AS 12.62.030 (c) and (f).

(7) Upon written request, an individual whose record has been purged, modified, or supplemented by an explanatory notation as a result of his review under this section must be given the names of any individuals, agencies, or other entities, which are not law enforcement agencies, to whom criminal justice information has been disseminated.

(8) Each criminal justice agency that has previously disseminated criminal justice information which has subsequently been purged, modified, or supplemented by an explanatory notation as a result of a review under this section, shall give notice of the action taken to all criminal justice agencies, both within and outside the state, to which the records have been previously disseminated, unless the record disseminated contained a notation making it invalid after a specific date within 90 days after the dissemination. When furnishing notice, the criminal justice agency shall at the same time request the recipient criminal justice agency to purge, modify, or supplement the information by an explanatory notation, as appropriate. Compliance with this request must be verified through a request made of the recipient agency to furnish an updated record. If the recipient agency refuses to comply with a request to purge, modify, or supplement with an explanatory notation the information which has been previously disseminated to it, no further criminal justice information may be disseminated to it by any criminal justice agency. 6 AAC 60.090. RESEARCH USE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE INFORMATION. (a) No research program, conducted by an individual or organization not authorized to have access to criminal justice information under this chapter, may have access to that information without the written authorization from the commission or the coordinator, after formal application has been made.

(b) No criminal justice agency may permit a research program to have access to criminal history record information until the agency has been notified by the commission or the coordinator that access is authorized.

(c) Access to criminal history record information under this section will be permitted only if a research program demonstrates that threats to individual privacy which might be created by the program

(1) have been minimized by methods and procedures calculated to prevent injury or embarrassment to individuals; and

(2) are clearly outweighed by the prospective advantages accruing to the administration of justice.

(d) Access to criminal history record information under this section will be restricted in such a manner that an individual's identity will not be disclosed, unless a research program conclusively demonstrates in its formal application for access that access by name is a prerequisite to conducting the research for which application has been made.

(e) The following requirements are applicable to all research programs, and each criminal justice agency is responsible for their full and prompt enforcement:

(1) Criminal justice information which has been made available to a research program may not be used to the detriment of individuals to whom the information relates.

4. Review

If accused, who was convicted of three counts of misdemeanor manslaughter, was given erroneous advice by probation officer with regard to this section, which relates to setting aside of a conviction and restoration of civil rights and which does not apply to misdemeanor convictions, and if, as result of such advice, accused decided to forego his appeal rights, he was entitled to take a delayed appeal. State v. Stice (1975) 24 Ariz.App. 516, 540 P.2d 135.

(3) That in order to increase participation of persons in the prevention and correction of unfair information practices, opportunity for hearing and remedies must be provided.

(4) That in order to insure that information collected, stored and disseminated by government about persons is consistent with fair information practices while safe-guarding the interests of the persons and allowing the State and other governmental subdivisions to exercise their proper powers, a definition of rights and responsibilities must be established.

(b) The purpose of this Act [§§ 16-801 — 16-810] is to insure safeguards for personal privacy from government recordkeeping organizations by adherence to the following principles of information practice:

(3) Information should be appropriate and relevant to the purpose for which it has been collected.

(4) Information should not be obtained by fraudulent or unfair means.

APPLICABLE TO ALL
CJIS TERMINAL AGENCIES

Sec. 1. Purpose. These regulations are issued in compliance with Part 20 of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Order No. 601-75, Fed. Reg., Vol. 40, No. 98, Tuesday, May 20, 1975).

Subsection 20.21(g) of Part 20 requires federally-assisted criminal justice information systems to implement operational procedures to permit individuals to review criminal history record information concerning them maintained in such systems to insure that such information is accurate and complete. If, after review, the individual claims that the information is inaccurate or incomplete, the procedures must provide for an administrative review of appropriate source documents to determine whether or not the information should be corrected. If the individual is dissatisfied with the review decision, he must be afforded some means of administrative appeal to an agency other than the agency declining to correct the information. If information is found to be inaccurate or incomplete, it must be corrected and all criminal justice agencies that have received the incorrect information must be notified of the correction. Upon request, the individual must be given a list of all non-criminal justice recipients of the incorrect information.

Sec. 2. Scope. The procedures set out below apply only to "criminal history record information," which should be understood to include only notations of the arrest or detention of an identified individual and the outcome of subsequent proceedings against the individual. In general, this includes the basic computerized criminal history (CCH) and offender-based transaction statistics (OBTS) data elements, traditionally collected on "rap sheets." The regulations do not apply to other types of information contained in criminal justice agency reports, such as intelligence or investigative information

ARKANSAS

(suspected criminal activity, associates, hangouts, financial information, ownership of property and vehicles, for example) except to the extent that criminal history record information is contained in such reports. Thus, if a rap sheet is contained in an intelligence file, the rap sheet must be corrected pursuant to the procedures set out below; but the intelligence data is not subject to review by the individual.

Sec. 3. Review by Individuals. Each terminal agency shall make available facilities and personnel necessary to permit review by individuals of criminal history record information concerning them. Reviews shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) Reviews shall take place only within the facilities of the agency and under the supervision and in the presence of an employee designated for that purpose. The agency may limit the hours for such reviews to normal daylight business hours. No fee may be charged for any such review, but a charge, not to exceed $5.00, may be made to recover the actual costs of any copies of records provided to the individual.

(b) Reviews shall be permitted only after verification that the requesting individual is the subject of the records he seeks to review. A rolled set of ten fingerprints shall be required for such verification. A review may be conducted on behalf of an individual by his attorney or other representative if such person presents adequate verification of the identity of the subject individual, including fingerprints, and a notarized statement from the individual authorizing him to conduct the review.

(c) A record of each review shall be maintained by the agency on Form No. 1 provided with these regulations. The form shall be completed and signed by the supervising employee present at the review and by the reviewing individual.

(d) If the criminal history record information requested by the individual is maintained at the agency, a copy of such information shall promptly be provided for the individual's review. If the agency has no criminal history record information concerning the individual in its files, it shall forward a copy of the request form, together with the fingerprints, to the Bureau of Identification of the Arkansas State Police. The Bureau of Identification shall promptly conduct a search of its files and shall cause a search to be made of the automated files of the Criminal Justice and Highway Safety Information Center. If any criminal history record information concerning the individual is discovered, a copy of such information shall promptly be returned to the requesting agency, which shall notify the individual that the record is available for review. This notification shall take place no later than 15 days after the individual requests a review of his record.

(e) The reviewing individual may make and retain a written summary or notes in his own handwriting of the information. He shall be informed of his right to submit written exceptions as to the maintenance, completeness or accuracy of the information. If the individual does not wish to challenge the information, he may be asked, but may not be required, to verify by his signature the accuracy and completeness of the information.

Sec. 4. Administrative Review. Should any individual wish to challenge the maintenance, accuracy or completeness of criminal history record information concerning him, he shall do so within 10 days after the review of such information. Such challenge shall be recorded on Form No. 2 provided with these regulations. The individual shall indicate on the form the information he believes to be inaccurate, incomplete or improperly maintained, and shall state what he believes to be a correct and complete version of the information or why he believes the information should not be maintained. The reviewing individual shall attest by his signature that the exceptions are made in good faith and that the facts set forth are true to the best of his knowledge and belief. Upon his request, the individual shall be provided with a copy of that part of the information that he has challenged. Such copy shall be marked: "THIS COPY IS PROVIDED FOR PURPOSES OF REVIEW

AND CHALLENGE. ANY USE FOR ANY OTHER PURPOSE IS A VIOLATION OF SEC. 3771 OF TITLE 42 OF THE UNITED STATES CODE."

An administrative review of the challenge shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The challenge form shall be forwarded to a review officer designated for that purpose in each agency. If the information challenged related to criminal proceedings that occurred in the political jurisdiction in which the reviewing agency is located, the review officer shall cause to be conducted an appropriate audit of source documents and other information necessary to determine the accuracy of the exceptions. If the information challenged related to criminal proceedings in another jurisdiction, a copy of the challenge form shall be sent to the Bureau of Identification of the Arkansas State Police. The Bureau shall promptly forward the form to the criminal justice agency, whether within or outside of the State of Arkansas, that originated the information that is the subject of the challenge. The Bureau shall request the agency to conduct an audit to determine the accuracy of the exceptions, to notify the Bureau within 30 days of the results of such audit, and to provide the Bureau with certified copies of the source documents on which the agency's decision is based. The Bureau shall promptly forward this information to the agency where the review took place. Should any agency over which the Bureau has no administrative authority fail to respond to the Bureau's request, the Bureau shall so notify the agency where the review took place. That agency shall notify the individual that he must pursue the challenge directly with the agency which originated the challenged information.

(b) The review officer shall notify the individual in writing of the decision concerning the challenge. Form No. 3 provided with these regulations shall be used for this purpose. The individual shall be informed that, if he is not satisfied with the decision, he may, within 10 days, request an administrative appeal to the Office of the Attorney General of the State of Arkansas.

Sec. 5. Administrative Appeal. Should any individual elect an administrative appeal, the appeal shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The appeal shall be requested on Form No. 4 provided with these regulations. A copy of the form, together with copies of any appropriate source documents provided by the individual or by any criminal justice agency, shall be forwarded to the Office of the Attorney General.

(b) The Attorney General or a member of his office designated to handle such appeals, shall review the request form and the statements and documents accompanying it and shall determine whether the challenged record is inaccurate, incomplete or improperly maintained. If he considers it necessary, the Attorney General or his designee may request additional information from any criminal justice agency, or may, in his sole discretion, order a hearing for the purpose of obtaining additional information. The order for such hearing shall state where the hearing shall be held, who shall conduct the hearing, whether the individual may appear, whether he may be represented by counsel and other procedures governing the conduct of such hearing.

(c) The Attorney General's decision on the appeal shall be recorded on Form No. 4, together with a statement of any relief to which the individual is entitled. Copies of the form shall be sent to the Bureau of Identification and to the criminal justice agency from which the appeal originated. The latter agency shall notify the individual of the Attorney General's decision and shall take any necessary action to implement the decision.

Sec. 6. Correction and Notification. Should it be determined as a result of a review or appeal conducted under these regulations that challenged criminal history record information is inaccurate, incomplete or improperly maintained, the information shall be appropriately deleted, supplemented or corrected in the files of the Bureau of Identification, the Criminal Justice and Highway Safety Information System and any criminal justice agencies involved in the challenge procedures. In addition, such agencies shall give notice of the corrective action to any criminal justice agencies to which the incorrect information has been disseminated within the one-year period prior to the date of the challenge, and shall direct such agencies to correct their files and to give appropriate notice to other agencies to which they have disseminated the incorrect information within the previous year.

Sec. 7. List of Noncriminal Justice Recipients. Upon request by any individual whose record has been corrected pursuant to a challenge under these regulations, he shall be given a list of all noncriminal justice agencies or individuals to whom the incorrect information has been disseminated within the one-year period prior to the date of the challenge. This list shall be compiled by the criminal justice agency where the review and challenge took place, the criminal justice agency which originated the corrected information, the Criminal Justice and Highway Safety Information System and the Bureau of Identification, as appropriate.

Sec. 8. Administrative Penalties.

(a) Any failure to implement the provisions of these regulations by any employee or officer of any criminal justice agency subject to the regulations shall be punished by suspension, discharge, reduction in grade, transfer or such other administrative penalties as the agency shall deem appropriate.

(b) If any criminal justice agency subject to these regulations is found by the Bureau of Identification or the Criminal Justice and Highway Safety Information System to have wilfully and repeatedly failed to implement the procedures specified in these regulations, dissemination of criminal history record information to such agency may be terminated or suspended for such periods and on such terms as the Bureau of Identification and the Criminal Justice and Highway Safety Information System may deem appropriate.

DIRECTIVE ON INMATE RECORD REVIEW

(To be Issued by Director of Corrections)

Sec. 1. Purpose. This directive is issued in compliance with Part 20 of Chapter 1 of Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Order No. 601-75, Fed. Reg., Vol. 40, No. 98, Tuesday, May 20, 1975).

Subsection 20.21(g) of Part 20 requires federally-assisted criminal justice information systems to implement operational procedures to permit individuals to review criminal history record information concerning them maintained in such systems to insure that such information is accurate and complete. If, after review, the individual claims that the information is inaccurate or incomplete, the procedures must provide for an administrative review of appropriate source documents to determine whether or not the information should be corrected. If the individual is dissatisfied with the review decision, he must be afforded some means of administrative appeal to an agency other than the agency declining to correct the information. If information is found to be inaccurate or incomplete, it must be corrected and all criminal justice agencies that have received the incorrect information must be notified of the correction. Upon request, the individual must be given a list of all noncriminal justice recipients of the incorrect information.

Sec. 2. Scope. The procedures set out below apply only to "criminal history record information," which should be understood to include only notations of the arrest or detention of an identified individual and the outcome of subsequent proceedings against the individual. In general, this includes the basic computerized criminal history (CCH) and offender-based transaction statistics (OBTS) data elements, traditionally collected on "rap sheets." The regulations do not apply to other types of information contained in criminal justice agency reports, such as intelligence or investigative information or correctional treatment or program reports, except to the extent that criminal history record information is contained in such reports. Thus, if a rap sheet is contained in a presentence report or a correctional treatment report, the rap sheet information must be corrected pursuant to the procedures set out below; but the presentence and treatment reports are not subject to review by the individual.

Sec. 3. Review by Inmate. Arrangements have been made to inform every inmate in the Arkansas correctional system of the right to review any criminal history record information concerning him on file in the Department of Corrections or in the Bureau of Identification of the Arkansas State Police. Reviews shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) Reviews shall take place only under the supervision of and in the presence of an employee of the Department designated for that purpose. The Department may limit the hours for such reviews to normal daylight business hours. No fee may be charged for any such review, but a charge, not to exceed $5.00, may be made to recover the actual costs of any copies of records provided to the inmate.

(b) Reviews shall be permitted only after verification that the inmate is the subject of the records he seeks to review. A rolled set of ten fingerprints shall be required for such verification.

(c) A record of each review shall be maintained by the Department on Form No. 1 provided with this directive. The form shall be completed and signed by the supervising employee present at the review and by the reviewing inmate.

(d) The inmate shall be permitted to make and retain a written summary or notes in his own handwriting of the information. He shall be informed of his right to submit written exceptions as to the maintenance, completeness or accuracy of the information. If the inmate does not wish to challenge the information, he may be asked, but may not be required, to verify by his signature the accuracy and completeness of the information.

Sec. 4. Administrative Review. Should any inmate wish to challenge the maintenance, accuracy or completeness of criminal history record information concerning him, he shall do so within 10 days after the review of such information. Such challenge shall be recorded on Form No. 2 provided with this directive. The inmate shall indicate on the form the information he believes to be inaccurate, incomplete or improperly maintained, and shall state what he believes to be a correct and complete version of the information or why he believes the information should not be maintained. The inmate shall attest by his signature that the exceptions are made in good faith and that the facts set forth are true to the best of his knowledge and belief. Upon his request, he shall be provided with a copy of that part of the information that he has challenged. Such copy shall be marked: "THIS COPY IS PROVIDED FOR PURPOSES OF REVIEW AND CHALLENGE. ANY USE FOR ANY OTHER PURPOSE IS A VIOLATION OF SEC. 3771 OF TITLE 42 OF THE UNITED STATES CODE."

An administrative review of the challenge shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The challenge form shall be forwarded to a review officer designated for that purpose in the Department. If the accuracy of the exceptions taken can be determined from records and information maintained within the Department of Corrections or available to the Department, the review officer shall cause to be conducted an appropriate audit of source documents and other information necessary to determine the accuracy of the exceptions. If the information challenged relates to criminal proceedings in another jurisdiction or other matters as to which the Department has no knowledge or records, a copy of the challenge form shall be sent to the Bureau of Identification of the Arkansas State Police. The Bureau shall promptly forward the form to the criminal justice agency, whether within or outside of the State of Arkansas; that originated the information that is the subject of the challenge. The Bureau shall request the agency to conduct an audit to determine the accuracy of the exceptions, to notify the Bureau within 30 days of the results of such audit, and to provide the Bureau with certified copies of the source documents on which the agency's decision is based. The Bureau shall promptly forward this information to the Department of Corrections. Should any agency over which the Bureau has no administrative authority fail to respond to the Bureau's request, the Bureau shall so notify the Department. The Department shall notify the inmate that he must pursue the challenge directly with the agency which originated the challenged information. He shall be provided with the name and address of that agency.

ARKANSAS

(b) The review officer shall notify the inmate in writing of the decision concerning the challenge. Form No. 3 provided with this directive shall be used for this purpose. The inmate shall be informed that, if he is not satisfied with the decision, he may, within 10 days, request an administrative appeal to the Office of the Attorney General of the State of Arkansas.

Sec. 5. Administrative Appeal. Should any inmate elect an administrative appeal, the appeal shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The appeal shall be requested on Form No. 4 provided with this directive. A copy of the form, together with copies of any appropriate source documents or other information, shall be forwarded to the Office of the Attorney General.

(b) The Attorney General or a member of his office designated to handle such appeals, shall review the request form and the statements and documents accompanying it and shall determine whether the challenged record is inaccurate, incomplete or improperly maintained. If he considers it necessary, the

Attorney General or his designee may request additional information from any criminal justice agency, or may, in his sole discretion, order a hearing for the purpose of obtaining additional information. The order for such hearing shall state where the hearing shall be held, who shall conduct the hearing, whether the inmate may appear, whether he may be represented by counsel and other procedures governing the conduct of such hearing.

(c) The Attorney General's decision on the appeal shall be recorded on Form No. 4, together with a statement of any relief to which the inmate is entitled. Copies of the form shall be sent to the Bureau of Identification and to the Department of Corrections. The Department shall notify the inmate of the Attorney General's decision and shall take all appropriate action to implement the decision.

Sec. 6. Correction and Notification. Should it be determined as a result of a review or appeal conducted under this directive that challenged criminal history record information is inaccurate, incomplete, or improperly maintained, the information shall be appropriately deleted, supplemented or corrected in the files of the Department of Corrections, Bureau of Identification, the Criminal Justice and Highway Safety Information System and any criminal justice agencies involved in the challenge procedures. In addition, such departments and agencies shall give notice of the corrective action to any criminal justice agencies to which the incorrect information has disseminated within the one-year period prior to the date of the challenge, and shall direct such agencies to correct their files and to give appropriate notice to other agencies to which they have disseminated the incorrect information within the previous year.

Sec. 7. List of Noncriminal Justice Recipients. Upon request by any inmate whose record has been corrected pursuant to a challenge under this directive, he shall be given a list of all noncriminal justice agencies or individuals to whom the incorrect information has been disseminated within the one-year period prior to the date of the challenge. This list shall be compiled by the Department of Corrections, the criminal justice agency which originated the corrected information, the Criminal Justice and Highway Safety Information System and the Bureau of Identification, as appropriate.

Sec. 8. Administrative Penalties. Any failure to implement the provisions of this directive by any employee or officer of the Department of Corrections shall be punished by suspension, discharge, reduction in grade, transfer or such other administrative penalties as shall be deemed appropriate.

(9) Any public utility as defined in Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, when access is needed in order to assist in employing current or prospective employees who in the course of their employment may be seeking entrance to private residences. The information provided shall be limited to the record of convictions and any arrest for which the person is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial.

CALIFORNIA

If the Attorney General supplies the data pursuant to this paragraph, the Attorney General shall furnish a copy of the data to the current or prospective employee to whom the data relates.

Any information obtained from the state summary criminal history is confidential and the receiving public utility shall not disclose its contents, other than for the purpose for which it was acquired. The state summary criminal history information in the possession of the public utility and all copies made from it shall be destroyed not more than 30 days after employment or promotion or transfer is denied or granted, except for those cases where a current or prospective employee is out on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, in which case the state summary criminal history information and all copies shall be destroyed not more than 30 days after the case is resolved.

A violation of any of the provisions of this paragraph is a misdemeanor, and shall give the current or prospective employee who is injured by the violation a cause of action against the public utility to recover damages proximately caused by the violations. Any public utility's request for state summary criminal history information for purposes of employing current or prospective employees who may be seeking entrance to private residences in the course of their employment shall be deemed a "compelling need" as required to be shown in this subdivision.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as imposing any duty upon public utilities to request state summary criminal history information on any current or prospective employees.

The college or university may require the convicted felon to be fingerprinted, and any inquiry to the department under this section shall include the convicted felon's fingerprints and any other information specified by the department.

(d) Whenever an authorized request for state summary criminal history information pertains to a person whose fingerprints are on file with the Department of Justice and the department has no criminal history of that person, and the information is to be used for employment, licensing, or certification purposes, the fingerprint card accompanying such request for information, if any, may be stamped "no criminal record" and returned to the person or entity making the request.

(e) Whenever state summary criminal history information is furnished as the result of an application and is to be used for employment, licensing or certification purposes, the Department of Justice may charge the person or entity making the request a fee which it determines to be sufficient to reimburse the department for the cost of furnishing such information. In addition, the Department of Justice may add a surcharge to the fee to fund maintenance and improvements to the systems from which the information is obtained. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any person or entity required to pay a fee to the department for information received under this section may charge the applicant a fee sufficient to reimburse the person or entity for such expense. (f) Whenever there is a conflict, the processing of criminal fingerprints and fingerprints of applicants for security guard or alarm agent registrations or firearms qualification permits submitted pursuant to Section 7514 of the Business and Professions Code shall take priority over the processing of applicant fingerprints.

(g) It is not a violation of this section to disseminate statistical or research information obtained from a record, provided that the identity of the subject of the record is not disclosed.

(h) It is not a violation of this section to include information obtained from a record in (1) a transcript or record of a judicial or administrative proceeding or (2) any other public record when the inclusion of the information in the public record is authorized by a court, statute, or decisional law.

The 1978 amendment substituted in the first sentence of the first paragraph "disposition and other reports required in this article and in Sections 13151 and 13152" for "disposition reports required in this article"; deleted in the second sentence of the first paragraph "disposition" preceding "reports"; substituted in the last paragraph "the reports required in this article nor those required in Sections 13151 and 13152" for "the disposition reports nor the disposition labels required in this article"; and deleted a former second paragraph, which previously read:

"The disposition reports required in this article shall be forwarded to the department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation within 30 days after the release of the arrested or detained person or the termination of court proceedings".

Amendment of this section by § 9.5 of Stats.1978, c. 152, p. 376, failed to become operative under the provisions of § 13.5 of that Act.

Such person or agency shall, within 30 days of receipt of such written request for clarification, review its information and forward to the department the results of such review.

(b) If such agency concurs in the allegations of inaccuracy or incompleteness in the record, and finds that the error is material, it shall correct its record and shall so inform the department, which shall correct the record accordingly. The department shall inform the applicant of its correction of the record under this subdivision within 30 days. The department and the agency shall notify all persons and agencies to which they have disseminated the incorrect record in the past 90 days of the correction of the record, and the applicant shall be informed that such notification has been given. #### REPEAL

Chapter 1.5 shall remain operative only until the Federal Bureau of Investigation reinstates its national fingerprint services. See note under § 11145.

§ 11145. Contracts; independent vendors

In lieu of a national check of fingerprint records conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation through the California Department of Justice, state agencies shall contract with an independent vendor to conduct a national search of the individuals' criminal records, as provided in this chapter. (Added by Stats.1982, c. 1222, p. —, § 2, urgency, eff. Sept. 22, 1982.)

1982 Legislation

Sections 1 and 3 of Stats.1982, c. 1222, p. —, provide:

"Sec. 1. The Legislature reaffirms its commitment to protecting the youth of California by searching, on a national basis, the criminal records of prospective state and local government employees who will be working with children.

"The Legislature recognizes that this national search has, until recently, been conducted using the services of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that these services have been temporarily suspended by the Reagan administration.

"Therefore, the Legislature declares that an alternative system for conducting a national search of criminal records must be established and used until the Federal Bureau of Investigation once again provides such services.

"Sec. 3. The provisions contained in this act shall remain operative only until the Federal Bureau of Investigation reinstates its national fingerprint services."

In general California arrestee, who was released from incarceration when charges were dropped, was not entitled to expungement of arrest record on ground that maintenance and dissemination of arrest records of persons who are not convicted of and do not plead guilty or nolo contendere to any crime arising from the arrest is violative of constitutional right of privacy, due process and presumption of innocence, notwithstanding that the matters complained of are required by state legislation or that refusal to expunge impaired other interests, including employment possibilities or that plaintiff might not have pled a state cause of action for defamation. #### § 1203.45. Petition for order sealing records; exceptions; reimbursement of city and county

(a) In any case in which a person was under the age of 18 years at the time of commission of a misdemeanor and is eligible for, or has previously received, the relief provided by Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a, that person, in a proceeding under Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a, or a separate proceeding, may petition the court for an order sealing the record of conviction and other official records in the case, including records of arrests resulting in the criminal proceeding and records relating to other offenses charged in the accusatory pleading, whether defendant was acquitted or charges were dismissed. If the court finds that the person was under the age of 18 at the time of the commission of the misdemeanor, and is eligible for relief under Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a or has previously received such relief, it may issue its order granting the relief prayed for. Thereafter the conviction, arrest, or other proceeding shall be deemed not to have occurred and the petitioner may answer accordingly any question relating to their occurrence.

(b) This section applies to convictions which occurred before, as well as those which occur after, the effective date of this section.

(c) This section shall not apply to offenses for which registration is required under Section 290, to violations of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, or to misdemeanor violations of the Vehicle Code relating to operation of a vehicle or of any local ordinance relating to operation, standing, stopping, or parking of a motor vehicle.

(d) This section does not apply to a person convicted of more than one offense, whether the second or additional convictions occurred in the same action in which the conviction as to which relief is sought occurred or in another action, except in the following cases:

(1) One of the offenses includes the other or others.

(2) The other conviction or convictions were for the following:

(i) Misdemeanor violations of Chapters 1 (commencing with Section 21000) to 9 (commencing with Section 22500), inclusive, or Chapters 12 (commencing with Section 23100) to 14 (commencing with Section 23340), inclusive, of Division 11 of the Vehicle Code, other than Section 23103, 23104, 23152, 23153, or 23220.

(ii) Violation of any local ordinance relating to the operation, stopping, standing, or parking of a motor vehicle.

(3) The other conviction or convictions consisted of any combination of paragraphs (1) and (2).

(e) This section shall apply in any case in which a person was under the age of 21 at the time of the commission of an offense as to which this section is made applicable if that offense was committed prior to March 7, 1973.

(f) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

(g) A person who petitions for an order sealing a record under this section may be required to reimburse the county for the cost of services rendered at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors not to exceed sixty dollars ($60), and to reimburse any city for the cost of services rendered at a rate to be determined by the city council not to exceed sixty dollars ($60). Ability to make this reimbursement shall be determined by the court using the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 987.8 and shall not be a prerequisite to a person's eligibility under this section. ardless of presumption, inherent in this section, of such intent. People v. Pearson (1952) 244 P.2d 35, 111 C.A.2d 9.

In prosecution of mayor's secretary and another for aiding, abetting and compelling city civil service department manager and others to alter and falsify examination grade records, police officer's testimony that certain person told witness that there was preferred list of officers friendly to mayor's administration, that defendant secretary agreed and said that friends of administration would be taken care of, and that such person said he might be able to help witness in examination for position of sergeant, was insufficient corroboration of accomplices' testimony as not tending to connect defendants with offenses charged without interpretation and direction furnished by accomplice manager's testimony. People v. Shaw (1941) 112 P.2d 241, 17 C.2d 778.

In prosecution of mayor's secretary and another for aiding, abetting, and compelling city civil service department manager and other employees to alter and falsify civil service records, such other employees' testimony, tending to connect defendants with offenses charged only when interpreted by and read with testimony of manager, who was admitted accomplice, was insufficient to corroborate his testimony, even if such employees were not accomplices. Id.

In prosecution of mayor's secretary and another for aiding, abetting, and compelling city civil service department manager and others to alter and falsify examination grade records, testimony of retired fire department battalion chief as to his agreement with defendant secretary to place men friendly to mayor's administration in fire department civil service positions and means used to accomplish such purpose was insufficient corroboration of accomplices' testimony as not tending to establish crimes charged or connect defendants therewith, unless read with and interpreted by accomplice manager's testimony. Id.

§ 6201. Theft, destruction, falsification, or removal by person other than officer custodian

Every person not an officer referred to in Section 6200, who is guilty of any of the acts specified in that section, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(Stats.1943, c. 134, p. 992, § 6201. Amended by Stats.1976, c. 1139, p. 5077, § 58, operative July 1, 1977.)

In prosecution of mayor's secretary and another for aiding, abetting, and compelling city civil service department manager and others to alter and falsify civil service records, evidence was sufficient to make out case of felony of willful alteration of records in public officer's custody in violation of Penal Code, not merely case of misdemeanor under city charter provision concerning obstructions of municipal civil service by preventing fair examinations and falsifying original records. Id.

In prosecution of a clerk, for district attorney and county public administrator, for mutilating, altering and falsifying register of probate proceedings kept by public administrator, evidence that public administrator had made entries in register with respect to property coming into administrator's possession as administrator of certain estates, that defendant had cut out and destroyed pages of the register concerning two of the estates and had changed figures showing cash received in another estate, warranted conviction. People v. McAtee (1939) 95 P.2d 471, 35 C.A.2d 329.

22. Orders of court

An order requiring removal of improperly classified material from files of public employees for the purpose of reclassification to be followed by destruction would not violate this section. California Teachers Ass'n v. Nielsen (1978) 149 Cal.Rptr. 728, 87 C.A.3d 25.

23. Review

Since unconstitutionality of statute is not ground for new trial, question whether this section providing that officer having custody of record, map, book or paper, filed or deposited in public office or placed in his hands for any purpose is punishable by imprisonment for removing it, will not be considered on appeal from order denying motion for new trial after conviction of violating this section. People v. Pearson (1952) 244 P.2d 35, 111 C.A.2d 9.

§ 6253.5. Initiative, referendum and recall petitions deemed not public records; examination by proponents

Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 6252 and 6253, statewide, county, city, and district initiative, referendum, and recall petitions and all memoranda prepared by the county clerks in the examination of such petitions indicating which registered voters have signed particular petitions shall not be deemed to be public records and shall not be open to inspection except by the public officer or public employees who have the duty of receiving, examining or preserving such petitions or who are responsible for the preparation of such memoranda and, if the petition is found to be insufficient, by the proponents of the petition and such representatives of the proponents as may be designated by the proponents in writing in order to determine which signatures were disqualified and the reasons therefor; provided, however, that the Attorney General, the Secretary of State, the Fair Political Practices Commission, a district attorney, and a city attorney shall be permitted to examine such material upon approval of the appropriate superior court.

If the proponents of a petition are permitted to examine the petition and memoranda, such examination shall commence not later than 21 days after certification of insufficiency.

As used in this section "proponents of the petition" means the following:

(a) For statewide initiative and referendum measures, the person or persons who submit a draft of a petition proposing the measure to the Attorney General with a request that he prepare a title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure.

(b) For other initiative and referenda on measures, the person or persons who publish a notice of intention to circulate petitions, or, where publication is not required, who file petitions with the clerk.

(c) For recall measures, the person or persons defined in Section 29711 of the Elections Code.

§ 6254. Exemption of particular records

Except as provided in Section 6254.7, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require disclosure of records that are any of the following:

(a) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intra-agency memoranda which are not retained by the public agency in the ordinary course of business, provided that the public interest in withholding such records clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

(b) Records pertaining to pending litigation to which the public agency is a party, or to claims made pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code, until such litigation or claim has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

(c) Personnel, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(d) Contained in or related to:

(1) Applications filed with any state agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of the issuance of securities or of financial institutions, including, but not limited to, banks, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, credit unions, and insurance companies.

(2) Examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of any state agency referred to in subdivision (1).

(3) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intra-agency communications prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of any state agency referred to in subdivision (1).

(4) Information received in confidence by any state agency referred to in subdivision (1).

(e) Geological and geophysical data, plant production data and similar information relating to utility systems development, or market or crop reports, which are obtained in confidence from any person.

(f) Records of complaints to or investigations conducted by, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice, and any state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local agency for correctional, law enforcement or licensing purposes, except that local police agencies shall disclose the names and addresses of persons involved in, or witnesses other than confidential informants to, the incident, the description of any property involved, the date, time, and location of the incident, all diagrams, statements of the parties involved in the incident, the statements of all witnesses, other than confidential informants, to the persons involved in an incident, or an authorized representative thereof, an insurance carrier against which a claim has been or might be made, and any person suffering bodily injury or property damage as the result of the incident caused by arson, burglary, fire, explosion, robbery, vandalism, or a crime of violence as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 13960, unless the disclosure would endanger the safety of a witness or other person involved in the investigation, disclosure would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation.

(g) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment, or academic examination, except as provided for in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 99150) of Part 65 of the Education Code.

(h) The contents of real estate appraisals, engineering or feasibility estimates and evaluations made for or by the state or local agency relative to the acquisition of property, or to prospective public supply and construction contracts, until such time as all of the property has been acquired or all of the contract agreement obtained, provided, however, the law of eminent domain shall not be affected by this provision.

(i) Information required from any taxpayer in connection with the collection of local taxes which is received in confidence and the disclosure of the information to other persons would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying such information.

(j) Library circulation records kept for the purpose of identifying the borrower of items available in libraries, and library and museum materials made or acquired and presented solely for reference or exhibition purposes. The exemption in this subdivision shall not apply to records of fines imposed on such borrowers.

(k) Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to provisions of federal or state law, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege.

(l) Correspondence of and to the Governor or employees of the Governor's office or in the custody of or maintained by the Governor's legal affairs secretary, provided public records shall not be transferred to the custody of the Governor's legal affairs secretary to evade the disclosure provisions of this chapter.

(m) In the custody or maintained by the Legislative Counsel.

(n) Statements of personal worth or personal financial data required by a licensing agency and filed by an applicant with such licensing agency to establish his personal qualification for the license, certificate, or permit applied for.

(o) Financial data contained in applications for financing under Division 27 (commencing with Section 44500) of the Health and Safety Code, where an authorized officer of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority determines that disclosure of such financial data would be competitively injurious to the applicant and such data is required in order to obtain guarantees from the United States Small Business Administration. The California Pollution Control Financing Authority shall adopt rules for review of individual requests for confidentiality under this section and for making available to the public those portions of an application which are subject to disclosure under this chapter.

(p) Records of the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, and the California State University and Colleges prepared for or during collective bargaining sessions, or minutes of such sessions.

Nothing in this section is to be construed as preventing any agency from opening its records concerning the administration of the agency to public inspection, unless disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

Historical Note

The 1970 amendments inserted the exception in the introduction; inserted subd. (n); and rewrote subd. (d) which prior thereto read "Trade secrets."

Stats.1970, c. 1231, p. 2158, § 13, provided: "It is the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this act shall not be construed as removing the privilege of Section 1040 of the Evidence Code in any hearing or action in which the provisions of the California Public Records Act are in issue."

Effect of amendment of section by two or more acts at the same session of the legislature, see Government Code § 9605.

Amendment of this section by § 11 of Stats.1970, c. 1231, p. 2155, failed to become operative under the provisions of § 14 of that Act.

Amendment of this section by § 1 of Stats.1970, c. 1295, p. 2395, failed to become operative under the provisions of § 15 of that Act.

The 1975 amendments substituted "Correspondence of and to" for "In the custody of or maintained by" and substituted "or in the custody of or maintained by the Governor's legal affairs secretary" for "employed directly in his office" in subd. (l).

The 1976 amendment inserted the exception at the end of subd. (f).

The 1977 amendments in subd. (f) following "Department of Justice, and any state or local police agency" inserted "or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency;" and inserted subd. (o).

The 1978 amendments inserted the exception at the end of subd. (g) and inserted subd. (p).

Sections 5 and 6 of Stats.1978, c. 1217, provide:

"Sec. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 1091 [Stats.1978, c. 744] are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 6254 [so amended] of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 1091, that Section 6254 of the Government Code as amended by Section 3 of this act, shall remain operative until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 1091, and that on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 1091 Section 6254 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 3 of this act, be further amended in the form set forth in Section 4 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 6254 proposed by Assembly Bill No. 1091. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 1091 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, and Assembly Bill No. 1091 is chaptered before this bill and amends Section 6254, Section 4 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 1091.

"Sec. 6. It is the intent of the Legislature that the information disclosure requirements of this act be applicable to the entire testing year ending in 1979."

Amendment of this section by § 4.5 of Stats.1978, c. 744, failed to become operative under the provisions of § 7 of that Act.

The 1980 amendment inserted "any of the following" in the introduction to the section; substituted periods for semicolons at the end of subdivisions and subparagraphs throughout the section; and rewrote subd. (j).

light on issues in case, and in particular it has no interest in convicting on testimony of witnesses who have not been as vigorously cross-examined and as thoroughly impeached as evidence permits. In re Ricky B. (1978) 146 Cal.Rptr. 828, 82 C. A.3d 106.

Police department records concerning investigation of citizen complaints against policemen are subject to discovery and hence disclosure where good cause is shown in both criminal and civil trials. Berkeley Police Ass'n v. City of Berkeley (1977) 143 Cal.Rptr. 255, 76 C.A.3d 931.

Church whose actions sought disclosure of any records with Los Angeles police department concerning the church's activities and activities of its founder to be declared public records open to public inspection and in all likelihood such records were exempt from disclosure under the specific exemption of this section which provided for records of complaints to or investigations conducted by or records of intelligence information or security procedures of any local police agency, church was not entitled to compel answers to interrogatories seeking information about the records. Los Angeles Police Dept. v. Superior Court for Los Angeles County (1977) 135 Cal.Rptr. 575, 65 C. A.3d 661.

47. Discretion of court

In making discovery order, in actions for personal injury and wrongful death arising out of collapse of bridge, requiring division of industrial safety to respond to interrogatories and depositions concerning reports and investigations relating to the bridge and to produce documents containing information relating to the bridge, trial court did not abuse its discretion, since the public interest would be better served by the disclosure ordered than by no disclosure. State, Division of Indus. Safety v. Superior Court, for Los Angeles County (1974) 117 Cal.Rptr. 726, 43 C. A.3d 778.

48. Questions of law or fact

Where fundamental question presented at trial in action for disclosure of records of state highway patrol was propriety of the claim of exemption from disclosure, resolution of question was dependent on content of material, viewed in light of this section, and thus question was one of law, not fact, and as such, findings were not required. Northern California Police Practices Project v. Craig (1979) 153 Cal.Rptr. 173, 90 C.A.3d 116.

49. Findings

Proceeding for disclosure of records of state highway patrol was special proceeding authorized by § 6258, and thus findings were not required since § 6258 failed to provide for findings. Northern California Police Practices Project v. Craig (1979) 153 Cal.Rptr. 173, 90 C.A.3d 116.

50. Review

Inasmuch as orders of probate court cutting off public access to and sealing probate files in an estate did not purport to operate as a direct restraint on newsmen from publishing any information, the "clear and present danger test" did not apply in determining propriety of the orders, and the issue on review was the reasonableness of the sealing and unsealing orders under circumstances of the case. Matter of Hearst's Estate (1977) 136 Cal.Rptr. 821, 67 C.A.3d 777.

§ 6254.7. Air pollution data; public records; notices and orders to building owners; trade secrets

(a) All information, analyses, plans, or specifications that disclose the nature, extent, quantity, or degree of air contaminants or other pollution which any article, machine, equipment, or other contrivance will produce, which any air pollution control district or any other state or local agency or district requires any applicant to provide before such applicant builds, erects, alters, replaces, operates, sells, rents, or uses such article, machine, equipment, or other contrivance, are public records.

(b) All air or other pollution monitoring data, including data compiled from stationary sources, are public records.

(c) All records of notices and orders directed to the owner of any building of violations of housing or building codes, ordinances, statutes, or regulations which constitute violations of standards provided in Section 1941.1 of the Civil Code, and records of subsequent action with respect to such notices and orders, are public records.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), trade secrets are not public records under this section. "Trade secrets," as used in this section, may include, but are not limited to, any formula, plan, pattern, process, tool, mechanism, compound, procedure, production data, or compilation of information which is not patented, which is known only to certain individuals within a commercial concern who are using it to fabricate, produce, or compound an article of trade or a service having commercial value and which gives its user an opportunity to obtain a business advantage over competitors who do not know or use it.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all air pollution emission data, including those emission data which constitute trade secrets as defined in subdivision (d), are public records. Data used to calculate emission data are not emission data for the purposes of this subdivision and data which constitute trade secrets and which are used to calculate emission data are not public records.

(Added by Stats.1970, c. 1295, p. 2397, § 2. Amended by Stats.1971, c. 1601, p. 3448, § 1; Stats.1972, c. 400, p. 722, § 1; Stats.1973, c. 186, p. 488, § 1, eff. July 9, 1973.)

Historical Note

The 1971 amendment inserted "or other pollution" in subds. (a) and (b), and inserted "or any other state or local agency or district" in subd. (a).

The 1973 amendment inserted the exception at the beginning of subd. (d) and added subd. (e).

The 1972 amendment inserted subd. (c).

§ 6259. Order of court; contempt; court costs and attorney fees

Whenever it is made to appear by verified petition to the superior court of the county where the records or some part thereof are situated that certain public records are being improperly withheld from a member of the public, the court shall order the officer or person charged with withholding the records to disclose the public record or show cause why he should not do so. The court shall decide the case after examining the record in camera, if permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 915 of the Evidence Code, papers filed by the parties and such oral argument and additional evidence as the court may allow.

If the court finds that the public official's decision to refuse disclosure is not justified under the provisions of Section 6254 or 6255, he shall order the public official to make the record public. If the judge determines that the public official was justified in refusing to make the record public, he shall return the item to the public official without disclosing its content with an order supporting the decision refusing disclosure. Any person who fails to obey the order of the court shall be cited to show cause why he is not in contempt of court. The court shall award court costs and reasonable attorney fees to the plaintiff should the plaintiff prevail in litigation filed pursuant to this section. Such costs and fees shall be paid by the public agency of which the public official is a member or employee and shall not become a personal liability of the public official. If the court finds that the plaintiff's case is clearly frivolous, it shall award court costs and reasonable attorney fees to the public agency.

1. In general

In cases such as where state university employee, after disciplinary sanctions had been imposed upon her or an attempt had been made to impose such sanctions upon her, reported acts of alleged financial irregularity by two of her superiors and the chancellor ordered "audit investigation" of the charges and voluminous "audit report" was furnished him, it was material, to right of information under Public Records Act, whether recorded complaint was of substantial nature and whether there was reasonable cause to believe complaint to be well-founded, and where court through in camera examination found that report had concluded that many accusations were unsupported by evidence but there were exceptions, disclosure should have been allowed with respect to such exceptions. Exemption under § 6254 for "Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to provisions of federal or state law, including, but not limited to provisions of Evid.C. § 1040 relating to privilege" is not an independent exemption at all; it simply incorporates other exemptions or provisions provided by law. Cook v. Craig (App.1976) 127 Cal.Rptr. 712.

Refusal, in mandamus proceeding to compel prison warden to allow correspondence, interviews and sound recordings with prison inmates, to make in camera inspection of specific inmate's prison records was not error on ground that such was required by statute requiring court to order disclosure of public record upon showing the record is being improperly withheld from a member of the public, where prison files pertaining to such inmate were not public records and were not being improperly withheld. Yarish v. Nelson (1972) 104 Cal.Rptr. 205, 27 C.A.3d 893.

§ 6260. Effect of chapter on prior rights and proceedings

The provisions of this chapter shall not be deemed in any manner to affect the status of judicial records as it existed immediately prior to the effective date of this section, nor to affect the rights of litigants, including parties to administrative proceedings, under the laws of discovery of this state, nor to limit or impair any rights of discovery in a criminal case.

Police department records concerning investigation of citizen complaints against policemen are subject to discovery and hence disclosure where good cause is shown in both criminal and civil trials. Berkeley Police Ass'n v. City of Berkeley (1977) 143 Cal.Rptr. 255, 76 C.A.3d 931.

4. Review

Inasmuch as orders of probate court cutting off public access to and sealing probate files in an estate did not purport to operate as a direct restraint on newsmen from publishing any information, the "clear and present danger test" did not apply in determining propriety of the orders, and the issue on review was the reasonableness of the sealing and unsealing orders under circumstances of the case. Matter of Hearst's Estate (1977) 136 Cal.Rptr. 821, 67 C.A.3d 777.

The Legislature declares that the right to privacy is a personal and fundamental right protected by Section 1 of Article I of the Constitution of California and by the United States Constitution and that all individuals have a right of privacy in information pertaining to them. The Legislature further makes the following findings:

(a) The right to privacy is being threatened by the indiscriminate collection, maintenance, and dissemination of personal information and the lack of effective laws and legal remedies.

(b) The increasing use of computers and other sophisticated information technology has greatly magnified the potential risk to individual privacy that can occur from the maintenance of personal information.

(c) In order to protect the privacy of individuals, it is necessary that the maintenance and dissemination of personal information be subject to strict limits. (Added by Stats.1977, c. 709, p. 2269, § 1, operative July 1, 1978.)

1. In general

Provisions of state law evince consistent public policy that individuals shall have access to records which contain personal information about them compiled for purpose of determining eligibility for employment, subject to certain limited exceptions and with protection for confidential sources. Johnson v. Winter (1982) 179 Cal.Rptr. 585, 127 C.A.3d 435.

Information pertaining to psychological test results and performance evaluations of arresting officers showing a tendency to use excessive force or a tendency toward homosexual bias was not properly discoverable by defendants, who were charged with acts committed during a civil disturbance, in that potential probative value of requested information was remote and purely speculative, and defendants failed to make a showing that lack of the requested information would intrude upon defendants' constitutional right to a fair trial or otherwise impair their ability to prepare an adequate defense, and thus fundamental right of privacy and privilege of confidentiality had to remain inviolate. Arcelona v. Municipal Court of City and County of San Francisco (1980) 169 Cal.Rptr. 377, 113 C.A.3d 523.

No person shall be employed or retained in employment by a school district who has been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 44010 or narcotics offense as defined in Section 44011. If, however, any such conviction is reversed and the person is acquitted of the offense in a new trial or the charges against him are dismissed, this section does not prohibit his employment thereafter.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit the employment by a school district of a person convicted of a narcotics offense involving the use or possession of marijuana if the governing board of the school district determines, from the evidence presented, that the person has been rehabilitated for at least five years.

The governing board shall determine the type and manner of presentation of the evidence, and the determination of the governing board as to whether or not the person has been rehabilitated is final.

If, however, such determination is reversed and the person is determined not to be a sexual psychopath in a new proceeding or the proceeding to determine whether he is a sexual psychopath is dismissed, this section does not prohibit his employment thereafter.

45125. Use of personal identification cards to ascertain conviction of crime

The governing board of any school district shall, within 10 working days of date of employment, require each person to be employed, or employed in, a position not requiring certification qualifications to have two 8" x 8" fingerprint cards bearing the legible rolled and flat impressions of such person's fingerprints together with a personal description of the applicant or employee, as the case may be, prepared by a local public law enforcement agency having jurisdiction in the area of the school district, which agency shall transmit such cards, together with the fee hereinafter specified, to the Department of Justice; except that any district, or districts with a common board; may process the fingerprint cards in the event the district so elects. "Local public law enforcement agency" as used herein includes any school district and as used in Section 45126 requires the Department of Justice to provide to any such district, upon application, information pertaining only to applicants for employment by the district, including applicants who are employees of another district, and persons already employed by the district. Upon receiving such identification cards, the Department of Justice shall ascertain whether the applicant or employee has been arrested or convicted of any crime insofar as such fact can be ascertained from information available to the department and forward such information to the local public law enforcement agency submitting the applicant's or employee's fingerprints at the earliest possible date. At its discretion, the Department of Justice may forward one copy of the fingerprint cards submitted to any other bureau of investigation it may deem necessary in order to verify any record of previous arrests or convictions of the applicant or employee.

The governing board of each district shall forward a request to the Department of Justice indicating the number of current employees who have not completed the requirements of this section. The Department of Justice shall direct when such cards are to be forwarded to it for processing which in no event shall be later than two years from the date of enactment of this section. Districts which have previously submitted identification cards for current employees to either the Department of Justice or the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall not be required to further implement the provisions of this section as it applies to those employees.

A plea or verdict of guilty or a finding of guilt by a court in a trial without a jury or forfeiture of bail is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this section, irrespective of a subsequent order under the provisions of Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the withdrawal of the plea of guilty and entering of a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusations or information.

The governing board shall provide the means whereby the identification cards may be completed and shall charge a fee determined by the Department of Justice to be sufficient to reimburse the department for the costs incurred in processing the application. The amount of such fee shall be forwarded to the Department of Justice, with two copies of applicant's or employee's fingerprint cards. The governing board may collect an additional fee not to exceed two dollars ($2) payable to the local public law enforcement agency taking the fingerprints and completing the data on the fingerprint cards. Such additional fees shall be transmitted to the city or county treasury. If an applicant is subsequently hired by the board within 30 days of the application, such fee may be reimbursed to the applicant. Funds not reimbursed applicants shall be credited to the general fund of the district. If the fingerprint cards forwarded to the Department of Justice are those of a person already in the employ of the governing board, the district shall pay the fee required by this section, which fee shall be a proper charge against the general fund of the district, and no fee shall be charged the employee.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, substitute and temporary employees, employed for less than a school year, may be exempted from these provisions. The provisions of this section shall not apply to a district, or districts with a common board, which has an average daily attendance of 400,000 or greater, or to a school district wholly within a city and county, unless the governing board of such district or districts, by rule, provides for adherence to this section.

45126. Duty of Department of Justice to furnish information regarding applicants for employment

HEALTH AND SAFETY CODE

§ 11361.5. Destruction of arrest and conviction records; applicable offenses; method; records not applicable; costs

(a) Records of any court of this state, any public or private agency that provides services upon referral under Section 1000.2 of the Penal Code, or of any state agency or local public agency pertaining to the arrest or conviction of any person for a violation of subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 11357 or subdivision (b) of Section 11360, shall not be kept beyond two years from the date of the conviction, or from the date of the arrest if there was no conviction. Any court or agency having custody of the records shall provide for the timely destruction of the records in accordance with subdivision (c). The requirements of this subdivision do not apply to records of any conviction occurring prior to January 1, 1976, or records of any arrest not followed by a conviction occurring prior to that date.

(b) This subdivision applies only to records of convictions and arrests not followed by conviction occurring prior to January 1, 1976, for any of the following offenses:

- (1) Any violation of Section 11357 or a statutory predecessor thereof.
- (2) Unlawful possession of a device, contrivance, instrument, or paraphernalia used for unlawfully smoking marijuana, in violation of Section 11364, as it existed prior to January 1, 1976, or a statutory predecessor thereof.
- (3) Unlawful visitation or presence in a room or place in which marijuana is being unlawfully smoked or used, in violation of Section 11365, as it existed prior to January 1, 1976, or a statutory predecessor thereof.
- (4) Unlawfully using or being under the influence of marijuana, in violation of Section 11550, as it existed prior to January 1, 1976, or a statutory predecessor thereof.

Any person subject to an arrest or conviction for those offenses may apply to the Department of Justice for destruction of records pertaining to the arrest or conviction if two or more years have elapsed since the date of the conviction, or since the date of the arrest if not followed by a conviction. The application shall be submitted upon a form supplied by the Department of Justice and shall be accompanied by a fee, which shall be established by the department in an amount which will defray the cost of administering this subdivision and costs incurred by the state under subdivision (c), but which shall not exceed thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50). The application form shall be made available at every local police or sheriff's department and from the Department of Justice and may require that information which the department determines is necessary for purposes of identification.

The department may request, but not require, the applicant to include a self-administered fingerprint upon the application. If the department is unable to sufficiently identify the applicant for purposes of this subdivision without the fingerprint or without additional fingerprints, it shall so notify the applicant and shall request the applicant to submit any fingerprints which may be required to effect identification, including a complete set if necessary, or, alternatively, to abandon the application and request a refund of all or a portion of the fee submitted with the application, as provided in this section. If the applicant fails or refuses to submit fingerprints in accordance with the department's request within a reasonable time which shall be established by the department, or if the applicant requests a refund of the fee, the department shall promptly mail a refund to the applicant at the address specified in the application or at any other address which may be specified by the applicant. However, if the department has notified the applicant that election to abandon the application will result in forfeiture of a specified amount which is a portion of the fee, the department may retain a portion of the fee which the department determines will defray the actual costs of processing the application, provided the amount of the portion retained shall not exceed ten dollars ($10).

Upon receipt of a sufficient application, the Department of Justice shall destroy records of the department, if any, pertaining to the arrest or conviction in the manner prescribed by subdivision (c) and shall notify the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the law enforcement agency which arrested the applicant, and, if the applicant was convicted, the probation department which investigated the applicant and the Department of Motor Vehicles, of the application. Each state or local agency receiving a notice from the Department of Justice shall destroy records of the agency, if any, pertaining to the arrest or conviction specified in the notice, in the manner prescribed by subdivision (c). The application form and the notices from the department to the agencies specified in this subdivision shall be destroyed by the department or agency, as the case may be, at the time the other records of the arrest or conviction are destroyed.

CALIFORNIA

(c) Destruction of records of arrest or conviction pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall be accomplished by permanent obliteration of all entries or notations upon the records pertaining to the arrest or conviction, and the record shall be prepared again so that it appears that the arrest or conviction never occurred. However, where (1) the only entries upon the record pertain to the arrest or conviction and (2) the record can be destroyed without necessarily effecting the destruction of other records, then the document constituting the record shall be physically destroyed.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or (b), written transcriptions of oral testimony in court proceedings and published judicial appellate reports are not subject to this section. Additionally, no records shall be destroyed pursuant to subdivision (a) if the defendant or a codefendant has filed a civil action against the peace officers or law enforcement jurisdiction which made the arrest or instituted the prosecution and if the agency which is the custodian of those records has received a certified copy of the complaint in the civil action, until the civil action has finally been resolved. Immediately following the final resolution of the civil action, records subject to subdivision (a) shall be destroyed pursuant to subdivision (c) if more than two years have elapsed from the date of the conviction or arrest without conviction.

(e) Costs incurred by local agencies in complying with the provisions of subdivision (c) shall be reimbursed as provided in Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

Evidence Code Privileges

1040. Privilege for official information

(a) As used in this section, "official information" means information acquired in confidence by a public employee in the course of his duty and not open, or officially disclosed, to the public prior to the time the claim of privilege is made.

(b) A public entity has a privilege to refuse to disclose official information, and to prevent another from disclosing such information, if the privilege is claimed by a person authorized by the public entity to do so and:

(1) Disclosure is forbidden by an act of the Congress of the United States or a statute of this state; or

(2) Disclosure of the information is against the public interest because there is a necessity for preserving the confidentiality of the information that outweighs the necessity for disclosure in the interest of justice; but no privilege may be claimed under this paragraph if any person authorized to do so has consented that the information be disclosed in the proceeding. ### Regulations

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE RELEASE OF CRIMINAL OFFENDER

RECORD INFORMATION IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

After proceedings had in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Gov. Code, Title 2, Div. 3, Part 1, Chapter 4.5) and pursuant to the authority vested by Penal Code Section 11077 and to implement, interpret, and make specific Penal Code Sections 11075 through 11081, the Department of Justice hereby adopts regulations in Chapter 1, Title 11, California Administrative Code, as follows:

- (1) Adopts new Subchapter 7, CRIMINAL OFFENDER RECORD INFORMATION SECURITY
- (2) Adopts new Article 1 of Subchapter 1 to read:

Article 1. Mandatory Securing of Criminal Offender Record Information

700. Scope. In accordance with Sections 11075-11081 of the Penal Code, this article shall insure a measure of uniformity in the handling of criminal offender record information.

701. Definitions. For the purposes of this article, the following definitions shall apply whenever the terms are used.

(a) "Criminal Justice Agency" means a public agency or component thereof which performs a criminal justice activity as its principal function.

(b) "Authorized Person or Agency" means any person or agency authorized by court order, statute, or decisional law to receive criminal offender record information.

(c) "Criminal Offender Record Information" means records and data compiled by criminal justice agencies for purposes of identifying criminal offenders and of maintaining as to each such offender a summary of arrests, pretrial proceedings, the nature and disposition of criminal charges, sentencing, incarceration, rehabilitation, and release. Such information shall be restricted to that which is recorded as the result of an arrest, detention, or other initiation of criminal proceedings or of any consequent proceedings related thereto.

(f) "Record Check" means obtaining the most recent rap sheet from the California Department of Justice.

702. Compliance with State Regulations

(a) Each authorized agency shall adopt written regulations regarding the security of criminal offender record information which comply with these regulations of the State of California. Authorized agencies may adopt more stringent provisions than the State regulations require.

(b) The California Department of Justice shall make every reasonable effort to see that each out-of-state agency or system with which it exchanges criminal offender record information conforms to these regulations.

(c) The California Department of Justice shall conduct audits of authorized persons or agencies using criminal offender record information to insure compliance with the State regulations.

(d) Each authorized agency shall appoint a person to act as its criminal records security officer. The person so appointed will be given the authority and responsibility for seeing that these regulations are adhered to.

(e) Authorized persons or agencies violating these regulations may lose direct access to criminal offender record information maintained by the California Department of Justice.

703. Release of Criminal Offender Record Information

(a) Each authorized agency shall designate specific personnel to release criminal offender record information pursuant to these regulations. Only designated personnel may release such information.

(b) Criminal offender record information may be released, on a need-to-know basis, only to persons or agencies authorized by court order, statute, or decisional law to receive criminal offender record information.

(c) Each authorized agency shall keep a record of each release of California Department of Justice rap sheets or information derived therefrom. The record shall be retained and available for inspection for a period of not less than three years from the date of release. This record shall contain the date of release, name of requesting agency (and name of requesting person, if possible), name of receiving agency (and name of receiving person, if possible), information given and how the information was transmitted.

January, 1977

CALIFORNIA

The requirement for recording each release need not apply to routine in-house procedures if the location of any specific California Department of Justice rap sheet is easily determinable through other records such as case assignment records, arrest registers, or other formal standard procedures. If a California Department of Justice rap sheet is included as a part of a document package (such as a complaint, probation pre-sentence report, etc.) and a record of the disposition or location of those documents is maintained, that record will suffice as a record of the release of the California Department of Justice rap sheet.

(d) Record checks shall be conducted on all personnel hired after July 1, 1975, who have access to criminal offender record information.

704. Juvenile Records

Nothing in these regulations is intended to alter existing statutory or decisional law or court policy regarding the release of juvenile offender records.

705. Review of Criminal Offender Record Information

A person may review his California Department of Justice record for the purpose of challenge or correction in conformity with California Penal Code Section 11120 through 11127.

706. Protection of Criminal Offender Record Information

Authorized agencies shall take reasonable steps to protect criminal offender record information from unauthorized access.

707. Automated Systems

(a) Automated systems handling criminal offender record information and the information derived therefrom shall be secure from unauthorized access, alteration, deletion, or release. The computer system and terminals shall be located in secure premises. Non-criminal justice agencies shall not receive criminal offender record information directly from an automated criminal justice system.

(b) Record checks shall be conducted on all personnel hired after July 1, 1975, who have access to the computer system, its terminals, or the stored criminal offender record information.

(c) Each authorized agency shall keep a record of each release of criminal offender record information from the automated system. The record shall be retained and available for inspection for a period of not less than three years from the date of release. This record shall contain the date of release, the requesting terminal identifier, the receiving terminal identifier, and the information given.

708. Destruction of Criminal Offender Record Information

(a) When criminal offender record information is destroyed, the destruction shall be carried out to the extent that the identity of the subject can no longer reasonably be ascertained. When criminal offender record information is destroyed outside of the authorized agency, a person designated by the agency shall witness the destruction.

(b) Prior to release or reassignment of any electronic storage media containing criminal offender record information to any non-criminal justice purpose, the criminal offender record information shall be completely erased from the media.

(c) Printouts of criminal offender record information obtained through system development, test, or maintenance shall be destroyed at the completion of the function or purpose for which the printout was obtained.

709. Reproduction of Criminal Offender Record Information

Criminal offender record information shall be reproduced only within the physical facilities of an authorized agency, under the supervision of a person designated by the agency, or under a contract provision that no information from such records will be divulged to any unauthorized person or agency.

710. Training

(b) Training need not be limited to those persons designated to release information.

711. Disclaimer

There are no State mandated local costs in this regulation that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because these regulations implement and make specific a mandate previously enacted by statute (Chapter 1437, p. 3148, Section 1, 1972).

APPLICANT RETENTION PERIODS

The retention period for applicant records is determined by the type of response provided. The bureau will respond with either a current record only or with a current record plus notification of any subsequent arrest information. Subsequent action notifications are provided to state agencies with contracts specifying such notifications, to law enforcement agencies on sworn and nonsworn employees, and to agencies handling the application for licenses discussed below.

Records maintained solely because of applicant entries will be stripped of criminal entries when all criminal charges are purgeable. Records will not be stripped until contributing local agencies are notified.

- A. Zero Retention Period - Applicant clearance only requests.
- B. Five-Year Retention Period - Applications for the following licenses or permits are purgeable five years after the date of expiration or revocation of the license or permit:
  - 1. License to carry a concealed weapon
  - 2. Destructive device permit
  - 3. Machine gun permits or license
  - 4. Sawed-off shotgun permit or license
  - 5. Tear gas permit or license

Any application for a license or permit which is refused will be retained for a five-year period. If several applications are on the rap sheet, the five-year retention period shall extend from the date of expiration or revocation of the last license application.

- C. Age 70 Retention - Law enforcement employee records are purgeable when the subject reaches age 70 and all other purge criteria are met. Local agencies should notify the Bureau of Identification of those applications which do not result in employment.
- D. Age 80 Retention - Applicant fingerprint cards submitted by state agencies with whom we have a subsequent notifications contract will be retainable until the subject reaches age 80.

A copy of such petition shall be served upon the district attorney of the county having jurisdiction over the offense. The law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the offense, upon a determination that the person arrested is factually innocent, shall, with the concurrence of the district attorney, seal its arrest records, and the petition for relief under this section for three years from the date of the arrest and thereafter destroy its arrest records and the petition. The law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the offense shall notify the Department of Justice, and any law enforcement agency which arrested the petitioner or participated in the arrest of the petitioner for an offense for which the petitioner has been found factually innocent under this subdivision, of the sealing of the arrest records and the reason therefor. The Department of Justice and any law enforcement agency so notified shall forthwith seal their records of the arrest and the notice of sealing for three years from the date of the arrest, and thereafter destroy their records of the arrest and the notice of sealing. The law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the offense and the Department of Justice shall request the destruction of any records of the arrest which they have given to any local, state, or federal agency or to any other person or entity. A finding of factual innocence and an order for the sealing and destruction of records pursuant to this section shall not be made unless the court finds that no reasonable cause exists to believe that the arrestee committed the offense for which the arrest was made. In any court hearing to determine the factual innocence of a party, the initial burden of proof shall rest with the petitioner to show that no reasonable cause exists to believe that the arrestee committed the offense for which the arrest was made. If the court finds that this showing of no reasonable cause has been made by the petitioner, then the burden of proof shall shift to the respondent to show that a reasonable cause exists to believe that the petitionery committed the offense for which the arrest was made. If the court finds the arrestee to be factually innocent of the charges for which the arrest was made, then the court shall order the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the offense, the Department of Justice, and any law enforcement agency which arrested the petitioner or participated in the arrest of the petitioner for an offense for which the petitioner has been found factually innocent under this section to seal their records of the arrest and the court order to seal and destroy such records, for three years from the date of the arrest and thereafter to destroy their records of the arrest and the court order to seal and destroy such records.

The court shall also order the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the offense and the Department of Justice to request the destruction of any records of the arrest which they have given to any local, state, or federal agency, person or entity. The court shall give to the petitioner a copy of any court order concerning the destruction of the arrest records.

A copy of such petition shall be served on the district attorney of the county in which the accusatory pleading was filed at least 10 days prior to the hearing on the petitioner's factual innocence. The district attorney may present evidence to the court at such hearing. Such hearing shall be conducted as provided in subdivision (b). If the court finds the petitioner to be factually innocent of the charges for which the arrest was made, then the court shall grant the relief as provided in subdivision (b).

(d) In any case where a person has been arrested and an accusatory pleading has been filed, but where no conviction has occurred, the court may, with the concurrence of the district attorney, grant the relief provided in subdivision (b) at the time of the dismissal of the accusatory pleading.

(e) Whenever any person is acquitted of a charge and it appears to the judge presiding at the trial wherein such acquittal occurred that the defendant was factually innocent of such charge, the judge may grant the relief provided in subdivision (b).

(f) In any case where a person who has been arrested is granted relief pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the offense or court shall issue a written declaration to the arrestee stating that it is the determination of the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the offense or court that the arrestee is factually innocent of the charges for which he was arrested and that the arrestee is thereby exonerated. ##### COLORADO BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

24-32-401. Colorado bureau of investigation. There is hereby created an agency of state government which shall be known as the Colorado bureau of investigation, referred to in this part 4 as the "bureau", and which is placed under the department of local affairs of the state of Colorado as a division thereof.

24-32-412. Functions of bureau - legislative review. (1) The bureau has the following authority:

(a) When assistance is requested by any sheriff, chief of police, or chief law enforcement officer and with the approval of the director, to assist such local law enforcement authority in the investigation and detection of crime and in the enforcement of the criminal laws of the state;

(b) When assistance is requested by any district attorney and upon approval by the director, to assist that district attorney in preparing the prosecution of any criminal case in which the bureau had participated in the investigation under the provisions of this part 4;

(c) To establish and maintain fingerprint, crime, criminal, fugitive, stolen property, and other identification files and records; to operate the statewide uniform crime reporting program; and to arrange for scientific laboratory services and facilities for assistance to law enforcement agencies, utilizing existing facilities and services wherever feasible;

(d) To investigate suspected criminal activity when directed by the governor;

(e) To procure any records furnished by any law enforcement agency of the state of Colorado, including local law enforcement agencies, at the expense of the bureau;

(f) To enter into and perform contracts with the department of social services for the investigation of any matters arising under article 5 of title 14, C.R.S. 1973, the "Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act", or a substantially similar enactment of another state.

(g) (I) To investigate and assist in the prosecution of medicaid fraud and patient abuse as authorized by the federal "Medicare-Medicaid Anti-Fraud and Abuse Amendments", P.L. 95-142, and, in furtherance of such investigation and prosecution, to enter into contracts with other governmental entities for reimbursement of prosecution expenses as authorized by said federal law. The authority granted by this paragraph (g) shall be effective only so long as federal participation in reimbursement of prosecution expenses constitutes at least ninety percent of such expenses unless the general assembly specifically renews such authority for a lesser federal participation. Nothing contained in this paragraph (g) shall extend the bureau's expenditure of state funds beyond ten percent of the original federal grant.

COLORADO

(II) The authority granted to the bureau by this paragraph (g) shall be terminated on July 1, 1983, unless the general assembly votes to renew the legislative mandate of this paragraph (g). Absent a vote to renew this paragraph (g), it shall be repealed on July 1, 1984, and any activities relating to the authority so granted shall cease within a twelve-month period after July 1, 1983.

(2) In order to enable the bureau to carry out the functions enumerated in this section, it shall establish and maintain statewide communications programs consistent with communications programs and policies of the state communications coordinator.

(3) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding and except for title 19, C.R.S. 1973, on and after July 1, 1971, in accordance with a program to be established by the bureau, every law enforcement, correctional, and judicial entity, agency, or facility in this state shall furnish to the bureau all arrest, identification, and final charge dispositional information on persons arrested in Colorado for federal, state, or out-of-state criminal offenses and on persons received for service of any sentence of incarceration; except that the provision of information by judicial entities, agencies, and facilities shall be under procedures to be established jointly by the state court administrator and the director of the Colorado bureau of investigation.

(4) The bureau is charged with the responsibility to investigate organized crime which cuts across jurisdictional boundaries of local law enforcement agencies, subject to the provisions of section 24-32-410.

(5) To assist the bureau in its operation of the uniform crime reporting program, every law enforcement agency in this state shall furnish such information to the bureau concerning crimes, arrests, and stolen and recovered property as is necessary for uniform compilation of statewide reported crime, arrest, and recovered property statistics. The cost to the law enforcement agency of furnishing such information shall be reimbursed out of appropriations made therefor by the general assembly; except that the general assembly shall make no such reimbursement if said cost was incurred in a fiscal year during which the Colorado crime information center was funded exclusively by state or federal funds.

C.J.S. See 76 C.J.S., Records, § § 35-37.

Courts guided by legislative intent in construing provisions. In construing the open records provisions, the courts are guided by the clear legislative intent manifested in the declaration of policy and the language of the provisions themselves. Denver Publishing Co. v. Dreyfus, 184 Colo. 288, 520 P.2d 104 (1974).

And court considers and weighs public interest. The limiting language making certain of the open records provisions applicable except as "otherwise provided by law" is a reference to the rules of civil procedure and expresses the legislative intent that a court should consider and weigh whether disclosure would be contrary to the public interest. Martinelli v. District Court, 199 Colo. 163, 612 P.2d 1083 (1980).

Section clearly eliminates any requirement that a person must show a special interest in order to be permitted access to particular public records. Denver Publishing Co. v. Dreyfus, 184 Colo. 288, 520 P.2d 104 (1974).

Official unauthorized to deny access in absence of specific statutory provision. This section establishes the basic premise that in the absence of a specific statute permitting the withholding of information, a public official has no authority to deny any person access to public records. Denver Publishing Co. v. Dreyfus, 184 Colo. 288, 520 P.2d 104 (1974).

Vital statistics records held confidential and exempt from right to inspect. See Eugene Cervi & Co. v. Russell, 31 Colo. App. 525, 506 P.2d 748 (1972), aff'd, 184 Colo. 282, 519 P.2d 1189 (1974).

Police personnel files and staff investigation reports not exempt from discovery. The Colorado open records provisions do not, ipso facto, exempt the personnel files and the staff investigation bureau reports of the Denver police department from discovery in civil litigation. Martinelli v. District Court, 199 Colo. 163, 612 P.2d 1083 (1980).

Applied in City & County of Denver v. District Court, 199 Colo. 303, 607 P.2d 985 (1980).

24-72-202. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:

(4) "Person in interest" means and includes the person who is the subject of a record or any representative designated by said person; except that if the subject of the record is under legal disability, "person in interest" means and includes his parent or duly appointed legal representative.

(5) "Political subdivision" means and includes every county, city and county, city, town, school district, and special district within this state.

(6) "Public records" means and includes all writings made, maintained, or kept by the state or any agency, institution, or political subdivision thereof for use in the exercise of functions required or authorized by law or administrative rule or involving the receipt or expenditure of public funds. 24-72-203. Public records open to inspection. (1) All public records shall be open for inspection by any person at reasonable times, except as provided in this part 2 or as otherwise provided by law, but the official custodian of any public records may make such rules and regulations with reference to the inspection of such records as are reasonably necessary for the protection of such records and the prevention of unnecessary interference with the regular discharge of the duties of the custodian or his office.

(2) If the public records requested are not in the custody or control of the person to whom application is made, such person shall forthwith notify the applicant of this fact, in writing if requested by the applicant. In such notification he shall state in detail to the best of his knowledge and belief the reason for the absence of the records from his custody or control, their location, and what person then has custody or control of the records.

(3) If the public records requested are in the custody and control of the person to whom application is made but are in active use or in storage and therefore not available at the time an applicant asks to examine them, the custodian shall forthwith notify the applicant of this fact, in writing if requested by the applicant. If requested by the applicant, the custodian shall set a date and hour within three working days at which time the records will be available for inspection.

24-72-204. Allowance or denial of inspection - grounds - procedure - appeal.

(1) The custodian of any public records shall allow any person the right of inspection of such records or any portion thereof except on one or more of the following grounds or as provided in subsection (2) or (3) of this section:

(a) Such inspection would be contrary to any state statute.

(b) Such inspection would be contrary to any federal statute or regulation issued thereunder having the force and effect of law.

(c) Such inspection is prohibited by rules promulgated by the supreme court or by the order of any court.

(2) (a) The custodian may deny the right of inspection of the following records, unless otherwise provided by law, on the ground that disclosure to the applicant would be contrary to the public interest:

(I) Repealed, L. 77, p. 1250, § 4, effective December 31, 1977.

(II) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data pertaining to administration of a licensing examination, examination for employment, or academic examination; except that written promotional examinations and the scores or results thereof conducted pursuant to the state personnel system or any similar system shall be available for inspection, but not copying or reproduction, by the person in interest after the conducting and grading of any such examination;

COLORADO

(III) The specific details of bona fide research projects being conducted by a state institution; and

(IV) The contents of real estate appraisals made for the state or a political subdivision thereof relative to the acquisition of property or any interest in property for public use, until such time as title to the property or property interest has passed to the state or political subdivision; except that the contents of such appraisal shall be available to the owner of the property at any time, and except as provided by the Colorado rules of civil procedure. If condemnation proceedings are instituted to acquire any such property, any owner thereof who has received the contents of any appraisal pursuant to this section shall, upon receipt thereof, make available to said state or political subdivision a copy of the contents of any appraisal which he has obtained relative to the proposed acquisition of the property.

(b) If the right of inspection of any record falling within any of the classifications listed in this subsection (2) is allowed to any officer or employee of any newspaper, radio station, television station, or other person or agency in the business of public dissemination of news or current events, it shall be allowed to all such news media.

(3) (a) The custodian shall deny the right of inspection of the following records, unless otherwise provided by law; except that any of the following records, other than letters of reference concerning employment, licensing, or issuance of permits, shall be available to the person in interest under this subsection (3):

(I) Medical, psychological, sociological, and scholastic achievement data on individual persons, exclusive of coroners' autopsy reports and group scholastic achievement data from which the individual cannot be identified; but either the custodian or the person in interest may request a professionally qualified person, who shall be furnished by the said custodian, to be present to interpret the records;

(II) Personnel files, except applications and performance ratings; but such files shall be available to the person in interest and to the duly elected and appointed public officials who supervise his work;

(III) Letters of reference;

(IV) Trade secrets, privileged information, and confidential commercial, financial, geological, or geophysical data furnished by or obtained from any person;

(V) Library and museum material contributed by private persons, to the extent of any limitations placed thereon as conditions of such contributions; and

(VI) Addresses and telephone numbers of students in any public elementary or secondary school.

(b) Nothing in this subsection (3) shall prohibit the custodian of records from transmitting data concerning the scholastic achievement of any student to any prospective employer of such student, nor shall anything in this subsection (3) prohibit the custodian of records from making available for inspection, from making copies, print-outs, or photographs of, or from transmitting data concerning the scholastic achievement or medical, psychological, or sociological information of any student to any law enforcement agency of this state, of any other state, or of the United States where such student is under investigation by such agency and the agency shows that such data is necessary for the investigation.

(c) Nothing in this subsection (3) shall prohibit the custodian of the records of a school, including any institution of higher education, or a school district from transmitting data concerning standardized tests, scholastic achievement, or medical, psychological, or sociological information of any student to the custodian of such records in any other such school or school district to which such student moves, transfers, or makes application for transfer, and the written permission of such student or his parent or guardian shall not be required therefor. No state educational institution shall be prohibited from transmitting data concerning standardized tests or scholastic achievement of any student to the custodian of such records in the school, including any state educational institution, or school district in which such student was previously enrolled, and the written permission of such student or his parent or guardian shall not be required therefor.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (VI) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), under policies adopted by the local board of education, the names and addresses of students in any secondary school may be released to a recruiting officer for any branch of the United States armed forces who requests such information, unless the student requests in writing that said information not be released. The recruiting officer shall use the data released for the purpose of providing information to students regarding military service and shall not use it for any other purpose or release such data to any person or organization other than individuals within the recruiting services of the armed forces.

(4) If the custodian denies access to any public record, the applicant may request a written statement of the grounds for the denial, which statement shall cite the law or regulation under which access is denied and shall be furnished forthwith to the applicant.

(5) Any person denied the right to inspect any record covered by this part 2 may apply to the district court of the district wherein the record is found for an order directing the custodian of such record to show cause why he should not permit the inspection of such record. Hearing on such application shall be held at the earliest practical time. Unless the court finds that the denial of the right of inspection was proper, it shall order the custodian to permit such inspection and, upon a finding that the denial was arbitrary or capricious, it may order the custodian personally to pay the applicant's court costs and attorney fees in an amount to be determined by the court.

(6) If, in the opinion of the official custodian of any public record, disclosure of the contents of said record would do substantial injury to the public interest, notwithstanding the fact that said record might otherwise be available to public inspection, he may apply to the district court of the district in which such record is located for an order permitting him to restrict such disclosure. Hearing on such application shall be held at the earliest practical time. After hearing, the court may issue such an order upon a finding that disclosure would cause substantial injury to the public interest. In such action the burden of proof shall be upon the custodian. The person seeking permission to examine the record shall have notice of said hearing served upon him in the manner provided for service of process by the Colorado rules of civil procedure and shall have the right to appear and be heard.

Legislative intent to classify autopsy reports as public records. The phrase "exclusive of coroners' autopsy reports" in subsection (3) (a) (1) is convincing evidence of the legislative intent to classify autopsy reports as public records open to inspection, rather than directing the denial of a right of inspection by any person, as is the case with other medical, psy-

Police personnel files and staff investigation reports not exempt from discovery. The Colorado open records provisions do not, ipso facto, exempt the personnel files and the staff investigation bureau reports of the Denver police department from discovery in civil litigation. *Martinelli v. Police records showing arrests, convictions, and other information about individuals are not public and should not be open to the scrutiny of the public at large. Losavio v. Mayber, 178 Colo. 184, 496 P.2d 1032 (1972).

Except when given to prosecution. When lists of the conviction records of prospective jurors are given to the prosecution, they can no longer be classified as internal matters affecting only the internal operations of the police department. *Losavio v. In which case, defense entitled to obtain information. Police records are not public records open to inspection by the general public but where the district attorney's office regularly receives information from such records, the defense attorneys, including the public defender's office, are entitled to obtain such information in the possession of the prosecution. *Losavio v. 24-72-205. Copies, printouts, or photographs of public records. (1) In all cases in which a person has the right to inspect any public record, he may request that he be furnished copies, printouts, or photographs of such record. The custodian may furnish such copies, printouts, or photographs for a reasonable fee, to be set by the official custodian, not to exceed one dollar and twenty-five cents per page unless actual costs exceed that amount. Where fees for certified copies or other copies, printouts, or photographs of such record are specifically prescribed by law, such specific fees shall apply.

(2) If the custodian does not have facilities for making copies, printouts, or photographs of records which the applicant has the right to inspect, the applicant shall be granted access to the records for the purpose of making copies, printouts, or photographs. The copies, printouts, or photographs shall be made while the records are in the possession, custody, and control of the custodian thereof and shall be subject to the supervision of such custodian. When practical, they shall be made in the place where the records are kept, but, if it is impractical to do so, the custodian may allow arrangements to be made for this purpose. If other facilities are necessary, the cost of providing them shall be paid by the person desiring a copy, printout, or photograph of the records. The official custodian may establish a reasonable schedule of times for making copies, printouts, or photographs and may charge the same fee for the services rendered by him or his deputy in supervising the copying, printing out, or photographing as he may charge for furnishing copies under subsection (1) of this section.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE RECORDS

24-72-301. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that the maintenance, access and dissemination, completeness, accuracy, and sealing of criminal justice records are matters of statewide concern and that, in defining and regulating those areas, only statewide standards in a state statute are workable.

(2) It is further declared to be the public policy of this state that criminal justice agencies shall maintain records of official actions, as defined in this part 3, and that such records shall be open to inspection by any person and to challenge by any person in interest, as provided in this part 3, and that all other records of criminal justice agencies in this state may be open for inspection as provided in this part 3 or as otherwise specifically provided by law.

Inspection of criminal justice records. (1) Except for records of official actions which must be maintained and released pursuant to this part 3, all criminal justice records, at the discretion of the official custodian, may be open for inspection by any person at reasonable times, except as otherwise provided by law, and the official custodian of any such records may make such rules and regulations with reference to the inspection of such records as are reasonably necessary for the protection of such records and the prevention of unnecessary interference with the regular discharge of the duties of the custodian or his office.

(2) If the requested criminal justice records are not in the custody or control of the person to whom application is made, such person shall forthwith notify the applicant of this fact in writing, if requested by the applicant. Court considers and weighs public interest in determining disclosure question. The limiting language making certain of the public records provisions applicable except as "otherwise provided by law" is a reference to the rules of civil procedure and expresses the legislative intent that a court should consider and weigh whether disclosure would be contrary to the public interest. Martinelli v. District Court, 199 Colo. 163, 612 P.2d 1083 (1980).

24-72-305. Allowance or denial of inspection - grounds - procedure - appeal. (1) The custodian of criminal justice records may allow any person to inspect such records or any portion thereof except on the basis of any one of the following grounds or as provided in subsection (5) of this section:

- (a) Such inspection would be contrary to any state statute;
- (b) Such inspection is prohibited by rules promulgated by the supreme court or by the order of any court.

(2) to (4) Repealed, L. 78, p. 407, § 4, effective May 5, 1978.

(5) On the ground that disclosure would be contrary to the public interest, and unless otherwise provided by law, the custodian may deny access to records of investigations conducted by or of intelligence information or security procedures of any sheriff, district attorney, or police department or any criminal justice investigatory files compiled for any other law enforcement purpose.

(6) If the custodian denies access to any criminal justice record, the applicant may request a written statement of the grounds for the denial, which statement shall be provided to the applicant within seventy-two hours, shall cite the law or regulation under which access is denied or the general nature of the public interest to be protected by the denial, and shall be furnished forthwith to the applicant.

(7) Any person denied access to inspect any criminal justice record covered by this part 3 may apply to the district court of the district wherein the record is found for an order directing the custodian of such record to show cause why said custodian should not permit the inspection of such record. A hearing on such application shall be held at the earliest practical time. Unless the court finds that the denial of inspection was proper, it shall order the custodian to permit such inspection and, upon a finding that the denial was arbitrary or capricious, it may order the custodian to pay the applicant's court costs and attorney fees in an amount to be determined by the court. Upon a finding that the denial of inspection of a record of an official action was arbitrary or capricious, the court may also order the custodian personally to pay to the applicant a penalty in an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars for each day that access was improperly denied.

24-72-306. Copies, printouts, or photographs of criminal justice records - fees authorized. (1) Criminal justice agencies may assess reasonable fees, not to exceed actual costs, including but not limited to personnel and equipment, for the search, retrieval, and copying of criminal justice records and may waive fees at their discretion. Where fees for certified copies or other copies, printouts, or photographs of such records are specifically prescribed by law, such specific fees shall apply. Where the criminal justice agency is an agency or department of any county or municipality, the amount of such fees shall be established by the governing body of the county or municipality.

(2) If the custodian does not have facilities for making copies, printouts, or photographs of records which the applicant has the right to inspect, the applicant shall be granted access to the records for the purpose of making copies, printouts, or photographs. The copies, printouts, or photographs shall be made while the records are in the possession, custody, and control of the custodian thereof and shall be subject to the supervision of such custodian. When practical, they shall be made in the place where the records are kept, but, if it is impractical to do so, the custodian may allow other arrangements to be made for this purpose. If other facilities are necessary, the cost of providing them shall be paid by the person desiring a copy, printout, or photograph of the records. The official custodian may establish a reasonable schedule of times for making copies, printouts, or photographs and may charge the same fee for the services rendered by him or his deputy in supervising the copying, printing out, or photographing as he may charge for furnishing copies under subsection (1) of this section.

24-72-307. Challenge to accuracy and completeness - appeals. (1) Any person in interest who is provided access to any criminal justice records pursuant to this part 3 shall have the right to challenge the accuracy and completeness of records to which he has been given access, insofar as they pertain to him, and to request that said records be corrected.

(2) If the custodian refuses to make the requested correction, the person in interest may request a written statement of the grounds for the refusal, which statement shall be furnished forthwith.

(3) In the event that the custodian requires additional time to evaluate the merit of the request for correction, he shall so notify the applicant in writing forthwith. The custodian shall then have thirty days from the date of his receipt of the request for correction to evaluate the request and to make a determination of whether to grant or refuse the request, in whole or in part, which determination shall be forthwith communicated to the applicant in writing.

(4) Any person in interest whose request for correction of records is refused may apply to the district court of the district wherein the record is found for an order directing the custodian of such record to show cause why he should not permit the correction of such record. A hearing on such application shall be held at the earliest practical time. Unless the court finds that the refusal of correction was proper, it shall order the custodian to make such correction, and, upon a finding that the refusal was arbitrary or capricious, it may order the criminal justice agency for which the custodian was acting to pay the applicant's court costs and attorney fees in an amount to be determined by the court.

24-72-308. Sealing or limiting release of records. (1) Access to records limited without petition. (a) Effective thirty days after an order of acquittal or dismissal is entered, unless the defendant requests in writing that the record remain open, the arrest and criminal records information contained in records of an official action in which the defendant is acquitted or in which charges are dismissed shall automatically be limited to access only by the person in interest, by his criminal defense attorney, or by a criminal justice agency of this state or to a similar agency of the United States government or of any of the states of the United States of America. The defendant may subsequently withdraw the request that the record remain open by submitting a written authorization to the court to enter an order limiting access. Upon the receipt of such an authorization, the court shall enter the order. The provisions of paragraph (j) of subsection (2) of this section shall apply to any order entered pursuant to this paragraph (a).

COLORADO

(b) (I) The custodian of any record of an arrest shall not allow inspection of the record of that arrest if the records in his custody and control do not show that the arrest was followed by the filing of charges thereon within two years after the arrest or was followed by a disposition prior to a trial within two years after the arrest; except that, subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) and subsection (2) of this section, the custodian shall allow the inspection of such a record if the person seeking the inspection provides information to the custodian which shows that the arrest has been followed by the filing of charges within two years after the arrest or has been followed by a disposition prior to a trial within two years after the arrest.

(II) For the purposes of this paragraph (b), "disposition" includes deferred prosecution and deferred sentencing.

(III) This paragraph (b) shall not restrict the right of the person in interest to inspect his own records, nor shall it deny access thereto by a criminal justice agency of this state or by a similar agency of the United States government or any of the states of the United States of America.

(2) Petition to limit release of records. (a) Any person in interest may petition the court in which the arrest and criminal records information pertaining to him is located for the limiting of release of all or any part of said record, except basic identification information. If a criminal action has previously been filed in a court, the petition provided for in this subsection (2) shall be made a part of such action, and no additional docket fee shall be required. Such a petition shall be filed pursuant to and shall be governed by the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection (2).

(b) An order limiting the release of all or any part of said record may be obtained if:

(I) The record is a record of an official action involving conviction for a misdemeanor or a petty offense after which the individual has not been formally charged with another crime, other than a petty offense or a class A or class B traffic infraction, for a period of five years following the completion of his sentence or the satisfaction of any conditions imposed in lieu of his sentence; or

(II) The record is a record of an official action involving conviction for a felony after which the individual has not been formally charged with a crime, other than a petty offense or a class A or class B traffic infraction, for a period of seven years following the completion of his sentence or the satisfaction of any conditions imposed in lieu of his sentence.

(c) The state court administrator shall prepare and distribute to the clerks of the courts a standardized form to be used for all petitions for the limiting of release of said records. The clerks shall make the form available at their offices and upon request shall mail the form to any person requesting the same.

(d) Within five days of the receipt of such a form which has been completed and notarized, the clerk of the court shall send copies thereof to the district attorney.

(e) If the district attorney does not file a response objecting to the petition for the limiting of release of said records within thirty days after the receipt of the petition by the clerk of the court, the court shall grant the petition and order that the record shall only be released to the person in interest or to a criminal justice agency of this state or to a similar agency of the United States government or any of the states of the United States of America. This order shall be made and entered without further action by the petitioner and without his appearance.

(f) (I) If the district attorney files a response objecting to the petition for the limiting of release of said records within thirty days after the receipt of the petition by the clerk of the court, stating that he can show unto the court that the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) do not apply to the petitioner, the court shall deny the petition unless the petitioner files a written request for a hearing thereon within sixty days after the original date of the receipt of the petition by the clerk of the court.

(II) At the time of filing the response objecting to the petition, the district attorney shall serve upon the petitioner a copy of the response and a notice indicating to the petitioner that his petition will be denied unless he files a written request for a hearing within sixty days after the original date of receipt of the petition by the clerk of the court.

(g) If a request for a hearing is received within the sixty-day period, the court shall set a date for a hearing, which hearing may be closed at the court's discretion, and notify the petitioner and the district attorney of the date of said hearing. At the hearing, the court shall grant the petition unless the district attorney shows that none of the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) apply to the petitioner. Upon granting the petition, the court shall order that the record shall only be released to the person in interest or to a criminal justice agency of this state or to a similar agency of the United States government or any of the states of the United States of America. The hearing shall be held and the petition granted or denied whether or not the petitioner appears.

(h) The response and notice required by paragraph (f) of this subsection (2) and the notification required by paragraph (g) of this subsection (2) shall be served upon the petitioner by depositing the same in the United States mail, postage prepaid, certified, and return receipt requested, addressed to the petitioner at the address provided in the petition.

(i) Any order entered pursuant to this section shall be directed to every custodian who may have custody of any part of the arrest and criminal records information which is the subject of the order. Whenever a court enters an order pursuant to this section, it shall provide the Colorado bureau of investigation with a copy thereof. The Colorado bureau of investigation shall forward copies of such an order to every custodian which has furnished information to it pursuant to section 24-32-412 (3) concerning the subject of the order.

(j) Every custodian of the arrest and criminal records information subject to the order, within one hundred twenty days after the entry of the order unless it is stayed pending an appeal, shall advise the court and the petitioner in writing of compliance with the order.

(k) All arrest and criminal records information, whether existing prior to or on or after May 5, 1978, except basic identification information, is subject to an order limiting the release thereof in accordance with this subsection (2).

(3) Sealing of records. (a) Any person in interest may petition the district court of the district in which the arrest and criminal records information pertaining to him is located for the sealing of all or any part of said record, except basic identification information.

(b) Upon the filing of a petition or the entering of a court order relating to the sealing of records, the court shall set a date for a hearing, which hearing may be closed at the court's discretion, and shall notify the district attorney, the arresting agency, and any other person or agency who the court has reason to believe may have relevant information related to the sealing of such record.

(c) (I) Upon a finding that the harm to privacy of the person in interest or dangers of unwarranted adverse consequences outweigh the public interest in retaining the records, the court may order such records, or any part thereof except basic identification information, to be sealed. If the court finds that neither sealing of the records nor maintaining of the records unsealed by the agency would serve the ends of justice, the court may enter an appropriate order limiting access to such records.

(II) Any order entered pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall be directed to every custodian who may have custody of any part of the arrest and criminal records information which is the subject of the order. Whenever a court enters an order pursuant to this paragraph (c), it shall provide the Colorado bureau of investigation with a copy thereof. The Colorado bureau of investigation shall forward copies of such an order to every custodian which has furnished information to it pursuant to section 24-32-412 (3) concerning the subject of the order.

(III) Every custodian of the arrest and criminal records information subject to the order, within one hundred twenty days after the entry of the order unless it is stayed pending an appeal, shall advise the court and the petitioner in writing of compliance with the order.

(d) Upon the entry of an order to seal the records, or any part thereof, the subject official actions shall be deemed never to have occurred, and the person in interest and all criminal justice agencies may properly reply, upon any inquiry in the matter, that no such action ever occurred and that no such record exists with respect to such person.

(e) Inspection of the records included in the order may thereafter be permitted by the court only upon petition by the person in interest who is the subject of such records or by the district attorney and only to those persons and for those purposes named in such petition.

(f) (I) Employers, educational institutions, state and local government agencies, officials, and employees shall not, in any application or interview or in any other way, require an applicant to disclose any information contained in sealed records. An applicant need not, in answer to any question concerning arrest and criminal records information that has been sealed, include a reference to or information concerning such sealed information and may state that no such action has ever occurred. Such an application may not be denied solely because of the applicant's refusal to disclose arrest and criminal records information that has been sealed.

(II) Subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (f) does not preclude the bar committee of the Colorado state board of law examiners from making further inquiries into the fact of a conviction which comes to the attention of the bar committee through other means. The bar committee of the Colorado state board of law examiners has a right to inquire into the moral and ethical qualifications of an applicant, and the applicant has no right to privacy or privilege which justifies his refusal to answer to any question concerning arrest and criminal records information that has come to the attention of the bar committee through other means.

If, for the purpose of making such photographs, it becomes necessary to remove such records from the room where they are usually kept to some other room in the courthouse where such photographic apparatus may be installed for such purpose, the county clerk, in his discretion, may charge to the person or corporation making such photographic reproductions, a fee of one dollar per hour for the service of the deputy who has charge of such records while they are being so photographed; but such fees shall not be charged to one person or corporation unless the same fee is likewise charged to every person or corporation photographing such records.

PART I. ERASURE

§ 54-142a. Erasure of criminal records

(a) Whenever in any criminal case, on or after October 1, 1969, the accused, by a final judgment, is found not guilty of the charge or the charge is dismissed, all police and court records and records of any state's attorney pertaining to such charge shall be erased upon the expiration of the time to file a writ of error or take an appeal, if an appeal is not taken, or upon final determination of the appeal sustaining a finding of not guilty or a dismissal, if an appeal is taken.

(b) Whenever in any criminal case prior to October 1, 1969, the accused, by a final judgment, was found not guilty of the charge or the charge was dismissed, all police and court records and records of the state's or prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting grand juror pertaining to such charge shall be erased by operation of law and the clerk or any person charged with the retention and control of such records shall not disclose to anyone their existence or any information pertaining to any charge so erased; provided nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the arrested person or any one of his heirs from filing a petition for erasure with the court granting such not guilty judgment or dismissal, or, where the matter had been before a municipal court, a trial justice, the circuit court or the court of common pleas with the records center of the judicial department and thereupon all police and court records and records of the state's attorney, prosecuting attorney or prosecuting grand juror pertaining to such charge shall be erased.

(c) Whenever any charge in a criminal case has been nolle in the superior court, or in the court of common pleas, if at least thirteen months have elapsed since such nolle, all police and court records and records of the state's or prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting grand juror pertaining to such charge shall be erased. However, in cases of nolles entered in the superior court, court of common pleas, circuit court, municipal court or by a justice of the peace prior to April 1, 1972, such records shall be deemed erased by operation of law and the clerk or the person charged with the retention and control of such records shall not disclose to anyone their existence or any information pertaining to any charge so erased, provided nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the arrested person or any one of his heirs from filing a petition to the court or to the records center of the judicial department, as the case may be, to have such records erased, in which case such records shall be erased. Whenever any charge in a criminal case has been continued at the request of the prosecuting attorney, and a period of thirteen months has elapsed since the granting of such continuance during which period there has been no prosecution or other disposition of the matter, the charge shall be construed to have been nolle as of the date of termination of such thirteen-month period and such erasure may thereafter be effected or a petition filed therefor, as the case may be, as provided in this subsection for nolle cases.

(d) Whenever prior to October 1, 1974, any person who has been convicted of an offense in any court of this state has received an absolute pardon for such offense, such person or any one of his heirs may, at any time subsequent to such pardon, file a petition with the superior court at the location in which such conviction was effected, or with the superior court at the location having custody of the records of such conviction or with the records center of the judicial department if such conviction was in the court of common pleas, circuit court, municipal court or by a trial justice court, for an order of erasure, and the superior court or records center of the judicial department shall direct all police and court records and records of the state's or prosecuting attorney pertaining to such case to be erased. Whenever such absolute pardon was received on or after October 1, 1974, such records shall be erased.

9. Civil discovery

In civil litigation arising out of motor vehicle accident, for which the defendant had been arrested and charged with certain criminal and motor vehicle offenses, which charges were subsequently dismissed, discovery in the civil litigation of questions directed to police officers and others on the subject of the evidence police officers collected at the scene of the accident was not barred by Connecticut criminal record erasure statute; however, no questions could be asked of police officers and others regarding any aspect of the investigation and prosecution which took place after the defendant in the criminal case was arrested and charged. Penfield v. Venuti (D.C.1981) 93 F.R.D. 364.

Discovery in civil litigation of physical evidence obtained at scene of motor vehicle accident, which otherwise would have been obtainable by private parties in the absence of criminal prosecution, was not barred by Connecticut criminal record erasure statute, notwithstanding fact that defendant in the civil litigation had been arrested and charged with certain criminal and motor vehicle offenses stemming from the accident, which charges were subsequently dismissed. Id.

Connecticut criminal record erasure statute, which provides that once a criminal prosecution has been dismissed "all police and court records and records of any state's attorney pertaining to such charge shall be immediately and automatically erased," does not prevent civil discovery of records compiled or materials collected routinely by police officers about a motor vehicle accident which formed part of an unsuccessful criminal prosecution. Id.

1. In general

"Erasure" for purpose of § 54-142a governing erasure of records following pardon does not alone mean physical destruction of documents but, rather, involves sealing the files and segregating them from materials which have not been erased and protecting them from disclosure, except that disclosure is permitted in a few, very limited circumstances. Doe v. Manson (1981) 438 A.2d 859.

Defendant had a statutory right to obtain and inspect, on his own initiative, information relating to any prior misdemeanor convictions of prosecution witnesses and this could be accomplished with relative ease from official records. State v. Melton (1979) 411 A.2d 948, 36 Conn.Sup. 89.

§ 8501. Purpose of chapter.

(a) The purpose of this chapter is to create and maintain an accurate and efficient criminal justice information system in Delaware consistent with this chapter and applicable federal law and regulations, the need of criminal justice agencies and courts of the State for accurate and current criminal history record information, and the right of individuals to be free from improper and unwarranted intrusions into their privacy.

Subchapter VII. Expungement of Criminal Records

Revisor's note. — This subchapter became effective upon the signature of the Governor on July 8, 1980.

Effect of amendment. — 62 Del. Laws, c.

317, effective July 8, 1980, redesignated former subchapter VII, containing §§ 4371 to 4374, as present subchapter VIII, containing §§ 4381 to 4384.

§ 4371. Statement of policy.

The General Assembly finds that arrest records can be a hindrance to an innocent citizen's ability to obtain employment, obtain an education or to obtain credit. This subchapter is intended to protect innocent persons from unwarranted damage which may occur as the result of arrest and other criminal proceedings which are unfounded or unproven. (62 Del. Laws, c. 317, § 2.)

DELAWARE

§ 4372. Termination of criminal action in favor of accused.

(a) If a person is charged with the commission of a crime and

(1) Is acquitted; or

(2) A nolle prosequi is taken, or the charge is otherwise dismissed, he may file a petition setting forth the relevant facts and requesting expungement of the police records, and the court records relating to the charge.

(b) The petition shall be filed in the Superior Court in the county where the case was terminated, disposed of or concluded.

(c) A copy of the petition shall be served on the Attorney General, who may file an objection or answer to the petition within 30 days after it is served on him. (62 Del. Laws, c. 317, § 2.)

§ 4373. Hearing by Court; granting or denial of expungement.

(a) Unless the Court believes a hearing is necessary, petitions shall be disposed of without a hearing. If the Court finds that the continued existence and possible dissemination of information relating to the arrest of the petitioner causes, or may cause, circumstances which constitute a manifest injustice to the petitioner, it shall enter an order requiring the expungement of the police and court records relating to the charge. Otherwise, it shall deny the petition. The fact that the petitioner has previously been convicted of a criminal offense, other than that referred to in the petition, shall be considered by the Court as prima facie evidence that the continued existence and possible dissemination of information relating to the arrest in question does not constitute a manifest injustice to the petitioner.

(b) The State shall be made party defendant to the proceeding. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the Court may appeal, as provided by law in civil cases.

(c) If an order expunging the records is granted by the Court, all the records specified in the order shall, within 60 days of the order, be removed from the files, and placed in the control of the Supervisor of the State Bureau of Identification who shall be designated to retain control over all expunged records, and who shall insure that the records or the information contained therein is not released for any reason except as specified in this subchapter. In response to requests from nonlaw-enforcement officers for information or records on the person who was arrested, the law-enforcement officers and departments shall reply, with respect to the arrest and proceedings which are the subject of the order, that there is no record. (62 Del. Laws, c. 317, § 2.)

§ 4374. Disclosure of expunged records.

(a) Except for disclosure to law-enforcement officers acting in the lawful performance of their duties in investigating criminal activity or for the purpose of an employment application as an employee of a law-enforcement agency, it shall be unlawful for any person having or acquiring access to an expunged court or police record to open or review it or to disclose to another person any information from it without an order from the Court which ordered the record expunged.

(b) Where disclosure to law enforcement officers in the lawful performance of their duties in investigating criminal activity is permitted by subsection (a) of this section, such disclosure shall apply for the purpose of investigating particular criminal activity in which the person, whose records have been expunged, is considered a suspect and the crime being investigated is a felony or pursuant to an investigation of an employment application as an employee of a law-enforcement agency.

(c) Nothing contained in this section shall require the destruction of photographs or fingerprints taken in connection with any felony arrest and which are utilized solely by law-enforcement officers in the lawful performance of their duties in investigating criminal activity.

(d) Nothing herein shall require the destruction of court records or records of the Department of Justice. However, all such records, including docket books, relating to a charge which has been the subject of a destruction order shall be so handled to ensure that they are not open to public inspection or disclosure.

(e) An offense for which records have been expunged pursuant to this section shall not have to be disclosed by the person as an arrest for any reason.

(f) Any person who violates subsection (a) of this section shall be guilty of a class B misdemeanor, and shall be punished accordingly. (62 Del. Laws, c. 317, § 2.)

§ 4375. Notification to federal government.

Upon the granting by the Court for an order for the expungement of records in accordance with this subchapter, a copy of such order shall be forwarded to the federal Department of Justice. (62 Del. Laws, c. 317, § 2.)

Toward this end, this chapter is adopted, and shall be construed. (60 Del. Laws, c. 641, § 1.)

§ 10002. Definitions.

(9) Any records pertaining to pending or potential litigation which are not records of any court;

(10) Any record of discussions allowed by § 10004(b) of this title to be held in executive session; or Any reasonable expense involved in the copying of such records shall be levied as a charge on the citizen requesting such copy.

(b) It shall be the responsibility of the public body to establish rules and regulations regarding access to public records as well as fees charged for copying of such records. (60 Del. Laws, c. 641, § 1.)

District of Columbia Code
Title I

SUBCHAPTER II.—FREEDOM OF INFORMATION [NEW]

§ 1-1521. Public policy

Generally the public policy of the District of Columbia is that all persons are entitled to full and complete information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts of those who represent them as public officials and employees. To that end, provisions of this act shall be construed with the view toward expansion of public access and the minimization of costs and time delays to persons requesting information.

March 29, 1977, D.C.Law, No. 1-96, § 2(201), 23 D.C.Reg. No. 24, p. 3744.

§ 1-1522. Right of access to public records—Allowable costs—Time limits

(a) Any person has a right to inspect, and at his or her discretion, to copy any public record of the Mayor or an agency, except as otherwise expressly provided by section 1-1524, in accordance with reasonable rules that shall be issued by the Mayor or an agency after notice and comment, concerning the time and place of access.

(b) The Mayor or an agency may establish and collect fees not to exceed the actual cost of searching for or making copies of records, but in no instance shall the total fee for searching exceed 10 dollars for each request. For purposes of this subsection "request" means a single demand for any number of documents made at one time to an individual agency. Documents may be furnished without charge or at a reduced charge where the Mayor or agency determines that waiver or reduction of the fee is in the public interest because furnishing the information can be considered as primarily benefiting the general public. Notwithstanding the foregoing, fees shall not be charged for examination and review by the Mayor or an agency to determine if such documents are subject to disclosure.

(c) The Mayor or an agency, upon request reasonably describing any public record, shall within 10 days (except Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) of the receipt of any such request either make the requested public record accessible or notify the person making such request of its determination not to make the requested public record or any part thereof accessible and the reasons therefor.

(d) In unusual circumstances, the time limit prescribed in subsection (c) of this section may be extended by written notice to the person making such request setting forth the reasons for extension and expected date for determination. Such extension shall not exceed 10 days (except Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays). For purposes of this subsection, and only to the extent necessary for processing of the particular request, "unusual circumstances" are limited to:

(1) the need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request; or

(2) the need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject-matter interest therein.

(e) Any failure on the part of the Mayor or an agency to comply with a request under subsection (a) of this section within the time provisions of subsections (c) and (d) of this section shall be deemed a denial of the request.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

and the person making such request shall be deemed to have exhausted his administrative remedies with respect to such request, unless such person chooses to petition the Mayor pursuant to section 1-1527 to review the deemed denial of the request.

March 29, 1977, D.C.Law, No. 1-96, § 2(202), 23 D.C.Reg. No. 24, p. 3744.

§ 1-1523. Letters of denial

(a) Denial by the Mayor or an agency of a request for any public record shall contain at least the following:

(1) the specific reasons for the denial, including citations to the particular exemption(s) under section 1-1524 relied on as authority for the denial;

(2) the name(s) of the public official(s) or employee(s) responsible for the decision to deny the request; and

(3) notification to the requester of any administrative or judicial right to appeal under section 1-1527.

(b) The Mayor and each agency of the District of Columbia shall maintain a file of all letters of denial of requests for public records. This file shall be made available to any person on request for purposes of inspection and/or copying.

March 29, 1977, D.C.Law, No. 1-96, § 2(203), 23 D.C.Reg. No. 24, p. 3744.

§ 1-1524. Exemptions

(a) The following matters may be exempt from disclosure under the provisions of this subchapter:

(1) Trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from outside the government, to the extent that disclosure would result in substantial harm to the competitive position of the person from whom the information was obtained;

(2) Information of a personal nature where the public disclosure thereof would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(3) Investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such records would—

(A) interfere with enforcement proceedings,

(B) deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication,

(C) constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy,

(D) disclose the identity of a confidential source and, in the case of a record compiled by a law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, confidential information furnished only by the confidential source,

(E) disclose investigative techniques and procedures not generally known outside the government,

(F) endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel;

(4) Inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;

(5) Test questions and answers to be used in future license, employment, or academic examinations, but not previously administered examinations or answers to questions thereon;

(6) Information specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than this section), provided that such statute—

(A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or

(B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld; and

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

(7) Information specifically authorized by Federal law under criteria established by a Presidential Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy which is in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order.

(b) Any reasonably segregable portion of a public record shall be provided to any person requesting such record after deletion of those portions which may be withheld from disclosure under subsection (a) of this section.

(c) This section does not authorize withholding of information or limit the availability of records to the public, except as specifically stated in this section. This section is not authority to withhold information from the Council of the District of Columbia. This section shall not operate to permit non-disclosure of information of which disclosure is authorized or mandated by other law.

March 29, 1977, D.C.Law, No. 1-96, § 2(205), 23 D.C.Reg. No. 24, p. 3744.

§ 1-1526. Information which must be made public

Without limiting the meaning of other sections of this subchapter, the following categories of information are specifically made public information:

(f) information in or taken from any account, voucher, or contract dealing with the receipt or expenditure of public or other funds by public bodies; and

(g) the minutes of all proceedings of all agencies.

§ 1-1527. Administrative appeals and enforcement

(a) Any person denied the right to inspect a public record of a public body may petition the Mayor to review the public record to determine whether it may be withheld from public inspection. Such determination shall be made in writing with a statement of reasons therefor in writing within 10 days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) of the submission of the petition.

(1) If the Mayor denies the petition or does not make a determination within the time limits provided in this subsection, or if a person is deemed to have exhausted his or her administrative remedies pursuant to subsection (e) of section 1-1522, the person seeking disclosure may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief in the Superior Court for the District of Columbia.

(2) If the Mayor decides that the public record may not be withheld, he shall order the public body to disclose the record immediately. If the public body continues to withhold the record, the person seeking disclosure may bring suit in the Superior Court for the District of Columbia to enjoin the public body from withholding the record and to compel the production of the requested record.

(b) In any suit filed under subsection (a) of this section, the Superior Court for the District of Columbia may enjoin the public body from withholding records and order the production of any records improperly withheld from the person seeking disclosure. The burden is on the Mayor or the agency to sustain its action. In such cases the court shall determine the matter de novo, and may examine the contents of such records in camera to determine whether such records or any part thereof shall be withheld under any of the exemptions set forth in section 1-1524.

(c) If a person seeking the right to inspect or to receive a copy of a public record prevails in whole or in part in such suit, he or she may be awarded reasonable attorney fees and other costs of litigation.

1. In general

The governor's power to see that laws are faithfully executed, which is essentially what the Department of Criminal Law Enforcement Act of 1974 is designed to achieve, derives from Const.

Art. 4, § 1, pertaining to powers and duties of governor. Thompson v. State, 342 So.2d 52 (1976).

In the area of law enforcement, the resources of the State must be marshalled and focused in the manner deemed most efficacious at the time; the burden of this task falls on the executive branch of government, although power to determine what is or is not criminal behavior is peculiarly within the province of the legislature. Id.

2. Purpose

The Department of Criminal Law Enforcement Act of 1974 was enacted by the legislature to assist local governments in combating crime and to provide the means for statewide enforcement of state criminal laws. Thompson v. State, 342 So.2d 52 (1976).

Search 2

1. In general
This section requiring division of law enforcement to exercise its statutory powers, inter alia, "at the direction of the executive director," does not require specific approval of every action taken by an agent, but exists to insure that supervisory responsibility remains in the executive director as the head of the agency. Thompson v. State, 342 So.2d 52 (1976).

2. Search
Where record before Supreme Court contained no testimony bearing on scope of search conducted by Department of Criminal Law Enforcement agents and no listed stipulation of facts by counsel and was thus inadequate for consideration of defendant's contention that agents conducted search beyond scope of warrant, and where clerk of Supreme Court brought unsatisfactory status of record to attention of defense counsel who elected to stand upon record as filed, trial court's order denying motion to suppress evidence seized by agents was affirmed, as no error had been made to appear. Thompson v. State, 342 So.2d 52 (1976).

Where governor acted within his authority under Department of Criminal Law Enforcement Act of 1974 in ordering investigation of all illegal conduct of state officials and employees, and where Department agents complied with requirements of chapter pertaining to search warrants, Department was validly ordered to exercise its investigatory powers and had power to obtain and execute search warrant. Id.

FLORIDA

3. Rules

Rules need not be promulgated before the adoption by the legislature of a concurrent resolution initiating action by the Department of Criminal Law Enforcement, since the legislature is not subject to the Administrative Procedure Act. Thompson v. State, 342 So.2d 52 (1976).

4. Executive orders

Portion of governor's executive order authorizing Department of Criminal Law Enforcement to investigate "misconduct" of public officials would be construed to mean those acts of misconduct which violated state criminal laws, since governor had no power under Department of Criminal Law Enforcement

Act of 1974 to direct investigation of lesser forms of misconduct. Thompson v. State, 342 So.2d 52 (1976).

Governor has no power under the Department of Criminal Law Enforcement Act of 1974 to direct an investigation of lesser forms of misconduct than violation of state criminal laws. Id.

This section authorizing governor to order investigation by Department of Criminal Law Enforcement by written order did not authorize an unbridled exercise of executive discretion to investigate matters outside sphere of duty already imposed by constitutional provision pertaining to powers and duties of governor, despite contention that statute constituted a delegation of legislative power to executive branch of government in violation of constitutional provision pertaining to separation of powers. Id.

Laws 1978, c. 78-347, deleted "criminal" preceding "law enforcement" in the department name.

Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 2, deleted "and regulations" following "rules" in subsec. (2)(c)2, and added para. (d) to (f) of subsec. (2).

943.051 Criminal justice information; collection and storage; fingerprinting

(1) The Division of Criminal Justice Information Systems, acting as the state's central criminal justice information repository, shall collect, process, and store criminal justice information and records necessary to the operation of the criminal justice information system of the Department of Law Enforcement.

(2) When practicable, the division may develop systems which inform one criminal justice agency of the general nature of criminal justice information held or maintained by other criminal justice agencies.

(3) The division shall collect, process, maintain, and disseminate information and records with due regard to the privacy interests of individuals and shall strive to maintain or disseminate only accurate and complete records.

(4) Each person charged with or convicted of a felony, misdemeanor, or violation of a comparable ordinance by a state, county, municipal, or other law enforcement agency shall be fingerprinted, and such fingerprints shall be submitted to the Department of Law Enforcement. Exceptions to this requirement for specified misdemeanors or comparable ordinance violations may be made by the department by rule.

FLORIDA

(5) Fingerprints shall be used as the basis for criminal history records. Added by Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 3, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

943.052 Disposition reporting

Each criminal justice agency shall monitor its records and submit disposition reports to the Division of Criminal Justice Information Systems in such format and detail and at such times as the Department of Law Enforcement may prescribe by rule. No rule or exception thereto which would affect the courts or court clerks shall be noticed as a proposed rule without the approval of the Supreme Court or its designee. Added by Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 4, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

943.0525 Criminal justice information systems; use by state and local agencies

As a condition of participating in any criminal justice information system established by the division or of receiving criminal justice information, state and local agencies shall be required to execute appropriate user agreements and to comply with applicable federal laws and regulations, this chapter, and rules of the Department of Law Enforcement adopted thereunder. Failure to comply with such laws or rules shall constitute grounds for immediate termination of services or withholding of criminal justice information. Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 2, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

The word "and" was substituted by the division of statutory revision for the word "or."

943.053 Dissemination of criminal justice information; fees

(1) The Department of Law Enforcement shall disseminate criminal justice information only in accordance with federal and state laws, regulations, and rules.

(2) Criminal justice information derived from federal criminal justice information systems or criminal justice information systems of other states shall not be disseminated in a manner inconsistent with the laws, regulations, or rules of the originating agency.

(3) Criminal history information compiled by the Division of Criminal Justice Information Systems from intrastate sources shall be available on a priority basis to criminal justice agencies for criminal justice purposes free of charge and, otherwise, to governmental agencies not qualified as criminal justice agencies on an approximate-cost basis. After providing the division with all known identifying information, persons in the private sector may be provided criminal history information upon tender of fees as established by rule of the Department of Law Enforcement. Such fees shall approximate the actual cost of producing the record information. Fees may be waived by the Executive Director of the Department of Law Enforcement for good cause shown.

(4) Criminal justice information provided by the Department of Law Enforcement shall be used only for the purpose stated in the request. Added by Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 5, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

(a) To criminal justice agencies for criminal justice purposes.

(b) Pursuant to applicable federal laws and regulations for use in connection with licensing or local or state employment or for such other uses only as authorized by federal or state laws which have been approved by the United States Attorney General or his designee. When no active prosecution of the charge is known to be pending, arrest data more than 1 year old is not disseminated unless accompanied by information relating to the disposition of that arrest.

FLORIDA

(c) For issuance of press releases and publicity designed to effect the apprehension of wanted persons in connection with serious or significant offenses.

(2) The exchange of federal criminal history information is subject to cancellation if dissemination is made outside the receiving departments or related agencies.

(3) A criminal justice agency may refer to federal criminal history records and disclose to the public factual information concerning the status of an investigation; the apprehension, arrest, release, or prosecution of an individual; the adjudication of charges; or the correctional status of an individual when such disclosure is reasonably contemporaneous with the event to which the information relates.

Added by Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 6, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

943.056 Access to, review and challenge of, criminal history records

(1) When a person requests a copy of his own criminal history record not otherwise available as provided by s. 119.07, the Department of Law Enforcement shall provide such record for review upon verification, by fingerprints, of the identity of the requesting person. The providing of such record shall not require the payment of any fees, except those provided for by federal regulations.

(2) Criminal justice agencies subject to chapter 120 shall be subject to hearings regarding those portions of criminal history records for which the agency served as originator. When it is determined what the record should contain in order to be complete and accurate, the Division of Criminal Justice Information Systems shall be advised and shall conform state and federal records to the corrected criminal history record information.

(3) Criminal justice agencies not subject to chapter 120 shall be subject to administrative proceedings for challenges to criminal history record information in accordance with rules established by the Department of Law Enforcement.

(4) Upon request, an individual whose record has been corrected shall be given the names of all known noncriminal justice agencies to which the data has been given. The correcting agency shall notify all known criminal justice recipients of the corrected information, and those agencies shall modify their records to conform to the corrected record. Added by Laws 1980, c. 80-409, §§ 8, 9, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

943.057 Access to criminal justice information for research or statistical purposes

The Department of Law Enforcement may provide by rule for access to and dissemination and use of criminal justice information for research or statistical purposes. All requests for records or information in the criminal justice information systems of the department shall require the requesting individual or entity to enter into an appropriate privacy and security agreement which provides that the requesting individual or entity shall comply with all laws and rules governing the use of criminal justice information for research or statistical purposes. The department may charge a fee for the production of criminal justice information hereunder. Such fee shall approximate the actual cost of production. This section shall not be construed to require the release of confidential information or to require the department to accommodate requests which would disrupt ongoing operations beyond the extent required by s. 119.07.

Added by Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 10, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

943.0575 Public access to records

Nothing in this act shall be construed to restrict or condition public access to records as provided by s. 119.07.

Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 16, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

943.058 Criminal history record expunction or sealing

(1) Notwithstanding statutes dealing more generally with the preservation and destruction of public records, the Department of Law Enforcement, in consultation with the Department of State, may provide, by rule adopted pursuant to chapter 120, for the administrative expunction of any nonjudicial record of arrest made contrary to law or by mistake or when the record no longer serves a useful purpose.

(2) The courts of this state shall continue to have jurisdiction over their own procedures, including the keeping, sealing, expunction, or correction of judicial records containing criminal history information. The courts may order the sealing or expunction of any other criminal history record provided:

(a) The person who is the subject of the record has never previously been adjudicated guilty of a criminal offense or comparable ordinance violation;

(b) The person who is the subject of the record has not been adjudicated guilty of any of the charges stemming from the arrest or alleged criminal activity to which the records expunction petition pertains;

(c) The person who is the subject of the record has not secured a prior records expunction or sealing under this section, former s. 893.14, or former s. 901.33; and

(d) Such record has been sealed under this section, former s. 893.14, or former s. 901.33 for at least 10 years; except that, this condition shall not apply in any instance in which an indictment or information was not filed against the person who is the subject of the record.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), criminal history records maintained by the Department of Law Enforcement may be ordered expunged only upon a specific finding by a circuit court of unusual circumstances requiring the exercise of the extraordinary equitable powers of the court. Upon a finding that the criteria set out in paragraphs (2)(a)-(c) have been met, the records maintained by the department may be ordered sealed by any court of competent jurisdiction; and thereafter such records and other records sealed pursuant to this section, former s. 893.14, former s. 901.33, or similar laws, shall be nonpublic records, available only to the subject, his attorney, or to criminal justice agencies for their respective criminal justice purposes. An order sealing criminal history records pursuant to this subsection shall not be construed to require that the records be surrendered to the court, and such records shall continue to be maintained by the department.

(4) In judicial proceedings under subsections (2) and (3), it shall not be necessary to make any agency other than the state a party. The appropriate state attorney shall be served with the petition and shall respond after a review of the petitioner's entire multistate criminal history record. If relief is granted, the clerk of the court shall certify copies of the order to the prosecutor and to the arresting agency. The arresting agency shall be responsible for forwarding the order to the Department of Law Enforcement and to any other agency to which the arresting agency itself disseminated the criminal history record information within the purview of the order. The Department of Law Enforcement shall forward the order to all agencies, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation, to which it disseminated the affected criminal history information. The clerk of the court shall certify a copy of the order to any other agency which the records of the clerk reflect has received the affected criminal history information from the court. A notation indicating compliance with an order to expunge may be retained for use thereafter only to confirm the expunction upon inquiry of the ordering court.

(5) Notwithstanding other laws to the contrary, a criminal justice agency may honor laws, court orders, and official requests of other jurisdictions relating to expunction, sealing, correction or confidential handling of criminal history records or information derived therefrom.

(6) The effect of expunction or sealing of criminal history records under this section or other provisions of law, including former ss. 893.14 and 901.33, shall be as follows:

(a) When all criminal history records, including the records maintained by the Department of Law Enforcement and the courts, have been expunged, the subject of such records shall be restored, in the full and unreserved contemplation of the law, to the status occupied before the arrest, indictment, information, or judicial proceedings covered by the expunged record.

(b) When all criminal history records, except for records retained under seal by the courts or the Department of Law Enforcement, have been expunged, the subject of such records may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge the events covered by the expunged or sealed records except in the following circumstances:

1. When the person who is the subject of the record is a candidate for employment with a criminal justice agency;

2. When the person who is the subject of the record is a defendant in a criminal prosecution;

3. When the person who is the subject of the record subsequently petitions for relief under this section; or

4. When the person who is the subject of the record is a candidate for admission to The Florida Bar.

The courts or the Department of Law Enforcement may refer to and disseminate information contained in sealed records in any of these circumstances. Subject to the exceptions stated herein, no person as to whom an expunction or sealing has been accomplished shall be held thereafter under any provision of law of this state to be guilty of perjury or to be otherwise liable for giving a false statement by reason of such person's failure to recite or acknowledge expunged or sealed criminal history records.

(7) An order or request to expunge or seal a criminal history record shall be deemed an order or request to seek the expunction or sealing of such record by all other agencies and persons known to have received it.

(8) Each petition to a court for sealing or expunction of criminal history records shall be complete only when accompanied by the petitioner's sworn statement that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, he is eligible for such a sealing or expunction.

Added by Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 11, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

Construction and application 1
Prior offense 2
Review 3
Validity ½

½. Validity

To permit a law to stand whereby the legislature requires the destruction of judicial records would permit an unconstitutional encroachment by the legislative branch on the procedural responsibilities granted exclusively to the Supreme Court to establish additional rules of practice and procedure. Johnson v. State, 336 So.2d 93 (1976).

To extent that § 901.33 (repealed; see, now, this section) governing expunction of records of arrest of first offenders found innocent and of those persons against whom criminal proceedings are dismissed granted a substantive right to a defendant the statute was valid; however, to extent that it attempted to establish procedure for accomplishing such right it was an encroachment on the judicial function and, therefore, unconstitutional; hence, the Supreme Court would consider adoption of a rule to effectuate such legislative intent by requiring the sealing of court records of first offenders found innocent or those against whom criminal proceedings are dismissed. Id.

1. Construction and application

Order unsealing defendant's felony arrest record and court file concerning narcotics possession offense was properly entered, where the court ascertained that there were "several acts" involved in defendant's August 14, 1977 arrest, where it was also clear that the "driving under the influence" charge, on which defendant was convicted, was directly "related to" the possession offense which was nolle prossed, and where the nolle prossed did not include the d. u. i. offense. Polski v. State, App., 371 So.2d 548 (1979).

In hearing on defendant's motion to expunge record of his arrest and conviction of manslaughter under applicable rule following successful appeal, error occurred in refusing to order expungement of record for reason that trial judge had read in presentence report, which was obtained after original conviction, that defendant had been convicted of some traffic violations, since they were neither pleaded nor properly proven by State where records of conviction were not furnished but merely a hearsay statement of a nonattending witness with no right to cross-examination afforded. Murphy v. State, App., 363 So.2d 581 (1978).

11. In hearing on defendant's motion to expunge record of his arrest and conviction of manslaughter under applicable rule, defendant's conviction for some traffic violations had been properly pleaded and proved by State, such convictions would have constituted a sufficient bar to defendant's request for expungement. Id.

Court records concerning plea of guilty of grand larceny and plea of guilty to possession of short-barreled shotgun entered by two defendants, neither of whom had previously been convicted of criminal offense, and both of whom had successfully completed probationary period following adjudication of guilt, would be sealed from public view in accordance with Johnson v. State, 336 So.2d 93, Garcia v. State, App., 355 So.2d 227 (1978).

Expungement statute (this section), which has been construed as allowing an arrest record to be sealed in a proper case, is retroactive and, hence, may apply to record of an arrest that occurred prior to effective date of statute. Capuano v. State, App., 347 So.2d 629 (1977).

Accused did not lose benefits of former § 901.33 (repealed; see, now, this section) providing for expungement of arrest record for one acquitted or released without being adjudicated guilty because, before applying under statute, accused was arrested and adjudicated guilty of another offense; former § 901.33 (repealed; see, now, this section) plainly extended its remedy to one who, at time of arrest, "never previously" was convicted and who was then acquitted or released without adjudication of guilt and consequently accused's entitlement to remedy was not dissipated by subsequent adjudication. State v. Zawistowski, App., 339 So.2d 315 (1976).

Regarding ambiguity in former § 901.33 (repealed; see, now, this section) which offered expungement of arrest record for one "acquitted or released without being adjudicated guilty," such as one released on probation with no adjudication, while withholding former provision's benefits "when the adjudication of nonguilt," which a withheld judgment on one count and nolle prosequi on another plainly were not, "did not include all" multiple charges simultaneously made, first part of statute would be given effect over subsequent ambiguity; accordingly, accused, against whom adjudication of guilt was withheld on one count and second count was nolle prosequi, was entitled to statutory benefits. Id.

Courts have the authority to seal their records from public view where the ends of justice require. Johnson v. State, 336 So.2d 93 (1978).

Former § 901.33 (repealed; see, now, this section) which required the expunction of all records related to certain arrests, charges, trials and dismissals of certain violations of law or ordinance upon order of the court was applicable to records in the custody of state attorneys. Op. Atty. Gen., 076-70, April 5, 1976.

A court order to expunge a record means that such record should be physically annihilated, destroyed, or obliterated. An order to expunge records cannot be interpreted to mean the removal of all references to the person in question and the retention of said records in a safe place for future proceedings. Op. Atty. Gen., 075-29, Feb. 12, 1975.

2. Prior offense

Since it appeared affirmatively from record that defendant had been previously convicted of violation of municipal ordinance against public drunkenness, he was not entitled to order expunging record of his arrest for public drunkenness, unlawful possession of marijuana and unlawful possession of barbiturates to which he had entered plea of nolo contendere. State v. Sobie, App., 343 So.2d 73 (1977).

3. Review

Although movant was formerly a defendant in a criminal case, where he was not a defendant at time he filed his motion to expunge his arrest record, relief which was civil in nature, fact that this section directed that motion to expunge be filed with same court wherein movant was formerly charged did not change nature of relief sought, and final order denying motion was reviewable by appeal. Capuano v. State, App., 347 So.2d 629 (1977).

943.06 Criminal Justice Information Systems Council

There is created a Criminal Justice Information Systems Council within the Department of Law Enforcement.

(1) The council shall be composed of 10 members, consisting of the Attorney General or a designated assistant; the Secretary of the Department of Corrections; the chairman of the Parole and Probation Commission; the State Courts Administrator; and 6 members, to be appointed by the Governor, consisting of 2 sheriffs, 2 police chiefs, 1 public defender, and 1 state attorney.

(2) Members appointed by the Governor shall be appointed for terms of 4 years, except that in the first appointment under this section, two members shall be appointed for terms of 2 years, two members for terms of 3 years, and two members for terms of 4 years; and the terms of such members shall be designated by the Governor at the time of appointment. No appointive member shall serve beyond the time he ceases to hold the office or employment by reason of which he was eligible for appointment to the council. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring because of death, resignanation, or ineligibility for membership shall serve only for the unexpired term of his predecessor or until a successor is appointed and qualifies.

(3) The council shall annually elect its chairman and other officers. The council shall hold at least four regular meetings each year, at the call of the chairman or upon the written request by three members of the council. A majority of the members of the council constitutes a quorum.

(4) Membership on the council shall not disqualify a member from holding any other public office or being employed by a public entity except that no member of the legislature shall serve on the council. The legislature finds that the council serves a state, county, and municipal purpose and that service on the council is consistent with a member's principal service in a public office or employment.

(5) Members of the council shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to be reimbursed for per diem and traveling expenses as provided by § 112.061.

Laws 1974, c. 74-386, § 6, eff. Aug. 1, 1974. Amended by Laws 1977, c. 77-174, § 1, eff. Aug. 2, 1977; Laws 1978, c. 78-347, § 2, eff. Oct. 1, 1978; Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 12, eff. Oct. 1, 1980.

Repeal

Laws 1978, c. 78-323, § 4, the "Sundown Act", providing for the repeal of boards, committees, and councils which have held official meetings since January 1, 1975, provides for the repeal of this section, relating to the criminal justice information systems council, on October 1, 1981. For a complete listing of all entities affected by Laws 1978, c. 78-323, see § 11.611 and notes thereunder.

Laws 1977, c. 77-174, a reviser's bill, amended subsec. (2) of this section to reflect language editorially inserted in the interest of clarity by the division of statutory revision and indexing.

Laws 1978, c. 78-347, deleted "criminal" preceding "law enforcement" in the department name.

Laws 1980, c. 80-409, § 12, added the secretary of the department of corrections as a council member.

119.01 General state policy on public records

It is the policy of this state that all state, county, and municipal records shall at all times be open for a personal inspection by any person.

Historical Note

Derivation:

Laws 1975, c. 75-225, § 2.
Laws 1973, c. 73-98, § 1.
Comp.Gen.Laws 1927, § 490.
Rev.Gen.St.1920, § 424.
Laws 1909, c. 5042, § 1.

Laws 1973, c. 73-98, § 1, added a second sentence.

Laws 1975, c. 75-225, rewrote this section which was amended in 1973 provided:

"119.01. Public records open to examination by citizens

"All state, county, and municipal records shall at all times be open for a personal inspection of any citizen of Florida, and those in charge of such records shall not refuse this privilege to any citizen. Public funds shall not be used for dues or contributions to any association, group, or organization the records of which are not open for inspection to any citizen of Florida."

79. Work papers and inter-office memoranda, records subject to inspection

Written appraisal report obtained by county in connection with negotiations for proposed acquisition of property for a landfill site constituted a "public record," even if transaction had not been completed, and must be made available for inspection under this chapter providing for examination and inspection of public records, notwithstanding fact that disclosure of contents of appraisal during negotiations would be harmful to the county. Gannett Co., Inc. v. Goldtrap, App., 302 So.2d 174 (1974).

Work papers, work sheets, and papers used in making arithmetic computations or notes, or inter-office correspondence on items or matters under examination, etc., all for the benefit of the auditor, are not "public records" within the purview of this section and access to such information should be denied the public as a matter of public policy. Op. Atty. Gen., 066-88, Sept. 15, 1966.

Temporary records, maps, plats, cards and memoranda, or writings, from which the permanent or final tax assessment roll is prepared, are in the nature of work sheets and are not classified as public records, and, therefore, would not be subject to the personal inspection of a citizen of Florida as authorized by this section; however, the records, maps, plats, cards and writings of a permanent nature, used from year to year in the preparation of successive tax assessment rolls could be classified as public records and open for public inspection. Op. Atty. Gen., 061-102, June 29, 1961.

80. Private organizations, records subject to inspection

Notes of Decisions

1. In general

In action brought by construction corporation, which had agreed to construct city wastewater treatment plant, against city to have city produce all public records relating to construction project, including those in possession of city's project engineer, award of attorney fees against city would not include payment for services incurred in construction corporation's efforts in cause to obtain records in possession of city's project engineer but would be limited to reasonable attorney fees for necessary legal services performed relating to full production of all relevant public records in possession of city and would not include payment for legal services rendered thereafter in trial court or on appeal. City of Winter Garden v. Norflor Const. Corp., App., 396 So.2d 865 (1981).

Question whether an attorney's fee should be awarded to plaintiff under this section and § 286.011 authorizing such an award if court finds that agency defendant unreasonably refused to permit inspection of its records or if court finds that agency violated requirements of § 119.01 or § 286.011 is a question of fact which may be resolved by trial court on a motion for summary judgment but not on a motion to strike. Cape Coral Medical Center, Inc. v. News-Press Pub. Co., Inc., App., 390 So.2d 1216 (1980).

- 11C-6.04 Procedures for Requesting Criminal History Records.

11C-6.01 Posture of Department and Other Agencies.

(1) The Department receives funding from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the U. S. Department of Justice and is therefore subject to federal regulations contained in Ch. 1, Title 28, Subpart 20B, C. F. R.

(2) The Department utilizes the services of U. S. Department of Justice criminal history record information systems and therefore must abide by and demand adherence to federal dissemination policy when using such services. The federal policy is contained in Ch. 1, Title 28, Subpart 20C, C. F. R.

(3) Most criminal justice agencies and some non-criminal justice agencies in Florida are themselves similarly situated. Moreover, any person or agency receiving criminal justice information directly from this Department or indirectly through any of these other agencies is subject to Ch. 1, Title 28, Subpart 20B, C. F. R., and will additionally be subject to Ch. 1, Title 28, Subpart 20C, if such information was derived from the criminal justice information systems of the United States Department of Justice.

11C-6.02 Present Policy.

(1) Pending legislative or judicial direction to the contrary and to the maximum extent that it may act consistent with Chapter 119, Florida Statutes, the Department adopts by reference the definitions contained in Ch. 1, Title 28, Subpart 20A, C. F. R., and will make and hereby authorized disseminations to the fullest extent authorized under Ch. 1, Title 28, Subpart 20B and Ch. 1, Title 28, Subpart 20C, C. F. R., also incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Ch. 1, Title 28, Part 20, C. F. R., was published in the Federal Register, Vol. 40, No. 98, dated Tuesday, May 20, 1975. Significant amendments thereto were published in the Federal Register, Vol. 41, No. 55, dated Friday, March 19, 1976. These regulations have been filed with The Florida Department of State.

(3) In order for the Department to respond to requests for Florida criminal history information, the person or entity who wishes to review or secure such information shall provide to the Department the subject's full name and approximate age or date of birth. If available, the social security number, completed fingerprint card, and any other identifiers shall be provided.

Specific Authority 943.03, 943.05 FS. Law Implemented 943.05, 943.08 FS. Ch. 1, Title 28, Part 20, Sections 20.20, 20.21 and 20.33, C. F. R. History—New 6-24-76.

11C-6.03 System Security and Public Access.

(e.g., records sealed under Section 893.14, F. S., or derived from the Federal Bureau of Investigation criminal history record systems). And because federal and state privacy and security laws, rules and regulations preclude members of the public from personally making searches of the criminal history systems and records of the department, searches for criminal history records shall be conducted only by personnel of the department and those criminal justice agencies having access thereto through secure remote terminals.

(2) Personnel conducting such searches shall insure that copies of records made available to the public contain no information deemed confidential by law.

(3) Depending upon whether the request for a record check is in writing or accompanied by a properly executed fingerprint card and upon the results of the record check, the letter of request, fingerprint card, and/or record will be returned bearing one of the following notations:

(a) "Subject identical with subject of attached Florida Department of Law Enforcement record number _____."

(b) "Based on the information provided,

(d) "Based upon the information provided, you are advised that the subject has no criminal history records in the systems of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement."

(4) Copies of records made available to the public pursuant to the Florida Public Records Law shall be prominently annotated to indicate whether the record is based upon positive identification using fingerprints and shall be signed and dated by the processing technician.

- (c) The information contained in each of the records is accurate.

(3) The letter of certification, signed by the head of the agency, attesting to the completion of the validation process must be returned to the Department within 31 days after receipt of the validation report.

(4) In the event that an agency fails to comply with the requirements of this rule, federal regulations provide that the FCIC and NCIC may proceed to remove any or all of the noncomplying agency's records from the state and national information system files.

(1) Except when it appears to the Department that the court ordering an expunction and/or sealing has not been fully informed as to the existence of statutorily enumerated factors which may affect the eligibility of an individual for relief under Section 943.058(2) and (3), Florida Statutes, the Department shall comply with any such order entered by a court of competent jurisdiction. When it appears that the court ordering a statutory expunction and/or sealing has not been fully informed as to the prior criminal record of an individual, the Department shall so inform the court or prosecuting authority and request modification or clarification of such order.

(2) When an order to expunge gives no clear indication as to the intention of the circuit court to have the record expunged pursuant to its equitable powers, it will be presumed that it is the intent of the court that the Department will seal the record in accordance with Section 943.058(2), Florida Statutes.

(2) Upon receipt of any order to expunge a criminal history record the arresting authority shall:

(a) Make a positive association between the individual and arrest covered by the order and the arrest record generated by it;

(b) Forward a certified copy of the order along with a letter of transmittal to the Department.

(3) The letter of transmittal shall make specific reference to identifying information, including:

(a) Date of arrest;

(b) Arrest number and original charges.

11C-7.035 Administrative Expunction.

(1) Non-judicial records of arrest which are entered by mistake, made contrary to law, or which no longer serve a useful purpose will be administratively expunged by the Department.

(2) If such records reflect an arrest which was made in Florida solely on the basis of an alleged offense against the laws of a non-Florida jurisdiction and if under the laws of such other jurisdiction the person arrested is entitled to and has taken such steps as are necessary to accomplish expunction of criminal records in such other jurisdiction, the Department shall honor any request for expunction of that part of the Florida record which is properly brought to its attention.

(3) If the chief law enforcement officer of an arresting agency in Florida requests an administrative expunction as to a particular record of an arrest made by the agency, the Department shall comply provided that:

(a) The request is in writing and signed by the chief law enforcement officer in charge;

(b) The prosecuting authority has also certified in writing that there has been no prosecution of the charges in the trial courts and that there is no present intent to pursue a course of action.

(4) If the chief law enforcement officer of an agency wishes to delegate the authority to request administrative expunctions under this rule or other expunctions under Rule 11C-7.02(4), F. A. #### CHAPTER 11C-8 CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD; REVIEW AND CORRECTION

11C-8.01 Review Procedures.

11C-8.01 Review Procedures.

(1) Any individual wishing to review his criminal history record must submit a request in writing to a local law enforcement agency and should specifically indicate whether a multistate (FBI/NCIC) check is desired.

(2) The individual must then be fingerprinted by a local law enforcement agency for identification purposes. The fingerprint card will contain all required identifying data and a conspicuous notation that the card is submitted in order to provide positive identification for a personal record review.

(3) Requests and completed fingerprint cards received by local law enforcement agencies will then be mailed by the local law enforcement agency to the Department.

(4) The fingerprint card will be processed by the Department and if a positive fingerprint identification is established against an existing criminal history record, a single copy of the record, the submitted fingerprint card, and the original letter of request will be returned to the local law enforcement agency. If no arrest record is found in the Florida Crime Information Center/Computerized Criminal History System, the fingerprint card and the letter of request will be so stamped on the reverse side and will be returned to the local law enforcement agency forwarding same.

(5) The Department will mail a letter to the requesting individual advising him that a copy of his criminal history record, if any, has been mailed to the local law enforcement agency.

(6) It will then be the responsibility of the individual requesting said record to personally call for such record at that local law enforcement agency. It will be the responsibility of the local law enforcement agency to determine that the person reviewing the criminal history record is the same person that was fingerprinted by that agency. A statement will be placed on each criminal history record or fingerprint card returned by the Department which states, "Released to (subject's name) Date (date released) by (releasing agency)". This statement must be completed by the local law enforcement agency that delivers the record to the individual.

(7) If after reviewing his record, the individual feels that the record is incorrect or incomplete, it is his responsibility to contact the agency submitting that part of the record in question. It then will be the responsibility of that agency to determine the merit of the assertion, to make any and all corrections or deletions that may be required, and to notify the Department of any corrections or deletions.

11C-8.01 Review Procedures.

(8) If, after an individual reviews his own criminal history record as authorized in Rule 11C-8.01, F. A. C., the agency and the individual are unable to resolve their differences as to what that portion of the person's record ought to contain and if, more particularly, the agency responsible for the portion of the record in issue refuses to correct its own records or to advise the Florida Department of Law Enforcement to correct or supplement the state records in accordance with the individual's wishes, then the administrative review procedures set out in 11C-8.01(9) or 11C-8.01(10), as appropriate, shall be followed.

(9) If the agency responsible for the portion of the record in issue is subject to the Florida Administrative Procedures Act Chapter 120, Florida Statutes, the individual may initiate and the agency shall submit itself to administrative adjudication and judicial review of the issue in accordance with the act, and Section 943.056(2), F. S.

(10) If the agency responsible for the portion of the record in issue is not subject to the Florida Administrative Procedures Act, the individual shall petition the agency in writing to convene a special hearing panel for the purpose of conducting an informal hearing. Such panel shall consist of one panelist nominated by the individual, one panelist nominated by the agency and a presiding panelist mutually agreeable to the other two panelists. If within ten days after the petition is filed no third panelist has been agreed upon or has agreed to serve, a third member of the panel will be appointed by the Executive Director, Florida Department of Law Enforcement. Thereafter:

(a) Within twenty days after the petition is filed, the agency shall make written answer to the allegations in the petition, attaching thereto copies of such official records as it deems necessary to support its refusal or to controvert the petitioner's allegations.

(b) Within thirty days after the petition is filed, the special hearing panel shall convene at a place provided by the agency and at such time as is not inconvenient to the members of the panel, the agency and the individual.

(c) The special hearing panel shall consider the petition, answer, other written documents, official records, oral arguments, and such other information or testimony as either the agency or the individual deems pertinent, material or relevant. The special hearing panel may request and the agency and individual shall provide such additional non-privileged affidavits, statements, answers to interrogatories and copies of documents and records as are necessary to the resolution of the issues.

(d) The individual shall have the burden of proving by substantial competent evidence that the criminal history record information contained in the agency's records or submitted by the agency to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement is incorrect or incomplete. However, upon failure of the agency to answer the petition, to answer the individual's interrogatives or reasonable requests for other non-privileged written materials or copies of records, or to otherwise proceed in good faith hereunder, the burden shall shift to the agency.

(e) The special hearing panel, after consideration of all evidence and materials submitted to it and upon the agreement of at least two panelists, shall make tentative written findings of fact and law and make a tentative but specific finding as to how the individual's record ought to be corrected or supplemented, if at all, and shall certify its findings to the individual and the agency. Default and summary findings are authorized in the event either party unreasonably refuses to proceed in good faith hereunder.

(f) Within ten days of receipt of the tentative findings, the individual or agency shall serve their written exceptions upon the other party and each member of the panel. Thereafter, the panel shall reconvene for the purpose of considering only the prior record, the written exceptions, timely written responses thereto, and such additional evidence as any member of the panel may demand of either the agency or the individual. The tentative findings described in 11C-8.02(10)(e) may be modified as a majority of the members of the panel may deem appropriate, and shall become the final administrative findings of fact and law. If no written exceptions are filed within ten days of the party's receipt of the tentative findings, the tentative findings shall become the final administrative findings of fact and law. The special panel shall be deemed to have concluded its business when its final findings are certified to the agency, the individual, and the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. The record of proceedings hereunder shall be retained by the presiding panelist but may be copied by either party as necessary for appropriate review.

(g) A party who has been adversely affected by the findings of the special hearing panel may, within ten days of receipt of the final administrative findings of fact and law, petition the Executive Director of the Department of Law Enforcement for review of such findings. Review by the Executive Director shall be confined to the record transmitted. In the event no such petition is filed by either party, the agency and the Department of Law Enforcement shall conform their respective criminal history records in accordance with the final findings of the panel.

(h) The Executive Director, upon review of the record shall make known his findings to the individual, the agency, and the presiding panelist in writing within thirty days after the filing of the petition for review. In the event the Executive Director is in agreement with the final findings of the special hearing panel, he shall so state and may adopt said findings; however, should the Executive Director reach a contrary result, he shall state with specificity the reason therefor.

(i) If fifteen days after rendition of the Executive Director's final findings, neither the agency nor the individual have notified the Florida Department of Law Enforcement of its filing of suit to seek judicial review, the agency and the Department shall forthwith conform their respective criminal history records in accordance with the Executive Director's findings. In the event timely notice is received that judicial review has been initiated, the records in issue shall remain unchanged pending the outcome of the judicial review.

(11) Proceedings under subpart 11C-8.02(10) shall be as informal as fairness and principles of due process will allow. No evidence shall be rejected or deemed inadmissible merely because it is not best evidence, is hearsay, is not in proper form, or is not predicated or formally introduced as the rules of evidence would dictate in judicial proceedings. However, the special hearing panel may disregard or discount evidence which is without credibility, materiality, pertinency, or relevancy. As the interests of justice and fairness may require, it may counsel and assist in the presentation of a more effective case by either party. The panel shall synopsize its own rulings and oral testimony before it and reduce it to writing. Specific Authority 943.03(3) FS. Law Implemented 943.056 FS (1980 Supp.). ### Opinion of Attorney General

PUBLIC RECORDS

AVAILABILITY OF ARREST RECORDS

To: William A. Troelstrup, Commissioner, Department of Criminal Law Enforcement, Tallahassee

Prepared by: Sharyn L. Smith, Assistant Attorney General

QUESTIONS:

1. Is Ch. 119, F. S., the Public Records Law, applicable to the criminal history records (rap sheets) compiled and maintained in the computers of FDCLE?

2. Assuming an affirmative response to question 1, does Ch. 119 qualify as the type of Public Records Law described in Ch. 1, 28 C.F.R., 20b and commentary thereto so as to authorize dissemination of "nonconviction data"?

3. Should Ch. 119 be read in pari materia with Ch. 1, 28 C.F.R., 20b, supra, so that, for example, the requesting party might be required to execute an agreement wherein the purpose of the request and identity of the requester is stated and it is agreed that the information derived shall only be used for the purpose for which requested, etc., consistent with such regulations?

4. Having in mind that the practice of searching for criminal histories without use of fingerprint identification procedures is fraught with dangers and that the subjects of these records may have a privacy interest or are owed some duty of care, could Ch. 119 be offended if the information was withheld until the requesting party complied with the above conditions, and, additionally, provided enough identifying information on the subject so as to eliminate all but one possible record?

SUMMARY:

Chapter 119, F. S., Florida's Public Records Law, is applicable to criminal history information compiled and maintained by the Florida Department of Criminal Law Enforcement.

Chapter 119, F. S., qualifies as the type of public records law described in 28 C.F.R. s. 20 and commentary thereto so as to authorize dissemination of nonconviction as well as conviction data.

Chapter 119, F. S., should not be read in pari materia with 28 C.F.R. s. 20b, since the state public records law does not permit a custodian of public documents to require a person to execute an agreement for purposes of ascertaining the identity of the requester and the purpose for such request in the absence of a state statute authorizing the same.

The United States Supreme Court decision in Paul v. Davis, 424 U.S. 693 (1976), has apparently foreclosed the possibility that a federal constitutional privacy interest exists in relation to state dissemination of nonconviction arrest data.

Your questions are apparently prompted, in part, by recent activity at both the state and federal levels concerning the question of access to criminal history information. On May 20, 1975, regulations were published in the Federal Register, 40 Fed. Reg. 11714, which related to the collection, storage, and dissemination of criminal history record information. Hearings were held during December 1975 to consider comments from interested parties on the limitations placed on dissemination of criminal history information to noncriminal justice agencies. The purpose of these hearings was to determine whether the regulations, as they were drafted, appropriately balanced the public's right to know with the individual's right to privacy.

Upon examining the regulations proposed by the Department of Justice, Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, a number of states, including Florida, objected to the restrictions placed on dissemination of criminal history information insofar as the same conflicted with state law governing access to state records. On January 6, 1976, the Governor and Cabinet, as head of the Florida Department of Criminal Law Enforcement, adopted a resolution urging the Department of Justice, Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, to adopt rules recognizing the State of Florida's right to make criminal history information a matter of state public record pursuant to Ch. 119, F. S., the Public Records Law, without running the risk of incurring a fine of up to $10,000 or the loss of Law Enforcement Assistance Administration funds.

FLORIDA

As a result of the objections raised by Florida and other states, the federal regulations were modified to recognize that access to state and local public records is an area that should appropriately be left to regulation by the states.

The regulations were drawn in order to implement s. 524(b) of the Crime Control Act of 1973 which provides in pertinent part:

All criminal history information collected, stored and disseminated through support under this title shall contain, to the maximum extent feasible, disposition as well as arrest data where arrest data is included therein. The collection, storage and dissemination of such information shall take place under procedures reasonably designed to insure that all such information is kept current therein: The Administration shall assure that the security and privacy of all information is adequately provided for and that information shall only be used for law enforcement and criminal justice and other lawful purposes. In addition, an individual who believes that criminal history information concerning him contained in an automated system is inaccurate, incomplete, and maintained in violation of this title, shall, upon satisfactory verification of his identity, be entitled to review such information to obtain a copy of it for the purpose of challenge or correction.

The dispute between the states and the federal government centered on whether access mandated pursuant to state or local public records laws was a "lawful purpose" as contemplated by the federal act set forth above. The amended regulations, 41 Fed. Reg.

11714, proposed March 19, 1976, 28 C.F.R. s. 20.1-20.28, now provide that conviction data may be disseminated without limitation and that criminal history record information relating to the offense for which an individual is currently within the criminal justice system may be disseminated without limitations. Insofar as nonconviction record information is concerned, the regulations now provide that after December 31, 1977, most noncriminal justice access would require authorization pursuant to a statute, ordinance, executive order, court rule, decision, or order. The regulations no longer require express authority authorizing access to such information. Such a requirement can now be construed from a general requirement in a statute or order. A state public records law which has been interpreted by a state to require that criminal history information, including nonconviction data, be made available to the public is an example of such a general requirement. Determinations as to the purposes for which dissemination of criminal history record information is authorized by state law, executive order, local ordinance, court rule, decision, or order are left to the appropriate state or local officials.

It should also be noted that, prior to the amendments, the regulations contained a requirement that criminal history record information in court records of public judicial proceedings be accessed on a chronological basis. As amended, the regulations are inapplicable to records of public judicial proceedings whether accessed on a chronological or alphabetical basis.

On the basis of this background information, your questions will now be addressed.

AS TO QUESTION 1:

Pursuant to Ch. 119, F. S., records of arrest have been considered matters of public record which are subject to public inspection and examination. See, e.g., Grays v. State, 217 So.2d 133 (3 D.C.A. Fla., 1969); Malone v. State, 222 So.2d 769 (3 D.C.A. Fla., 1969); Williams v. State, 285 So.2d 13 (Fla. 1973); AGO's 057-157, 072-168, 073-166, 075-9, and 076-156. The "police secrets" rule recognized in the cases and opinions previously cited does not make records of arrest confidential. Similarly, I am unaware of any general or special law which prohibits or limits access to such information. There are, however, statutes which do serve to make certain arrest information confidential. See, e.g., ss. 39.03(6)(a) and 39.12(3)-(4) and AGO's 070-113 and 070-75 relating to records of juvenile offenses; s. 905.26, concerning disclosure of the finding of an indictment against a person not in custody until the person has been arrested. In the absence of such a statutory provision, arrest information compiled by FDCL is subject to s. 119.07(1).

AS TO QUESTION 2:

As contemplated by the federal regulations, Ch. 119, F. S., constitutes a state public records law which has been construed to authorize dissemination of arrest information. Pursuant to 28 C.F.R. s. 20.21(b)(2), after December 31, 1977, dissemination of nonconviction data is limited to, inter alia, individuals and agencies authorized to receive such information by statutes, ordinance, executive order, or court rule, decision, or orders as construed by appropriate state or local officials of agencies. Accordingly, your question is answered in the affirmative.

AS TO QUESTION 3:

It has been consistently held that Ch. 119, F. S., does not require a citizen to demonstrate a particular or special interest in a record as a condition to obtaining access to public documents. Thus, mere curiosity or commercial purposes do not vest in either the courts or the custodian discretion to deny inspection. See State ex rel. Davis v. McMillan, 38 So. 666 (Fla. 1905), holding that abstract companies may copy public documents from the clerk's office for their own use and sell such copies to the public for a profit. Chapter 119 concerns itself solely with what may be disclosed and not to whom, in the absence of a particular statute setting forth such a special requirement for inspection. Accord: State ex rel. Davidson v. Couch, 156 So. 297 (Fla. 1934), in which the court noted that one does not have to be a taxpayer or have a "special interest" in public documents to inspect them, and Warden v. Bennett, 340 So.2d 977, 978 (2 D.C.A. Fla., 1977), holding that a person need not show a special interest or proper motive or purpose in order to inspect public records. Also see AGO's 074-113, in which it was stated that a private person may inspect, copy, and/or photograph worthless check affidavits without demonstrating a personal interest therein, and AGO 073-167, which held that a person may inspect records maintained by the abandoned property section of the Department of Banking and Finance without being required to show a special interest in such inspection.

Accordingly, a person who demands access to arrest records which are public records under Ch. 119, F. S., cannot be required as a condition of inspection to execute an agreement such as that contemplated by your third question.

AS TO QUESTION 4:

Since the answer to your third question is in the negative, it would appear that your fourth question is now moot. I would note, however, that in Paul v. Davis, 424 U. S. 693 (1976), the United States Supreme Court refused to recognize that the dissemination by the police of defamatory nonconviction arrest information violated an individual's right to privacy. As one federal court has recognized, the court's decision in Paul appears to have cut short the full development of nascent doctrines which sought some accommodation between values of individual privacy and the recordkeeping responsibilities of the executive branch. Hammons v. Scott, 423 F.Supp. 618 (N.D. Calif. 1976); Hammons v. Scott, 423 F.Supp. 625 (N.D. Calif. 1976). The issue of what, if any, restraints should be imposed upon the practices of public agencies regarding the maintenance and dissemination of arrest records of persons who were never convicted of the crime for which they were arrested has concerned numerous courts. See, e.g., Utz v. Crellinane, 520 F.2d 467 (D.C. Cir. 1975); Tarleton v. Saxbe, 507 F.2d 1116 (D.C. Cir. 1974); Menard v. Saxbe, 498 F.2d 1017 (D.C. Cir. 1974); Menard v. Mitchell, 430 F.2d 486 (D.C. Cir. 1970); United States v. Dooley, 364 F.Supp. 74 (E.D. Pa. 1973); United States v. Kalish, 271 F.Supp. 968 (D.P.R. 1967); see also, Davidson v. Dill, 503 P.2d 157 (Colo. 1972); Eddy v. Moore, 487 P.2d 211 (Wash. 1971). The decision in Paul suggests that the constitutional right to privacy claim underlying the above decisions would not be adopted by the United States Supreme Court.

Accordingly, the question of access to arrest records is a matter not of federal constitutional law but rather state statutory law, and the conditions which may be imposed as a precondition inspection must either be found in Ch. 119, F. S., or in other applicable state statutes.

OPINIONS OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Functions of the council include functions which are clearly executive functions within the meaning of the Constitution. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-142.

And former provision including judges as council members void. — The former statutory mandate that the council include a member of the Georgia Council of Superior Court Judges and a member of the Georgia Association of Municipal Judges is in conflict with the Constitution and is therefore void. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-142.

Center limits its gathering of data to information concerning arrests and convictions. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-11.

Center identifies persons charged with crime, generally not persons charged with disorderly conduct. — The center is authorized to maintain records of reported crime and, in some instances, to record information identifying persons charged with the commission of crime; however, the center is not generally authorized to maintain records identifying persons charged with disorderly conduct. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-144.

And information to State Election Board. — Since the State Election Board is empowered to investigate and enforce this section by civil actions, it would be entitled to receive criminal history record information in connection with any such investigation or litigation for offenses under § 21-2-8. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-144.

Any dissemination of any information obtained pursuant to this Code section to any person not specifically authorized to receive it or any use of any information obtained pursuant to this Code section for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was obtained shall constitute a violation of Code Section 35-3-38.

(c) In the event that a decision is made adverse to a person whose record was obtained pursuant to this Code section, the person will be informed by the business or person making the adverse decision of all information pertinent to this decision. This shall include information that a record was obtained from the center, the specific contents of the record, and the effect that the record had upon the decision.

(e) The center shall disseminate records pursuant to subparagraph (a)(1)(A) of this Code section only upon positive identification by fingerprint comparison. The center shall disseminate records pursuant to subparagraph (a)(1)(B) of this Code section on fingerprint identification; and when fingerprints are unavailable or time prohibits the use of fingerprints for identification, identification may be made through the use of the name, date of birth, sex, and race of the person, with appropriate qualifications.

(g) The council is empowered to adopt rules, regulations, and forms to implement this Code section and provide for security and privacy of information disseminated pursuant hereto, giving first priority to the criminal justice requirements of this article. Such rules may include requirements for users, audits of users, and such other procedures as may be necessary to prevent unauthorized use of criminal history record information and to ensure compliance with federal regulations.

(h) The council may adopt rules authorizing any local law enforcement agency to act as an agent for the center in receiving requests for information and disseminating information pursuant to such requests. ### OPINIONS OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

States free to maintain more or less restrictive access policy than contained in federal guidelines. — The recent changes in the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration regulations indicate that these rules are to be viewed as broad guidelines which set the outermost limits on the collection, storage, and dissemination of criminal history data; under this concept, the states would be free to maintain a more restrictive policy regarding public access to criminal history records, unless through legislation, ordinance, or executive or court order a state elects to adopt a more liberal policy in regard to the public's right to gain access to criminal history information. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-57.

General Assembly expressed desire to narrowly open access to criminal records to the private sector, for the limited purpose of making preemployment checks and job assignment decisions in certain circumstances, as well as to have such information to assist them in making a determination as to whether to prosecute persons apprehended on the premises who are engaged in a criminal act against the business. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-57.

Word "businesses," as used in paragraph (a)(1), is a general term, and is not restricted solely to profit motivated enterprises. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-57.

Employment agencies, credit corporations, and firms doing background checks not entitled to information. — Subparagraph (a)(1)(A) refers to those individuals directly involved in making the ultimate decision as to whether to hire or transfer an individual to a new job assignment; accordingly, employment agencies, retail credit corporations, and firms doing background checks would not be entitled to criminal history information under this section. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-57.

Neither is private security agency member. — A private security agency member hired by a business to protect its property, or any other member of the security agency hired by a business, would not be entitled to the criminal history information on the individual it has apprehended, or it suspects of committing a crime, since the security agency is not the business against whom the crime or suspected crime has been committed. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-57.

Permissible to relax local querying requirement when adjudications of guilt on criminal suspects sought. — The furnishing of adjudications of guilt to the personnel of a business on persons apprehended or suspected of having committed a specific criminal act, in which the victim is the business, is more in the nature of a criminal justice dissemination for which time in furnishing such information may be of the essence, so as not to prolong any detention of the individual apprehended; accordingly, it would be permissible to relax the local querying requirement when adjudications of guilt are sought under this section. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-57.

(i) All criminal justice agencies within the state shall submit to the center, periodically at a time and in such form as prescribed by the center, information regarding only the cases within its jurisdiction and in which it is or has been actively engaged. (j) Any governmental agency which is not included within the description of those departments and agencies required to submit the uniform crime report provided for in subsection (i) of this Code section but which desires to submit a report shall be furnished with the proper forms by the center. (k) Upon the request of the center, local law enforcement agencies shall periodically provide for audit samples of incident reports for the preceding reporting period so that the center may help ensure agency compliance with national and state uniform crime reporting requirements.

(l) All law enforcement agencies within the state shall report to the center, in a manner prescribed by the center, all persons wanted by and all vehicles and identifiable property stolen from their jurisdictions. The report shall be made as soon as practicable after the investigating department or agency either ascertains that a vehicle or identifiable property has been stolen or obtains a warrant for an individual's arrest or determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the individual has committed the crime. In no event shall this time exceed 12 hours after the investigating department or agency determines that it has grounds to believe that a vehicle or property was stolen or that the wanted person should be arrested.

(m) If at any time after making a report as required by subsection (l) of this Code section it is determined by the reporting department or agency that a person is no longer wanted due to his apprehension or any other factor or when a vehicle or property stolen is recovered, the law enforcement agency shall immediately notify the center of such status. Furthermore, if the agency making the apprehension or recovery is other than the one which made the original wanted or stolen report, then it shall immediately notify the originating agency of the full particulars relating to the apprehension or recovery. (a) Nothing in this article shall be construed so as to authorize any person, agency, corporation, or other legal entity to invade the privacy of any citizen as defined by the General Assembly or the courts other than to the extent provided in this article.

(b) The center shall make a person's criminal records available for inspection by him or his attorney upon written application to the center. Should the person or his attorney contest the accuracy of any portion of the records, it shall be mandatory upon the center to make available to the person or his attorney a copy of the contested record upon written application identifying the portion of the record contested and showing the reason for the contest of accuracy. Forms, procedures, identification, and other related aspects pertinent to access to records may be prescribed by the center.

(c) If an individual believes his criminal records to be inaccurate or incomplete, he may request the original agency having custody or control of the detail records to purge, modify, or supplement them and to notify the center of such changes. Should the agency decline to act or should the individual believe the agency's decision to be unsatisfactory, the individual or his attorney may, within 30 days of such decision, enter an appeal to the superior court of the county of his residence or to the court in the county where the agency exists, with notice to the agency, to acquire an order by the court that the subject information be expunged, modified, or supplemented by the agency of record. The court shall conduct a de novo hearing and may order such relief as it finds to be required by law. Such appeals shall be entered in the same manner as appeals are entered from the probate court, except that the appellant shall not be required to post bond or pay the costs in advance. If the aggrieved person desires, the appeal may be heard by the judge at the first term or in chambers. A notice sent by registered or certified mail shall be sufficient service on the agency having custody or control of disputed record that such appeal has been entered. Should the record in question be found to be inaccurate, incomplete, or misleading, the court shall order it to be appropriately expunged, modified, or supplemented by an explanatory notation. Each agency or individual in the state with custody, possession, or control of any such record shall promptly cause each and every copy thereof in his custody, possession, or control to be altered in accordance with the court's order. Notification of each such deletion, amendment, and supplementary notation shall be promptly disseminated to any individuals or agencies, including the center, to which the records in question have been communicated, as well as to the individual whose records have been ordered so altered.

(d) Agencies, including the center, at which criminal offender records are sought to be inspected may prescribe reasonable hours and places of inspection and may impose such additional procedures, fees not to exceed $3.00, or restrictions including fingerprinting as are reasonably necessary to assure the records' security, to verify the identities of those who seek to inspect them, and to maintain an orderly and efficient mechanism for inspection of records.

§846-2.5 Purpose of the criminal justice data center. (a) The Hawaii criminal justice data center, hereinafter referred to as the "data center", shall be responsible for the collection, storage, dissemination, and analysis of all pertinent criminal justice data from all criminal justice agencies, including, the collection, storage, and dissemination of criminal history record information by criminal justice agencies in such a manner as to balance the right of the public and press to be informed, the right of privacy of individual citizens, and the necessity for law enforcement agencies to utilize the tools needed to prevent crimes and detect criminals in support of the right of the public to be free from crime and the fear of crime.

(b) The attorney general shall select and enforce systems of identification of all persons arrested or charged with a criminal offense and provide for the recording and compilation of statistics related to crime. The attorney general shall establish systems of identification and provide for the collection of data and statistics relating to crime.

The several counties shall provide the necessary equipment and the compensation of the persons required to install and carry out the work of such systems of identification and statistics in their respective jurisdictions; provided that all such expenses in connection with prison matters exclusively within the control of the State shall be borne by the State.

The systems shall be uniform throughout the State, shall be continuous in operation, and shall be maintained as far as possible in such manner as shall be in keeping with the most approved and modern methods of identification and of the collection and compilation of the statistics.

The attorney general shall keep a uniform record of the work of the courts, prosecuting officers, the police, and other agencies or officers for the prevention or detection of crime and the enforcement of law in a form suitable (1) for the study of the cause and prevention of crime and delinquency and of the efforts made and efficacy thereof to detect or prevent crime and to apprehend and punish violators of law and (2) for the examination of the records of the operations of such officers and the results thereof.

(c) The attorney general may prescribe, establish, and change forms to be followed in keeping records and in making reports to the data center. All courts and the judges and other officers thereof and all prosecuting officers, chiefs of police, and other agencies and officers for the prevention or detection of crime and for the enforcement of law shall use such forms, keep such records, and make such reports to the data center as may be so required.

(d) In order to accomplish this purpose, the data center shall develop systems and provide the structure that support criminal justice information systems, provide statistical research and data analysis, and make public periodic reports which shall provide the public with a clear view of the criminal justice systems. ### Amendment Note

L 1982 substituted "criminal justice data center" for "criminal justice information data center".
L 1983 amended subsections (a) and (b) and added subsections (c) and (d).

[§846-3] Reporting to data center. The chiefs of the police of the counties of the State and agencies of state and county governments having power of arrest shall furnish the data center with descriptions of all such persons who are arrested by them for any felony or misdemeanor, or as fugitives from the criminal justice system of another jurisdiction, or for any offense declared by rule or regulation promulgated by the attorney general to be a significant offense necessary to be reported for the proper administration of criminal justice. The data center shall in all appropriate cases forward necessary identifying data and other information to the system maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. [L 1979, c 129, pt of §2]

[§846-4] Query of data center. Criminal justice agencies shall query the data center to assure that the most up-to-date disposition data is being used. Such inquiries shall be made prior to any dissemination except in those cases where the agency determines that time is of the essence and the center is technically incapable of responding within the necessary time period, provided, however, that where local criminal justice agencies have entered into agreements for the sharing of a computerized criminal history record information system, the agency operating such system shall not be required to query the data center prior to disseminating information to the agencies which are party to the agreements. [L 1979, c 129, pt of §2]

[§846-5] Reporting of dispositions. It shall be the responsibility of every criminal justice agency in this State to report to the data center the disposition of cases which enter their area in the administration of criminal justice to insure that all systems maintained in this State shall contain complete and accurate criminal history record information. All dispositions shall be reported as promptly as feasible but not later than ninety days after the happening of an event which constitutes a disposition. [L 1979, c 129, pt of §2]

[§846-6] Systematic audit. All criminal justice agencies shall institute a process of data collection, entry, storage, and systematic audit of criminal history record information that will minimize the possibility of recording and storing inaccurate information. Any criminal justice agency which finds that it has reported inaccurate information of a material nature shall forthwith notify all criminal justice agencies known to have received such information. All criminal justice agencies shall:

These dissemination limitations do not apply to conviction data.

Criminal history record information disseminated to non-criminal justice agencies shall be used only for the purposes for which it was given.

No agency or individual shall confirm the existence or nonexistence of criminal history record information to any person or agency that would not be eligible to receive the information itself. [L 1979, c 129, pt of §2]

[§846-10] Dissemination. Criminal history record information may be disseminated to:

[§846-13] Annual audits. The attorney general shall conduct annual audits of a representative sample of criminal justice agencies which may be chosen on a random basis, to verify the accuracy and completeness of criminal history record information maintained by such agencies, and to determine adherence with this chapter and regulations promulgated thereunder. Criminal justice agencies shall retain appropriate records to facilitate the annual audits. Audit of the data center shall be performed by another state agency. [L 1979, c 129, pt of §2]

Case Notes

Cases decided under prior program.

Procedure (under earlier program) does not impose an impermissible burden on exercise of right of trial by jury. 58 H. 304, 568 P.2d 1194.

Under procedures established before enactment of this section, it was held that a motion for DAG plea was not seasonably made after a plea of not guilty and a trial resulting in a finding of guilt. 58 H. 412, 570 P.2d 1323.

Denial of motion for DAG plea is within discretion of trial court. 59 H. 562, 584 P.2d 126.

DAG plea is not a conviction and may not be used for impeachment purposes. 62 H. 259, 614 P.2d 386.

Granting or denial of motion for DAG plea is within discretion of trial court and will not be disturbed unless there has been manifest abuse. 1 H. App. 157, 616 P.2d 227.

This chapter does not prohibit trial court's inherent power to grant or deny deferred acceptance of nolo contendere pleas. 1 H. App. 602, 623 P. 2d 892.

§853-2 Plea of guilty or nolo contendere; procedure. Upon motion made before sentence by the defendant, the prosecutor, or on its own motion, the court will either proceed in accordance with section 853-1, or deny the motion and accept the defendant's plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or allow the defendant to withdraw his plea of guilty or nolo contendere only for good cause. [L 1976, c 154, pt of §2; am L 1983, c 290, §3]

Amendment Note

L 1983 added references to nolo contendere plea.

Case Notes

Denial of withdrawal of guilty plea is not abuse of discretion. (Earlier program.) 58 H. 304, 568 P.2d 1194.

§853-3 Violation of terms and conditions during deferment; result. Upon violation of a term or condition set by the court for a deferred acceptance of guilty plea or deferred acceptance of nolo contendere plea, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. [L 1976, c 154, pt of §2; am L 1983, c 290, §4]

Chapter 712

§712-1255 Conditional discharge. (1) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of any offense under this part of chapter 329 or under any statute of the United States or of any state relating to a dangerous drug, harmful drug, detrimental drug, or an intoxicating compound, pleads guilty to or is found guilty of promoting a dangerous drug, harmful drug, detrimental drug, or an intoxicating compound under sections 712-1243, 712-1245, 712-1246, 712-1248, 712-1249, or 712-1250, the court, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the accused, may defer further proceedings and place him on probation upon terms and conditions. Upon violation of a term or condition, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided.

(2) Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge the person and dismiss the proceedings against him.

(3) Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without adjudication of guilt and is not a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime.

If it is not a first offense, the prosecutor shall file an information setting forth the prior convictions. The defendant shall have the opportunity in open court to affirm or deny that he is identical with the person previously convicted. If he denies the identity, sentence shall be postponed for such time as to permit the trial, before a jury if the defendant has a right to trial by jury and demands a jury, on the sole issue of the defendant's identity with the person previously convicted. [L 1972, c 9, pt of §1]

§712-1256 Expunging of court records. (1) Upon the dismissal of such person and discharge of the proceeding against him under section 712-1255, this person, if he was not over twenty years of age at the time of the offense, may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records all recordation relating to his arrest, indictment, or information, trial, finding of guilt, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to this section.

(2) If the court determines, after hearing, that such person was dismissed and the proceedings against him discharged and that he was not over twenty years of age at the time of the offense, it shall enter such order.

(3) The effect of such order shall be to restore such person, in the contemplation of the law, to the status he occupied before such arrest or indictment or information.

(4) No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest or indictment or information, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose. (h) Cooperate with and assist all law enforcement agencies in the state in the establishment of a state system of criminal identification and in obtaining fingerprints and other identifying data on all persons described in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c).

(i) Offer assistance and, when practicable, instructions to all local law enforcement agencies in establishing efficient local bureaus of identification and records systems.

19-4813. Cooperation in criminal identification, records and statistics.—(1) All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies shall obtain, or cause to be obtained, the fingerprints in duplicate, according to the fingerprint system of identification established by the director of the federal bureau of investigation, full face, profile and full length photographs, if possible, and other available identifying data, of each person arrested or taken into custody for an offense of a type designated in section 19-4812(2)(a), Idaho Code, of all persons arrested or taken into custody as fugitives from justice, and fingerprints in duplicate and other identifying data of all unidentified human corpses in their jurisdictions, but photographs need not be taken if it is known that photographs of the type listed, taken within the previous year, are on file at the bureau. Fingerprints and other identifying data of persons arrested or taken into custody for offenses other than those designated in section 19-4812(2)(a), Idaho Code, may be taken at the discretion of the law enforcement agency concerned. Any person arrested or taken into custody and subsequently released without charge, or cleared of the offense through court proceedings, shall have any fingerprint record taken in connection therewith returned upon request and pursuant to judicial order.

(2) Fingerprints and other identifying data required to be taken under subsection (1) shall be forwarded to the bureau within fourteen (14) days after taking for filing and classification but the period of fourteen (14) days may be extended to cover any intervening holiday or weekend.

(3) All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies shall forward to the bureau copies or detailed descriptions of the arrest warrants and the identifying data described in section 19-4812(2)(c), Idaho Code, immediately upon determination of the fact that the warrant cannot be served for the reason stated. If the warrant is subsequently served or withdrawn, the law enforcement agency concerned must immediately notify the bureau of such service or withdrawal. In any case, the law enforcement agency concerned must annually, no later than January 31 of each year, confirm to the bureau all arrest warrants of this type which continue to be outstanding.

(4) All persons in charge of state penal and correctional institutions shall obtain fingerprints, according to the fingerprint system of identification established by the director of the federal bureau of investigation, and full face and profile photographs of all persons received on commitment to these institutions. The prints and photographs so taken shall be forwarded to the bureau, together with any other identifying data requested, within ten (10) days after the arrival at the institution of the person committed. Full length photographs in release dress shall be taken immediately prior to the release of such persons from these institutions. Immediately after release, these photographs shall be forwarded to the bureau.

(5) All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies, all clerks of court, all persons in charge of state, county and municipal penal and correctional institutions, and all persons in charge of state and county probation and parole offices shall supply the bureau with the information described in section 19-4812(2) (f), Idaho Code, on the basis of the forms and instructions to be supplied by the bureau under section 19-4812(2) (g), Idaho Code. Provided, however, that clerks of court are not required to provide said information to the bureau if they have previously provided the information to the law enforcement agency submitting the offense report and the law enforcement agency has forwarded the information to the bureau.

(6) All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies in this state shall furnish the bureau with any other identifying data required in accordance with guidelines established by the bureau. All law enforcement agencies and penal and correctional institutions in this state having criminal identification files shall cooperate in providing to the bureau copies of such items presently in these files as will aid in establishing the nucleus of the state criminal identification file. [I. C., § 19-4813, as added by 1972, ch. 238, § 2, p. 621; am. 1974, ch. 27, § 9, p. 811.]

Chapter 26

19-2604. Discharge of defendant — Amendment of judgment. — 1. If sentence has been imposed but suspended, or if sentence has been withheld, upon application of the defendant and upon satisfactory showing that the defendant has at all times complied with the terms and conditions upon which he was placed on probation, the court may, if convinced by the showing made that there is no longer cause for continuing the period of probation, and if it be compatible with the public interest, terminate the sentence or set aside the plea of guilty or conviction of the defendant, and finally dismiss the case and discharge the defendant: and this shall apply to the cases in which defendants have been convicted and granted probation by the court before this law goes into effect, as well as to cases which arise thereafter. The final dismissal of the case as herein provided shall have the effect of restoring the defendant to his civil rights.

2. If sentence has been imposed but suspended during the first one hundred and twenty (120) days of a sentence to the custody of the state board of correction, and the defendant placed upon probation as provided in 4 of section 19-2601, Idaho Code, upon application of the defendant, the prosecuting attorney, or upon the court's own motion, and upon satisfactory showing that the defendant has at all times complied with the terms and conditions of his probation, the court may amend the judgment of conviction from a term in the custody of the state board of correction to "confinement in a penal facility" for the number of days served prior to suspension, and the amended judgment may be deemed to be a misdemeanor conviction. ## Conditions of Withheld Judgment.

Under this section, until the conditions of a withheld judgment have been satisfied, a defendant subject to those conditions by way of his guilty plea or verdict of guilty is a convicted felon. United States v. Locke, 409 F. Supp. 600 (D. Idaho), aff'd, 542 F.2d 800 (9th Cir. 1976).

Where defendant, who had pleaded guilty to charge of burglary and had been placed on probation, received and possessed firearms after the period of probation, but where defendant had not applied to have guilty plea set aside, defendant was a convicted felon and subject to punishment for violating federal statute proscribing convicted felon from possessing or receiving firearm in commerce. United States v. Locke, 409 F. Supp. 600 (D. Idaho), aff'd, 542 F.2d 800 (9th Cir. 1976).

Conviction.

Where defendant, who had pleaded guilty to charge of burglary and had been placed on probation, received and possessed firearms during the period of probation, defendant was a "convicted felon," since defendant had not as of the dates of possession and receipt fulfilled the conditions imposed upon him by the trial which withheld judgment in the burglary prosecution. United States v. Locke, 409 F. Supp. 600 (D. Idaho), aff'd, 542 F.2d 800 (9th Cir. 1976).

Effect of Withheld Judgment.

Where defendant, who had pleaded guilty to charge of burglary and had been placed on probation, received and possessed firearms during the period of probation, defendant was subject to punishment for violating federal statute proscribing convicted felon from possessing or receiving firearm in commerce, even though judgment in the burglary case was withheld. United States v. Locke, 409 F. Supp. 600 (D. Idaho), aff'd, 542 F.2d 800 (9th Cir. 1976).

In a prosecution for violating federal statute proscribing convicted felon from possessing or receiving firearm in commerce, it was no defense that defendant, who had pleaded guilty to charge of burglary in state court and had been placed on probation, was advised by a public defender that he was not a convicted felon because he had received a

This section is not intended to apply to habitual criminals or to a class of persons who indicate by their persistency in the commission of crime that nothing short of actual restraint will deter them from committing other offenses. In re France, 38

Probation.

Where maximum sentence for conviction for drawing a check without funds was six months at the time the crime was committed, judgment placing defendant on probation for two years was excessive, but judgment of probation was valid for period of six months. § 2. The Department shall furnish, upon application, all information pertaining to the identification of any person or persons, a plate, photograph, outline picture, description, measurements, or any data of which there is a record in its office. Such information shall be furnished to peace officers of the United States, of other states or territories, of the Insular possessions of the United States, of foreign countries duly authorized to receive the same, to all peace officers of the State of Illinois and, conviction information only, to units of local government and school districts under the provisions of subparagraph (e) of paragraph 6 of Section 55a of "The Civil Administrative Code of Illinois".<sup>1</sup> Applications shall be in writing and accompanied by a certificate, signed by the peace officer or chief administrative officer or his designee making such application, to the effect that the information applied for is necessary in the interest of and will be used solely in the due administration of the criminal laws or for the purpose of evaluating the qualifications and character of employees or prospective employees of units of local government and school districts.

- (1) Any injury resulting from the discharge of a firearm;
- (2) Any injury sustained in the commission of or as a victim of a criminal offense.

Any hospital, physician or nurse, shall be forever held harmless from any civil liability for their reasonable compliance with the provisions of this Section.

Added by P.A. 77-1424, § 1, eff. Sept. 2, 1971.

206-5. Fingerprints and arrest records—Expungement of alias

§ 5. All policing bodies of this State shall furnish to the Department, daily, in the form and detail the Department requires, copies of finger prints and descriptions, of all persons who are arrested on charges of violating any penal statute of this State; and of all persons who have in their possession, inks, dye, paper or other articles necessary in the making of counterfeit notes or in the alteration of bank notes or dies, molds or other articles used in the making of counterfeit money and intended to be used by them for such unlawful purposes. Provided, however, that the information required to be furnished to the Department pursuant to this Section shall be required only for offenses which are classified as felonies and Class A or B misdemeanors. Moving or nonmoving traffic violations under "The Illinois Vehicle Code"<sup>1</sup> shall not be reported except for violations of Chapter 4 and Section 11-204 of that Code.<sup>2</sup> In addition, conservation offenses, as defined in the Supreme Court Rule 501(c),<sup>3</sup> which are classified as Class B misdemeanors shall not be reported. The Department may by its promulgated rule exempt specific police departments which have acceptable machine record reports from sending any "raw" material to the Department required by this Section except finger prints and photographs. Whenever a policing body is so exempted by rule it shall furnish to the Department acceptable copies of their machine record reports covering the exempted "raw" material. All photographs, finger prints or other records of identification so taken shall, upon the acquittal of a person charged with the crime, or, upon his being released without being convicted, be returned to him. Whenever a person, not having previously been convicted of any criminal offense or municipal ordinance violation, charged with a violation of a municipal ordinance or a felony or misdemeanor, is acquitted or released without being convicted, the Chief Judge of the circuit wherein the charge was brought, or any judge of that circuit designated by the Chief Judge, may upon verified petition of the defendant order the record of arrest and the records of the circuit court relating to such arrest expunged from the official records of the arresting authority and the records of the clerk of the circuit court.

Whenever a person has been convicted of a crime or of the violation of a municipal ordinance, in the name of a person whose identity he has stolen or otherwise come into possession of, the aggrieved person from whom such identity was stolen or otherwise obtained without authorization, upon learning of the person having been arrested using his identity, may, upon verified petition to the chief judge of the circuit wherein such arrest was had, have a court order entered by such chief judge expunging the arrest record, conviction, if any, and all official records of the arresting authority and trial court, if any, and may have his name removed from all court records in connection with the arrest and conviction, if any, changed by order of the court to show a correction Nunc pro tunc, including the insertion in such records of the real name of the offender, if known or ascertainable, in lieu of the aggrieved's name. Nothing in this Section shall limit the Department of Law Enforcement or local law enforcement agencies from listing under an offender's real name the false names he or she has used. For purposes of this Section, convictions for moving and nonmoving traffic violations other than convictions for violations of Chapter 4 and Section 11-204 of "The Illinois Vehicle Code" shall not be a bar to expunging the record of arrest and court records for violation of a misdemeanor or municipal ordinance. Notice of the above petition shall be served upon the State's Attorney or prosecutor charged with the duty of prosecuting the offense. Unless the State's Attorney or prosecutor objects to the petition within 30 days from the date of the notice, the court shall enter an order granting or denying the petition. The clerk of the court shall promptly mail a copy of the order to the accused.

1/2. In general

Right of a person who has been acquitted or released without being convicted to the return of all photographs, fingerprints and other records of identification is unequivocal without reference to whether the person has previously or subsequently been convicted of a crime. People v. Glisson, 1978, 14 Ill.Dec. 473, 69 Ill.2d 502, 372 N.E.2d 669.

Person who had received a certificate of pardon did not come within scope of this paragraph providing for expungement of records and return of records of identification to persons who are acquitted of a crime or who are released without being convicted. Id.

Simple issuance of a pardon does not vest the recipient with an entitlement to expungement of arrest records or to return of photographs, fingerprints, and other records of identification. Id.

Despite fact that Juvenile Court Act was silent as to expungement of juvenile records, circuit court possessed inherent equitable authority to order expungement of photographs, fingerprints and other records of identification made or taken from infant who was taken into custody and detained by city police department but who was subsequently released without any charges being brought. St. Louis v. Drolet, 1977, 7 Ill.Dec. 74, 67 Ill.2d 43, 364 N.E.2d 61.

43.6. Reports and records of obligation, receipt and use of public funds as public records

§ 3. Reports and records of the obligation, receipt and use of public funds of the State are public records available for inspection by the public. These records shall be kept at the official place of business of the State or at a designated place of business of the State. These records shall be available for public inspection during regular office hours except when in immediate use by persons exercising official duties which require the use of those records. The person in charge of such records may require a notice in writing to be submitted 24 hours prior to inspection and may require that such notice specify which records are to be inspected. Nothing in this section shall require the State to invade or assist in the invasion of any person's right to privacy. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to limit any right given by statute or rule of law with respect to the inspection of other types of records.

Warrants and vouchers in the keeping of the State Comptroller may be destroyed by him as authorized in "An Act in relation to the reproduction and destruction of records kept by the Comptroller", approved August 1, 1949, as now or hereafter amended.<sup>1</sup>

43.7. Right of access by public—Reproductions—Fees

of the same or of making photographs of the same while in the possession, custody and control of the lawful custodian thereof, or his authorized deputy. The photographing shall be done under the supervision of the lawful custodian of said records, who has the right to adopt and enforce reasonable rules governing such work. The work of photographing shall, when possible, be done in the room where the records, documents or instruments are kept. However, if in the judgment of the lawful custodian of the records, documents or instruments, it would be impossible or impracticable to perform the work in the room in which the records, documents or instruments are kept, the work shall be done in some other room or place as nearly adjacent as possible to the room where kept. Where the providing of a separate room or place is necessary, the expense of providing for the same shall be borne by the person or persons desiring to photograph the records, documents or instruments. The lawful custodian of the records, documents or instruments may charge the same fee for the services rendered by him or his assistant in supervising the photographing as may be charged for furnishing a certified copy or copies of the said record, document or instrument. In the event that the lawful custodian of said records shall deem it advisable in his judgment to furnish photographs of such public records, instruments or documents in lieu of allowing the same to be photographed, then in such event he may furnish photographs of such records and charge a fee of 35¢ per page when the page to be photographed does not exceed legal size and $1.00 per page when the page to be photographed exceeds legal size and where the fees and charges therefor are not otherwise fixed by law.

43.8. State Archives Division—Creation

43.9. Secretary of State to be State Archivist—Assistants

§ 6. The Secretary of State shall be the State Archivist and Records Administrator and he shall appoint such assistants, who shall be technically qualified and experienced in the control and management of archival materials and in records management practices and techniques, as are necessary to carry out his duties as State Archivist.

(2) may accept for deposit in the State Archives official papers, drawings, maps, writings, and records of every description of counties, municipal corporations, political subdivisions and courts of this State, and records of the federal government pertaining to Illinois, when such materials are deemed by the Secretary to have sufficient historical or other value to warrant their continued preservation by the State of Illinois.

(3) whenever he deems it in the public interest, may accept for deposit in the State Archives motion picture films, still pictures, and sound recordings that are appropriate for preservation by the State government as evidence of its organization, functions and policies.

(4) shall be responsible for the custody, use, servicing, and withdrawal of records transferred for deposit in the State Archives. The Secretary shall observe any rights, limitations, or restrictions imposed by law relating to the use of records, including the provisions of the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Confidentiality Act<sup>1</sup> which limit access to certain records or which permit access to certain records only after the removal of all personally identifiable data. Access to restricted records shall be at the direction of the depositing State agency or, in the case of records deposited by the legislative or judicial branches of State government at the direction of the branch which deposited them, but no limitation on access to such records shall extend more than 75 years after the creation of the records, except as provided in the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Confidentiality Act. The Secretary shall not impose restrictions on the use of records that are defined by law as public records or as records open to public inspection;

(5) shall make provision for the preservation, arrangement, repair, and rehabilitation, duplication and reproduction, description, and exhibition of records deposited in the State Archives as may be needed or appropriate;

(6) shall make or reproduce and furnish upon demand authenticated or unauthenticated copies of any of the documents, photographic material or other records deposited in the State Archives, the public examination of which is not prohibited by statutory limitations or restrictions or protected by copyright. The Secretary shall charge a fee therefor in accordance with the schedule of fees in Section 10 of "An Act concerning fees and salaries, and to classify the several counties of this state with reference thereto," approved March 29, 1872, as amended,<sup>2</sup> except that there shall be no charge for making or authentication of such copies or reproductions furnished to any department or agency of the State for official use. When any such copy or reproduction is authenticated by the Great Seal of the State of Illinois and is certified by the Secretary, or in his name by his authorized representative, such copy or reproduction shall be admitted in evidence as if it were the original.

(7) any official of the State of Illinois may turn over to the Secretary of State, with his consent, for permanent preservation in the State Archives, any official books, records, documents, original papers, or files, not in current use in his office, taking a receipt therefor.

(8) shall require of all persons, firms, corporations or other legal entities who desire access to information not defined as public records or as records open to public inspection, but open to the public, as provided in this Act, an affidavit dated and signed by the person making the request or his representative, notarized by a notary public, and containing substantially the following:

1. INTRODUCTION

The Illinois LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES DATA SYSTEM (LEADS) provided by the Department of Law Enforcement is a statewide, computerized telecommunications system designed to provide services, information, and capabilities to the law enforcement and criminal justice community in the State of Illinois. The heart of the system is the LEADS computer in Springfield operated by the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement. Terminals and computers located in authorized law enforcement and criminal justice agencies are connected by communications lines to the LEADS computer. This gives these agencies access to information stored in the LEADS files, and through LEADS, gives them access to other criminal justice information systems. The degree to which access to these and other files is granted to the various types of criminal justice agencies is described further in these Regulations. It should be noted, however, that the information, capabilities, etc. available from and through LEADS are for bonafide law enforcement and criminal justice purposes only.

The Director of the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement is responsible for establishing policy, procedures, and regulations consistent with state and federal rules, policies, and law by which LEADS operates. The Director has appointed the LEADS Advisory Policy Board (APB) to reflect the needs and desires of the law enforcement and criminal justice community and to make recommendations concerning policies and procedures consistent with existent state and federal rules. The LEADS APB Charter follows as part of Section II of these Regulations.

LEADS is a user-oriented system, and strong emphasis is placed on maintaining effective communications with field users. A statewide LEADS Conference is held during the Fall of each year. Regional mini-conferences are scheduled each year in varying locations throughout the State. The Department of Law Enforcement and LEADS attempt to be responsive to the needs of the law enforcement and criminal justice community that they serve.

A system is only as good as those who use it. It is the intent of the following LEADS Regulations and Policies to set forth the requirements, responsibilities, limitations, and restrictions to assist in making user agencies aware of what can and cannot be done. Questions or comments on any portion of these Regulations should be submitted in writing to: LEADS Administrator, 501 Armory Building, Springfield, IL 62706.

II. THE LEADS ADVISORY POLICY BOARD (APB)

A. CHARTER

III. ACCESSING LEADS DATA AND PARTICIPATING IN LEADS

Direct access to LEADS data and full participation in all elements of LEADS shall be restricted to those agencies that meet each of the "Criteria for Full Eligibility" listed below. Multi-jurisdictional communications centers, agencies connected to a non-criminal justice computer or data center, out-of-state agencies, non-government agencies, civil courts, and juvenile agencies are treated as SPECIAL CASES under paragraph III.B. Before a conclusion as to a particular organization's eligibility can be reached, the definitions and requirements listed in paragraph III.B must be considered. Exceptions are covered in paragraph III.C.

Direct Access Defined — As used in these Regulations, the phrase 'direct access (to LEADS)' shall refer to (1) having a terminal device or computer located on the agency's premises that is connected by a data communications link (telephone line) to the LEADS computer in Springfield, and (2) being authorized to access LEADS data and services.

LEADS Data Defined — As used in these Regulations, the term 'LEADS data' shall refer to all data available through the LEADS computer, which includes the following:

LEADS Computerized Hot Files (CHF);
National Crime Information Center (NCIC) Hot Files;
Illinois Secretary of State Drivers License, Vehicle Registration, and Title Files;
Motor Vehicle and Drivers Files of other states;
Illinois and NCIC Computerized Criminal History (CCH) Files and other forms of Criminal History Record Information (CHRI);
Firearm Owners (FOID) File;
State Alcohol Licenses (SALOON) File;
Weather and Highway Conditions Files for Illinois and other states;
Such other files or information that may become available through LEADS from time to time.

LEADS Services Defined — 'LEADS services' as supplied by the Department of Law Enforcement shall include (1) providing access to the files listed above; (2) the handling of directed/administrative messages within Illinois and nationwide; (3) providing on-line entry of Uniform Crime Reports data; (4) providing training sessions, newsletters, bulletins, and Reference Manuals; (5) and supplying such other services as may become available.

Full Participation Defined — 'Full participation' shall mean that an agency has direct access to all LEADS data and services, and enters and maintains all of its warrants and theft reports in the LEADS and NCIC Hot Files. Hot Files data entry is covered in detail in Section VII of these Regulations.

A. CRITERIA FOR FULL ELIGIBILITY

To qualify for direct access to and full participation in LEADS, each of the following criteria must be met:

1. Criminal Justice Agency — The candidate organization must be a criminal justice agency as defined in the U.S. Department of Justice Regulations on Criminal Justice Information Systems (Title 28 — Judicial Administration, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 20, Subpart A). These regulations in Section 20.3 define a 'criminal justice agency' as:

"(c)...(1) courts; (2) a government agency or any subunit thereof which performs the administration of criminal justice pursuant to a statute or executive order, and which allocates a substantial part of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice."

'Administration of criminal justice' is defined in Title 28 as:

"(d)...performance of any of the following activities; detection, apprehension, detention, pretrial release, post-trial release, prosecution, adjudication, correctional supervision, or rehabilitation of accused persons or criminal offenders. The administration of criminal justice shall include criminal identification activities and the collection, storage, and dissemination of criminal history record information."

2. Powers of Peace Officers — The candidate organization must be vested with the powers of "peace officers" as defined in Chapter 38, Section 2-13, of the Illinois Revised Statutes which reads as follows:

" 'Peace Officer' means any person who by virtue of his office or public employment is vested by law with a duty to maintain public order or to make arrests for offenses, whether that duty extends to all offenses or is limited to specific offenses."

3. Management Control — The candidate organization's communications system — all LEADS terminals, printers, and related equipment; and all personnel operating and/or having access to LEADS-related equipment — must be under the direct management control of a sheriff, chief of police, authorized law enforcement supervisor, authorized criminal justice administrator, or Department of Law Enforcement official.

'Management control' is defined as the authority to set and enforce (1) priorities; (2) standards for the selection, supervision, and termination of personnel; and (3) policy governing the operation of all communication and LEADS-related equipment.

4. Signed Agreement — The candidate organization must complete and file with the Department of Law Enforcement, a duly executed copy of the "Criminal History Record Information Criminal Justice Agreement."

NOTE: If access to Computerized Criminal Histories (CCH) is not authorized or desired, a duly executed copy of the "LEADS User's Agreement" must be filed instead of the "Criminal History Record Information Criminal Justice Agreement."

III. ACCESSING LEADS DATA AND PARTICIPATING IN LEADS (Continued)

B. ELIGIBILITY FOR SPECIAL CASES

The following paragraphs define the eligibility requirements for organizations which are considered to be special cases. Except where specifically stated to the contrary, 'special case' organizations must meet the criteria in paragraph III.A, pages REGS-6 and REGS-7.

1. Multi-Jurisdictional Communications Center

- a. Definition -- A 'Multi-Jurisdictional Communications Center' is any organization which is created by formal agreement entered into by political subdivisions in a particular area entirely within the State of Illinois for the purpose of at least providing police radio dispatching, LEADS services (if qualified), telephone answering, and any other communications functions for the benefit of all of those agencies who are parties to the agreement.
- b. Eligibility -- The Management Control criterion (paragraph III.A.3) must be met in all respects by the Multi-Jurisdictional Communications Center organization. To satisfy this requirement, a copy of the charter, ordinance, or other legal document which establishes management control must be submitted to the LEADS Administrator for review and approval. If approved by LEADS, the same document must also be approved by the NCIC prior to granting access to NCIC files.

2. Non-Criminal Justice Computer or Data Center

- a. Definition -- The 'Non-Criminal Justice Computer or Data Center' is defined as a computer system, communications switcher or any other device through which LEADS data will pass and/or by which LEADS data can be processed that is located within the confines of a non-criminal justice agency and not within the candidate organization's communications center where the principal LEADS terminal(s) and printer(s) are located. Both locations must be within the boundaries of the State of Illinois.
- b. Eligibility Excluding CCH Access -- In addition to meeting the 'management control' requirement for the communications system (paragraph III.A.3), the candidate criminal justice agency (CJA) must exercise at least limited management control with regard to the operation of all hardware at the non-criminal justice data center including the processor, communications controller, communications switcher, and storage devices which will be used to process, store, or forward LEADS data. The minimum requirements for the criminal justice agency (CJA) to exercise such limited management control will be by having a written agreement with the non-criminal justice agency operating the computer center that gives the criminal justice agency:

- (1) a guarantee that the CJA's teleprocessing network receives the highest priority in the areas of maintenance, support, and assignment of personnel and hardware resources.

III.B.2.b. Non-Criminal Justice Computer, Excluding CCH Access (Continued)

- (2) the right to final approval in selection of all software used to communicate with LEADS.
  - (3) the right to screen all employees who will have access and hardware which connects to LEADS.
  - (4) the authority to make any necessary audits to insure system security.
  - (5) the authority to review management output reports to ensure that the CJA's guaranteed priority agreement is being honored.
  - (6) the authority to recommend for separation any employee who violates the LEADS Regulations.
- c. Eligibility to Include CCH Access -- If CCH data or any Criminal History Record Information is to pass through and/or be processed by equipment housed in a non-criminal justice data center, the eligibility requirements given in III.B.2.b above must be met and exceeded in that the written agreement between the CJA and the data center must give the CJA full management control as defined under III.A.3.
  - d. Written Agreement Filed -- A copy of the written agreement between the CJA and the data center will be filed with the LEADS Administrator who will submit it to the LEADS APB for review.
  - e. Permission to Audit -- The agreement with the CJA will also contain a clause that grants permission to the LEADS Administrator to inspect and audit this system.
3. Out-of-State Agency -- No organization located outside of the boundaries of Illinois will be given direct access to LEADS or be allowed to connect to LEADS unless it is deemed by the LEADS Advisory Policy Board to be in the best interest of all LEADS participants statewide to permit access by the foreign organization.
  4. Non-Government Agency -- An organization which meets each of the above criteria for Peace Officers, Management Control, and Signed Agreement (paragraphs III.A.2, 3, & 4) but does not qualify as a 'government agency' is eligible for participation in LEADS, but cannot be granted access to any National Crime Information Center (NCIC) files. Under existing NCIC rules, Non-Government Agencies include, but are not limited to, railroad police and the security departments of private colleges and universities.
  5. Civil Court -- Any court that hears civil cases only does not qualify for NCIC access.

6. Juvenile Agency -- Any correctional facility that houses only juveniles who are not involved in the criminal justice process but who are orphaned or declared incorrigible is eligible for participation in LEADS with the exception that it does not qualify for NCIC access under existing NCIC rules. Any agency that supervises only juveniles who are not involved in the criminal justice process also does not qualify for NCIC access.

C. EXCEPTIONS -- No exceptions will be made to the above requirements for agencies desiring direct access to and full participation in LEADS. An organization not qualifying as a law enforcement or criminal justice agency or not desiring full participation even if qualified may, with the approval of the Director of the Department of Law Enforcement on recommendation from the LEADS Advisory Policy Board, receive limited information from LEADS. To apply for limited capabilities, contact the LEADS Administrator, 501 Armory Building, Springfield, IL 62706; 217/782-7677.

D. CHANGE IN STATUS -- The LEADS Administrator must be notified in writing in advance of any anticipated change in the status of an agency already participating or already approved for participation in LEADS. Continued participation in LEADS will be subject to a review of the new status to determine if all eligibility requirements can be met. Change in status includes, but is not limited to:

1. A single-jurisdiction LEADS user plans to join a Multi-Jurisdictional Communications Center.
2. Changes are to occur in the management structure of an approved Multi-Jurisdictional Communications Center.
3. Changes are to occur in the management structure of a Non-Criminal Justice Computer or Data Center.
4. A Non-Criminal Justice Computer or Data Center is created or plans to become involved with LEADS services where no involvement existed before.
5. Involvement of a Non-Criminal Justice Computer or Data Center is to be discontinued or altered.

IV. EQUIPMENT OPTIONS FOR CONNECTING TO LEADS

Provided that an agency qualifies for participation in LEADS as described in Section III of these Regulations, there are three (3) options for obtaining equipment and physically connecting to the system. These options are:

- DLE Supplies Standard Equipment -- Fully-Supported Environment
- Agency Supplies Non-Standard Equipment -- Non-Supported Environment
- Agency Supplies Standard Equipment -- Semi-Supported Environment

A. "SUPPORTED" DEFINED

The term "supported" refers to the assistance which will be provided by the Department of Law Enforcement (DLE) to the user agency. This could include the following:

- Systems analysis and design
- Computer programming
- Equipment ordering, installation, maintenance, moving and removal
- Training
- Operating procedures and reference manuals
- Statistics on each terminal's usage of LEADS

B. REQUIREMENT FOR ADVANCE WRITTEN REQUEST

An agency must make a written request 90 days in advance of the desired connection date. The request must be sent to the LEADS Administrator, 501 Armory Building, Springfield, Illinois 62706. The request must indicate when connection to LEADS is desired and which of the three options is planned.

C. DLE SUPPLIES STANDARD EQUIPMENT -- FULLY-SUPPORTED ENVIRONMENT

An agency will be fully supported when it requests that the Department of Law Enforcement (DLE) make all arrangements to provide standard equipment. In this case, DLE and the participating agency will have the following responsibilities:

1. The Department of Law Enforcement will:
  - a. Place all orders for the installation, relocation, or removal of all line-related and terminal-related equipment.
  - b. Make all technical services arrangements related to installation, maintenance, relocation, and removal of all necessary equipment.
  - c. Perform all systems analysis, design, and programming required at both the Data Center and the terminal.

IV.C.1. FULLY SUPPORTED ENVIRONMENT -- DLE will: (Continued)

- d. Absorb all costs related to the computer equipment at the Data Center.
- e. Provide training for terminal operators and interested administrative personnel representing the participating agency.
- f. Provide a reference manual, publications, notices, and special bulletins.
- g. Provide assistance toward the solution of operational problems.

2. The Fully-Supported agency will:

- a. Pay the cost of installation, monthly rental, relocation, and removal of all terminal equipment and communications facilities.
- b. Procure and pay the cost of all consumable supplies (printer paper, ribbons, etc.).
- c. Provide operating and administrative personnel at the terminal site.
- d. Absorb the cost of travel, lodging, and meals for its own personnel attending training sessions, conferences, etc., unless otherwise stipulated by the Department of Law Enforcement.

D. AGENCY SUPPLIES NON-STANDARD EQUIPMENT -- NON-SUPPORTED ENVIRONMENT

When a department elects to obtain its own terminal equipment that is not identical to equipment offered through DLE, that department is operating in a non-supported environment. This means that the agency may connect its equipment to LEADS, but will not receive the full support from DLE offered to users of standard equipment. A special example of non-standard equipment is the mobile terminal which is covered in paragraph IV.F. DLE and the user agency will meet the following responsibilities:

1. The Department of Law Enforcement will:

- a. Provide technical information such as communications disciplines (electronic procedures by which computers and terminals "talk" to each other) and message structures necessary for successful connection to LEADS.

CAUTION: LEADS will only allow connection of equipment which operates at certain specific data transmission rates and which uses one of the communications disciplines which DLE supports. DLE will NOT perform special programming to support a communications discipline that is not already supported by DLE.

- b. Place orders for the installation, relocation, or removal of all communications lines and related communications facilities (modems).
- c. Perform all programming required at the DLE Data Center which is identical to that provided for the fully supported environment.

IV.D.1. NON-SUPPORTED ENVIRONMENT -- DLE will: (Continued)

- d. Make all technical services arrangements related to the installation, maintenance, repair, relocation, and removal of all communications lines and related communications equipment. DLE will NOT be responsible for maintenance arrangements on any of the user agency's terminal equipment.
- e. Absorb all costs related to the computer equipment at the DLE Data Center, with the exception of those costs related to the transmission control unit in such cases where a non-supported terminal requires additional equipment on that unit.

- f. Provide a reference manual, publications, notices, and special bulletins in the language of the Fully-Supported Terminal Environment.

CAUTION: The user must understand that the terminology and procedures described in LEADS publications will frequently NOT correspond exactly to the terminology and procedures established in the non-supported environment. This places an additional responsibility on the user agency to insure that all LEADS-written communications are understood and adhered to.

- g. Provide training for terminal operators and interested administrative personnel in the use of the LEADS Operating and Reference Manuals and the various LEADS services. DLE will NOT provide training on the operation of non-standard terminal equipment.

- h. Provide assistance for identifying the source of operational problems. DLE will make arrangements for the correction of those problems determined to be related to the Data Center or the communications line. DLE accepts no responsibility for the correction of difficulties found to be associated with the user's terminal equipment.

2. The Non-Supported agency will:

- a. Arrange for a conference between its own representatives, the terminal vendor, and DLE. The conference must be successfully concluded before DLE will make any preparations for connection of non-standard equipment. DLE suggests that this meeting occur prior to the signing of a contract between a participating agency and any vendor. If not prior to signing, the meeting should occur at the earliest possible time thereafter. DLE accepts no responsibility for misunderstanding of LEADS specifications and requirements which occur between the local agency and its vendor.

- b. Pay the cost of supplies and the cost of installation, monthly rental, relocation and removal of all terminal and line-related equipment.

LEADS REGULATIONS & POLICIES (30)

IV.D.2. The Non-Supported agency will: (Continued)

- c. Pay the cost of a dedicated communications line (a line to which no other agency is connected).

CAUTION: The cost of a dedicated line is based on the distance between the local terminal and the LEADS Data Center, and on the data transmission rate desired. This cost is frequently much higher than local agencies anticipate and has resulted in significant changes to agency plans.

- d. Pay the cost of connecting the communications line to the transmission control unit at the LEADS Data Center.
- e. Pay the cost of all design work, programming, and maintenance associated with the terminal equipment. (Maintenance of the communications line is included in the monthly line charge.)
- f. Pay all expenses resulting from problems which are caused by the terminal equipment.
- g. Provide operating and administrative personnel at the terminal location.
- h. Provide training of agency personnel in the use of terminal equipment.
- i. Insure that an individual agency's system will provide access to ALL authorized LEADS files and services, and permit the agency's operator to perform all functions that may be performed on fully-supported equipment. The only exception is the service of on-line entry of Uniform Crime Reports (I-UCR) data which the agency may elect not to provide.
- j. Absorb all costs for reprogramming and equipment modifications which become necessary to keep in step with changes made at the LEADS Data Center. (See Section XIII, paragraph B of these Regulations.)

CAUTION: LEADS is constantly being changed. New capabilities are added frequently. An agency operating in the Non-Supported Environment must be prepared to absorb the costs necessary to provide all of the same services LEADS provides to fully-supported terminals. Electing not to supply all services offered by LEADS (with the exception of on-line I-UCR data entry) is in violation of these Regulations.

- k. Absorb the expense of travel, lodging, and meals incurred by agency and vendor representatives who attend training sessions, conferences, etc., unless otherwise stipulated by DLE.

E. AGENCY SUPPLIES STANDARD EQUIPMENT -- SEMI-SUPPORTED ENVIRONMENT

An agency will qualify for nearly full support when it obtains equipment from its own sources which is identical to equipment offered through DLE.

1. The Department of Law Enforcement will:

- a. Place all orders for the installation, relocation, or removal of the communications lines and related equipment (modems).
- b. Make all technical services arrangements for installation, maintenance, relocation, and removal of the communications lines and equipment.
- c. Perform all system analysis, design, and programming required at both the Data Center and the terminal.
- d. Absorb all costs related to the computer equipment at the Data Center.
- e. Provide training for terminal operators and interested administrative personnel representing the participating agency.
- f. Provide a reference manual, publications, notices, and special bulletins.
- g. Provide assistance towards the solution of operational problems.

2. The Semi-Supported agency will:

- a. Meet with DLE if requested to do so.
- b. Make all arrangements for installation, relocation, maintenance, and removal of the terminal equipment.
- c. Assume all responsibility for contractual agreements with the terminal vendor and all related expenses.
- d. Provide operating and administrative personnel at the terminal site.
- e. Absorb the cost of travel, lodging, and meals for its own personnel attending training sessions, conferences, etc., unless other funding is provided to the agency.
- f. Notify DLE in writing and receive approval from DLE prior to any change being made to the terminal equipment.
- g. Notify DLE in writing and receive approval from DLE prior to connecting the equipment to or disconnecting it from LEADS.
- h. Bear the expense of changes to the terminal equipment made necessary by changes to LEADS.

NOTE: All written communications necessary for the above must be addressed to LEADS Administrator, Department of Law Enforcement, 501 Armory Building, Springfield, IL 62706.

IV. EQUIPMENT OPTIONS FOR CONNECTING TO LEADS (Continued)

F. MOBILE TERMINALS

1. "Mobile Terminal" Defined -- A mobile terminal is a device installed in a vehicle which has the capability to send and/or receive digital messages. There are two basic types in use:
  - a. the receive-only teleprinter which has no typewriter-like keyboard.
  - b. the two-way mobile terminal which lets the officer type out and send messages from the vehicle as well as to receive messages.
2. Mobile Terminal Regulations -- Both types of mobile terminal, when used to send data to and/or to receive data from LEADS, are governed by the regulations for the NON-SUPPORTED ENVIRONMENT covered in paragraph IV.D of these Regulations. In addition, the following requirements must be met by the agency participating in LEADS:
  - a. Before requesting bids for any mobile terminal equipment, the LEADS Administrator must be notified in writing of:
    - (1) the fact that mobile terminals are being planned,
    - (2) the type of mobile terminal,
    - (3) the number of mobile terminals to be installed, and
    - (4) the installation date(s).
  - b. If called for by the LEADS Administrator, the agency must meet with the LEADS Staff.
  - c. The agency must satisfy the LEADS Administrator that safeguards will be employed to guarantee that Computerized Criminal History (CCH) data may neither be directly requested nor received at any mobile terminal.
  - d. The agency must insure that all officers and other personnel who operate a mobile terminal understand and comply with Section IX of these Regulations--DISSEMINATION OF DATA OBTAINED THROUGH LEADS.
  - e. The agency must insure that all mobile terminals are secure at all times from use by unauthorized personnel.

V. FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Agencies participating in LEADS shall promptly meet all monetary obligations to the vendor(s) which provides terminal equipment, maintenance, and lines.

A. FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

1. Normal Monthly Charges -- Normal monthly charges include the following:
  - a. Charges for LEADS lines and modems (communications facilities).
  - b. Charges for vendor-owned LEADS terminal/printer equipment.
  - c. Charges for contract maintenance on LEADS equipment not owned by the vendor(s).
2. Other Charges -- Other charges include the following:
  - a. Shipping charges on LEADS equipment shipped to participating agencies.
  - b. Installation charges for LEADS communication lines and equipment installed by a vendor.
  - c. Charges for relocating LEADS communications lines or equipment.
  - d. Maintenance charges not covered by normal LEADS equipment leasing or contract maintenance charges. Damage caused by failing to maintain the proper terminal environment, not keeping the electrical supply within specifications, or abusing the equipment will result in additional charges on a time and materials basis.

- B. USER PURCHASES SUPPLIES -- Participating agencies will purchase their own printer paper, printer ribbons, and perforator tape. Specifications for such supplies and lists of possible vendors are available from the Department of Law Enforcement on request. The listing of any vendor in no way represents an endorsement or recommendation by DLE, but is furnished to assist participating agencies in locating possible sources of supply.

VI. TERMINAL ENVIRONMENT, LOCATION AND SECURITY

The following constraints pertaining to LEADS terminal environment, location and security are binding on each participating agency:

- A. ENVIRONMENT -- The terminal must be located in a safe, clean and dry environment. Each agency must provide electric service as well as controlled temperature and humidity levels specified by the terminal manufacturer.
- B. LOCATION -- The principal terminal must be located within or adjacent to the communications equipment control console to insure continuous monitoring of the printer and/or CRT screen. The CRT interface device (modem) must be accessible to the terminal operator to facilitate line and/or terminal restoration procedures by the vendor.
- C. SECURITY -- All terminal components (Model 35 printer or CRT display unit, keyboard, printer and modem) must be placed in a location under the direct control and supervision of authorized personnel as identified in these LEADS Regulations and Policies and be inaccessible to the public or persons not qualified to either operate, view or possess LEADS transmitted or received data. It is further recommended that land lines coming into the building housing the LEADS terminal be buried.

VII. RECORDS RESPONSIBILITY

Each agency assumes certain obligations inherent with its participation in LEADS. Each participating agency, by accepting a LEADS terminal or by connecting to LEADS with its own equipment, implicitly agrees to the following conditions concerning the entry, maintenance and removal of its records and the maintenance of associated files:

A. COMPUTERIZED HOT FILES (CHF) RECORDS

1. Record Entry -- Each agency agrees to enter all records pertaining to thefts, criminal acts and missing/runaway persons into LEADS (and NCIC, where appropriate) as soon as the occurrence is known and sufficient identifiers are available to permit the establishment of a record. Temporary records may be entered when there is a question concerning the issuance of a warrant, but a permanent record must be established upon resolution of the complaint. All CHF entries must be in accordance with current procedures and codes as published in the LEADS Operating Manual and the LEADS Reference Manual.
2. 24-Hour Terminal Manning Requirement -- Any agency which has entered records into the CHF must insure that its terminal is operated on a 24-hour-per-day basis by trained and competent operators who have access to the necessary records to respond to inquiries relative to the status of that agency's LEADS records and who have both the knowledge and skill to correctly enter, modify, remove and interpret records.
3. Record Removal -- Each agency will promptly cancel their records when notified or when they become aware that the legal intent of their entry has been satisfied; i.e., the recovery of stolen property or the apprehension or return of suspects.
4. Quality of Records -- Each agency assumes responsibility for both the accuracy and timeliness of the records entered under its authority. Each agency will cooperate with LEADS/NCIC quality control efforts by modifying or removing records that are either incorrect or invalid. In all cases, the agency must take action relative to a record in question during the shift or work period that notification is received. The Department of Law Enforcement has the right to remove any record where a substantial question exists concerning the validity or accuracy of the record. Immediately upon removal of any record, DLE will notify the entering terminal.
5. Record Status Inquiries -- Each agency will respond promptly to inquiries from other agencies relative to the validity and currency of its LEADS/NCIC records.
6. Supporting Documents -- Each LEADS/NCIC record will be supported by an investigative document, active warrant or complaint. No permanent LEADS or NCIC entry will be made based solely on a telephone report by the alleged victim or owner. Documents supporting LEADS/NCIC records must be available to terminal operators on a 24-hour-per-day basis, either by direct access or telephone inquiry.

7. Active Messages File -- Each agency will maintain an Active Messages File by entry category (wanted or missing persons, stolen vehicles, stolen guns, etc.) that is readily accessible to the terminal operator. The hard copy of the Enter Acknowledgment Message, complete with the LEADS Message Number (LDS) and, if appropriate, the NCIC Message Number (NIC), must be retained in the file as long as the message remains active in LEADS/NCIC. An agency with a computer connected to LEADS may maintain its Active Messages File on the computer instead of in hard copy form as long as the local computer file is readily accessible to the LEADS terminal operator and the computer file record is complete.
8. Cancelled Records File -- The hard copy printout of all cancelled records, complete with recovery/apprehension data and date, must be retained for at least one (1) year in a Cancelled Records File. This file must be maintained separately from the Active Messages File. An agency with computer facilities may maintain the Cancelled Records File on magnetic tape or other computer storage media as long as all data elements specified here for a hard copy file are contained in the computer record.
9. Multi-Jurisdictional Communications Center -- Multi-Jurisdictional communications centers must maintain complete and separate Active Messages Files and Cancelled Records Files for each member agency served by the center and authorized to enter records into LEADS. When a member agency in a communications center has access to LEADS via another terminal located within its own department in addition to the terminal or terminals located within the communications center, the member agency must select one (1) location, either the agency location or the communications center, that will (a) enter, maintain and remove all LEADS records for that agency and (b) abide by LEADS policy relative to security and staffing constraints.

B. ILLINOIS UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING (I-UCR)

1. Record Entry -- Any agency which accepts a funded, LEADS Upgrade CRT (Cathode Ray Tube) video terminal is required to enter I-UCR data by one of the following methods:
  - a. Direct entry through the LEADS Upgrade CRT terminal
  - b. Magnetic tape
  - c. Punched cards

This procedure should begin within thirty (30) days of the completion of training for I-UCR entry. If an agency fails to comply with this policy, the terminal may be removed.

2. I-UCR Not CRT Justification -- No funded, LEADS Upgrade CRT (Cathode Ray Tube) video terminal will be ordered if justified solely on I-UCR entry requirements.

VIII. VALIDATION OF COMPUTERIZED HOT FILES (CHF) RECORDS

- A. IMMEDIATE REMOVAL -- Computerized Hot File records in both LEADS and NCIC must be immediately removed when no longer valid. Promptness in entering, modifying, voiding, and cancelling records is essential to maintaining the integrity of the LEADS/NCIC files. Each record in the files is identified with the agency originating that record, and that agency alone is responsible for the accuracy of that record.
- B. MANDATORY PARTICIPATION -- It is mandatory that all agencies having records in the LEADS Computerized Hot Files (CHF) participate in the LEADS Record Validation Programs.
- C. COMPARISON WITH CASE FILES -- For validation purposes, each record entered by an agency will be listed on a computer print-out titled Illinois LEADS Validation Listing. The agency should compare the data in each record with the information in its case files. Whenever possible, the original complainant should be interviewed.
- D. VEHICLE RECORDS -- A stolen motor vehicle record meeting the criteria of current LEADS formatting (entry) will be maintained in the system for the current year plus four years unless through prompt record maintenance or LEADS validation research, the motor vehicle in question is determined to have been recovered or a registered owner and/or legal owner cannot be located for disposition purposes during any one of the validation searches that occur every one hundred and eighty (180) days. It is the responsibility of the originating agency to cause the necessary research to be completed to determine information identifying the registered owner and/or legal owner by name and address.
- E. MARKING THE VALIDATION LISTING -- The original copy of the Illinois LEADS Validation Listing must be marked to indicate which records are active and which records have been cancelled. It is not the responsibility of the LEADS Data Center to cancel the records of any agency. When it is determined that a record is no longer valid, it is the responsibility of the entering agency to immediately cancel this record.
- F. NON-TERMINAL AGENCY -- When a terminal agency is entering records for a non-terminal agency, it is the responsibility of the terminal agency to obtain confirmation from the non-terminal agency that the records are still valid.
- G. AGENCY HEAD'S SIGNATURE REQUIRED -- The Agency Head (Chief of Police, Sheriff, District Commander, or Superintendent) accepts responsibility for the validity of all records entered by their agency by signing the LEADS Validation Certification Document. The signature of a lesser official will not be accepted.
- H. RETURN TO LEADS -- The LEADS Validation Certification Document and the original copy of the Illinois LEADS Validation Listing must be returned to the LEADS Data Center prior to the deadline for the program.
- I. FAILURE TO VALIDATE -- Failure of an agency to comply with the validation regulations will result in the voiding of all records entered into LEADS by that agency.

IX. DISSEMINATION OF DATA OBTAINED THROUGH LEADS

A. GENERAL RESTRICTIONS

1. Criminal Justice Purposes Only -- All data supplied through LEADS is to be used strictly for criminal justice purposes.
2. Personal Use Prohibited -- It is strictly forbidden to obtain any data through LEADS for personal reasons.
3. Personal Messages Prohibited -- It is strictly forbidden to transmit messages over LEADS or to encourage messages to be transmitted over LEADS for reasons of personal, unofficial communication. For example, LEADS may not be used for communicating personal messages from one LEADS terminal to another.
4. Selling Data Prohibited -- It is permissible to prorate or share the costs of your LEADS operation among one or more other departments for which you provide all LEADS services. However, it is strictly forbidden to sell any information obtained through LEADS to any individual, group of individuals, organization, government agency, or corporation.
5. Unauthorized Dissemination Prohibited -- It is strictly forbidden to disseminate any information obtained through LEADS to any individual or organization that is not legally authorized to have access to that information.

B. SPECIFIC DATA DISSEMINATION REGULATIONS

1. Computerized Hot Files (CHF)

The information found in the CHF is generally considered to be a matter of public record. However, dissemination of such data beyond the law enforcement/criminal justice community must be approached with caution.

2. National Crime Information Center (NCIC)

- a. The following statements apply to NCIC data and are taken directly from page Intro-6 dated 6-30-77 of the NCIC Operating Manual:
  - (1) "The data stored in the NCIC is documented criminal justice information and access to that data must be restricted to duly authorized criminal justice agencies."
  - (2) "The FBI uses hardware and software controls to help ensure system security. However, final responsibility for the maintenance of the security and confidentiality of criminal justice information rests with the individual agencies participating in the NCIC."
- b. As an NCIC Control Terminal Agency, the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement must assume responsibility for and enforce NCIC system security with regard to all other agencies participating in NCIC through LEADS.

3. Secretary of State (SOS)

- a. Any request for any SOS record via LEADS shall be for criminal justice purposes only.
- b. SOS data required for non-criminal justice purposes must be obtained directly from the SOS; i.e., LEADS may not be used.
- c. Although the Illinois Revised Statutes authorize the Secretary of State to charge fees for providing registration and vehicle records, there is no provision for any criminal justice agency to charge for SOS data obtained through LEADS. Any such charge or fee is prohibited under the General Restrictions (IX.A.4) of these Regulations.

4. Foreign States' Drivers Licenses and Vehicle Registrations via NLETS

- a. Drivers license and vehicle registration information is provided by other states to Illinois departments via NLETS/LEADS on the same basis that the Illinois SOS provides this information -- FOR CRIMINAL JUSTICE PURPOSES ONLY.
- b. If out-of-state driver or vehicle data is required for non-criminal justice purposes, LEADS/NLETS may not be used. Instead, agencies participating in LEADS/NLETS must advise the requestor to deal directly with authorities in the state that houses the desired records.

5. Firearm Owner's Identification (FOID)

- a. FOID data is provided by the Department of Law Enforcement to "law enforcement authorities" as stipulated in Chapter 38, paragraph 83-1 of the Illinois Revised Statutes.
- b. Dissemination of FOID information obtained through LEADS is restricted to peace officers.

6. Illinois Uniform Crime Reporting (I-UCR)

- a. I-UCR data which is supplied to the State may be disseminated to the public by the originating agency at any time.
- b. I-UCR data compiled by the State must not be disseminated to the public, except by the originating agency, until after such time as the compiled data has been verified and made official for release by the Director of the Department of Law Enforcement.

7. State Alcohol Licensing Operational On-line Network (SALOON)
Liquor license data and data on licensed establishments and owners are available through LEADS/SALOON, only for official criminal justice purposes. LEADS/SALOON must not be used to obtain this data for non-criminal justice purposes or for non-criminal justice agencies and individuals. Instead, these requests should be referred directly to the Illinois Liquor Control Commission, 160 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, IL 60601; 312/793-2210.
8. Computerized Criminal Histories (CCH)
  - a. Criminal History Record Information (CHRI) obtained from the Department of Law Enforcement over LEADS shall not be disseminated to any person or agency not authorized by law to receive such information.
  - b. The Department of Law Enforcement will not respond to computerized inquiries (CCH inquiries or directed messages) for licensing or employment purposes. LEAA guidelines mandate that the Department of Law Enforcement maintain complete and accurate records. The dissemination of information meeting these standards is of utmost importance with regard to licensing and employment matters. As such, DLE shall disseminate CHRI for licensing and employment purposes, only after completing a fingerprint search of Department files.
  - c. The delivery of old or outdated CHRI to another criminal justice agency is highly discouraged. In order to ensure the dissemination of the most current data available, the disseminating agency should query (inquire into) the Department of Law Enforcement whenever feasible. The Department recognizes that exceptions may exist justifying dissemination without querying in extraordinary circumstances.
  - d. Each transaction which involves any extra-agency release (release to any agency other than your own) of CHRI as supplied by the Department of Law Enforcement must be logged in a Secondary Dissemination Log maintained by the agency which ran the inquiry. The content of entries required in the log is reflected in Section 4 of the referenced "Criminal Justice Agreement" and includes:
    - (1) Name of requesting agency having access to Criminal History Record Information (CHRI).
    - (2) Name of the requestor (i.e., the person getting CHRI on behalf of an authorized agency).
    - (3) Name of the individual to whom the information relates.
    - (4) BCI Number of the individual to whom the information relates.
    - (5) Date of dissemination.

Secondary Dissemination Logs shall be maintained for a period of three (3) years following the last date of dissemination contained therein. After the three-year maintenance period expires, the logs may be destroyed provided that express authorization is granted in accordance with either The State Records Act or The Local Records Act (Illinois Revised Statutes 1977, Chapter 116, Section 43), whichever is applicable.

X. OPERATING PROCEDURE REGULATIONS

LEADS is a complex system having limited resources which must be shared by many users. The use or misuse of LEADS by one agency can significantly affect all other users. Therefore, compliance with these Operating Procedure Regulations is necessary to optimally and fairly allocate LEADS resources and services.

A. HOT FILES HIT PROCESSING

1. Q or Z Hit, Subject or Property in Custody -- As soon as possible after receiving a positive hit response to an inquiry, the agency receiving the hit message must contact the Originating Authority (ORA) of the record to confirm the status of the record. The inquiring agency must also insure that the record, in fact, pertains to the same subject, vehicle, property, etc., which is in custody.
2. O Hit, Subject or Property Not in Custody -- When the inquiring agency receives a hit by Q inquiry on a LEADS (not NCIC) record but does NOT have the person, vehicle, or property in custody, the inquiring agency MUST notify the Originating Authority (ORA) of that fact. (A Q-hit on a LEADS record causes the originator of the record to receive automatic notification of who hit the record. The Originating Authority will be expecting an explanation from the inquiring agency.)
3. Locating -- A confirmed hit with the subject, vehicle, or property in custody requires that the agency receiving the hit immediately perform a LOCATE transaction against all record(s) that were determined to be applicable.
4. Retention of Terminal-Produced Printout -- When an operational inquiry on an individual or property yields a valid positive response (hit), the original copy of the terminal-produced printout showing the record(s) on file in LEADS/NCIC should be retained for use in documenting probable cause for the detention of the missing person, arrest of the wanted person, or seizure of the property. The printout may also prove valuable in a civil suit alleging a false arrest, a false imprisonment, a civil rights violation, or an illegal seizure of property.

When an NCIC inquiry yields a hit, the terminal employee making the inquiry should note on the original copy of the terminal-produced printout precisely how, when, and to whom the information was given; sign and date this notation; and forward the printout to the inquiring officer or agency for retention in the case file. This procedure establishes the chain of evidence for the communication should the arresting officer need to substantiate his actions in a judicial proceeding.

The printout should be retained for as long as there remains any possibility that the defendant will challenge the arrest, search, or other law enforcement action taken because of the information contained on the printout. Retain the printout until all possible levels of appeal are exhausted or the possibility of a civil suit is no longer anticipated.

B. BROADCASTING OF MESSAGES

1. Stolen or Recovered Property -- Item-by-item lists of stolen or recovered property are NOT to be broadcast over LEADS either statewide, regionally, or to a district. A brief summary message in generic terms may be broadcast if it is felt such a message will aid in the recovery of stolen property or in owner identification of recovered property.
2. Range Limitations -- The extent of the area over which a message is broadcast must be carefully limited to include only those agencies which can reasonably be expected to have interest in or a need to know the contents of the message. For example, a message concerning only Illinois and surrounding states should NOT be broadcast nationwide. A message of interest only to Cook and surrounding counties should not be broadcast statewide.

NOTE: Message broadcasting is expensive in terms of the LEADS resources consumed. It must be used judiciously.

3. Holiday Greetings -- On no occasion is it permissible to use LEADS for broadcasting a message of holiday greetings.
4. Political Messages -- On no occasion is it permissible to use LEADS for broadcasting a message dealing with a political campaign, political rally, or candidate for political office.
5. Commercial Messages -- The use of LEADS is prohibited for sending messages of a commercial nature.

C. POINT-TO-POINT ADMINISTRATIVE MESSAGES

1. Brevity and Abbreviations -- All messages transmitted over LEADS must be brief and to the point. Furthermore, abbreviations should be used wherever possible. However, obscure abbreviations should be avoided to prevent confusion and misunderstanding.
2. Judicious Use of Bells -- At no time shall a single message contain more than five (5) Bell characters. The Bell feature is provided as a means of calling attention to messages of particular importance or urgency. Excessive use of the Bell may annoy the recipient and could defeat the purpose for which the Bell is intended. The great majority of messages should contain no Bell character at all.
3. Improper Signature -- It is strictly prohibited to ever sign a LEADS message for another department or in any way imply that a message was authorized by an authority other than that of the sending terminal unless such other authority has specifically requested that the message be sent.

D. PROMPT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF MESSAGES RECEIVED

10-Minute Rule -- Except where unusual circumstances prevent compliance, all directed or administrative messages should be acknowledged by the receiving agency within 10 minutes of receipt. If a full reply can be sent within 10 minutes, the reply itself serves as the acknowledgement of receipt. If a complete reply cannot be prepared within 10 minutes, the message should be acknowledged (within 10 minutes) along with an indication as to when a complete reply can be expected.

NOTE: The 10-Minute Rule does not apply to a message broadcasted to many agencies as members of a broadcast list unless the sender specifically asks for an acknowledgement or reply.

- E. SCHEDULING NON-CRITICAL TRANSACTIONS -- In the interest of preventing degraded LEADS service during LEADS' busiest periods (weekdays between 0800 and midnight), it is highly recommended that non-critical transactions be scheduled for weekends and weekdays between 0100 and 0700 hours. This will result in better service for the agency doing the scheduling and will prevent that agency from causing degraded service to other LEADS users who are running urgent transactions. Messages which should be considered for scheduling are:

- Routine I-UCR data entry.
- 10-28's for the purpose of collecting overdue parking ticket fines.
- A list of 10-28's submitted by a detective asking for checks "when time permits."
- Inquiries pertaining to routine, semi-annual validation of Hot Files records.

CAUTION: Entry, modification, cancellation, or voiding of a Hot Files record should never be scheduled for a later time.

X. OPERATING PROCEDURE REGULATIONS (Continued)

F. SERVICING NON-TERMINAL AGENCIES

The following regulations apply to any agency which routinely provides all LEADS services for one or more other criminal justice agencies which do not have their own LEADS terminals:

1. LEADS Message Service Agreement -- One copy of this Agreement must be executed with each agency which is routinely serviced. The signed Agreement must be filed with the Department of Law Enforcement.
2. Responsibility for Agreement Initiation -- The agency providing LEADS services (the LEADS terminal agency) is responsible for initiating the Service Agreement with the serviced, non-terminal agency.
3. Source of Forms -- Copies of the "LEADS Message Service Agreement" form are available from the LEADS Administrator, 501 Armory Building, Springfield, IL 62706; 217/782-7677.
4. Termination of Service Agreement -- If either party to the LEADS Message Service Agreement wishes to terminate the Agreement for any reason, the LEADS terminal agency must immediately notify the LEADS Administrator of this fact.

XI. ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

A. APPOINT A LEADS SUPERVISOR

1. Appointment Required -- Every LEADS terminal agency is required to appoint one employee as its LEADS Supervisor. The name of this person must be submitted to the LEADS Administrator.
2. Supervisor Qualifications -- The minimum requirements for the appointed LEADS Supervisor are:
  - a. Must be an employee under the direct management control of the chief, sheriff, superintendent, district commander, or other criminal justice agency head.
  - b. Must be thoroughly familiar with all LEADS Regulations and Policies.
  - c. Must be familiar with the LEADS Reference and Operating Manuals and all LEADS capabilities and procedures.
3. Supervisor Duties -- Some of the duties of the LEADS Supervisor will be to:
  - a. Serve as liaison with Department of Law Enforcement personnel on routine, LEADS-related matters.
  - b. Coordinate training of ALL agency personnel on LEADS capabilities, procedures, regulations and policies.
  - c. Assist the Agency Head to insure that all LEADS Regulations and Policies are followed.
  - d. Provide input to LEADS personnel of the Department of Law Enforcement regarding problems and ideas for improvement and changes to LEADS.
  - e. Insure that the LEADS Reference and Operating Manuals are properly updated in accordance with paragraph XI.B which follows.
4. Termination -- Immediately upon the termination or reassignment of the LEADS Supervisor, the Agency Head must appoint and notify the LEADS Administrator of the new LEADS Supervisor.

XI. ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES (Continued)

B. MAINTAIN LEADS REFERENCE MANUAL

1. Must Maintain All Copies -- The LEADS terminal agency must maintain all copies of the LEADS Reference Manual that have been issued to it. This shall include:
  - a. Insuring that all pages are intact and worn pages are replaced.
  - b. Inserting all Modifications within five (5) working days after receiving them from the LEADS Data Center in Springfield.
  - c. Properly maintaining the Modification Register found in the chapter on Changes in this Manual.
  - d. Promptly returning the Receipt which accompanies each Modification.
  - e. Insuring that no changes, alterations, additions or deletions are made to the Manual other than those directed by LEADS unless prior written approval is received from the LEADS Administrator.
  - f. Returning any copies of the Manual which are no longer needed.

2. Copying Restricted -- Unless otherwise specified, copying any part or all of this Manual is prohibited! Individual pages may be copied to replace worn pages which are being discarded. Lost or missing pages may be replaced by notifying terminal KQC or by writing to LEADS Manual, 501 Armory Building, Springfield, IL 62706. Additional copies of the complete Manual may be obtained as explained below:

NOTE: Creating extra copies of part or all of this Manual by copying locally is prohibited in order to avoid the problem of keeping the extra copies current. Modifications are mailed out only for serialized copies issued from Springfield.

3. Requesting Additional Copies -- Each LEADS terminal agency is issued one (1) serialized copy of the LEADS Reference Manual. Requests for additional copies must be accompanied by written justification of the need for more than one copy. Send requests with justification to: LEADS Reference Manual, 501 Armory Building, Springfield, IL 62706.
4. Non-Supported Terminal Agency MUST Maintain One Manual -- A LEADS terminal agency using its own equipment and operating in a NON-SUPPORTED ENVIRONMENT (see paragraph IV.D of these Regulations) must maintain at least one copy of the LEADS Reference Manual as provided by LEADS. This is required even if the agency has manuals of its own which pertain specifically to its own equipment, policies, and procedures.
5. Must Maintain 'Old' Manual Too -- All of the above regulations apply to the 'old' LEADS Operating Manual (white and blue covers) until such time as it has been completely superseded by the LEADS Reference Manual.

C. OBTAIN LEADS TRAINING

1. It is mandatory that an agency operating a LEADS terminal have in its employment at all times at least one (1) individual who has successfully completed a LEADS training class conducted by the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement.
2. It is highly recommended that a fully trained LEADS operator be on duty at all times.
3. It is recommended that all LEADS terminal operators and dispatchers complete a LEADS training class conducted by the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement.
4. It is highly recommended that ALL sworn officers and administrative personnel receive periodic orientation on LEADS capabilities, procedures, rules, and regulations.

D. PARTICIPATE IN LEADS WORKSHOPS/CONFERENCES

1. Annual LEADS Conference -- The Department of Law Enforcement (DLE) hosts a conference in Springfield every Fall for all LEADS participants. It is highly recommended that every LEADS terminal agency be represented at these conferences.
2. Regional LEADS Workshops -- DLE conducts one-day workshops or mini-conferences at various locations throughout the State. Generally, one workshop per year is held in each region of the State. It is highly recommended that every LEADS terminal agency be represented at a minimum of one workshop per year.

E. KNOW DAILY BULLETIN BOARD CONTENTS

1. Every day, Monday through Friday (except holidays), the LEADS Staff puts a message into LEADS which is referred to as the "BUL" or Daily Bulletin Board message. These messages contain a wide variety of information from critically important operational bulletins to nice-to-know comments.
2. All LEADS terminal agencies will be held responsible for knowledge of and compliance with ALL information and instructions promulgated through the Daily Bulletin Board.
3. When the Daily Bulletin Board asks for voluntary response to questions on LEADS-related matters, all LEADS terminal agencies are urged to respond whenever possible. This may often represent an opportunity for your department to "vote" on the future of LEADS.

XII. AUDITS OF PARTICIPATING AGENCIES

The Department of Law Enforcement reserves the right to conduct routine audits of any agency participating in LEADS at any time. The purpose of an audit will be to determine that all of these LEADS Regulations in general or certain of these Regulations in particular are being complied with.

A. AUDIT PROCEDURES

1. The Department of Law Enforcement will:

- Routinely give two (2) weeks notice prior to the commencement of an audit;
- Provide personnel to conduct the audit;
- Furnish a written report of its findings to the audited agency at the conclusion of the audit.

2. The agency being audited will:

- Make its LEADS Supervisor available to provide assistance during the audit;
- Make available to the auditors the Active Messages File, the Cancelled Records File (see subparagraphs VII.A.7 and 8 on page REGS-20), logs, all copies of the LEADS Reference Manual, and non-confidential case file material supporting LEADS and NCIC Hot Files entries;
- Permit the auditors access to all LEADS terminal operators, clerks handling I-UC entry, and other agency personnel involved with LEADS-related activities.

B. CCH AUDITS -- Federal requirements demand that the Department of Law Enforcement select a random sample of agencies for periodic auditing in order to ensure compliance with security and privacy provisions. As these relate to CCH considerations, such audits shall be limited to:

- Evaluation of agency compliance with secondary dissemination logging provisions outlined in subparagraph IX.B.8.d of these Regulations.
- Terminal security.
- Distribution of CCH Output Reports and any other CHRI supplied by the Department.

XIII. PROCEDURES FOR IMPLEMENTING CHANGES

A. CHANGES TO THESE REGULATIONS -- If it should become necessary for the Director of the Department of Law Enforcement to change these Regulations, the following procedures will be used:

- Filed with the SOS -- All changes to these Regulations will be filed with the Secretary of State in accordance with provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 127, Sections 1005 and 1006.
- Published in the LEADS Reference Manual -- Upon taking effect, changes to these Regulations will be published and distributed as part of a routine, bi-monthly Modification to the LEADS Reference Manual, Chapter 30.

B. CHANGES TO LEADS SERVICES -- These Regulations require that any agency using non-standard equipment must provide access to ALL authorized LEADS files and services and permit the agency's operator to perform ALL functions that may be performed on fully-supported equipment. The one exception is on-line entry of I-UCR data. (See IV.D.2., subparagraphs i and j, page REGS-14.)

The following regulations will apply when changes are to be made to LEADS:

1. The Department of Law Enforcement will:

- Announce Each Change -- Major additions or changes to LEADS services or procedures for LEADS access will be announced by DLE at least 45 days prior to the planned implementation date. Such announcements will be made as articles in the LEADS monthly Newsletter and/or as notices in the on-line Daily Bulletin Board. (See paragraph XI.E of these Regulations, page REGS-31.)
- Issue Technical Bulletin -- When the DLE LEADS Staff believes that a change will dictate that technical modifications must be made by local LEADS users of non-standard equipment, a technical bulletin will be provided by DLE. The bulletin will be mailed to all requesting LEADS user agencies at least 30 days prior to the planned implementation date of the change or addition.
- Provide Notice of Implementation -- When a change is implemented, DLE will immediately notify all users of that fact through the Daily Bulletin Board.
- Enter An Operational Note -- When deemed necessary, DLE will enter an Operational Note into the on-line Help File to provide appropriate instructions for dealing with the change.
- Publish Manual Modification -- All changes to LEADS services will be reflected in a bi-monthly LEADS Reference Manual Modification to be published by DLE no more than 90 days after the actual implementation date.

XIII.B.1. CHANGES TO LEADS SERVICES -- DLE will: (Continued)

- f. Expedite Emergency and Minor Changes -- DLE reserves the right to make emergency and minor changes and additions to LEADS without prior notice or with less notice than called for in subparagraph 'a' above. Whenever this becomes necessary, DLE will still provide notice of implementation, enter an Operational Note, and publish a Manual Modification. If deemed necessary, a technical bulletin will be issued at the earliest possible time.
2. All LEADS User Agencies will:
  - a. Stay Abreast of Changes -- All users must be aware of all changes and additions to LEADS that are announced in the Daily Bulletin Board. All LEADS operators and other appropriate personnel should be informed at the earliest possible time.
  - b. Update Manuals -- The Reference Manual Modifications must be applied to all copies as stipulated elsewhere in these Regulations. (See paragraph XI.B.1 on page REGS-30.)
3. Agencies Operating Non-Standard Equipment will:
  - a. Request Technical Bulletins -- It shall be each individual agency's responsibility to request that it be placed on the mailing list to receive technical bulletins. The request may be made by directed message to terminal KQC, or by letter to the LEADS ADMINISTRATOR, 501 Armory Building, Springfield, IL 62706.
  - b. Promptly Implement Technical Changes -- To remain in compliance with the provisions of paragraph IV.D.2, subparagraph j (page REGS-14), the agency must implement any necessary technical changes within 60 days after the actual DLE implementation date or within 60 days after the technical bulletin is received, whichever occurs first.
  - c. Request An Extension -- In any case where the agency believes it cannot comply with b, above, within the specified time frame, it must submit a written request for an extension. The request must state the circumstances necessitating the extension and give the agency's plan and target date for getting into compliance. Requests must be sent to the LEADS Administrator, 501 Armory Building, Springfield, IL 62706.

The Director of the Department of Law Enforcement will grant extensions on an individual basis depending on the circumstances involved. Either the Director or the agency may also request a hearing as provided for in Section XIV of these Regulations.

XIV. NON-COMPLIANCE

Violation of these Regulations will be dealt with on an individual basis and could result in suspension of part or all LEADS capabilities, either temporarily or completely and permanently.

The Department of Law Enforcement reserves the right to suspend all or any portion of LEADS service without prior notification.

- A. MINOR VIOLATIONS -- When a violation of these Regulations occurs that does not threaten the integrity of LEADS, the LEADS Administrator will give written notice to the guilty agency explaining the violation. Such minor violations will not justify suspension of any LEADS access or service.
- B. REPEATED, CONTINUOUS, OR MULTIPLE VIOLATIONS -- When an agency is believed to be repeatedly or continuously in violation of these Regulations or has violated multiple Regulations, the Director of the Department of Law Enforcement shall set a hearing, providing the agency with at least 20 days advance written notice of the hearing date. See Hearing Procedures below.
- C. MAJOR VIOLATIONS -- When a violation of these Regulations or related law occurs that could seriously affect the integrity of LEADS or could threaten the safety of officers or the public, the Director of the Department of Law Enforcement reserves the right to immediately suspend all or part of LEADS access or services without prior notice. When this becomes necessary, the Director will immediately notify the suspended agency by the quickest means possible with a followup letter giving the following:
  1. A list of the services which have been suspended;
  2. Reasons for suspension;
  3. A hearing date which shall be within 10 days of the date of suspension.

If circumstances warrant, the Director may lift the suspension prior to the hearing. Normally, however, the suspension would remain in effect at least until the hearing has been concluded.

XIV. NON-COMPLIANCE (Continued)

D. HEARING PROCEDURES -- When a hearing has been set by the Director or his designee, the following procedures will be followed:

1. The agency believed to be in non-compliance will appear at the hearing.
2. Representatives of the LEADS Advisory Policy Board will present evidence that a violation has occurred or is occurring.
3. The agency shall be given an opportunity to explain the reasons for non-compliance or explain why the agency believes that it has not committed a violation.
4. If a violation has occurred, the agency will explain the steps taken to prevent a future violation or to eliminate non-compliance.

E. DIRECTOR'S DECISION -- At the conclusion of the hearing, the Director may:

1. Suspend service;
2. Find compliance;
3. Lift a suspension already imposed;
4. Grant a period of time to comply with the Regulations.

If the Director grants additional time to comply, the Director shall set a date for a subsequent hearing to review compliance with the terms of the Director's order. At the second hearing, the Director may exercise any option he could have exercised at the original hearing.

5-14-3-1. Public policy — Construction of chapter. — A fundamental philosophy of the American constitutional form of representative government is that government is the servant of the people and not their master. Accordingly, it is the public policy of the state that all persons are entitled to full and complete information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts of those who represent them as public officials and employees. This chapter shall be liberally construed to implement this policy and place the burden of proof for the nondisclosure of a public record on the public agency that would deny access to the record and not on the person seeking to inspect and copy the record. [IC 5-14-3-1, as added by P.L.19-1983, § 6.]

(C) The factual circumstances surrounding the incident; and

(D) A general description of any injuries, property, or weapons involved.

(d) This chapter does not affect IC 5-2-4, IC 5-2-5, or IC 5-11-1-9. [IC 5-14-3-5, as added by P.L.19-1983, § 6.]

5-14-3-6. Records containing disclosable and nondisclosable information. — If a public record contains disclosable and nondisclosable information, the public agency shall separate the material that may be disclosed and make it available for inspection and copying. [IC 5-14-3-6, as added by P.L.19-1983, § 6.]

5-14-3-7. Protection of records — Regulation of interference with regular discharge of agency functions. — A public agency shall protect public records from loss, alteration, mutilation, or destruction, and regulate any material interference with the regular discharge of the functions or duties of the public agency or public employees. 5-14-3-8. Copying fee. — (a) For the purposes of this section, "state agency" has the meaning set forth in IC 4-13-1-1.

(b) A public agency may not charge any fee under this chapter:

(1) To inspect a public record; or

(2) To search for, examine, or review a record to determine whether the record may be disclosed.

(c) The department of administration shall establish a uniform copying fee for the copying of one [1] page of a standard-sized document by state agencies. The fee may not exceed the average cost of copying records by state agencies or ten cents [10¢] per page, whichever is greater. A state agency may not collect more than the uniform copying fee for providing a copy of a public record. However, a state agency shall establish and collect a reasonable fee for copying nonstandard-sized documents.

(d) A public agency that is not a state agency may establish a copying fee schedule. The fee may not exceed the actual cost of copying the record by the agency.

INDIANA

(1) A person is entitled to a copy of a public record under this chapter; and
 (2) The public agency which is in possession of the record has reasonable access to a machine capable of mechanically reproducing the public record; the public agency must provide at least one [1] copy of the public record to the person. However, if a public agency does not have reasonable access to such a machine, the person is only entitled to inspect and manually transcribe the record. A public agency may require that the payment for copying costs be made in advance.

(f) Notwithstanding subsections (b), (c), and (d), a public agency shall collect any copying or search fee that is specified by statute or is ordered by a court. [IC 5-14-3-8, as added by P.L.19-1983, § 6.]

5-14-3-9. Denial of disclosure — Action to compel inspection or copying of record. — (a) A denial of disclosure by a public agency occurs when:

(1) The person designated by the public agency as being responsible for public records release decisions refuses to permit inspection and copying of a public record when a request has been made; or

(2) Twenty-four [24] hours after any employee of the public agency refuses to permit inspection and copying of a public record when a request has been made; whichever occurs first.

(b) A person who has been denied his right to inspect or copy a public record by a public agency may file an action in the circuit or superior court of the county in which the denial occurred to compel the public agency to permit him to inspect and copy the public record. Whenever an action is filed under this subsection, the public agency must notify each person who supplied any part of the public record at issue that a request for release of the public record has been denied. Such persons are entitled to intervene in any litigation that results from the denial. The person who has been denied his right to inspect or copy need not allege or prove any special damage different from that suffered by the public at large.

(c) The court shall determine the matter de novo, with the burden of proof on the public agency to sustain its denial. If the issue in a de novo review under this section is whether a public agency properly denied access to a public record because the record is exempted under section 4(b) [5-14-3-4(b)] of this chapter, the public agency meets its burden of proof under this subsection by proving that the record falls within one [1] of the categories of exempted records under section 4(b) of this chapter. The court may review the public record in camera to determine whether any part of it may be withheld under this chapter.

(d) In any action filed under this section, a court may award reasonable attorney fees, court costs, and other reasonable expenses of litigation to the prevailing party if:

(1) The plaintiff substantially prevails and the court finds the defendant's violation was knowing or intentional; or

(2) The defendant substantially prevails and the court finds the action was frivolous or vexatious. [IC 5-14-3-9, as added by P.L.19-1983, § 6.]

The bureau shall obtain from whatever source procurable, and shall file and preserve for record, plates, photographs, outline pictures, fingerprints, measurements, descriptions, modus operandi statements, and other information about all persons who commit:

(1) Felonies under the Indiana Code; or

(2) Class A misdemeanors under IC 35 [35-1-4-1 — 35-50-6-6].

The bureau may also obtain like information about persons who violate the military or criminal laws of the United States, or who commit a crime in any other state, country, district, or province which, if committed within this state, would be a felony. #### NOTES TO DECISIONS

Constitutionality.

This act, establishing the state police department and providing for fingerprinting and photographing of persons arrested, did not abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens or conflict with due process or equal protection of the laws, nor did it conflict with art. 1, § 1 of the Indiana Constitution, which provided that all power was inherent in the people, and that all free governments were, and of right should have been, founded on their authority, and instituted for their peace, safety and well-being. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 225 Ind. 360, 74 N.E.2d 914 (1947), appeal dismissed, 333 U.S. 834, 68 S. Ct. 609, 92 L. Ed. 1118, rehearing denied, 333 U.S. 858, 68 S. Ct. 732, 92 L. Ed. 1138 (1948); Voelker v. Tyndall, 226 Ind. 43, 75 N.E.2d 548 (1947).

Plaintiff who was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and subsequently acquitted could not recover possession of his fingerprints and signature or damages for their detention, since the city police department was lawfully in possession of such identification data and had a duty to keep it on file as commanded by statute, for the purposes only as therein provided, and as defined by 10-1-1-20 and 10-1-1-21. Voelker v. Tyndall, 226 Ind. 43, 75 N.E.2d 548 (1947).

10-1-1-13 [47-858]. Cooperation with sheriffs. — The bureau shall assist the respective county sheriffs of the state in the establishment of a system for making identification of criminals in each county, and shall give the respective sheriffs such assistance and instruction in the operation and use of such system as may be requested or as may be deemed necessary. The bureau may likewise give such instruction, advice and assistance to chiefs of police and other peace officers as may be deemed wise for the purpose of securing the establishment and operation of local identification systems. It shall be the duty of the respective county sheriffs, chiefs of police and other peace officers to cooperate with the bureau in establishing and maintaining an efficient and coordinating system of identification. [Acts 1945, ch. 344, § 13, p. 1622.]

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Accused Acquitted — Rights Concerning Records.

Where officials of a city were the only parties to an action seeking an injunction to restrain the exhibition in a "rogues' gallery," of photographs taken of complainant by city police officers at the time of his arrest on a misdemeanor charge on which he was acquitted, neither the Indiana bureau of criminal identification and investigation nor the federal bureau of investigation could be restrained from exhibiting copies of such photographs since they had not been made parties to the action. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

A complaint in equity, insofar as it alleged photographs taken of complainant by city police officers at the time of his arrest on a misdemeanor charge, on which he was acquitted and which bore a number thereon were placed, for public exhibition, in a "rogues' gallery" which contained pictures of both persons acquitted and convicted of crime, presented a prima facie case of a violation of complainant's right to privacy as would, if supported by the evidence, require the issuance of an injunction to prevent the exhibiting of the photographs in such "rogues' gallery." State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

The taking and filing of fingerprints of a citizen by city police officers at the time of his arrest on a misdemeanor charge was not an indignity and was not such an interference with his right to privacy as would justify the issuance of an injunction to compel their destruction or return to the citizen acquitted on the misdemeanor charge. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

10-1-1-14 [47-859]. Cooperation with other forces. — The bureau of criminal identification and investigation shall cooperate with similar bureaus or agencies of the other states, and with the national bureau in the department of justice in Washington, District of Columbia, for the purpose of developing and carrying on a complete interstate, national and international system of criminal identification and investigation. [Acts 1945, ch. 344, § 14, p. 1622.]

There was not such a clear right existing in a citizen who had been acquitted of a misdemeanor to have fingerprints, photographs and other identifying records made by city police officers at the time of his arrest surrendered or destroyed, nor such a clear duty resting upon the police officers to surrender or destroy such records as would have authorized a writ of mandate. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

The question of whether a citizen who had been acquitted of a misdemeanor could compel the surrender or destruction of his fingerprints, photographs and other identifying records made by city police officers at the time of his arrest could have been properly raised by a complaint which, although titled and verified as a mandamus action, was treated by the court as a bill in equity. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

Any relief of a citizen whose photographs were taken by city police officers at the time of his arrest on a misdemeanor charge, on which he was acquitted, from exhibition by the federal bureau of investigation of copies of such photographs sent to it should first have been sought by application to such bureau. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

Plaintiff who was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and subsequently acquitted could not recover possession of his fingerprints and signature or recover damages for their detention, since the city police department was lawfully in possession of such identification data and had a duty to keep it on file as commanded by statute, for the purposes only as therein provided and as defined by 10-1-1-20 and 10-1-1-21. Voelker v. Tyndall, 226 Ind. 43, 75 N.E.2d 548 (1947).

INDIANA

10-1-1-15 [47-860]. Duty of penal institutions to furnish information. — It shall be the duty of the wardens of the state prison and the state reformatory, superintendent of the Indiana woman's prison and superintendent of the Indiana state farm, and of the chief administrative officer of every penal institution of the state, to make and furnish to the bureau, in such manner and according to such methods as the bureau may prescribe, photographs, fingerprints, modus operandi statements and other required identification of all prisoners who are confined in the respective institutions, at the time of the taking effect of this act [10-1-1-1 — 10-1-1-24], or who are hereafter confined therein. [Acts 1945, ch. 344, § 15, p. 1622.]

10-1-1-16 [47-861]. Cooperation with forces of police. — The bureau shall cooperate with the respective sheriffs, constables, marshals, police and other peace officers of the state in the detection of crime and the apprehension of criminals throughout the state and shall, on the direction of the governor, conduct such investigations as may be deemed necessary to secure the evidence which may be essential to the conviction of alleged violators of the criminal laws of the state. [Acts 1945, ch. 344, § 16, p. 1622.]

10-1-1-17 [47-862]. Assistance to prosecuting attorney. — The director is hereby authorized to assist any prosecuting attorney in the prosecution of any criminal case which may, in his judgment, require such cooperation. [Acts 1945, ch. 344, § 17, p. 1622.]

10-1-1-18 [47-863]. Duty of local officers to furnish information. — Every law enforcement officer shall furnish to the bureau, upon request, fingerprints, photographs, comprehensive descriptions, and such other data as to identification as the bureau may require of all persons who are arrested and who, in the judgment of the director of the bureau or the officer making the arrest, are persons wanted for commission of a felony. [Acts 1945, ch. 344, § 18, p. 1622; 1978, P.L. 2, § 1005.]

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Accused Acquitted — Rights Concerning Records.

10-1-1-19 [47-864]. Rules and regulations. — The director of the bureau, with the approval of the superintendent and the board, shall make and promulgate such rules and regulations from time to time as may be found necessary and proper for the efficient operation of the bureau and the successful administration of the provisions of this act [10-1-1-1 — 10-1-1-24]. 10-1-1-20 [47-865]. Fingerprints and identification marks — Authority to take. — The members of the department shall take fingerprints, and such other identification data as shall be prescribed by the superintendent, of persons taken into custody for felonies, but the members may, if they deem it advisable, take the fingerprints and other data of persons taken into custody for other offenses. They shall promptly transmit and file the fingerprints and other data. [Acts 1945, ch. 344, § 320, p. 1622; 1978, P.L. 2, § 1006.]

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Accused Acquitted — Rights Concerning Records.

There was not such a clear right existing in a citizen who had been acquitted of a misdemeanor to have fingerprints, photographs and other identifying records made by city police officers at the time of his arrest surrendered or destroyed, nor such a clear duty resting upon the police officers to surrender or destroy such records as would have authorized a writ of mandate. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

The taking and filing of fingerprints of a citizen by city police officers at the time of his arrest on a misdemeanor charge was not an indignity and was not such an interference with his right to privacy as would justify the issuance of an injunction to compel their destruction or return to the citizen acquitted on the misdemeanor charge. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

A complaint in equity, insofar as it alleged photographs taken of complainant by city police officers at the time of his arrest on a misdemeanor charge, on which he was acquitted and which bore a number thereon which were placed, for public exhibition, in a "rogues' gallery" which contained pictures of both persons acquitted and convicted of crime, presented a prima facie case of a violation of complainant's right to privacy as would, if supported by the evidence, require the issuance of an injunction to prevent the exhibiting of the photographs in such "rogues' gallery." State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

Where officials of a city were the only parties to an action seeking an injunction to restrain the exhibition, in a "rogues' gallery," of photographs taken of complainant by city police officers at the time of his arrest on a misdemeanor charge on which he was acquitted neither the Indiana bureau of criminal identification and investigation nor the federal bureau of investigation could be restrained from exhibiting copies of such photographs since they had not been made parties to the action. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

The question of whether a citizen who had been acquitted of a misdemeanor could compel the surrender or destruction of fingerprints as well as photographs made by police officers at the time of his arrest should have been decided upon the peculiar facts of each case wherein the complainant's right of privacy was to have been balanced against the public interest. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

Any relief of a citizen whose photographs were taken by city police officers at the time of his arrest on a misdemeanor charge, on which he was acquitted, from exhibition by the federal bureau of investigation of copies of such photographs sent to it should first have been sought by application to such bureau. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

The question of whether a citizen who had been acquitted of a misdemeanor could compel the surrender or destruction of his fingerprints, photographs and other identifying records made by city police officers at the time of his arrest could have been properly raised by a complaint which, although titled and verified as a mandamus action, was treated by the court as a bill in equity. State ex rel. Mavity v. Tyndall, 224 Ind. 364, 66 N.E.2d 755 (1947).

Plaintiff who was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and subsequently acquitted could not recover possession of his fingerprints and signature or recover damages for their detention, since the city police department was lawfully in possession of such identification data and had a duty to keep it on file as commanded by statute, for the purposes only as therein provided and as defined by this section and 10-1-1-21. Voelker v. Tyndall, 226 Ind. 43, 75 N.E.2d 548 (1947).

(1) Information collected after December 31, 1978, which is classified as confidential must be clearly and uniformly designated as confidential in any form or other document in which it appears.

(2) When an agency which holds information classified as confidential disseminates that information to another agency, the receiving agency shall treat it in the same manner as the originating agency. [IC 4-1-6-8.5, as added by Acts 1978, P.L. 10, § 5; P.L. 19-1983, § 4.]

(2) The proposed safeguards are adequate to prevent the identity of an individual data subject from being known;

(3) The researcher executes an agreement on a form, approved by the oversight committee on public records, with the agency, which incorporates such safeguards for protection of individual data subjects, defines the scope of the research project, and informs the researcher that failure to abide by conditions of the approved agreement constitutes a breach of contract and could result in civil litigation by the data subject or subjects;

(4) The researcher agrees to pay all direct or indirect costs of the research; and

(5) The agency maintains a copy of the agreement or contract for a period equivalent to the life of the record.

(b) Improper disclosure of confidential information by a state employee is cause for action to dismiss the employee. [IC 4-1-6-8.6, as added by Acts 1978, P.L. 10, § 6; 1979, P.L. 40, § 5; P.L. 19-1983, § 5.]

Such recommendations may include, but not be limited to, specific personal information systems or parts thereof which can be categorized as follows:

(d) Upon receipt of a petition for expungement, the law enforcement agency shall notify the court of the name and address of each agency to which any records related to the arrest were forwarded. Any agency desiring to oppose the expungement shall file a notice of opposition with the court setting forth reasons for resisting the expungement within thirty [30] days after the petition is filed. A copy of the notice of opposition shall be served on the petitioner in accordance with the Rules of Trial Procedure. However, this chapter does not require any change or alteration in any record (such as a police blotter entry) made at the time of the arrest or in the record of any court in which the criminal charges were filed. [IC 35-38-5-3, as added by P.L.311-1983, § 3.]

In order for the plaintiff to recover, he must show that the contents of the expunged records would not exonerate the defendant. The plaintiff may be required to state under oath whether he had records in the criminal justice system and whether those records were expunged. If the plaintiff denies the existence of the records, the defendant may prove their existence in any manner compatible with the law of evidence. [IC 35-38-5-4, as added by P.L.311-1983, § 3.]

The Citizens' Aide may not examine a peace officer agency's confidential records unless such records can be and are released pursuant to § 68A.7 and this Chapter. Op.Atty.Gen. (Cusack), July 27, 1976.

If a police department collects or gathers intelligence data from sources that do not include other peace officer agencies, the dissemination of this information would be restricted by section 68A.7, not by this Chapter, although this Chapter would restrict its redissemination. Op.Atty.Gen. (Shaw), July 27, 1976.

The department of public safety is not required to keep a list of persons within the department to whom criminal history data and intelligence data is disseminated. Op.Atty.Gen. (Larson), Jan. 7, 1974.

Railway special agents appointed by the commissioner of public safety under § 80.7 are as much a part of the department of public safety as other special agents except that they are not paid by the state and have a narrower function; therefore, as such, and subject to the internal rules of the department, they may be given access to criminal history and intelligence data in the files of the department. Op.Atty.Gen. (Bidler), Nov. 5, 1973.

692.5 Right of notice, access and challenge

Any person or his attorney with written authorization and fingerprint identification shall have the right to examine criminal history data filed with the bureau that refers to the person. The bureau may prescribe reasonable hours and places of examination.

Any person who files with the bureau a written statement to the effect that a statement contained in the criminal history data that refers to him is nonfactual, or information not authorized by law to be kept, and requests a correction or elimination of that information that refers to him shall be notified within twenty days by the bureau, in writing, of the bureau's decision or order regarding the correction or elimination. Judicial review of the actions of the bureau may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Immediately upon the filing of the petition for judicial review the court shall order the bureau to file with the court a certified copy of the criminal history data and in no other situation shall the bureau furnish an individual or his attorney with a certified copy, except as provided by this chapter.

Upon the request of the petitioner, the record and evidence in a judicial review proceeding shall be closed to all but the court and its officers, and access thereto shall be refused unless otherwise ordered by the court. The clerk shall maintain a separate docket for such actions. No person, other than the petitioner shall permit a copy of any of the testimony or pleadings or the substance thereof to be made available to any person other than a party to the action or his attorney. Upon application to the district court and service of notice on the commissioner of public safety, any individual may request and obtain a list of all persons and agencies who received criminal history data referring to him, unless good cause be shown why the individual should not receive said list.

1. In general

A public body subject to this chapter may not charge an Iowa citizen a fee simple as a precondition to allowing examination of a public record governed by the statute. A fee may, however, be charged to cover reasonable expenses incurred by the body in making information as contained in electronic storage systems, such as magnetic tapes and cards, available to citizens for examination or copying as a public record. This fee must represent only the actual costs involved in satisfying the request for examination or copies. Op. Atty. Gen. (Stork), August 13, 1981.

County records should be copied in the county offices unless it is impractical to do so. If it is necessary to perform the copying at a separate location, the copying is still to be performed under the supervision of the custodian or the custodian's deputy. The custodian is not to relinquish control of the records to the requestor. Any charges assessed for such service should be uniformly applied to all requestors. Op. Atty.Gen. (Cochran), April 6, 1981.

Minutes of open meetings of governmental bodies are "public records", and a member of the public at large is entitled to examine and obtain copies of such minutes. The records custodian must provide copies of the minutes only upon payment of the expenses, excluding the fees for postage, incurred to provide copies. Op. Atty. Gen. (Menke), April 20, 1979.

The relationship of the office of the secretary of state and Iowa Search, Inc., a private corporation for purpose of facilitating search of public records, is not in violation of Constitution or law, such relationship serves a public purpose, not a private purpose. Op. Atty.Gen. (Miller), April 4, 1979.

It is not a violation of law for the Secretary of State to make space available to a private corporation in the offices of the Uniform Commercial Code Division and to make a charge therefor to facilitate searches of public records by such corporation. Op. Atty.Gen. (Synhorst), Oct. 30, 1978.

Section 68A.1 applies to the records of law enforcement agencies. Certain records specified in § 68A.7 are confidential. Records not so excluded are available to the public under the provisions of this chapter. Op. Atty.Gen. (Poncy), April 26, 1976.

1. In general

Cost reports filed with Department of Social Services by nursing homes in connection with receipt of medicaid payments did not fall under statutory exception for confidential public records which includes reports "which, if released, would give advantage to competitors and serve no public purpose," since free flow of information regarding nursing home industry was of sufficient imporance to allow interested public access to such information, and public interest at stake overshadowed any advantages that competitors might derive from access to the cost reports. Craigmont Care Center v. Department of Social Services, App.1982, 325 N.W.2d 918.

In proceeding brought for an injunction to restrain examination of applications for position of city manager, trial court improperly exercised its equitable power when it excluded from public examination five of the applications, which were not confidential personnel records, as there was no indication that applications were submitted on condition they be held confidential, city officials made no pledge that applications would be confidential but merely sought to maintain secrecy with respect to records, no evidence was introduced to show disclosure would substantially and irreparably injure any applicant, and no evidence was introduced bearing on need of confidentiality in public interest. City of Dubuque v. Telegraph Herald, Inc., 1980, 297 N.W.2d 523.

Applications for position of city manager did not constitute confidential personnel records not subject to public records disclosure requirements. Id.

Matters of public record are, as a matter of law, of legitimate concern to the public, and thus liability for disclosing public information is foreclosed in an invasion of privacy suit. (McCormick, J., with two Justices concurring and four Justices concurring in the result.) Howard v. Des Moines Register and Tribune Co., 1979, 283 N.W.2d 289 certiorari denied 100 S.Ct. 1081, 445 U.S. 904, 63 L.Ed.2d 320.

68A.8 Injunction to restrain examination

In accordance with the rules of civil procedure the district court may grant an injunction restraining the examination (including copying) of a specific public record, if the petition supported by affidavit shows and if the court finds that such examination would clearly not be in the public interest and would substantially and irreparably injure any person or persons. The district court shall take into account the policy of this chapter that free and open examination of public records is generally in the public interest, even though such examination may cause inconvenience or embarrassment to public officials or others. Such injunction shall be subject to the rules of civil procedure except that the court in its discretion may waive bond. Reasonable delay by any person in permitting the examination of a record in order to seek an injunction under this section is not a violation of this chapter, if such person believes in good faith that he is entitled to an injunction restraining the examination of such record.

Any necessary changes shall be made to the individual's record. Any agency previously receiving a copy of the inaccurate record shall be so notified with a corrected copy. A final report shall be made to the individual who has so filed a notice of correction within twenty days of said filing. If, after notice is filed and the division makes its final report, the individual is still of the opinion that inaccuracies exist within the records, an appeal of the final decision of the division to the Polk county district court may be made.

17.142 Segregation of criminal records

(1) Each law enforcement or other public agency in possession of arrest records, fingerprints, photographs, or other data whether in documentary or electronic form shall upon written request of the arrestee as provided herein segregate all records relating to the arrestee in its files in a file separate and apart from those of convicted persons, if the person who is the subject of the records:

- (a) Is found innocent of the offense for which the records were made; or
- (b) Has had all charges relating to the offense dismissed; or
- (c) Has had all charges relating to the offense withdrawn.

- (b) Notify all agencies with which it has shared the records or to which it has provided copies of the records to segregate records; and
- (c) All records segregated pursuant to this section shall show disposition of the case.

(4) Instruct such persons and agencies in the installation, maintenance and use of such records and in the manner of reporting to the centralized criminal history record information system.

(a) Install and maintain records needed for reporting data required by the department.

(b) Report to the department as and when the department requests all data demanded by it except that such reports concerning a juvenile delinquent shall not reveal his or his parents' identity.

(c) Give the department or its accredited agent access for purpose of inspection.

(d) Cooperate with the department to the end that its duties may be properly performed.

(2) Intelligence and investigative reports maintained by criminal justice agencies are subject to public inspection providing prosecution is completed or a determination not to prosecute has been made. However, portions of such records may be withheld from inspection if such inspection would disclose:

(a) The name or identity of any confidential informant or information which may lead to the identity of any confidential informant;

(b) Information of a personal nature, the disclosure of which will not tend to advance a wholesome public interest or a legitimate private interest;

(c) Information which may endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel; or

(d) Information contained in such records to be used in a prospective law enforcement action.

(3) When a demand for the inspection of such records is refused by the custodian of the record, the burden shall be upon the custodian to justify the refusal of inspection with specificity. Exemptions provided by this section shall not be used by the custodian of the records to delay or impede the exercise of rights granted by this section.

(4) Centralized criminal history records are not subject to public inspection. Centralized criminal history records mean information on individuals collected and compiled by the department of justice from criminal justice agencies and maintained in a central location consisting of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, information, or other formal criminal charges and any disposition arising therefrom to include sentencing, correctional supervision and release. Such information is restricted to that recorded as the result of the initiation of criminal proceedings or any proceeding related thereto. Nothing in this subsection shall apply to documents maintained by criminal justice agencies which are the source of information collected by the department of justice. Criminal justice agencies shall retain such documents and no official thereof shall willfully conceal or destroy any record with intent to violate the provisions of this section.

(5) The provisions of KRS Chapter 61 dealing with administrative and judicial remedies for inspection of public records and penalties for violations thereof shall be applicable to this section.

(6) The secretary of justice shall adopt such regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of the criminal history record information system and to insure the accuracy of such information based upon recommendations submitted by the commissioner, bureau of state police.

(7) The administrative office of the courts may, upon suitable agreement between the chief justice and the secretary of justice, supply criminal justice information and data to the department. No information shall be solicited from a circuit clerk, justice or judge, court, or agency of the Court of Justice unless such solicitation or request for information is made pursuant to the agreement which may have been reached between the chief justice and the secretary of justice.

If any public official or employee, except justices, judges, circuit clerks, and employees of the Court of Justice, required to report to the bureau neglects or refuses to comply with the requests of the bureau, or its rules governing record systems and their maintenance, the bureau chief shall give written notice thereof to the person or persons authorized by law to disburse funds of the governmental agency to the public official or employee involved. P.L. 93-579, The Privacy Act of 1974, Sec. 7, reads as follows:

"(a)(1) It shall be unlawful for any Federal, State or local government agency to deny to any individual any right, benefit, or privilege provided by law because of such individual's refusal to disclose his social security account number.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall not apply with respect to—

(A) any disclosure which is required by Federal statute, or

(B) the disclosure of a social security number to any Federal, State, or local agency maintaining a system of records in existence and operating before January 1, 1975, if such disclosure was required under statute or regulation adopted prior to such date to verify the identity of an individual.

(b) Any Federal, State, or local government agency which requests an individual to disclose his social security account number shall inform that individual whether that disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority such number is solicited, and what uses will be made of it."

OAG 79-413. A notation of "Do Not Publish" on a public record has no effect on the right to inspect, copy and publish the information in the record.

OAG 76-443. Under the open records act public records are subject to public inspection without the showing of a legitimate private interest or a wholesome public interest. The open records act applies to police courts and to all other courts trying penal cases. Unless a particular record is covered by a particular exception set forth in the statutes, the record is subject to public inspection without the necessity of showing a reason for the inspection.

OAG 76-424. Records kept by local police departments are subject to public inspection unless they come under one of the exceptions stated in KRS 17.150(2).

OAG 76-423. Records of county and circuit court clerks are subject to the open records act, KRS 61.870 to 61.884, and are open to public inspection unless a particular record is expressly made confidential by state statute or court order.

OAG 76-420. Regional comprehensive care centers are "public agencies" under the definition in the open records act, KRS 61.870(1), and such records are therefore public unless the nature of the record makes them confidential. However, personal mental health records of comprehensive care centers which directly or indirectly identify a patient are exempt from public inspection.

OAG 76-419. It is legally permissible for the oral history commission of the department of library and archives to make and keep an agreement with interviewees that tapes will be handled in a certain manner including refusing access to the public for a certain number of years. The tape record is preliminary in nature and will not be a final public record until such time as is provided in the agreement. The agreement comes under exception (g) of KRS 61.878(1).

OAG 76-384. The Kentucky board of ophthalmic dispensers is required under the open records law to furnish a list of all persons licensed by said board upon the request of the president of the Kentucky board of optometric examiners. An agency is not required under the open records act to compile and deliver a list it does not already have prepared but any person may inspect public records and make his own list from said records. In the spirit of cooperation and the statutory policy of comity one state agency should furnish the requested list to another state agency.

OAG 76-375. The open records act does not charge state agencies with the duty to provide records upon a request made by mail.

OAG 76-375. Blanket requests for information on a particular subject without specifying certain documents need not be honored. State employees may not be requested to make compilations of records, but the public has the right to inspect compilations which have been made in the course of business unless the subject matter is confidential by law.

OAG 76-375. The right to have copies of records is ancillary to the right of inspection and does not stand by itself. If a person has not inspected the records he desires to copy and cannot describe them with specificity, there is no requirement that copies of any records must be delivered to him. A citizen may make a fishing expedition through public records on his own time and under the restrictions and safeguards of the public agency, but a willingness to pay for copies of records is not sufficient to put the state agency under obligation to furnish broad categories of records.

OAG 76-375. A person does not have a right to require a list to be made from public records if the list described does not already exist. If the list exists and is not otherwise confidential by law, a person may inspect the list and obtain a copy of it.

OAG 76-366. The Kentucky heritage commission is legally authorized to adopt regulations which will prevent public inspection of specific portions of its files. The open records act provides that each public agency shall adopt rules and regulations in conformity with the provisions of the act.

Chapter 61

61.870 Definitions

As used in KRS 61.872 to 61.884:

(1) "Public agency" means every state or local officer, state department, division, bureau, board, commission and authority; every legislative board, commission, committee and officer; every county and city governing body, council, school district board, special district board, municipal corporation, court or judicial agency, and any board, department, commission, committee, subcommittee, ad hoc committee, council or agency thereof; and any other body which is created by state or local authority in any branch of government or which derives at least twenty-five percent (25%) of its funds from state or local authority.

(2) "Public records" means all books, papers, maps, photographs, cards, tapes, discs, recordings or other documentary materials regardless of physical form or characteristics, which are prepared, owned, used, in the possession of or retained by a public agency. "Public record" shall not include any records owned by a private person or corporation that are not related to functions, activities, programs or operations funded by state or local authority.

(3) "Official custodian" means the chief administrative officer or any other officer or employee of a public agency who is responsible for the maintenance, care and keeping of public records, regardless of whether such records are in his actual personal custody and control.

(4) "Custodian" means the official custodian or any authorized person having personal custody and control of public records.

OAG 78-133. The matter of disciplining a state employee does not come within the exception of personal privacy. The admission of the truthfulness of the charges does not make the charges forever confidential. When final action is taken on the charges, the charges should be made available for public inspection.

OAG 78-11. Transcript of hearing properly held under open meetings law in closed session is exempt from the requirements of open records statutes.

OAG 77-587. Records of health inspections made by local health departments are public records and subject to the provisions of Kentucky's open records law.

OAG 77-75. Actions taken in violation of the open meetings law will stand as valid unless voided by a court.

OAG 77-55. Records of disciplinary actions of the state board of medical licensure are open to public inspection. However, preliminary records such as complaints, charges and personal correspondence would be exempt under KRS 61.878(1)(g).

OAG 76-655. The naming of persons to the honorary post of deputy sheriff is not an official function of the sheriff's office but is a personal activity and therefore is not subject to the strictures of the open records act.

OAG 76-633. Information which if prematurely released would impede effective law enforcement is exempted from public inspection as an exception under the open records law. An auditor's report which reveals possible violations of statutes or regulations by a city employee which may lead to criminal prosecution is exempt until prosecution is completed or a decision is made not to prosecute.

OAG 76-573. There is no legal prohibition against releasing the scores on examinations administered by the Kentucky board of pharmacy to applicants for a pharmacist license under KRS 315.050.

OAG 76-568. An ambulance service is not required to release the names of patients under the open records act, but neither is there any law against releasing the names.

OAG 76-479. Information about an account of a member of the Kentucky retirement system is confidential and not open to public inspection.

OAG 76-469. Kentucky law does not require the registering of hotel guests; so if a guest register is kept by a state resort park, it is exempt from the public records act because the information is of a private nature.

OAG 76-424. Police records are open to public inspection as prosecution is completed or a decision has been made not to prosecute; exceptions are: information which will reveal a confidential informant; information of a personal nature; information which may endanger the life of a police officer; or information which may be used in prospective law enforcement action.

OAG 76-420. The records of comprehensive care centers are public records under the open records law; but the records which identify a patient and describe his medical condition are confidential under the law.

OAG 76-204. Under the open records law, work papers of public accounts auditors are public records.

61.872 Right to inspection; limitation

(1) All public records shall be open for inspection by any person, except as otherwise provided by KRS 61.870 to 61.884, and suitable facilities shall be made available by each public agency for the exercise of this right. No person shall remove original copies of public records from the offices of any public agency without the written permission of the official custodian of the record.

(2) Any person shall have the right to inspect public records during the regular office hours of the public agency. The official custodian may require written application describing the records to be inspected.

(3) If the person to whom the application is directed does not have custody or control of the public record requested, such person shall so notify the applicant and shall furnish the name and location of the custodian of the public record, if such facts are known to him.

(4) If the public record is in active use, in storage or not otherwise available, the official custodian shall immediately so notify the applicant and shall designate a place, time and date, for inspection of the public records, not to exceed three (3) days from receipt of the application, unless a detailed explanation of the cause is given for further delay and the place, time and earliest date on which the public record will be available for inspection.

(5) If the application places an unreasonable burden in producing voluminous public records or if the custodian has reason to believe that repeated requests are intended to disrupt other essential functions of the public agency, the official custodian may refuse to permit inspection of the public records. However, refusal under this section must be sustained by clear and convincing evidence.

(a) Public records containing information of a personal nature where the public disclosure thereof would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(b) Records confidentially disclosed to an agency and compiled and maintained for scientific research, in conjunction with an application for a loan, the regulation of commercial enterprise, including mineral exploration records, unpatented, secret commercially valuable plans, appliances, formulae, or processes, which are used for the making, preparing, compounding, treating, or processing of articles or materials which are trade commodities obtained from a person and which are generally recognized as confidential, or for the grant or review of a license to do business and if openly disclosed would permit an unfair advantage to competitors of the subject enterprise. This exemption shall not, however, apply to records the disclosure or publication of which is directed by other statute.

(c) Public records pertaining to a prospective location of a business or industry where no previous public disclosure has been made of the business' or industry's interest in locating in, relocating within or expanding within the Commonwealth. Provided, however, that this exemption shall not include those records pertaining to application to agencies for permits or licenses necessary to do business or to expand business operations within the state, except as provided in paragraph (b) above.

(e) Test questions, scoring keys and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment or academic examination before the exam is given or if it is to be given again.

(f) Records of law enforcement agencies or agencies involved in administrative adjudication that were compiled in the process of detecting and investigating statutory or regulatory violations if the disclosure of the information would harm the agency by revealing the identity of informants not otherwise known or by premature release of information to be used in a prospective law enforcement action or administrative adjudication. Unless exempted by other provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884, public records exempted under this provision shall be open after enforcement action is completed or a decision is made to take no action. Provided, however that the exemptions provided by this subsection shall not be used by the custodian of the records to delay or impede the exercise of rights granted by KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

(g) Preliminary drafts, notes, correspondence with private individuals, other than correspondence which is intended to give notice of final action of a public agency;

(h) Preliminary recommendations, and preliminary memoranda in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended;

(i) All public records or information the disclosure of which is prohibited by federal law or regulation;

(j) Public records or information the disclosure of which is prohibited or restricted or otherwise made confidential by enactment of the general assembly.

(2) No exemption in this section shall be construed to prohibit disclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person.

(3) If any public record contains material which is not excepted under this section, the public agency shall separate the excepted and make the non-excepted material available for examination.

Any agency response denying, in whole or in part, inspection of any record shall include a statement of the specific exception authorizing the withholding of the record and a brief explanation of how the exception applies to the record withheld. The response shall be issued by the official custodian or under his authority, and it shall constitute final agency action.

(2) A copy of the written response denying inspection of a public record shall be forwarded immediately by the agency to the attorney general of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. If requested by the person seeking inspection, the attorney general shall review the denial and issue within ten (10) days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays) a written opinion to the agency concerned, stating whether the agency acted consistent with provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884. A copy of the opinion shall also be sent by the attorney general to the person who requested the record in question. The attorney general may also request a copy of the records involved but they shall not be disclosed.

(3) Each agency shall notify the attorney general of any actions filed against that agency in circuit court regarding the enforcement of KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

(3) In any such action, the court shall determine the matter de novo and the burden of proof shall be on the public agency to sustain its action. The costs or award shall be paid by such person or agency as the court shall determine is responsible for the violation.

Further, access control measures shall be implemented to insure unauthorized persons are totally denied access to areas where criminal history record information is stored. Said access constraints shall include, but not be limited to, the system facilities, systems operating environments, data file contents, whether while in use or when stored in media library, and system documentation.

Section 3. Procedures shall be implemented in the centralized criminal history information system to insure that computer operations which support the ISS data base, whether dedicated or shared, operate in accordance with procedures developed or approved by the Justice Cabinet, and further insure that:

(a) CHRI is stored by the computer in such a manner that it cannot be modified, destroyed, accessed, changed, purged, or overlaid in any fashion by unauthorized persons.

(b) Operational programs are used that will prohibit inquiry, record updates, or destruction of records, from any terminal other than designated terminals within the KSP, ISS.

(c) The destruction, partial deletion, total deletion, or record correction is limited to designated terminals under the direct control of KSP, ISS.

(d) Operational programs are used to detect and store for the output of designated criminal justice agency employees, all unauthorized attempts to penetrate any criminal history record information system, program or file.

KENTUCKY

(e) The programs specified in paragraphs (b) and (d) of this section are known only to criminal justice agency employees responsible for criminal history record information system control or individuals in agencies pursuant to a specific agreement with the Justice Cabinet to provide such programs and the program(s) are kept continuously under maximum security conditions.

Section 4. Procedures shall be implemented in the centralized criminal history record information system to protect CHRI from unauthorized access, theft, sabotage, fire, flood, wind, or other natural or manmade disasters.

Section 5. Emergency Plans Required. Written plans and instructions dealing with emergencies described in Section (4), shall be developed in manual form and cover all foreseeable incidents ranging from minor accidents to major disasters causing the destruction of computer facilities, entire data bases, and/or CHRI contained in manual files. Employees of the centralized criminal history record information system shall be trained in procedures and specifically assigned responsibilities in case of an emergency. Plans and instructions should be inclusive of, but not limited to, emergency shutdown and evacuation procedures, disaster recovery plan to restart critical system functions, procedures for backup files for critical data such as fingerprint cards, and duplicate system designs. The Commissioner of the Department of State Police shall make available needed personnel to reinstitute the centralized criminal history record information system as soon as feasible after accident or disaster.

Section 6. The Commander of the ISS shall institute procedures for the screening, supervising, and disciplining of agency personnel in order to minimize the risk of compromising internal security. A background investigation of all prospective employees for the ISS shall be conducted. The scope of the background investigation shall be inclusive of, but not limited to:

502 KAR 30:070. Inspection of Criminal History Record Information by Record Subject.

RELATES TO: KRS 17.140, 17.150, 61.872, 61.878, 61.884

PURSUANT TO: KRS 13.082, 15A.150, 17.080, 17.150

NECESSITY AND FUNCTION: KRS 17.150(5) makes that portion of KRS Chapter 61 which deals with administrative and judicial remedies for the inspection of public records and penalties appealable to KRS 17.150. KRS 61.884 allows the individual record subject to access CHRI relating to him or other data in which the record subject is mentioned by name. This regulation establishes guidelines by which CHRI may be accessed by the individual record subject.

Section 1. These regulations shall provide for the initiation of access/review procedures at each of the Kentucky State Police Posts throughout the Commonwealth (with the exception of Frankfort, Post 12). The Information Systems Section shall serve as the location for record access/review for individuals near Frankfort. Access/review procedure shall be uniform throughout the various designated sites.

Section 2. Access/review procedure. The record subject shall complete the "Request for Review" form provided at the respective access/review site. A duplicate copy of said form shall be provided to the requestor, or requestor's legal counsel. One set of rolled fingerprints from the requestor on a completed KSP Form 22, will be forwarded to the KSP, ISS where submitted fingerprints will be used to verify the record subject's identity. Staff of the ISS shall note the date of the request as indicated on the "Request for Review" form and shall schedule the record review within three (3) working days of the receipt of the request, unless a detailed explanation of the cause is given for further delay along with the place, time and earliest date on which the public record will be available for inspection. The requestor shall be notified forthwith by the KSP, ISS of the scheduled date of review. All record reviews will be conducted from 8:00 a.m. through 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday with the exception of legal holidays, at the designated State Police Post or the ISS. The ISS shall return to the Post of the respective access/review request, the "Request for Review" form, the fingerprints taken from the individual for identity verification, a copy of the letter to the record subject scheduling the review date, and a certified copy of the individual's criminal history record.

Section 3. Record Reviewing Procedures. In order to insure that the subject appearing at the Post for the scheduled review of the CHRI supplied from the ISS is in fact the same person the submitted set of fingerprints were obtained from, visual recognition is required by Post personnel before allowing the individual to actually access the CHRI. The individual, and his attorney (if written approval is submitted by the record subject) shall be allowed to inspect the copy of the CHRI furnished by the ISS. Reasonable assistance shall be provided by Post personnel to insure understanding of the CHRI. After the record subject has inspected the CHRI, Post personnel should ascertain if a challenge of the content of the records will be initiated. Basis for challenge must stem from erroneous information, misinformation, or fictitious information. The individual shall be informed that a challenge must be initiated within thirty (30) working days of the actual review. If a challenge is not initiated at the time of review, a copy of the individual's record will be retained at the Post and will be filed with the individual's "Request for Review" form in a manner convenient to the Post. Information regarding the "Request for Review" shall remain at the Post not less than thirty (30) working days from the actual date of review to allow the individual ample time to challenge the record content. If, after thirty (30) working days a challenge has not been initiated, all material regarding the review shall be returned to the ISS where a permanent record of the review shall be maintained.

Section 4. Challenge of Record Contents. If the record subject desires to challenge the contents of the record, the individual shall complete the "Challenge of Record" form (bottom portion of the original form). A duplicate copy should be provided to the individual. It should be noted on the form if the individual requests a copy of the record for purposes of challenge. A copy of the individual's record furnished through the Post by the ISS shall be given to the individual if a challenge is initiated and the individual states a need for a copy of the record for purposes of pursuing a challenge. The copy provided by the ISS shall be permanently marked or stamped to indicate that the copy is for the purpose of challenge and that any other use thereof would be in violation of federal and state law. The Post shall forward to the ISS a "Challenge of Record" form and any documents submitted by the individual in support of the challenge.

Section 5. Processing of challenge by ISS. The ISS shall conduct a comparison of the information under challenge with the original input forms and information contained in the repository files. Any errors or omissions discovered in the repository files shall be corrected. If no error is found, the ISS shall forward a copy of the original challenge form, a copy of the record as contained in the files of the ISS, and any other relevant information to the agency or agencies which the ISS records indicate as contributing the information under challenge and shall request them to examine in an expeditious manner all relevant files to determine the validity of the challenge. The ISS shall notify the individual or his legal counsel in writing of the status of said challenge within thirty (30) working days of the challenge date. Status of challenge includes, but is not limited to, notice of clarification of record, expungement of erroneous data, substantiating record or ongoing research process.

Section 6. Administrative Review. If the record subject is dissatisfied with the action taken by the ISS, the individual may request an Administrative Review. This request will be submitted in writing and directed to the attention of the Commander of the ISS. Said request for Administrative Review must be made not later than fifteen (15) working days following the date of notification to the individual of the decision of the initial challenge. The Commander of the ISS shall notify, in written form the Administrative Review Officer of the request for Administrative Review upon receipt of such request. An individual within the Department of State Police and designated by the Commissioner as the Administrative Review Officer shall review the individual's record in the same manner as performed by the ISS. The Administrative Review Officer shall notify the individual, in writing, of the decision of the Administrative Review. This notification shall be within thirty (30) working days of submission of the written request for the Administrative Review. Any further appeal by the individual will be directed to the court for judicial review.

Section 7. Action Taken if Error or Omission Found within Record. The ISS will correct necessary documents maintained in custody. Notification of all known criminal justice recipients of the erroneous information within the past year and corrections shall be effected in written form. The ISS will furnish the individual, upon request, a written list of known non-criminal justice recipients within the past year and of corrections to be made. The ISS will require that the agency originating the erroneous information notify all known criminal justice recipients within the past year and of corrections to

§ 575. Legislative findings and objectives

3. The legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(1) The improvement of public safety and sound law enforcement and administration of criminal justice requires the complete and timely collection, processing, and dissemination of available information on crime, offenders, and the operations of the criminal justice system through a centralized system.

LOUISIANA

(2) It is in the public interest that to the greatest extent possible, government agencies at all levels concerned with the detection, apprehension, prosecution, sentencing, confinement, and rehabilitation of criminal offenders share among themselves available information relating to such offenders.

(3) Available computer and communications technology now enables the coordination, collection, storage, and dissemination of relevant information heretofore dispersed in separate files throughout the state.

(4) The reduction of crime, the protection of citizens and enforcement officers, and the need to improve the efficiency of the criminal justice system mandates the development and operation of a computer-based criminal justice information system in Louisiana. Acts 1981, No. 449, § 1, eff. July 1, 1981.

Section 5 of Acts 1981, No. 449 (§ 1 of which amended and reenacted this chapter) provided: "The effective date of this Act shall be July 1, 1981."

(1) As used in this Chapter, the phrase "public body" means any branch, department, office, agency, board, commission, district, governing authority, political subdivision, or any committee, subcommittee, advisory board, or task force thereof, or any other instrumentality of state, parish, or municipal government, including a public or quasi-public nonprofit corporation designated as an entity to perform a governmental or proprietary function.

(2) All books, records, writings, accounts, letters and letter books, maps, drawings, photographs, cards, tapes, recordings, memoranda, and papers, and all copies, duplicates, photographs, including microfilm, or other reproductions thereof, or any other documentary materials, regardless of physical form or characteristics, including information contained in electronic data processing equipment, having been used, being in use, or prepared, possessed, or retained for use in the conduct, transaction, or performance of any business, transaction, work, duty, or function which was conducted, transacted, or performed by or under the authority of the constitution or laws of this state, or by or under the authority of any ordinance, regulation, mandate, or order of any public body or concerning the receipt or payment of any money received or paid by or under the authority of the constitution or the laws of this state, are "public records," except as otherwise provided in this Chapter or as otherwise specifically provided by law.

(3) As used in this Chapter, the word "custodian" means the public official or head of any public body having custody or control of a public record, or a representative specifically authorized by him to respond to requests to inspect any such public records.

B. Electrical well surveys produced from wells drilled in search of oil and gas located in established units and which are filed with the assistant secretary of the office of conservation shall be placed in the open files of the office of conservation. Any party or firm shall have the right to examine or reproduce, or both, at their own expense, copies of said survey, by photorraphy or other means not injurious to said records. All other electric logs and other electronic surveys, other than seismic data, produced from wells drilled in search of oil and gas which are filed with the assistant secretary of the office of conservation shall remain confidential upon the request of the owner so filing for periods as follows:

For wells shallower than fifteen thousand feet a period of one year, plus one additional year when evidence is submitted to the assistant secretary of the office of conservation that the owner of the log has a leasehold interest in the general area in which the well was drilled and the log produced; for wells fifteen thousand feet deep or deeper, a period of two years, plus two additional years when evidence is submitted to the assistant secretary of the office of conservation that the owner of the log has such an interest in the general area in which the well was drilled and the log produced; and for wells drilled in the offshore area, subsequent to July 1, 1977, regardless of depth, a period of two years from the filing of the log with the office of conservation, plus two additional years where evidence is submitted to the assistant secretary of the office of conservation that the owner of the log has such an interest in the general area in which the well was drilled and the log produced and has immediate plans to develop the said general area, unless a shorter period of confidentiality is specifically provided in the existing lease.

At the expiration of time in which any log or electronic surveys, other than seismic data, shall be held as confidential by the assistant secretary of the office of conservation as provided for above, said log or logs shall be placed in the open files of the office of conservation and any party or firm shall have the right to examine or reproduce, or both, at their own expense, copies of said log or electronic survey, other than seismic data, by photography or other means not injurious to said records.

Section 2 of Acts 1978, No. 686 provides that: "The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any writings, records or other accounts that reflect the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions or theories of an attorney or an expert, obtained or prepared in anticipation of litigation or in preparation for trial."

1978 Amendment: Changed the section heading from "General definitions" to "Definitions" and rewrote subsection A, which had previously read: "All records, writings, accounts, letters and letter books, maps, drawings, memoranda and papers, and all copies or duplicates thereof, and all photographs or other similar reproductions, of the same, having been used, being in use, or prepared for use in the conduct, transaction, work, duty or function which was conducted, transacted or performed by or under the authority of the Constitution or the laws of this state, or the ordinances or mandates or orders of any municipal or parish government or officer or any board or commission or office established or set up by the Constitution or the laws of this state, or concerning or relating to the receipt or payment of any money received or paid by or under the authority of the Constitution or the laws of this state are public records, subject to the provisions of this Chapter except as hereinafter provided."

1979 Amendment: Added "General" to the section heading; in the first paragraph of subsec. B inserted "and other electronic surveys, other than seismic data," and substituted "assistant secretary of the office of conservation" for "Commissioner of Conservation"; and rewrote the second and third paragraphs of subsec. B, which had provided:

"For wells shallower than fifteen thousand feet a period of one year, plus one additional year when evidence is submitted to the Commissioner of Conservation that the owner of the log has a leasehold interest in the general area in which the well was drilled and the log produced; for wells fifteen thousand feet deep or deeper, a period of two years, plus two additional years when evidence is submitted to the Commissioner of Conservation that the owner of the log has such an interest in the general area in which the well was drilled and the log produced; provided however that no release will be required of logs produced from wells drilled in the off-shore area."

20. Privacy of individuals

Neither the city nor its employees had reasonable expectation of privacy against disclosure of public record containing names and addresses of city employees to person entitled to invoke Louisiana public records law (R.S. 44:1 et seq.), such as newspaper reporter. Aswell v. Lunt, App.1979, 375 So.2d 142, writ denied 375 So.2d 434.

The fact that a municipality or its employee labels the name or address of an employee as having been furnished to become a part of a confidential personnel record does not elevate the name or address to status of being a constitutionally protected private thing; the Public Records Law is not limited to records affecting only the public fisc but covers all records unless specifically excepted by statute, or unless the disclosure of information contained in the public record is information to which the employee has reasonable expectation of privacy such as personnel evaluation reports, disclosure of which might affect the employee's future employment or cause him embarrassment or humiliation. Webb v. City of Shreveport, App.1979, 371 So.2d 318, writ denied 374 So.2d 657.

City could be compelled under Public Records Law to reveal names and addresses of city's employees, except employees of police and fire departments, to a person who declared he was also acting on behalf of a labor union seeking to organize municipal employees since neither city nor its employees, excluding fire and police personnel, had reasonable expectation of privacy against disclosure of the names and addresses as contained on a computer tape. Id.

21. Actions, in general

In proceeding concerning whether either city or its employees had reasonable expectation of privacy against disclosure of public record containing names and addresses of city employees to person entitled to invoke Louisiana public records law (R.S. 44:1 et seq.), such as newspaper reporter, trial court did not abuse its discretion in refusing to stay proceedings below until judgment in controlling case became final and definitive, despite city's contention that judicial economy was not served by allowing litigation of same issues at different appellate levels. Aswell v. Lunt, App.1979, 375 So.2d 142, writ denied 375 So.2d 434.

22. Attorney fees

Where, in proceeding concerning whether city had reasonable expectation of privacy against disclosure of certain public record to newspaper reporter, city did not complain that error occurred in awarding attorney fees of $500 to reporter, and reporter contended that award should be increased because of time and efforts of his attorneys below and on appeal, but reporter testified that he had not discussed question of fees with his counsel or his employer and that he did not know whether he was expected to pay attorney fees, only amount of award was before Court of Appeal and there was no need to increase award for services rendered below and on appeal. Aswell v. Lunt, App.1979, 375 So.2d 142, writ denied 375 So.2d 434.

§ 2. Records involved in legislative investigations

1. Inspection

Trial court properly denied defense counsel's request for log of parish sheriff's office, where counsel was not entiled to the log at time it was requested. State v. Edgcombe, Sup.1973, 275 So.2d 740, certiorari denied 94 S.Ct. 591, 414 U.S. 1075, 38 L.Ed.2d 422.

§ 3. Records of prosecutive, investigative, and law enforcement agencies

A. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to require disclosures of records, or the information contained therein, held by the offices of the attorney general, district attorneys, sheriffs, police departments, Department of Public Safety, marshals, investigators, correctional agencies, or intelligence agencies of the state, which records are:

(1) Records pertaining to pending criminal litigation or any criminal litigation which can be reasonably anticipated, until such litigation has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled; or

(2) Records containing the identity of a confidential source of information or records which would tend to reveal the identity of a confidential source of information; or

(3) Records containing security procedures, investigative training information or aids, investigative techniques, investigative technical equipment or instructions on the use thereof, or internal security information; or

LOUISIANA

(4) The records of the arrest of a person until a final judgment of conviction or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court of competent jurisdiction. However, the records of the booking of a person as provided in Louisiana Code of Criminal Procedure Article 228, records of the issuance of a summons or citation, and records of the filing of a bill of information shall be a public record.

(5) Records containing the identity of an undercover police officer or records which would tend to reveal the identity of an undercover police officer; or

(6) Records concerning status offenders as defined in the Code of Juvenile Procedure.

B. All records, files, documents, and communications, and information contained therein, pertaining to or tending to impart the identity of any confidential source of information of any of the state officers, agencies, or departments mentioned in Paragraph A above, shall be privileged, and no court shall order the disclosure of same except on grounds of due process or constitutional law. No officer or employee of any of the officers, agencies, or departments mentioned in Paragraph A above shall disclose said privileged information or produce said privileged records, files, documents, or communications, except on a court order as provided above or with the written consent of the chief officer of the agency or department where he is employed or in which he holds office, and to this end said officer or employee shall be immune from contempt of court and from any and all other criminal penalties for compliance with this paragraph.

C. Whenever the same is necessary, judicial determination pertaining to compliance with this section or with constitutional law shall be made after a contradictory hearing as provided by law. An appeal by the state or an officer, agency, or department thereof shall be suspensive.

D. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any and all prosecutive, investigative, and law enforcement agencies from having among themselves a free flow of information for the purpose of achieving coordinated and effective criminal justice.

Amended by Acts 1972, No. 448, § 1; Acts 1978, No. 313, § 1; Acts 1978, No. 686, § 1; Acts 1979, No. 336, § 1.

Section 2 of Acts 1978, No. 686 provides that: "The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any writings, records or other accounts that reflect the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions or theories of an attorney or an expert, obtained or prepared in anticipation of litigation or in preparation for trial."

1978 Amendments: Acts 1978, No. 313, § 1 added "or" to par. (3) of subsec. A and added par. (4) thereto. The 1978 Act also added "Department of Public Safety" to the introductory paragraph of subsec. A.

Acts 1978, No. 686, § 1 provides for the addition of paragraphs (4) and (5) to subsection A of R.S. 44:3. These provisions have been redesignated as paragraphs (5) and (6), respectively, pursuant to R.S. 24:253.

1979 Amendment: In amending pars. (4), (5), and (6), the 1979 Act made no change in par. (5) or (6), but rewrote par. (4), which had provided:

"(4) Records of the arrest of a person, the issuance of a citation or a summons to a person, or the filing of a bill of information against a person, when the arrest, citation, summons, or bill of information did not result in a final judgment of conviction, or the acceptance of a plea by guilty by a court of competent jurisdiction; or"

1/2. Validity
Former 42 U.S.C.A. § 3771(b) (see, now, 42 U.S.C.A. § 3789g), which required Law Enforcement Assistance Administration to establish procedures concerning criminal history information, and implementing regulations issued by Louisiana commission on law enforcement and administration of criminal justice superseded state public records law in field of criminal history record information dissemination. Op. Atty. Gen., No. 77-1370, Dec. 14, 1977.

1. In general
Claim that city-parish constitutional charter preempted field pertaining to public inspection and examination of public records was without basis. Bartala v. Roussel, App. 1974, 303 So.2d 832. Writ denied 307 So.2d 372.

If city-parish charter provisions purported to constitute a general classification or definition of public records they would be void for conflict with Public Records Law. Id.

There is no requirement that records of municipal police department containing information known as "criminal history record information" be disseminated to public upon request, but only that such records be made available for public inspection during regular working hours of agency involved. Op. Atty. Gen., No. 77-1370, Dec. 14, 1977.

§ 9. Records of violations of municipal ordinances and state statutes

A. Any person who has been arrested for the violation of a municipal or parish ordinance or for violation of a state statute which is classified as a misdemeanor may make a written motion to the district, parish or city court in which the violation was prosecuted or to the district court located in the parish in which he was arrested, for expungement of the arrest record, if:

(1) The time limitation for the institution of prosecution on the offense has expired, and no prosecution has been instituted; or

(2) If prosecution has been instituted, and such proceedings have been finally disposed of by dismissal, sustaining of a motion to quash, or acquittal. If the court finds that the mover is entitled to the relief sought, for either of the above reasons, it shall order all agencies and law enforcement offices having any record of the arrest, whether on microfilm, computer card or tape, or on any other photographic, electronic or mechanical method of storing data, to destroy any record of arrest, photograph, fingerprint or any other information of any and all kinds or descriptions. The court shall order such custodians of records to file a sworn affidavit to the effect that the records have been destroyed and that no notations or references have been retained in the agency's central repository which will or might lead to the inference that any record ever was on file with any agency or law enforcement office. The original of this affidavit shall be kept by the court so ordering same and a copy shall be retained by the affiant agency which said copy shall not be a public record and shall not be open for public inspection but rather shall be kept under lock and key and maintained only for internal record keeping purposes to preserve the integrity of said agency's files and shall not be used for any investigative purpose. This Subsection does not apply to arrests for a first or second violation of any ordinance or statute making criminal the driving of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic beverages or narcotic drugs, as denounced by R.S. 14:98.

Upon the entry of such an order the person against whom the arrest has been entered shall be restored to all civil rights lost or suspended by virtue of the arrest, unless otherwise provided in this section, and shall be treated in all respects as not having been arrested.

PURPOSE

It is the purpose of these regulations to provide safeguards for an individual against an invasion of his personal privacy, and to promote, to the maximum extent feasible, the adoption of procedures to ensure the completeness, accuracy, and integrity of criminal history record information collected, maintained and disseminated by criminal justice agencies. This will be accomplished by requiring those agencies affected to: permit an individual to determine what criminal history record information pertaining to him is collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by such agencies; permit an individual to gain access to criminal history record information pertaining to him in the records of affected agencies, to have a copy made of all or any portion thereof, and to correct or amend such records; and collect, maintain, use, or disseminate any record of criminal history information in a manner that assures that such action is for a lawful purpose, that the information is current and accurate for its intended use and that adequate safeguards are provided to prevent the misuse or unauthorized alteration or destruction of such information.

AGENCIES COVERED BY REGULATION

1. These regulations apply to all criminal justice agencies organized under the Constitution or laws of the State of Louisiana which were awarded Law Enforcement Assistance Administration monies after July 1, 1973, for manual or automated systems which collect, store, or disseminate criminal history record information. The regulations do not directly apply to agencies which have received LEAA funds for general purposes other than the collection, storage or dissemination of criminal history record information. For example: an agency receiving funds to implement and operate automated non-criminal history record information systems (e.g., personnel, resource allocation, performance evaluation) would not by such funding be included under these regulations.
2. All criminal justice agencies organized under the Constitution or laws of the State of Louisiana which are or become signatories to a user's agreement. In such instances, the user's agreement shall control the extent to which these regulations are applicable.
3. Nothing contained in any of these Privacy and Security Regulations shall be construed to reduce, eliminate, or otherwise adversely affect any rights which individuals may have under any existing Louisiana law, court decision, or administrative rule.

RECORDS COVERED BY THESE REGULATIONS

4. These regulations apply to criminal history record information, as defined in LCLE-PS Regulation LAC 1-18:1.10. The following types of record information that might contain or otherwise be included within the definition of "criminal history record information" are specifically excluded:
  - A. Posters, announcements, or lists for identifying or apprehending fugitives or wanted persons.

LOUISIANA

- B. Original records of entry such as police blotters maintained by criminal justice agencies, compiled chronologically and required by law or long-standing custom to be made public, if such records are accessed solely on a chronological basis.
- C. Court records of public judicial proceedings.
- D. Published court or administrative opinions.
- E. Public judicial, administrative or legislative proceedings.

Under Federal law, an affected agency which willfully and knowingly violates these Regulations may be subject to termination of funds made available by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, and a $10,000 fine. Additionally, future eligibility for receipt of Law Enforcement Assistance Administration funds may be suspended until the violating agency furnishes proof of compliance with these Regulations.

6. Should the audit referred to in sub-section LAC 1-18:4.5 disclose inaccuracies or omissions in the information, the criminal justice agency shall cause appropriate alterations or additions to be made to the information and shall cause notice of such alterations or additions to be given to LCLE, the individual involved, and to other criminal justice agencies or private organizations to which that individual's criminal history record information has been disseminated within the previous 90 days, and in every instance the Central State Repository shall be notified of the substance of the alteration or addition.

RIGHT TO APPEAL FROM DECISION OF LOCAL REVIEW OFFICER

7. If the criminal justice agency declines to modify or supplement the individual's criminal history record in whole or in part, the individual or his legal representative may require review of the criminal justice agency's decision by perfecting, within 30 days of the mailing of the audit results, an appeal to the LCLE Privacy and Security Committee. The Privacy and Security Committee shall appoint Hearing Officers to hear such appeals. Failure to timely perfect an appeal shall bar subsequent challenges of that portion of the individual criminal history record in controversy.

PERFECTING THE APPEAL

8. Appeals shall be perfected upon actual delivery to the Privacy and Security Committee of a petition for review. The petition for review shall be signed and in writing and shall include a concise statement of the alleged deficiencies or inaccuracies of the individual's criminal history record, shall state the date and result of any review by the criminal justice agency, and shall be accompanied by a sworn verification of the facts alleged in the petition for review. LCLE-Privacy and Security Form No. 5 may be used for perfecting the appeal.

NOTICE OF THE APPEAL, CONDUCT OF HEARING

9. Upon receipt of the petition for review, the Hearing Officer shall docket the case and notify the criminal justice agency and the individual or his legal representative of the time, place, and nature of the hearing; the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held; the particular statutes, rules, and regulations involved; the nature of the matters asserted in the petition for appeal. Both the individual and the criminal justice agency shall have adequate opportunity to respond and present evidence on all issues of fact involved and argument on all issues of law and policy involved and to conduct such cross-examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the facts.

17. Individual criminal history records challenged under the provisions of this regulation shall be deemed to be accurate, complete, and valid until otherwise ordered.

DUTY TO INFORM INDIVIDUAL OF DISSEMINATION OF INCORRECT DATA

18. Upon final determination that the content of an individual criminal history record is inaccurate or incomplete, the affected agency which originated the inaccurate or incomplete entry shall provide the individual or his legal representative with a list of the non-criminal justice agencies to which the inaccurate or incomplete criminal history record information has been disseminated within a ninety (90) day period immediately preceding the final disposition of the challenge.

LOUISIANA

LOUISIANA PRIVACY AND SECURITY REGULATION
LAC 1-18:5

Completeness and Accuracy

1. It is the purpose of this regulation to establish minimum standards for reporting criminal dispositions and updating criminal history records to include such dispositions. It is intended that this regulation supplement and reinforce the LCJIS Complete Disposition Reporting System. Because inaccurate or incomplete criminal history record information presents a serious danger to individual rights of privacy and due process, every criminal justice agency should strive to maintain accurate, up-to-date criminal history records.

REPORTING DISPOSITION DATA

2. Every affected agency shall report dispositions (as defined in LAC 1-18:1.17) which occur as a result of a transaction initiated by such agency within ninety (90) days of the occurrence of the disposition. Dispositions shall be reported as required by the Louisiana Criminal Justice Information System.

CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD INFORMATION

3. Every affected agency shall establish procedures for updating criminal history records using disposition data which shall be distributed by the Louisiana Criminal Justice Information System.
4. Every affected agency shall establish procedures providing for a minimal external search for a disposition prior to disseminating criminal history record information relative to a specific arrest or charge when it appears from the nature of the arrest or charge that a disposition should have occurred, and none is noted in the record.

LOUISIANA

LOUISIANA PRIVACY AND SECURITY REGULATION
LAC 1-18:6
Dissemination and Corrections Records and the Maintenance of Logs

1. It is the purpose of this regulation to provide direction and guidance concerning the control of dissemination and correction of criminal history record information (CHRI) to individuals or agencies as required by the Federal Regulations (Title 28), through the maintenance of certain logs, and to provide a vehicle for correcting erroneous information. Since dissemination records are viewed by the regulations as a key restraint on erroneous dissemination, a deterrent to the illegal use of information disseminated and a supporting document to quality assurance audit trails (LAC 1-18:7), the maintenance of logs is mandatory.

DISSEMINATION CONTROLS AND RESTRICTIONS

2. These regulations impose no restrictions on the dissemination of CHRI where the court transactions or dispositions have included a conviction or convictions. However, where CHRI contains non-conviction data, i.e. where records contain arrest data, citation, summons or bill(s) of information which have not resulted in a conviction or guilty plea, and acquittals; dismissals; information that a matter was not referred for prosecution, that the prosecutor has not commenced criminal proceedings, that proceedings have been indefinitely postponed; and records of arrest unaccompanied by disposition that are more than one year old and in which no prosecution is actively pending, these regulations now impose restrictions against dissemination of that portion of CHRI containing non-conviction data to non-criminal justice agencies not otherwise permitted access to such information by state statute (3B) and (5).
3. Non-conviction data may only be disseminated to:
  - A. Criminal justice agencies for criminal justice activity and employment.
  - B. Public and private agencies authorized by state and federal statute, executive order, local ordinance or court decision. (See paragraph 5)
  - C. Individuals and agencies pursuant to a specific agreement with a criminal justice agency to provide criminal justice services. (e.g. Consultants)
  - D. Individuals and agencies engaged in research, evaluative or statistical activities.
4. Nothing in this Regulation abrogates the right of individuals (or their authorized representatives) to access, review, challenge or appeal criminal history information about themselves as provided for in LAC 1-18:3 and LAC 1-18:4.

LOUISIANA

5. Upon application, the Central State Repository (Bureau of Criminal Identification) may furnish a copy of all information available pertaining to the identification and history of any person or persons of whom the Bureau has a record or any other necessary information to any federal, state, or local government regulatory, investigative, licensing or bonding agencies which may require fingerprinting, in connection with their authorized duties, functions and powers.

DISSEMINATION AND CORRECTIONS RECORDS REQUIREMENTS DISSEMINATION LOGS

6. In order to maintain accountability over the full scale of collection, storage and dissemination of CHRI, dissemination transactions records in the form of a log shall be kept by each criminal justice agency. The logging is required both to support the audit process and as a means of correcting erroneous dissemination. Logs may be kept as shown on LCLE Privacy and Security Form No. 8 but must, as a minimum, contain the following data elements:
  - A. A tracking, serial, or identification number in order to provide positive identification linkage between CHRI disseminated and the record from which extracted.
  - B. Agency or individual to which or whom CHRI released.
  - C. Address of agency or individual.
  - D. Date of release or notification.
  - E. Individual to whom information relates.
  - F. Items of information released and how furnished (i.e., copy provided, written out by hand, mailed, teletype or computer terminal printout).
  - G. Original entry or correction (indicate "O" or "C" as appropriate).
  - H. Releasing official.

CORRECTION RECORDS

7. Since identification of agencies or individuals receiving erroneous CHRI is possible from the dissemination log and since Federal Regulations require notification of each recipient of inaccurate or erroneous CHRI (unless it falls outside of the 90 day limit specified in IAC 1-18:4.6) a corrections record will also be kept using the dissemination log. The minimum data elements for a correction entry are essentially similar to those specified for a dissemination entry. The tracking or serial number will be identical to the identification number provided for the original information on the dissemination log. The log page number of the original entry will be placed next to the "C" in the "Original or Correction" column of the log in order to maintain audit trail continuity.

LOUISIANA

8. All logs are to be preserved for a period of not less than one year from the earliest date of release of information or notification of correction. Logs will be made available for audit and verification of compliance with the Regulations by the Commission, the Privacy and Security Committee or their designated staff members at such time as they may require.

NO RECORD RESPONSE

9. When a response to an inquiry is "No Record" or essentially negative, no logging of the response is required.

CORRECTIONS DATA TRANSMITTAL

10. Corrections to records shall be forwarded in hardcopy form such as letter, teletype, or computer terminal printout within 14 days after determining erroneous information has been disseminated. If the original dissemination is older than 90 days and the 90 day record maintenance notification has been imposed, and a correction is indicated, the correction should be made but need not be transmitted, except to the Central State Repository.

Louisiana Privacy and Security Regulation LAC 1-18:7

Audits and Quality Control

1. It is the purpose of this regulation to interpret the requirements of the Federal Regulations as they pertain to: (a) the quality of the information the criminal justice agencies collect, store and disseminate; and, (b) the systematic and annual audits to be performed in order to verify adherence to the Privacy and Security Regulations.

QUALITY CONTROL

PRIVACY CONSIDERATIONS

2. The quality of information which the criminal justice agencies collect and use is an important privacy consideration. Quality information issues usually fall into one or both of two categories; namely, completeness and/or accuracy. Achieving high quality record information is largely a matter of good procedures; it requires a rigorous, systematic approach to record-keeping and a high degree of cooperation among the participating agencies. Agencies shall therefore, institute procedures which implement these requirements.

COMPLETENESS AND ACCURACY

3. Agencies shall likewise develop written procedures which comply with the basic provisions of LAC 1-18:5.

AUDITS

4. There are basically two types of quality assurance audits required periodically. The systematic audit is required of an agency which collects, maintains and disseminates CHRI as a means of minimizing errors or omissions in the completeness and accuracy of the records. This audit is actually a quality control mechanism and will usually be performed on a periodic and regular basis by the agency itself. In contrast, the annual audit is an examination by an outside agency of the extent to which an agency is complying with the Regulations.
5. The systematic audit refers to a combination of systems and procedures employed both to ensure, to the extent possible, completeness and to verify accuracy. The systematic audit is also an internal procedure which basically provides for a comparison between CHRI and source documents or reporting forms, as appropriate, in order to check accuracy and completeness. In addition, this audit provides for an inspection of an agency's systematic audit procedure in accordance with the guidelines furnished by the Louisiana Criminal Justice Information System (LCJIS) staff and utilizing LCIE-Privacy and Security Form No. 9 (Agency Systematic Audit Checkoff List).

LOUISIANA

6. The annual audit will be performed on a random sample of all affected agencies in the State. All affected agencies must fully cooperate in the conduct of the annual audit.
7. LCJIS shall audit, on a periodic basis, a random sampling of agencies to provide statistically significant examinations of the accuracy and completeness of data maintained and to verify adherence to the Regulations. Sampling and detailed audit procedures will be as indicated in LCJIS furnished guidelines and implementing directives.

AGENCY RESPONSIBILITIES

8. The annual audit will be performed by members of the LCJIS staff who are familiar with the agencies and the requirements of the Regulations. Agencies to be audited will be given a minimum of 30 days written notice prior to an annual audit being conducted. On conclusion of the annual audit, the staff will give the agency an oral debriefing and subsequently, within 30 days, a written, formal critique highlighting deficiencies and recommending corrective action. Field agents making regular, subsequent visits will verify corrective action taken.
9. At the time of the audit, the audited agency will have ready to present to the audit team such documentation as may be required by LCJIS, including but not limited to:
  - A. Evidence of procedural compliance including security,
  - B. Copies of systematic audits performed,
  - C. Source records as may be requested,
  - D. Dissemination logs, and
  - E. Right of access, appeals, and certification forms.
10. Audited agencies with serious deficiencies as indicated in the formal critique must correct these deficiencies and will render written, corrective action reports to LCJIS monthly until the deficiency is eliminated.

Louisiana Privacy and Security Regulation LAC 1-18:8

Security of Criminal History Information

1. It is the purpose of this regulation to establish minimum standards governing the achievement and maintenance of physical security, personnel security and programming security within agencies maintaining criminal history records.

PHYSICAL SECURITY

2. Affected agencies shall institute procedures for the protection of criminal history records from environmental hazards including fire, flood, and power failure. Appropriate measures may include: adequate fire detection and quenching systems, protection against water and smoke damage, fire resistant materials on walls and floors, air conditioning systems, emergency power sources and backup files.
3. Affected agencies shall adopt security procedures which limit access to criminal history files. These procedures may include use of guards, badges, keys, passwords, sign-in logs or similar controls. Facilities housing criminal history records shall be so designed and constructed as to reduce the possibility of physical damage to the records. Appropriate measures may include physical limitations on access, security storage for information media, adequate lighting, detection and warning devices, perimeter barriers, heavy-duty, non-exposed walls and closed circuit television.

PERSONNEL SECURITY

4. Applicants for employment and those presently employed in the maintenance of criminal history records shall consent to an investigation of their character, habits, previous employment, and other matters necessary to establish their good moral character, reputation and honesty. Giving false information shall disqualify an applicant from employment and subject a present employee to dismissal.
5. Investigations should be conducted in such a manner as to provide sufficient information to enable the appropriate officials to determine employability and fitness of persons entering sensitive positions. Investigations of applicants should be conducted on a pre-employment basis and the resulting reports used as a personnel selection device.
6. Systems personnel including terminal operators in remote locations, as well as programmers, computer operators, and others working at or near the central processor, shall be assigned appropriate security clearances and should have those clearances renewed periodically after investigation and review.

LOUISIANA

7. Each affected agency should prepare a security manual which delineates procedures for granting clearances for access to criminal history information as well as areas where criminal history data is maintained. Each person working with or having access to this information should know the contents of the manual.
8. The management of each affected agency should establish sanctions for accidental or intentional violation of system security standards. Supervisory personnel should be delegated adequate authority and responsibility to enforce these standards.
9. Any violation of the provisions of these standards by any employee or officer of any public agency, in addition to any applicable criminal or civil penalties, shall be punished by the imposition of appropriate disciplinary measures.
10. Where any affected agency is found by the Louisiana Privacy and Security Committee to have willfully or repeatedly violated the requirements of this standard, the Committee may prohibit the dissemination of criminal history record information to that agency, for such periods and such conditions as the Committee deems appropriate.

PROGRAMMING SECURITY

11. There shall be a terminal identification code number for each remote terminal as a pre-condition for entering the files. Within each agency, terminal use shall be assigned to a limited and identified group of individuals. Each individual terminal user shall identify himself by a personal identification number or authorization code. The computer shall be programmed to log the identity of all users, the files accessed, and the date of access. This information shall be maintained for twelve (12) months. (See LAC 1-18:6.) Each remote terminal user shall establish a computerized or written log of terminal use, which shall be audited periodically.
12. Where a computer file may be accessed by more than one agency, system software shall ensure that each agency shall obtain only the data to which it is entitled. System hardware and software shall contain controls to ensure that each user with on-line direct terminal access can obtain only reports authorized for its use. System software shall be implemented to erase and clear core, buffers, mass storage, and peripheral equipment of data automatically whenever purging is required by these regulations. Duplicate computer files shall be created as a counter-measure for destruction of original files and all computer tapes or discs shall be locked in a safe storage area under the control of senior personnel. Secondary storage should be used for back-up.
13. Where criminal justice data is transmitted to a data center on reporting forms, the center shall establish procedures for destroying these forms after the data is entered in the computer. System software shall contain controls to ensure that each terminal is limited to the information it can input, modify, or cancel.
14. A monitor program shall be developed to report attempts to violate the system security software or files. Edit programs shall be created to periodically audit record alteration transactions.

  - A. Files shall be stored on the computer in such a manner that they cannot be modified, destroyed, accessed, changed, or overlaid in any fashion by non-criminal justice terminals.
  - B. The agency employee in charge of computer operations shall write and install, or cause to have written and installed, a program that will prohibit inquiry, file updates or destruction from any terminal other than criminal justice system terminals which are so designated. The destruction of files shall be limited to specifically designated terminals under the management control of the criminal justice agency responsible for maintaining the files.
  - C. The agency employee in charge of computer operations shall write and install, or cause to have written and installed, a classified program to detect and store for classified output all accesses and all attempts to penetrate and all accesses of any criminal offender record information system, program or file. This program shall be available only to the agency control employee and his immediate assistant and the records of such program shall be kept continuously under maximum security conditions. No other persons, including staff and repair personnel, shall be permitted to know this program.
  - D. Non-terminal access to criminal offender record information such as requests for tapes, file dumps, printouts, etc., shall be permitted only with approval of the criminal justice agency having management control of the data. The employee in charge of computer operations shall forward all such requests to the criminal justice agency employee responsible for maintaining systems and data security.

LINKAGE TO INTELLIGENCE FILES

3. Criminal history record files may be linked to intelligence files in such a manner that an intelligence inquiry from a criminal justice terminal can trigger a printout of the subject's criminal offender record information.
4. A criminal history record inquiry response shall not include information which indicates that an intelligence file exists.

Training of System Personnel

1. It is the purpose of this regulation to establish a training program whereby all personnel working with or having access to criminal history record information are made familiar with the substance and intent of the Louisiana Privacy and Security Regulations.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR STATE-WIDE IMPLEMENTATION

2. The Louisiana Commission on Law Enforcement shall be primarily responsible for planning, coordinating, presenting, and approving the Privacy and Security Training Programs. This training program would be primarily directed to employees who work with or have access to criminal history record information.
4. Each affected agency shall maintain a written record describing the training procedures employed by the agency and indicating the number of training meetings per year. This record shall be made available to LCLE staff audit personnel during scheduled annual audits.

4. Rules and regulations. The commanding officer shall make and forward to all persons charged with any duty or responsibility under this section and sections 1542, 1544, 1547 and 1549; rules, regulations and forms for the taking, filing, preserving and distributing of fingerprints and other criminal history record information as provided in this chapter. Before becoming effective, such rules, regulations and forms are to be approved by the Attorney General.

5. Apparatus and materials. The Chief of the State Police shall supply such bureau with the necessary apparatus and materials for collecting, filing, preserving and distributing criminal history record information.

1975 Amendment. Section repealed and replaced by c. 763.

1. In general

Where the Supreme Judicial Court was not furnished with transcript of hearing on defendant's motion to obtain transcript of criminal record of third party from bureau of identification or Federal Bureau of Investigation in prosecution for breaking, entering and larceny in nighttime, Court had no way of knowing whether any showing of materiality was made and therefore had no basis upon which to predicate finding of error. State v. Burnham (1976) Me., 350 A.2d 577.

Defendants, charged with breaking, entering and larceny in nighttime, had right to subpoena such records as may have existed in bureau of identification regarding criminal record of third party, to whom defendant, according to testimony of prosecution witness, had allegedly made certain statement. Id.

Where there was no showing in prosecution for breaking, entering and larceny in nighttime that State had in its possession any records from Federal Bureau of Investigation, such records were not discoverable in state court proceeding. Id.

§ 1542. Recording of fingerprints; photographs; palm prints

1. Fingerprints. Law enforcement officers or persons in charge of state correctional institutions under the general supervision, management and control of the Department of Mental Health and Corrections shall have the authority to take or cause to be taken, and shall take or cause to be taken, the fingerprints of any person:

- In custody charged with the commission of a crime;
- In custody charged with the commission of a juvenile offense;
- In custody and believed to be a fugitive from justice;
- Named in a search warrant which directs that such person's fingerprints, palm prints or photograph be taken;
- Who dies while confined at a jail, police station or any facility operated by the Bureau of Corrections;

Fingerprints taken pursuant to subsection 1, paragraph F, shall be taken on a form furnished by the bureau, such form to be known as the Noncriminal Fingerprint Record. Fingerprints taken pursuant to subsection 1, paragraph G, shall be taken upon either the Criminal Fingerprint Record or the Noncriminal Fingerprint Record as the court shall order.

4. Duty to submit. It shall be the duty of the head of the arresting agency, or his designee, to transmit, within 5 days of the date of arrest, to the State Bureau of Identification the criminal fingerprint record of any person whose fingerprints are taken pursuant to subsection 1, paragraphs A, B or C. Law enforcement agencies other than the arresting agency shall not submit to the State Bureau of Identification a criminal fingerprint record for any person whose fingerprints are taken pursuant to subsection 1, paragraphs A, B or C, unless expressly requested to do so by the Commanding Officer of the State Bureau of Identification.

1975 Amendment. Section repealed and replaced by c. 763.

§ 1543. Repealed. 1975, c. 763, § 6

§ 1544. Uniform crime reporting

It shall be the duty of all state, county and municipal law enforcement agencies, including those employees of the University of Maine appointed to act as policemen, to submit to the State Bureau of Identification uniform crime reports, to include such information as is necessary to establish a Criminal Justice Information System and to enable the commanding officer to comply with section 1541, subsection 3. It shall be the duty of the bureau to prescribe the form, general content, time and manner of submission of such uniform crime reports. The bureau shall correlate the reports submitted to it and shall compile and submit to the Governor and Legislature annual reports based on such reports. 1. Inspection. Any person or his attorney may inspect the criminal history record information concerning him maintained by a criminal justice agency. A person's right to inspect or review criminal history record information shall not include access to intelligence and investigative information or any other information which is not criminal history record information. A criminal justice agency may prescribe reasonable hours and locations at which the right may be exercised and any additional restrictions, including satisfactory verification of identity by fingerprint comparison, as are reasonably necessary. These restrictions shall be to insure the security and confidentiality of the criminal history record information and to verify the identity of the person seeking to inspect that information. The agency shall supply the person or his attorney with a copy of the criminal history record information pertaining to him on request and payment of a reasonable fee.

2. Review. A person or his attorney may request amendment or correction of criminal justice record information concerning him by addressing, either in person or by mail, his request to the criminal justice agency in which the information is maintained. The request shall indicate the particular record involved, the nature of the correction sought and the justification for the amendment or correction.

On receipt of a request, the criminal justice agency shall take necessary steps to determine whether the questioned information is accurate and complete. If investigation reveals that the questioned information is inaccurate or incomplete, the agency shall immediately correct the error or deficiency and advise the requesting person that the correction or amendment has been made.

Not later than 15 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays, after the receipt of a request, the agency shall notify the requesting person in writing either that the agency has corrected the error or deficiency or that it refuses to make the requested amendment or correction. The notice of refusal shall include the reasons therefor, the procedure established by the agency for requesting a review by the head of the agency of that refusal and the name and business address of that official.

3. Administrative appeal. If there is a request for review, the head of the agency shall, not later than 30 days from the date of the request, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays, complete the review and either make the requested amendment or correction or refuse to do so. If the head of the agency refuses to make the requested amendment or correction, he shall permit the requesting person to file with the agency a concise statement setting forth the reasons for his disagreement with the refusal. He shall also notify the person of the provisions for judicial review of the reviewing official's determination under subsection 4.

Dissemination of the disputed criminal history record information by that agency with which the requesting person has filed a statement of disagreement, occurring after the filing of such statement, shall clearly reflect notice of the dispute. A copy of the statement shall be included, along with, if the agency deems it appropriate, copies of a concise statement of the reasons of the agency for not making the amendment or correction requested.

4. Judicial review. If an administrative appeal brought pursuant to subsection 3 is denied by the head of the agency, or the requesting person believes the decision of the head of the agency to be otherwise unsatisfactory, the person may, within 30 days of the decision rendered by the head of the agency, seek relief in the Superior Court.

5. Notification. When a criminal justice agency has amended or corrected a person's criminal history record information in response to written request as provided in subsection 2 or a court order, the agency shall, within 30 days thereof, advise all prior recipients, who have received that informa-

Criminal Records

§ 735. Definitions.

(a) In this subtitle, the following words have the meanings indicated.

(b) "Court records" means all official records maintained by the clerk of a court or other court personnel pertaining to a criminal proceeding. It includes indices, docket entries, charging documents, pleadings, memoranda, transcriptions of proceedings, electronic recordings, orders, judgments, and decrees. It does not include:

(1) Records pertaining to violations of the vehicle laws of the State or of any other traffic law, ordinance, or regulation;

(2) Written opinions of a court that have been published;

(3) Cash receipt and disbursement records necessary for audit purposes; or

(4) A court reporter's transcript of proceedings in multiple defendant cases.

(c) "Expungement," with respect to court records or police records, means the effective removal of these records from public inspection,

(1) By obliteration; or

(2) By removal to a separate secure area to which the public and other persons having no legitimate reason for being there are denied access; or

(3) If effective access to a record can be obtained only by reference to other records, by the expungement of the other records, or the part of them providing the access.

(d) "Law-enforcement agency" includes any state, county, and municipal police department or agency, sheriff's offices, the State's attorney's offices, and the Attorney General's office.

(e) "Police records" means all official records maintained by a law-enforcement agency pertaining to the arrest and detention of or further proceeding against a person on a criminal charge or for a suspected violation of a criminal law. It does not include investigatory files, police work-product records used solely for police investigation purposes, or records pertaining to violations of the vehicle laws of the State or of any other traffic law, ordinance, or regulation. (1975, ch. 260; 1976, ch. 525.)

University of Baltimore Law Review. — For article, "The Maryland Rules — A Time for Overhaul," see 9 U. Balt. L. Rev. 1 (1979).

Placing notation on record regarding court ordering conviction vacated is not expungement. — The meaning of expungement, although subject to some variation, has never been interpreted to mean simply placing a notation on the record that a court has ordered the conviction vacated. Such an interpretation would defeat the entire purpose of the expungement remedy because anyone looking at the record would be made aware immediately of the conviction. Clearly, a notation that the conviction has been vacated would not be effective to erase the impact of the conviction itself. Grandison v. Warden, Md. House of Cor., 423 F. Supp. 112 (D. Md. 1976).

Division of Parole and Probation has option of handling expunged records by either obliteration, destruction, or removal to a separate secure area. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 502 (1978).

§ 736. Expungement of police records; release without charge.

(a) Notice and request for expungement. — If a person is arrested, detained, or confined by a law-enforcement agency for a suspected violation of a criminal law other than a violation of the vehicle laws of the State or any other traffic law, ordinance, or regulation, and is released without being charged with the commission of a crime, he may give written notice of these facts to any law-enforcement agency which he believes may have police records concerning that arrest, detention, or confinement, and request the expungement of those police records.

(b) General waiver and release. — This notice may not be given prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations for tort actions arising from the incident unless the person attaches to the notice a written general waiver and release, in proper legal form, of all claim he may have against any person for tortious conduct arising from the incident. The notice and waiver are not subject to expungement, but shall be maintained by the law-enforcement agency at least until the expiration of any applicable statute of limitations. The notice must be given within eight years after the date of the incident.

(c) Investigation. — The law-enforcement agency shall, upon receipt of a timely filed notice, promptly investigate and attempt to verify the facts stated in the notice. If it finds the facts to be verified, it shall,

(1) Make a diligent search for any police records concerning that arrest, detention, or confinement of the person;

(2) Within 60 days after receipt of the notice, expunge the police records it has concerning that arrest, detention, or confinement; and

(3) Notify any other law-enforcement agency it believes may have police records concerning that arrest, detention, or confinement of the notice and its verification of the facts contained in it. A copy of this notice shall be sent to the person requesting expungement.

(d) Duties of other agencies. — The other law-enforcement agency shall, within 30 days after receipt of the notice provided for in subsection (c) (3),

(1) Make a diligent search for any police records concerning the arrest, detention, or confinement; and

(2) Expunge the police records it has concerning that arrest, detention, or confinement.

(e) Denial of request. — If the law-enforcement agency to which the person has addressed his notice finds that the person is not entitled to an expungement of the police records, it shall, within 60 days after receipt of the notice, advise the person in writing of its denial of the request for expungement and of the reasons for its denial.

(f) Court order. — A person whose request for expungement is denied in accordance with subsection (e) may, within 30 days after written notice of the denial is mailed or otherwise delivered to him, file an application in the District Court having proper venue against the law-enforcement agency for an order of expungement. If the court finds, after a hearing held upon proper notice to the agency, that the person is entitled to expungement, it shall enter an order requiring the agency to comply with subsection (c). Otherwise, it shall deny the application. The agency is deemed to be a party to the proceeding. All parties to the proceeding have the right of appellate review on the record provided for in the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article with respect to appeals in civil cases from the District Court. (1975, ch. 260.)

Overhaul," see 9 U. Balt. L. Rev. 1 (1979).

§ 737. Expungement of police and court records.

(a) Petition for expungement. — If a person is charged with the commission of a crime and

(1) Is acquitted, or

(2) The charge is otherwise dismissed or quashed, or

(3) A judgment of probation without finding a verdict or probation on stay of entry of judgment is entered, or

(4) A nolle prosequi is entered, or

(5) The proceeding is placed on the stet docket, or

(6) The case is compromised pursuant to Article 10, § 37 of this Code, he may file a petition setting forth the relevant facts and requesting expungement of both the police records and the court records pertaining to the charge.

(b) Where petition filed. — The petition shall be filed in the court in which the proceeding was commenced. If the proceeding was commenced in one court and transferred to another court, the petition shall be filed in the court to which the proceeding was transferred. If the proceeding in a court of original jurisdiction was appealed to a court exercising appellate jurisdiction, the petition shall be filed in the appellate court. However, the appellate court may remand the matter to the court of original jurisdiction.

(c) Time of filing. — The petition may not be filed earlier than three years nor later than eight years after the date the judgment or order was entered or the action was taken which terminated the proceeding. However, except for an acquittal on grounds of insanity, the three-year waiting period does not apply to a charge specified in subsection (a) (1) or (a) (2) if a person files, with the petition, a written general waiver and release, in proper legal form, of all claim he may have against any person for tortious conduct arising from the charge.

(d) Objection to petition. — A copy of the petition shall be served on the State's attorney. Unless the State's attorney files an objection to the petition within 30 days after it is served on him, the court shall enter an order requiring the expungement of police records and court records pertaining to the charge.

(e) Hearing by court; granting or denial of expungement. — If the State's attorney files a timely objection to the petition, the court shall conduct a hearing. If the court finds that the person is entitled to expungement, it shall enter an order requiring the expungement of police records and all court records pertaining to the charge. Otherwise, it shall deny the petition. If the petition is based upon the entry of a judgment of probation without finding a verdict, probation on stay of entry of judgment, a nolle prosequi, or placement on the stet docket, the person is not entitled to expungement if:

(1) He has since been convicted of any crime, other than violations of the State vehicle laws or other traffic laws, ordinances, or regulations not carrying a possible sentence of imprisonment, or

(2) He is then a defendant in a pending criminal proceeding.

(f) Appellate review. — The State's attorney is a party to the proceeding. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the court has the right of appellate review provided in the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article.

(g) Notice of compliance. — Every custodian of the police records and court records subject to the order shall, within 60 days after entry of the order, unless it is stayed pending an appeal, advise the court and the person in writing of compliance with the order. (1975, ch. 260; 1976, chs. 842, 863; 1981, ch. 288.)

Effect of amendment. — The 1981 amendment, effective July 1, 1981, added paragraph (6) in subsection (a).

University of Baltimore Law Review. — For article, "The Maryland Rules — A Time for Overhaul," see 9 U. Balt. L. Rev. 1 (1979).

Equal protection argument attaching distinction between defendants was without merit. — An equal protection argument that there was no rational basis for distinguishing under this section between acquitted defendants and nolle prossed defendants was without merit. Ward v. State, 37 Md. App. 34, 375 A.2d 41 (1977).

This section seems to lodge no discretion in the court, but to mandate either granting or denying relief, based upon statutorily defined entitlement, or the lack of it. Ward v. State, 37 Md. App. 34, 375 A.2d 41 (1977).

Cited in In re Howard C., 286 Md. 244, 407 A.2d 1124 (1979).

§ 738. Consolidated charges.

For purposes of this subtitle, two or more charges arising from the same incident, transaction, or set of facts, shall be considered as a unit. If a person is not entitled to an expungement of any one charge of a unit, he is not entitled to expungement of the other charges in the unit. (1975, ch. 260.)

University of Baltimore Law Review. — For article, "The Maryland Rules — A Time for Overhaul," see 9 U. Balt. L. Rev. 1 (1979).

§ 739. Disclosure of expunged records.

(a) Disclosure unlawful. — It is unlawful for any person having or acquiring access to an expunged record to open or review it or to disclose to another person any information from it without an order from the court which ordered the record expunged, or, in the case of police records expunged pursuant to § 736, the District Court having venue.

(b) Hearing and notice required. — Except as provided in subsection (c), a court shall not enter an order authorizing the opening or review of an expunged record or the disclosure of information from it except after a hearing held upon notice to the person to whom the record pertains and upon good cause shown.

(c) Ex parte order. — Upon a verified petition filed by the State's attorney alleging that the record is needed by a law-enforcement agency for purposes of a pending criminal investigation and that the investigation will be jeopardized or that life or property will be endangered without immediate access to the record, the court may enter an ex parte order, without notice to the person, permitting such access. An ex parte order may permit a review of the record, but may not permit a copy to be made of it.

(d) Penalties. — A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, is subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. If the person is an official or employee of the State or of any subdivision of the State, he shall, in addition to these penalties, be subject to removal or dismissal from public service on grounds of misconduct in office. (1975, ch. 260.)

§ 740. Prohibited practices by employers and educational institutions.

(a) Applicants for employment or admission. — An employer or educational institution may not, in any application, interview, or otherwise, require an applicant for employment or admission to disclose information concerning criminal charges against him that have been expunged. An applicant need not, in answer to any question concerning criminal charges that have not resulted in a conviction, include a reference to or information concerning charges that have been expunged. An employer may not discharge or refuse to hire a person solely because of his refusal to disclose information concerning criminal charges against him that have been expunged.

(b) Applicants for licenses, etc. — Agencies, officials, and employees of the State and local governments may not, in any application, interview, or otherwise, require an applicant for a license, permit, registration, or governmental service to disclose information concerning criminal charges against him that have been expunged. An applicant need not, in answer to any question concerning criminal charges that have not resulted in a conviction, include a reference to or information concerning charges that have been expunged. Such an application may not be denied solely because of the applicant's refusal to disclose information concerning criminal charges against him that have been expunged.

(c) Penalties. — A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, is subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, for each violation. If the person is an official or employee of the State or any subdivision of the State, he shall, in addition to these penalties, be subject to removal or dismissal from public service on grounds of misconduct in office. (1975, ch. 260.)

MARYLAND

§ 741. Retroactivity.

(a) Police records and court records which were made prior to July 1, 1975, and are presently maintained are subject to expungement in accordance with this subtitle.

(b) A person who, on or after July 1, 1975, becomes entitled to the expungement of police records or court records made prior to that date may utilize the procedures set forth in this subtitle for expungement. The limitation periods provided in §§ 736 and 737 shall, in that case, be deemed to date from the first day the person becomes entitled to expungement.

(c) With respect to police records or court records made prior to July 1, 1975, subject to expungement under this subtitle, the duty of the custodian is to make a reasonable search. There is no duty to expunge records that cannot be located after a reasonable search. (1975, ch. 260.)

Article 27

CRIMINAL JUSTICE INFORMATION SYSTEM

§ 742. Purpose of subtitle; legislative findings.

(a) The purpose of this subtitle is to create and maintain an accurate and efficient criminal justice information system in Maryland consistent with applicable federal law and regulations, the need of criminal justice agencies in the State for accurate and current criminal history record information, and the right of individuals to be free from improper and unwarranted intrusions into their privacy.

(b) In order to achieve this result, the General Assembly finds that there is a need:

- (1) To create a central repository for criminal history record information;
- (2) To require the reporting of accurate, relevant, and current information to the central repository by all criminal justice agencies;
- (3) To ensure that criminal history record information is kept accurate and current; and
- (4) To prohibit the improper dissemination of such information.

(c) This subtitle is intended to provide a basic statutory framework within which these objectives can be attained. (1976, ch. 239.)

Editor's note. — Section 3, ch. 239, Acts 1976, 1977, except that §§ 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 748, provides that the act shall take effect Dec. 31, 1975, 1976, and 1977, except that §§ 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 748, 751, 752, and 753 shall take effect July 1, 1976.

§ 743. Definitions.

(a) As used in this subtitle, the following words have the meanings indicated.

(b) "Advisory Board" means the Criminal Justice Information Advisory Board.

(c) "Central repository" means the criminal justice information system central repository created by § 747 (b) of this article.

(d) "County" includes Baltimore City.

(e) "Criminal history record information" means data initiated or collected by a criminal justice agency on a person pertaining to a reportable event. The term does not include:

(1) Data contained in intelligence or investigatory files or police work-product records used solely for police investigation purposes;

(2) Data pertaining to a proceeding under Subtitle 8 of Title 3 of the Courts Article (Juvenile Causes), but it does include data pertaining to a person following waiver of jurisdiction by a juvenile court;

(3) Wanted posters, police blotter entries, court records of public judicial proceedings, or published court opinions;

(4) Data pertaining to violations of the traffic laws of the State or any other traffic law, ordinance, or regulation, or violations of any local ordinances, or any State or local regulations, or violations of the Natural Resources Article or public local laws, unless the individual is arrested on a bench warrant issued for failure to appear in court or obey a court order for any such violation, or unless the individual is committed to a correctional facility upon conviction for any such violation;

(5) Data concerning the point system established by the Motor Vehicle Administration in accordance with the provisions of Title 16 of the Transportation Article;

(6) Presentence investigation and other reports prepared by a probation department for use by a court in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction or by the Governor in the exercise of his power of pardon, reprieve, commutation, or nolle prosequi; or

(7) Data contained in current case-in-progress systems or records pertinent to public judicial proceedings which are reasonably contemporaneous to the event to which the information relates.

(f) "Criminal justice agency" means any government agency or subunit of any such agency which is authorized by law to exercise the power of arrest, detention, prosecution, adjudication, correctional supervision, rehabilitation, or release of persons suspected, charged, or convicted of a crime and which allocates a substantial portion of its annual budget to any of these functions. The term does not include the Juvenile Services Administration or a juvenile court, but it does include the following agencies, when exercising jurisdiction over criminal matters or criminal history record information:

(1) State, county, and municipal police departments and agencies, sheriffs' offices, correctional facilities, jails, and detention centers;

(2) The offices of the Attorney General, the State's Attorneys, and any other person authorized by law to prosecute persons accused of criminal offenses;

MARYLAND

(3) The Administrative Office of the Courts, the Court of Appeals, the Court of Special Appeals, the circuit courts, the District Court of Maryland, and the offices of the clerks of these courts.

(g) "Criminal justice information system" means the equipment (including computer hardware and software), facilities, procedures, agreements, and personnel used in the collection, processing, preservation, and dissemination of criminal history record information.

(h) "Disseminate" means to transmit criminal history record information in any oral or written form. The term does not include:

- (1) The transmittal of such information within a criminal justice agency;
- (2) The reporting of such information as required by § 747 of this article; or
- (3) The transmittal of such information between criminal justice agencies in order to permit the initiation of subsequent criminal justice proceedings against a person relating to the same offense.

(i) "Reportable event" means an event specified or provided for in § 747.

(j) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services. (1976, ch. 239; 1977, ch. 765, § 8; 1978, ch. 329; 1979, ch. 633.)

Effect of amendments. — The 1977 amendment, effective July 1, 1977, substituted "§ 21-902 of the Transportation Article" for "§ 11-902 of Article 66½ of the Code" at the end of paragraph (4) in subsection (e) and substituted "Title 16 of the Transportation Article" for "Subtitle 6, Part VII of Article 66½ of the Code" at the end of paragraph (5).

The 1978 amendment, approved May 2, 1978, and effective from date of passage, substituted the language beginning "or violations of any local ordinances" for "except offenses involving death or injury to a person, or offenses under § 21-902 of the Transportation Article" at the end of paragraph (4) in subsection (e).

The 1979 amendment, effective July 1, 1979, added "or public local laws" in paragraph (4) of subsection (e).

Editor's note. — Section 3, ch. 239, Acts 1976, provides that this section shall take effect July 1, 1976.

Civil nonsupport matters not included in subsection (e). — Because civil nonsupport matters are not reportable events pursuant to § 747 of this article, they do not constitute criminal history record information as defined in this section. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (August 3, 1978).

§ 744. Criminal Justice Information Advisory Board created; composition; appointment and terms of members; chairman; vacancy; compensation and expenses; staff.

(a) Created; term; composition; designation of representative. — There is a Criminal Justice Information Advisory Board which, for administrative and budgetary purposes only, is within the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services. Subject to the provisions of subsection (b), the members shall be appointed for a term of three years. One member shall be designated by the Governor as chairman. (e) Use of staff and facilities of other agencies. — In the performance of its functions, the Advisory Board may use the services of the staff and the facilities of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services, the Administrative Office of the Courts, and the Governor's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice, subject to the approval of the head of the respective department or agency. (1976, ch. 239.)

§ 746. Adoption of rules.

(a) Duty of Secretary and Court of Appeals. — The Secretary shall adopt appropriate rules and regulations for agencies in the executive branch of government and for criminal justice agencies other than those that are part of the judicial branch of government to implement the provisions of this subtitle and to establish, operate, and maintain the criminal justice information system. The Court of Appeals and its Chief Judge, acting pursuant to §§ 18 and 18A of Article IV of the Constitution of Maryland, shall adopt appropriate rules and regulations for the same purposes for the judicial branch of government.

(b) Scope of rules. — Subject to the provisions of Article 15A, § 23B, the rules and regulations adopted by the Secretary, the Court, and the Chief Judge shall include those:

(1) Governing the collection, reporting, and dissemination of criminal history record information by the courts and all other criminal justice agencies;

(2) Necessary to insure the security of the criminal justice information system and all criminal history record information reported and collected from it;

(3) Governing the dissemination of criminal history record information in accordance with the provisions of this subtitle and the provisions of §§ 735 to 741;

(4) Governing the procedures for inspection and challenging of criminal history record information;

(5) Governing the auditing of criminal justice agencies to insure that criminal history record information is accurate and complete and that it is collected, reported, and disseminated in accordance with the provisions of this subtitle and the provisions of §§ 735 to 741;

MARYLAND

(6) Governing the development and content of agreements between the central repository and criminal justice and noncriminal justice agencies;

(7) Governing the exercise of the rights of inspection and challenge provided for in §§ 751 through 755.

(c) Consistent with subtitle. — Rules and regulations adopted by the Secretary or the Court or its Chief Judge may not be inconsistent with the provisions of this subtitle. (1976, ch. 239.)

Editor's note. — Section 3, ch. 239, Acts 1976, provides that this section shall take effect July 1, 1976.

Ultimate authority to promulgate and enforce rules and regulations. — The Court of Appeals and the Secretary have the ultimate authority to promulgate and enforce rules and regulations relating to the collection, reporting and dissemination of criminal history records information, whether stored in an automated or manual system. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (January 10, 1978).

The Court of Appeals and the Secretary have the ultimate authority to promulgate and enforce rules and regulations relating to the security of criminal history records information, whether stored in an automated or a manual system. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (January 10, 1978).

Responsibilities of secretaries under system are compatible. — While the criminal justice information system clearly intends that the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services direct the operation and management of Maryland's criminal justice information system, it also clearly subjects the automatic data processing portion thereof to the central data processing authority of the Secretary of Budget and Fiscal Planning and, as a matter of State law, these responsibilities are compatible. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (January 10, 1978).

In consolidation of Public Safety Data Center with Baltimore Computer Utility, the Secretary of Budget and Fiscal Planning would continue to have the central data processing authority which he presently has with respect to all executive branch data processing, including the present Public Safety Data Center; and the Comptroller of the Treasury would acquire central processing responsibility which, insofar as the Court's portion of the criminal justice information system central repository is concerned, would be subject to the superior authority of the Court of Appeals and its Chief Judge in much the same manner as the responsibility of the operator of the Public Safety Data Center presently is subject to that judicial administrative authority. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (January 10, 1978).

§ 747. Reporting criminal history record information; central repository.

(a) Reportable events. — The following events are reportable events under this subtitle:

(1) Issuance or withdrawal of an arrest warrant;

(2) An arrest;

(3) Release of a person after arrest without the filing of a charge;

(4) Presentment of an indictment, filing of a criminal information, or filing of a statement of charges after arrest;

(5) A release pending trial or appeal;

(6) Commitment to a place of pretrial detention;

(7) Dismissal or quashing of an indictment or criminal information;

(8) A nolle prosequi;

(9) Placement of a charge on the stet docket;

(10) An acquittal, conviction, or other disposition at or following trial, including a finding of probation before judgment;

MARYLAND

- (11) Imposition of a sentence;
  - (12) Commitment to a correctional facility, whether State or locally operated;
  - (13) Release from detention or confinement;
  - (14) An escape from confinement;
  - (15) A pardon, reprieve, commutation of sentence, or other change in a sentence, including a change ordered by a court;
  - (16) Entry of an appeal to an appellate court;
  - (17) Judgment of an appellate court;
  - (18) Order of a court in a collateral proceeding that affects a person's conviction, sentence, or confinement; and
  - (19) Any other event arising out of or occurring during the course of criminal justice proceedings declared to be reportable by rule or regulation of the Secretary or the Court of Appeals.
- (b) Establishment and operation of central repository. — There is a criminal justice information system central repository for the collection, storage, and dissemination of criminal history record information. The central repository shall be operated by the Maryland State Police, under the administrative control of the Secretary, with the advice of the Advisory Board.
- (c) Time for reporting criminal history record information. — Every criminal justice agency shall report criminal history record information, whether collected manually or by means of an automated system, to the central repository, in accordance with the following provisions:
- (1) Data pertaining to an arrest or the issuance of an arrest warrant shall be reported within 72 hours after the arrest is made or the warrant is issued whichever first occurs;
  - (2) Data pertaining to the release of a person after arrest without the filing of a charge shall be reported within 30 days after the person is released;
  - (3) Data pertaining to any other reportable event shall be reported within 60 days after occurrence of the event;
  - (4) The time requirements in this subsection may be reduced by rules adopted by the Secretary or the Court of Appeals.
- (d) Reporting methods. — Reporting methods may include:
- (1) Submittal of criminal history record information by a criminal justice agency directly to the central repository;
  - (2) If the information can readily be collected and reported through the court system, submittal to the central repository by the administrative office of the courts; or
  - (3) If the information can readily be collected and reported through criminal justice agencies that are part of a geographically based information system, submittal to the central repository by such agencies.
- (e) Maintenance and dissemination of more detailed information. — Nothing in this section shall prevent a criminal justice agency from maintaining more detailed information than is required to be reported to the central repository. However, the dissemination of any such criminal history record information is governed by the provisions of § 749.

MARYLAND

(f) Avoidance of duplication in reporting. — The Secretary and the Court of Appeals may determine, by rule, the reportable events to be reported by each criminal justice agency, in order to avoid duplication in reporting. (1976, ch. 239; 1979, ch. 633.)

Effect of amendment. The 1979 amendment, effective July 1, 1979, added "after arrest" at the end of paragraph (4) in subsection (a). Effective Dec. 31, 1977. — See Editor's note to § 742 of this article.

Civil nonsupport matters do not constitute criminal history record information. — Because civil nonsupport matters are not reportable events pursuant to this section, they do not constitute criminal history record information as defined in § 743 of this article. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (August 3, 1978).

State law does not prohibit use of data center operated by noncriminal justice agency so long as the criminal justice information system central repository is operated by the Maryland State Police under the administrative control of the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services with the advice of the Criminal Justice Information Advisory Board. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (January 10, 1978).

Responsibilities of secretaries under system are compatible. — While the criminal justice information system clearly intends that the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services direct the operation and management of Maryland's criminal justice information system, it also clearly subjects the automatic data processing portion thereof to the central data processing authority of the Secretary of Budget and Fiscal Planning and, as a matter of State law, these responsibilities are compatible. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (January 10, 1978).

In consolidation of Public Safety Data Center with Baltimore Computer Utility, the Secretary of Budget and Fiscal Planning would continue to have the central data processing authority which he presently has with respect to all executive branch data processing, including the present Public Safety Data Center; and the Comptroller of the Treasury would acquire central processing responsibility which, insofar as the court's portion of the criminal justice information system central repository is concerned, would be subject to the superior authority of the Court of Appeals and its Chief Judge in much the same manner as the responsibility of the operator of the Public Safety Data Center presently is subject to that judicial administrative authority. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (January 10, 1978).

In consolidation of the Public Safety Data Center with the Baltimore Computer Utility, the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services would continue, for the purposes of the Public Information Act, to be the "official custodian" of the criminal history records stored in the shared system and the Maryland State Police would continue to be the "custodians" of such records. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (January 10, 1978).

§ 748. Agreements with criminal justice agencies; sharing criminal history record information.

(a) Duty of Secretary and Chief Judge of Court of Appeals; provisions of agreements. — The Secretary and the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals shall develop agreements between the central repository and criminal justice agencies pertaining to:

- (1) The method by which the agency will report information, including the method of identifying an offender in a manner that permits other criminal justice agencies to locate the offender at any stage in the criminal justice system, the time of reporting, the specific data to be reported by the agency, and the place of reporting;
- (2) The services to be provided to the agency by the central repository;
- (3) The conditions and limitations upon the dissemination of criminal history record information by the agency;
- (4) The maintenance of security in all transactions between the central repository and the agency;

MARYLAND

(5) The method of complying with the right of a person to inspect, challenge, and correct criminal history record information maintained by the agency;

(6) Audit requirements to ensure the accuracy of all information reported or disseminated;

(7) The timetable for the implementation of the agreement;

(8) Sanctions for failure of the agency to comply with any of the provisions of this subtitle, including the revocation of any agreement between the agency and the central repository and appropriate judicial or administrative proceedings to enforce compliance; and

(9) Other provisions that the Chief Judge and the Secretary may deem necessary.

(b) Sharing information with other states and countries and federal agencies.

— The Secretary and the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals may develop procedures for the sharing of criminal history record information with federal criminal justice agencies and criminal justice agencies of other states and other countries, consistent with the provisions of this subtitle. (1976, ch. 239; 1979, ch. 633.)

Effect of amendment. — The 1979 amendment, effective July 1, 1979, substituted "Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals" for "Court of Appeals, pursuant to the rules adopted by them" in the introductory paragraph in subsection (a) and substituted "Chief Judge" for "Court of Appeals" in paragraph (9) in that subsection.

Editor's note. — Section 3, ch. 239, Acts 1976, provides that this section shall take effect July 1, 1976.

§ 749. Dissemination of criminal history record information.

A criminal justice agency and the central repository may not disseminate criminal history record information except in accordance with the applicable federal law and regulations. (1976, ch. 239.)

Effective Dec. 31, 1977. — See Editor's note to § 742 of this article.

Dissemination by Division of Parole and Probation. — The Division of Parole and Probation may only disseminate criminal history record information, pursuant to this section, in accordance with applicable federal law and/or regulations. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (August 3, 1978).

Disclosure of criminal record for employment purposes. — Under certain circumstances, the disclosure of a criminal conviction record to an employer or prospective employer of a parolee or probationer may be indicated. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. (August 3, 1978).

§ 750. Compliance with §§ 735 to 741.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this subtitle no record may be maintained or disseminated inconsistently with the provisions of §§ 735 through 741 of Article 27. (1976, ch. 239.)

Effective Dec. 31, 1977. — See Editor's note to § 742 of this article.

MARYLAND

§ 751. Right of inspection; copies.

(a) Subject to the provisions of § 752 (f), a person may inspect criminal history record information maintained by a criminal justice agency concerning him. A person's attorney may inspect such information if he satisfactorily establishes his identity and presents a written authorization from his client.

(b) Nothing in this section requires a criminal justice agency to make a copy of any information or allows a person to remove any document for the purpose of making a copy of it. A person having the right of inspection may make notes of the information. (1976, ch. 239.)

§ 752. Challenging information.

(a) Notice of challenge. — A person who has inspected criminal history record information relating to him may challenge the completeness, contents, accuracy, or dissemination of such information by giving written notice of his challenge to the central repository and to the agency at which he inspected the information, if other than the central repository. The notice shall set forth the portion of the information challenged, the reason for the challenge, certified documentation or other evidence supporting the challenge, if available, and the change requested in order to correct or complete the information or the dissemination of the information. The notice shall contain a sworn statement, under penalty of perjury, that the information in or supporting the challenge is accurate and that the challenge is made in good faith.

(b) Audit of information; notice of repository's determination. — Upon receipt of the notice, the central repository shall conduct an audit of that part of the person's criminal history record information necessary to determine the accuracy of the challenge. As part of the audit, the central repository may require any criminal justice agency that was the source of challenged information to verify the information. The central repository shall notify the person of the results of its audit and its determination within 90 days after receipt of the notice of challenge. This notice shall be in writing, and, if the challenge or any part of it is rejected, the notice shall inform the person of his rights of appeal.

(c) Correction of records. — If the challenge or any part of it is determined to be valid, the central repository shall make the appropriate correction on its records and shall notify any criminal justice agency which has custody of the incomplete or inaccurate information, or portion of it, of the correction, and the agency shall take appropriate steps to correct its records. The agency shall certify to the central repository that the correction was made. (1983, ch. 8.)

MARYLAND

(d) Notice of correction when information disseminated. — A criminal justice agency required to correct any criminal history record information pursuant to subsection (c) that had previously disseminated such information shall give written notice to the agency or person to whom the information was disseminated of the correction. That agency or person shall promptly make the correction on its records, and certify to the disseminating agency that the correction was made.

(e) Notice to agencies of denial of challenge. — If the challenge, or any part of it, is denied, the central repository shall give written notice of the denial to any agency with which a copy of the challenge was filed.

(f) Inspection or challenge of information relevant to pending criminal proceeding. — A person is not entitled to inspect or challenge any criminal history record information pursuant to this subtitle if the information or any part of it is relevant to a pending criminal proceeding. This subsection does not affect any right of inspection and discovery permitted under Chapter 700 of the Maryland Rules or the Maryland District Rules, or permitted under any statute, rule, or regulation not part of or adopted pursuant to this subtitle.

(g) Delay in requiring performance of duties by central repository. — The provisions of this section concerning the duties of the central repository may, by rule of the Secretary, be delayed until the Secretary determines that the central repository is able to comply with them, but not later than July 1, 1977. Until then, the duties of the central repository shall be performed by the appropriate criminal justice agencies. (1976, ch. 239.)

§ 753. Rights of appeal.

(a) Rules for administrative appeals. — The Secretary and the Court of Appeals shall adopt appropriate rules and procedures for administrative appeals from decisions by criminal justice agencies denying the right of inspection of, or challenges made to, criminal history record information.

These rules shall include provisions for:

- (1) The forms, manner, and time for taking an appeal;
- (2) The official or tribunal designated to hear the appeal;
- (3) Hearing and determining the appeal; and
- (4) Implementing the decision on appeal.

(b) Right to take administrative appeal. — A person aggrieved by a decision of a criminal justice agency concerning inspection or a challenge may take an administrative appeal in accordance with the rules and procedures adopted by the Secretary and the Court of Appeals.

MARYLAND

(c) Judicial review. — A person aggrieved by a decision on an administrative appeal, including the central repository and a criminal justice agency, may seek judicial review in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act and the Maryland Rules. (1976, ch. 239.)

Editor's note. — Section 3, ch. 239, Acts 1976, provides that this section shall take effect July 1, 1976.

§ 754. Requiring inspection or challenge of information in order to qualify for employment.

(a) It is unlawful for any employer or prospective employer to require a person to inspect or challenge any criminal history record information relating to that person for the purpose of obtaining a copy of the person's record in order to qualify for employment.

(b) Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, is subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both, for each violation. (1976, ch. 239.)

§ 755. Inspection and challenge of information recorded prior to July 1, 1976.

Criminal history record information which was recorded prior to July 1, 1976 is subject to the right of access and challenge in accordance with this subtitle. However, the duty of a criminal justice agency is to make a reasonable search for such information. There is no duty to provide access to criminal history record information that cannot be located after a reasonable search. (1976, ch. 239.)

Effective Dec. 31, 1977. — See Editor's note to § 742 of this article.

§ 292. Expunging criminal arrest record of person not convicted; probation and discharge of first offenders.

(b) (1) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of any offense under this subheading or under any prior law of this State or the laws of the United States or of any other state relating to controlled dangerous substances defined in this subheading, pleads guilty to or is found guilty of any of the offenses specified in this subheading, the court, if satisfied that the best interests of the person and the welfare of the people of this State would be served thereby may, with the consent of such person stay the entering of the judgment of guilt, defer further proceedings, and place such person on probation subject to such reasonable terms and conditions as may be appropriate.

(2) The terms and conditions may include ordering the person to pay a fine or pecuniary penalty to the State, to be paid through the office of the clerk of the court. Before the court orders a fine or pecuniary penalty, the person is entitled to notice and a hearing to determine the amount of the fine or pecuniary penalty, what payment will be required; and how payment will be made. Any fine or pecuniary penalty imposed as a term or condition of probation shall be within the amount prescribed by law for a violation resulting in conviction. The court may in addition require that such person undergo inpatient or outpatient treatment for drug abuse.

(3) By consenting to and receiving a stay of entering of the judgment of guilt as provided by this subsection, the person waives all rights to appeal from the judgment of guilt by the court at any time. Prior to the person consenting to the stay of entering of the judgment of guilt, the court shall notify the person that by consenting to and receiving the stay of entry of judgment, he waives the right to appeal from the judgment of guilt by the court at any time.

(4) Upon violation of a term or condition, the court may enter a judgment of conviction and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge such person and dismiss the proceedings against him. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without a judgment of conviction and shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by the law upon conviction of a crime including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions under § 293 of this subheading. Discharge and dismissal under this section may occur only once with respect to any person.

(5) Any public criminal record in any such case shall be expunged upon the satisfactory completion of any such period of probation. Any expunged arrest and/or conviction shall not thereafter be regarded as an arrest or conviction for purposes of employment, civil rights, or any statute or regulation or license or questionnaire or any other public or private purpose, provided that any such conviction shall continue to constitute an offense for purposes of this subheading or any other criminal statute under which the existence of a prior conviction is relevant.

Effect of amendment. — The 1983 amendment, effective July 1, 1983, in subsection (b), divided the subsection into paragraphs (1) through (5), deleted "and" following "appropriate" at the end of paragraph (1), inserted the first, second, and third sentences and "the court" preceding "may in addition require" in paragraph (2), and deleted "and in addition" following "person" at the end of the last sentence in paragraph (4).

As the remainder of the section was not affected by the amendment, it is not set forth above.

- (c) "Applicant" means and includes any person requesting disclosure of public records.
- (d) "Written documents" means and includes all books, papers, maps, photographs, cards, tapes, recordings, computerized records, or other documentary materials, regardless of physical form or characteristics.
- (e) "Political subdivision" means and includes every county, city and county, city, incorporated and unincorporated town, school district, and special district within the State.
- (f) "Official custodian" means and includes each and every officer or employee of the State or any agency, institution, or political subdivision thereof, who is responsible for the maintenance, care, and keeping of public records, regardless of whether such records are in his actual personal custody and control.

Intent of 1973 amendment. — It is clear that the thrust of the 1973 amendment to subsection (b) of this section was in the direction of the modern trend to require financial disclosures and end invidious shadows of secrecy. Moberly v. Herboldsheimer, 276 Md. 211, 345 A.2d 855 (1975).

Maryland Automobile Insurance Fund must be considered an agency of the State within the meaning of the Public Information Act. 62 Op. Att'y Gen. 579 (1977).

Hospital held to be an agency of the city and, therefore, subject to the public information law. Moberly v. Herboldsheimer, 276 Md. 211, 345 A.2d 855 (1975).

Computer tapes included within subsection (b). — The provisions in subsection (b) of this section that places other documents, "regardless of physical form of characteristics," in the realm of public records was intended to apply to items such as computer tapes. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 659 (1978).

Voter registration records open to public inspection pursuant to article 33, § 3-11 (a), are clearly "public records," as defined in Maryland's Public Information Act, and not privileged or made confidential by law. 62 Op. Att'y Gen. 396 (1977).

Police records must be considered "pub- lic records" in light of subsection (b). 57 Op. Att'y Gen. 518 (1972).

"Arrest logs" are public records. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 543 (1978).

Police investigative report is a "public record" that is subject to disclosure to "any person," including members of the press, under the Public Information Act, unless refusal to disclose it is mandated or permitted by one of the statutory exceptions to the Act or otherwise by law. 64 Op. Att'y Gen. (April 26, 1979).

Filing with local board of education of names and addresses of all pupils attending school in a particular county would constitute a public record within the meaning of subsection (b) of this section. 59 Op. Att'y Gen. 586 (1974).

Records enumerated in article 81, § 45 (d), are protected from disclosure. 62 Op. Att'y Gen. 712 (1977).

§ 1A. Only relevant and necessary information to be maintained; public access.

The State, counties, municipalities, and political subdivisions, or any agencies thereof, may maintain only such information about a person as is relevant and necessary to accomplish a purpose of the governmental entity or agency which is authorized or required to be accomplished by statute, executive order of the Governor or the chief executive of a local jurisdiction, judicial rule, or other legislative mandate. Moreover, all persons are entitled to information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts of those who represent them as public officials and employees. To this end, the provisions of this act shall be construed in every instance with the view toward public access, unless an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of a person in interest would result therefrom, and the minimization of costs and time delays to persons requesting information. (1978, ch. 1006.)

§ 2. Inspection of public records generally; rules and regulations; procedure when records not immediately available; special provisions as to Charles County.

(a) All public records shall be open for inspection by any person at reasonable times, except as provided in this article or as otherwise provided by law. The official custodian of any public record shall make and publish such rules and regulations with reference to the timely inspection and production of such record as shall be reasonably necessary for the protection of such record and the prevention of unnecessary interference with the regular discharge of the duties of the custodian or his office.

(b) If the public records requested are not in the custody or control of the person to whom written application is made, such person shall, within ten working days of the receipt of the request, notify the applicant of this fact and if known, the custodian of the record and the location or possible location thereof.

(c) If the public records requested are in the custody and control of the person to whom written application is made but are not immediately available, the custodian shall, within ten working days of the receipt of the request, notify the applicant of this fact and shall set forth a date and hour within a reasonable time at which time the record will be available for the exercise of the right given by this article.

(d) In Charles County, except for records kept by officials, agencies, or departments of the State of Maryland, public information shall be regulated by § 6 of this article. (1970, ch. 698; 1972, ch. 601; 1974, ch. 239; 1978, ch. 1006.)

Applicability of Act. — The Maryland Freedom of Information Act applies to all members of the general public and does not make exception for any segment thereof. 58 Op. Att'y Gen. 53 (1973).

Maryland, Virginia and District of Columbia freedom of information laws compared. — See C.T. Hellmuth & Assocs. v. Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Auth., 414 F. Supp. 408 (D. Md. 1976).

Application of article to Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority. — Where Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia entered a Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority Compact, the mere fact that Virginia and the District have adopted freedom of information laws can hardly be taken as a tacit agreement on their part that the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority should be governed by the Maryland law, particularly in view of the fact that this article was enacted subsequent to the Virginia and District of Columbia laws. C.T. Hellmuth & Assocs. v. Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Auth., 414 F. Supp. 408 (D. Md. 1976).

Maryland may not unilaterally subject the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority to the provisions of this article. C.T. Hellmuth & Assocs. v. Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Auth., 414 F. Supp. 408 (D. Md. 1976).

Inspection of marriage records. — The Public Information Act does not in general authorize a clerk of court to deny public inspection of marriage records, no matter what their intended use. 61 Op. Att'y Gen. 702 (1976).

Records of tax assessment appeal boards. — The Public Information Act requires the tax assessment appeal boards to permit any person, at reasonable times, to inspect any of its records, except those enumerated in article 81, § 45 (d). 62 Op. Att'y Gen. 712 (1977).

Monthly mileage records filed in vehicle office of local health department are available to the public under the Act. 60 Op. Att'y Gen. 498 (1975).

Information relating to legal fees paid by the Maryland Automobile Insurance Fund to individual defense counsel engaged to represent the agency or its insured must be divulged, upon demand, under the provisions of the Public Information Act. 62 Op. Att'y Gen. 579 (1977).

Cited in Green v. State, 25 Md. App. 679, 337 A.2d 729 (1975).

§ 3. Custodian to allow inspection of public records; exceptions; denial of right of inspection of certain records; court order restricting disclosure of records ordinarily open to inspection.

(a) The custodian of any public records shall allow any person the right of inspection of such records or any portion thereof except on one or more of the following grounds or as provided in subsection (b) or (c) of this section:

(i) Such inspection would be contrary to any State statute;

(ii) Such inspection would be contrary to any federal statute or regulation issued thereunder having the force and effect of law;

(iii) Such inspection is prohibited by rules promulgated by the Court of Appeals, or by the order of any court of record; or

(iv) Such public records are privileged or confidential by law.

(b) The custodian may deny the right of inspection of the following records or appropriate portions thereof, unless otherwise provided by law, if disclosure to the applicant would be contrary to the public interest:

(i) Records of investigations conducted by, or of intelligence information or security procedures of, any sheriff, county attorney, city attorney, State's attorney, the Attorney General, police department, or any investigatory files compiled for any other law-enforcement, judicial, correctional, or prosecution purposes, but the right of a person in interest to inspect the records may be denied only to the extent that the production of them would (A) interfere with valid and proper law-enforcement proceedings, (B) deprive another person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) disclose the identity of a confidential source, (E) disclose investigative techniques and procedures, (F) prejudice any investigation, or (G) endanger the life or physical safety of any person;

(ii) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data pertaining to administration of licenses or employment or academic examinations; except that written promotional examinations and the scores or results thereof shall be available for inspection, but not copying or reproduction, by the person in interest after the conducting and grading of any such examination;

(iii) The specific details of bona fide research projects being conducted by an institution of the State or a political subdivision, except that the name, title, expenditures, and the time when the final project summary shall be available;

MARYLAND

- (iv) The contents of real estate appraisals made for the State or a political subdivision thereof, relative to the acquisition of property or any interest in property for public use, until such time as title of the property or property interest has passed to the State or political subdivision, except that the contents of such appraisal shall be available to the owner of the property at any time, and except as provided by statute.
- (v) Interagency or intraagency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a private party in litigation with the agency.
- (c) The custodian shall deny the right of inspection of the following records or any portion thereof, unless otherwise provided by law:
  - (i) Medical, psychological, and sociological data on individual persons, exclusive of coroners' autopsy reports;
  - (ii) Adoption records or welfare records on individual persons;
  - (iii) Personnel files except that such files shall be available to the person in interest, and the duly elected and appointed officials who supervise the work of the person in interest. Applications, performance ratings and scholastic achievement data shall be available only to the person in interest and to the duly elected and appointed officials who supervise his work;
  - (iv) Letters of reference;
  - (v) Trade secrets, information privileged by law, and confidential commercial, financial, geological, or geophysical data furnished by or obtained from any person;
  - (vi) Library, archives, and museum material contributed by private persons, to the extent of any limitations placed thereon as conditions of such contribution;
  - (vii) Hospital records relating to medical administration, medical staff, personnel, medical care, and other medical information, whether on individual persons or groups, or whether of a general or specific classification;
  - (viii) School district records containing information relating to the biography, family, physiology, religion, academic achievement, and physical or mental ability of any student except to the person in interest or to the officials duly elected and appointed to supervise him;
  - (ix) Circulation records maintained by public libraries showing personal transactions by those borrowing from them; and
  - (x) The home address or telephone number of any employee of the State or any agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision of this State, whether in the classified or nonclassified service, except with the permission of the employee, unless the governmental entity which employs the person has determined that disclosure of the address or number is necessary to protect the public interest.
- (d) Whenever the custodian denies a written request for access to any public record or any portion thereof under this section, the custodian shall provide the applicant with a written statement of the grounds for the denial, which statement shall cite the law or regulation under which access is denied and all remedies for review of this denial available under this article. The statement shall be furnished to the applicant within ten working days of denial. In addition, any reasonably severable portion of a record shall be provided to any person requesting such record after deletion of those portions which may be withheld from disclosure.

(e) If, in the opinion of the official custodian of any public record which is otherwise required to be disclosed under this article, disclosure of the contents of said record would do substantial injury to the public interest, the official custodian may temporarily deny disclosure pending a court determination of whether disclosure would do substantial injury to the public interest provided that, within ten working days of the denial the official custodian applies to the circuit court of the county where the record is located or where he maintains his principal office for an order permitting him to continue to deny or restrict such disclosure. The failure of the official custodian to apply for a court determination following a temporary denial of inspection will result in his becoming subject to the sanctions provided in this article for failure to disclose authorized public records required to be disclosed. After hearing, the court may issue such an order upon a finding that disclosure would cause substantial injury to the public interest. The person seeking permission to examine the record shall have notice of the application sent to the circuit court served upon him in the manner provided for service of process by the Maryland Rules of Procedure and shall have the right to appear and be heard. (1970, ch. 698; 1971, chs. 421, 611; 1972, ch. 24; 1974, ch. 216; ch. 683, § 5; 1978, ch. 1006; 1980, ch. 146.)

Effect of amendment. — The 1980 amendment, approved Apr. 22, 1980, and effective from date of passage, eliminated "and" at the end of paragraph (viii) in subsection (c), substituted a semicolon for a period and added "and" at the end of paragraph (ix) and added paragraph (x) in that subsection.

Due process considerations regarding availability of document. — A particular document may not be available to "any person" under this section in light of the exceptions, but procedural due process requirements may yet make that same document available to a party, or unavailable for use against a party, in an administrative or judicial proceeding. Superintendent, Md. State Police v. Henschen, 279 Md. 468, 369 A.2d 558 (1977).

General right of inspection under subsection (a) of this section is not limited to a "person aggrieved" or "person in interest." Superintendent, Md. State Police v. Henschen, 279 Md. 468, 369 A.2d 558 (1977).

Exemptions in this section do not create privileges for purposes of discovery. Boyd v. Gullett, 64 F.R.D. 169 (D. Md. 1974).

Determination whether disclosure is contrary to the public interest in subsection (b) (i) is within the discretion of the custodian. 64 Op. Att'y Gen. (April 26, 1979).

In determining whether, in an individual case, disclosure would result in one of the consequences listed in subsection (b) (i) of this section, or some other consequence that would make a disclosure contrary to the public interest, the custodian cannot simply state that this is so. Rather, he must carefully consider whether that consequence is likely or possible and, then, objectively balance that possibility (and the conclusion that the disclosure would be contrary to the public interest) against the asserted public interest in favor of disclosure. 64 Op. Att'y Gen. (April 26, 1979).

A custodian need not find that any of the consequences listed in subsection (b) (i) of this section will result from disclosure in order for disclosure to be "contrary to the public interest," but if a custodian does determine that disclosure will have one of the consequences listed in subsection (b) (i) of this section, he may reasonably conclude, that, a fortiori, it is "contrary to the public interest." 64 Op. Att'y Gen. (April 26, 1979).

Purposes of investigatory records in subsection (b) (i) distinguished. — The language of subsection (b) (i) of this section, and particularly the use of the word "other" before "law-enforcement," suggests that the legislature believed that investigatory records of one of the enumerated law-enforcement agencies were presumptively for law-enforcement or prosecution purposes, but that investigatory records compiled by other agencies might or might not be for such purposes. Superintendent, Md. State Police v. Henschen, 279 Md. 468, 369 A.2d 558 (1977).

MARYLAND

Showing regarding investigatory records making exception applicable. — When the documents in question constitute records of an investigation by a police department, sheriff's office or any of the other law-enforcement agencies specifically listed in subsection (b) (i) of this section, there need not be an actual showing that the records were compiled for law-enforcement or prosecution purposes for the exception to be applicable. Superintendent, Md. State Police v. Henschen, 279 Md. 468, 369 A.2d 558 (1977).

Records of Human Relations Commission. — The Human Relations Commission is not a named "law-enforcement agency" within the meaning of subsection (b) (i) of this section whose records are presumed to be compiled for law-enforcement or prosecution purposes and which are thus protected against public disclosure. Equitable Trust Co. v. State of Md. Comm'n on Human Relations, 42 Md. App. 53, 399 A.2d 908 (1979), rev'd on other grounds, 287 Md. 80, 411 A.2d 86 (1980).

Inspection by Legislative Auditor of personnel files. — If the Legislative Auditor requires access to personnel files in order to effectively perform the duties imposed upon him by article 40, §§ 61B and 61D, he is entitled to knowledge of their contents in view of the mandate of subsection (c) of this section that the custodian of personnel records shall not deny access to them when their inspection is otherwise provided by law. 60 Op. Att'y Gen. 554 (1975).

Inspection by Legislative Auditor of medical records. — Regarding medical records of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, the Freedom of Information Act itself does not limit the Legislative Auditor's otherwise broad authority to gain access to these records for the purpose of performing his lawful duties. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 453 (1978).

Where an employee of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene has filed a claim for workmen's compensation with the State Accident Fund, it would not be a violation of the provisions of this article by providing its investigators with access to information concerning the claimant, or otherwise pertinent to the claim, contained in the Department's personnel files. 60 Op. Att'y Gen. 559 (1975).

Dissemination of degree and credit information on teachers in specific school systems is not authorized by the Maryland Public Information Act. 60 Op. Att'y Gen. 600 (1975).

Disclosure of students' names and addresses to third parties by school officials, even without parents' consent, is not prohibited. 60 Op. Att'y Gen. 600 (1975).

Subsection (c) (viii) of this section does not apply to deny the right of inspection of a list of names and addresses of students within a school district. 59 Op. Att'y Gen. 586 (1974).

Examination of academic records of certain students at Morgan State. — It is permissible for a representative of the State Department of Education, who is the State's certifying agent on matters relating to institutional eligibility to participate in federal Veteran's Administration educational programs, to examine the academic records of certain students at Morgan State University. 61 Op. Att'y Gen. 340 (1976).

Subsection (e) cannot be used for invidious or improper motives. — Invidious or improper motives, if any, cannot bring information otherwise revealable under this article into the classification of subsection (e) of this section, where disclosure would do "substantial injury to the public interest." Moberly v. Herboldsheimer, 276 Md. 211, 345 A.2d 855 (1975).

When information sought from hospital should be made available. — If a hospital is a public institution, and the information sought does not come under one of the exceptions in this section, the information sought should be made available. Moberly v. Herboldsheimer, 276 Md. 211, 345 A.2d 855 (1975).

Fee paid to its attorney by a hospital is not a privileged transaction because it is a confidential matter under the attorney-client relationship. Moberly v. Herboldsheimer, 276 Md. 211, 345 A.2d 855 (1975).

Fee arrangement between Maryland Automobile Insurance Fund and defense attorneys is subject to this article. 62 Op. Att'y Gen. 579 (1977).

Commercial data. — The test for determining whether commercial data is confidential is an objective one which requires an inquiry as to whether such data is customarily regarded as confidential in the business and whether the withholding of the data would serve a governmental or private purpose sufficiently compelling to overcome the liberal disclosure policy of the Freedom of Information Act. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 355 (1978).

The mere assertion by a vendor that commercial data is "confidential" is not sufficient to make it "confidential" under the Freedom of Information Act. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 355 (1978).

A vendor's mere assertion that information is a "trade secret" or "confidential commercial or financial data," while entitled to consideration, is not in and of itself sufficient to make it so. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 355 (1978).

Disclosure of shareholder information. — The list of shareholder names, state and city or county of residence and number of shares owned, which must be submitted to the Bank Commissioner by a bank under CA § 6-119 is not exempt from the general requirement of disclosure under this article and therefore must be disclosed to the public upon request. 59 Op. Att'y Gen. 59 (1974).

Inspection of marriage records. — The Act does not in general authorize a clerk of court to deny public inspection of marriage records, no matter what their intended use, as the records are not subject to a specified exemption. 61 Op. Att'y Gen. 702 (1976).

Records of tax assessment appeal boards. — The Public Information Act requires the tax assessment appeal boards to permit any person at reasonable times to inspect any of its records except those enumerated in article 81, § 45 (d). 62 Op. Att'y Gen. 712 (1977).

Autopsy reports may be obtained from the custodian of such reports under the Public Information Act. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 659 (1978).

Police documents. — Information necessary to complete an investigation of alleged brutality against individual police officers sought by the Human Relations Commission through subpoena for police records is barred under this article. Prince George's County v. State of Md. Comm'n on Human Relations, 40 Md. App. 473, 392 A.2d 105 (1978).

Since "arrest logs" are not "records of investigation" or "investigatory files," the exemption contained in subsection (b) (i) of this section does not apply. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 543 (1978).

Police investigative report is a "public record" that is subject to disclosure to "any person," including members of the press, under the Public Information Act, unless refusal to disclose it is mandated or permitted by one of the statutory exceptions to the Act or otherwise by law. 64 Op. Att'y Gen. (April 26, 1979).

Investigative report used for grand jury proceeding. — State's attorney is neither required nor authorized to disclose police investigative report or any part of it which report was used for grand jury proceeding. 64 Op. Att'y Gen. (April 26, 1979).

In consolidation of Public Safety Data Center with Baltimore Computer Utility, the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services would continue, for the purposes of the Public Information Act, to be the "official custodian" of the criminal history records stored in the shared system and the Maryland State Police would continue to be the "custodians" of such records. 63 Op. Att'y Gen. 197 (1978).

§ 4. Copies, printouts and photographs of public records.

(a) In all cases in which a person has the right to inspect any public records such person shall have the right to be furnished copies, printouts, or photographs for a reasonable fee to be set by the official custodian. Where fees for certified copies or other copies, printouts, or photographs of such record are specifically prescribed by law, such specific fees shall apply.

(b) If the custodian does not have the facilities for making copies, printouts, or photographs of records which the applicant has the right to inspect, then the applicant shall be granted access to the records for the purpose of making copies, printouts, or photographs. The copies, printouts, or photographs shall be made while the records are in the possession, custody, and control of the custodian thereof and shall be subject to the supervision of such custodian. When practical, they shall be made in the place where the records are kept, but if it is impractical to do so, the custodian may allow arrangements to be made for this purpose. If other facilities are necessary the cost of providing them shall be paid by the person desiring a copy, printout, or photograph of the records. The official custodian may establish a reasonable schedule of times for making copies, printouts, or photographs and may charge a reasonable fee for the services rendered by him or his deputy in supervising the copying, printingout, or photographing as he may charge for furnishing copies under this section. (1970, ch. 698; 1978, ch. 1006.)

§ 5. Administrative review; judicial enforcement; civil liability; personnel disciplinary action; criminal liability; immunity from criminal or civil penalties.

(a) Except in cases of temporary denials under § 3 (e) of this subtitle any applicant denied the right to inspect public records where the official custodian of the records is an agency subject to the provisions of Subtitle 24 of Article 41 of this Code may ask for an administrative review of this decision in accordance with § 251 through 254 of Article 41 of this Code, however, this remedy need not be exhausted prior to filing suit in the circuit court pursuant to this article.

(b) (1) On complaint of any person denied the right to inspect any record covered by this article, the circuit court in the jurisdiction in which the complainant resides, or has his principal place of business, or in which the records are situated, has jurisdiction to enjoin the State, any county, municipality, or political subdivision, any agency, official or employee thereof, from withholding records and to order the production of any records improperly withheld from the complainant. In such a case, the court may examine the contents of the records in camera to determine whether the records or any part thereof may be withheld under any of the exemptions set forth in § 3, and the burden is on the defendant to sustain its action. In carrying this burden the defendant may submit to the court for review a memorandum justifying the withholding of the records.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the defendant shall serve an answer or otherwise plead to any complaint made under this subsection within 30 days after service upon the defendant of the pleading in which the complaint is made, unless the court otherwise directs for good cause shown.

(3) Except as to cases the court considers of greater importance, proceedings before the court, as authorized by this section, and appeals therefrom shall take precedence on the docket over all other cases and shall be heard at the earliest practicable date and expedited in every way.

(4) In addition to any other relief which may be granted to a complainant, in any suit brought under the provisions of this section in which the court determines that the defendant has knowingly and wilfully failed to disclose or fully disclose records and information to any person who, under this article, is entitled to receive it, and the defendant knew or should have known that the person was entitled to receive it, any defendant governmental entity or entities shall be liable to the complainant in an amount equal to the sum of the actual damages sustained by the individual as a result of the refusal or failure and such punitive damages as the court deems appropriate.

(5) In the event of noncompliance with an order of the court, the court may punish the responsible employee for contempt.

(6) The court may assess against any defendant governmental entity or entities reasonable attorney fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred in any case under this section in which the court determines that the applicant has substantially prevailed.

(c) Whenever the court orders the production of any records improperly withheld from the applicant, and in addition, finds that the custodian acted arbitrarily or capriciously in withholding the public record, the court shall forward a certified copy of its finding to the appointing authority of the custodian. Upon receipt thereof, the appointing authority shall, after appropriate investigation, take such disciplinary action as is warranted under the circumstances.

(d) Any person who wilfully and knowingly violates the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $100.

(e) Criminal or civil penalties may not be imposed upon a custodian who transfers or discloses the content of any public record to the Attorney General as provided in the "employee disclosure and confidentiality protection" subtitle of Article 64A. (1970, ch. 698; 1971, ch. 611; 1978, ch. 1006; 1980, ch. 850.)

Effect of amendment. — The 1980 amendment, effective July 1, 1980, added subsection (e). Equitable Trust Co. v. State of Md. Comm'n on Human Relations, 42 Md. App. 53, 399 A.2d 908 (1979), rev'd on other grounds, 287 Md. 80, 411 A.2d 86 (1980).

In camera review provision of subsection (b) (1) is discretionary and does not mandate that documents be individually examined. Cited in Superintendent, Md. State Police v. Henschen, 279 Md. 468, 369 A.2d 558 (1977).

.04 Criminal Records Central Repository (CRCR).

A. Pursuant to Article 27, §747(b), Annotated Code of Maryland, the criminal justice information system central repository will be the "Criminal Records Central Repository (CRCR)" of the Maryland State Police. The CRCR will perform all functions heretofore assigned to the State Central Crime Records Bureau, and other tasks delegated to it by the Secretary to ensure the accuracy, completeness, and security of CHRI in Maryland.

B. The CRCR has the responsibility to enter into agreements with agencies which, by law or regulatory process, have the right to access or contribute to CHRI. Each agreement will comply with Article 27, §748, Annotated Code of Maryland and will require the approval of the Secretary.

C. The CRCR has the authority to perform audits of any criminal justice agency with respect to any individual CHRI to ensure the completeness and accuracy of information reported or disseminated.

(1) Conviction CHRI unless the employer demonstrates to the Secretary that the activities or duties of the prospective employee or employee for whom the conviction CHRI is requested would bring the prospective employee or employee into such close and sensitive contact with the public that the use of the information in hiring, transfer, or promotion of the employee would serve to protect the safety or be in the best interests of the general public or bring the prospective employee or employee into such close and sensitive contact with the employer's enterprise as to endanger the goodwill or fiscal well-being of the enterprise.

(2) Non-conviction CHRI unless the employer is expressly authorized by statute, ordinance, executive order, or court rule, order, or decision specifying the right of access to non-conviction CHRI and the purpose and conditions for access.

E. The Secretary will establish a procedure whereby employers may petition for the right to be granted access to conviction CHRI consistent with §D(1), above. I. CRCR, through agreement with another criminal justice agency, may specify the other criminal justice agency as a location at which a non-criminal justice agency or individual may inquire to CRCR for the purpose of receiving CHRI. The agreement may also provide for CRCR to authorize the criminal justice agency to disseminate to the non-criminal justice agency appropriate CHRI maintained by the criminal justice agency. Under these circumstances the disseminating criminal justice agency shall maintain a log of each dissemination, showing the date the request was made, the purpose for which the request was made, the information disseminated, the agency or person receiving the information, and the date of the dissemination. CRCR shall maintain in its log the fact that it authorized the criminal justice agency to disseminate the CHRI and the agency or individual to whom the CHRI was disseminated.

J. An agency or individual may not confirm the existence or non-existence of CHRI to any person or agency that would not be eligible to receive the information itself.

K. Any logs required to be kept under this regulation shall be maintained for at least 3 years.

L. The use of CHRI by an authorized agency or individual is limited to the specific purpose or purposes stated in this section and may not be disseminated further except with specific authorization.

CRIMINAL OFFENDER RECORD INFORMATION SYSTEM

§ 167. Definitions

The following words shall, whenever used in this section or in sections one hundred and sixty-eight to one hundred seventy-eight, inclusive, have the following meanings unless the context otherwise requires: "Criminal justice agencies", those agencies at all levels of government which perform as their principal function, activities relating to (a) crime prevention, including research or the sponsorship of research; (b) the apprehension, prosecution, adjudication, incarceration, or rehabilitation of criminal offenders; or (c) the collection, storage, dissemination or usage of criminal offender record information.

"Criminal offender record information", records and data in any communicable form compiled by a criminal justice agency which concern an identifiable individual and relate to the nature or disposition of a criminal charge, an arrest, a pre-trial proceeding, other judicial proceedings, sentencing, incarceration, rehabilitation, or release. Such information shall be restricted to that recorded as the result of the initiation of criminal proceedings or any consequent proceedings related thereto. Criminal offender record information shall not include evaluative information, statistical and analytical reports and files in which individuals are not directly or indirectly identifiable, or intelligence information. Criminal offender record information shall be limited to information concerning persons who have attained the age of seventeen and shall not include any information concerning criminal offenses or acts of delinquency committed by any person before he attained the age of seventeen; provided, however, that if a person under the age of seventeen is adjudicated as an adult, information relating to such criminal offense shall be criminal offender record information. Criminal offender record information shall not include information concerning any offenses which are not punishable by incarceration.

"Evaluative information", records, data, or reports concerning individuals charged with crime and compiled by criminal justice agencies which appraise mental condition, physical condition, extent of social adjustment, rehabilitative progress and the like, and which are primarily used in connection with bail, pre-trial or post-trial release proceedings, sentencing, correctional and rehabilitative planning, probation or parole.

"Intelligence information", records and data compiled by a criminal justice agency for the purpose of criminal investigation, including reports of informants, investigators or other persons, or from any type of surveillance associated with an identifiable individual. Intelligence information shall also include records and data compiled by a criminal justice agency for the purpose of investigating a substantial threat of harm to an individual, or to the order or security of a correctional facility.

"Interstate systems", all agreements, arrangements and systems for the interstate transmission and exchange of criminal offender record information. Such systems shall not include recordkeeping systems in the commonwealth maintained or controlled by any state or local agency, or group of such agencies, even if such agencies receive or have received information through, or otherwise participated or have participated in, systems for the interstate exchange of criminal record information.

"Purge", remove from the criminal offender record information system such that there is no trace of information removed and no indication that said information was removed.

Added by St.1972, c. 805, § 1.

Amended by St.1977, c. 691, § 2.

1977 Amendment. St.1977, c. 691, § 2, an emergency act, approved Oct. 29, 1977, re-wrote the definition of "Criminal offender record information", and inserted definitions of "Evaluative information" and "Intelligence information".

1. In general

Records of firearms discharge reports kept by city police department were not subject to blanket exemption from disclosure under c. 4, § 7 providing for disclosure of public records generally, because they may have contained criminal offender record information. Reinstein v. Police Commissioner of Boston (1979) 391 N.E.2d 881, 1979 Mass. Adv. Sh. 1509.

Newspaper could not complain that provisions of Criminal Offender Records Information Act other than those mandating nondisclosure to public of alphabetical index of criminal records impermissibly interfered with internal functioning of court and thereby violated Const. Pt. 1, Art. 30, requiring separation of powers, as any interference with court's internal functioning did not violate rights of newspaper. New Bedford Standard-Times Pub. Co. v. Clerk of Third Dist. Court of Bristol (1979) 387 N.E.2d 110, 1979 Mass. Adv. Sh. 515.

Section 172 of this chapter providing that alphabetical index of criminal records may not be made available to the public did not unconstitutionally interfere with internal functioning of judicial branch and did not violate Const. Pt. 1, Art. 30 requiring separation of powers, in view of lack of showing that denial of public access to such records impaired ability of court to function and in view of fact that Criminal Offender Record Information Act served useful rehabilitative purpose. Id.

This section, which restricts dissemination of records and data compiled by criminal justice agencies, and § 172 of this chapter, which sets forth procedure for dissemination of such information, did not bar Insurance Commissioner from asking defendant insurance agent about his criminal history in application form for renewal of defendant's insurance broker's license; in any event, nothing in said sections justified defendant in responding falsely to such an inquiry. Com. v. McDuffee (1979) 386 N.E.2d 754, 1979 Mass. App. Adv. Sh. 222.

Rules and regulations shall not be adopted by the board until a hearing has been held in the manner provided by section two of chapter thirty A. The board shall have the authority to issue orders enforcing its rules and regulations after notice and hearing as provided by applicable law.

The board shall provide for and exercise control over the installation, operation and maintenance of data processing and data communication systems, hereinafter called the criminal offender record information system. Said system shall be designed to insure the prompt collection, exchange, dissemination and distribution of such criminal offender record information as may be necessary for the efficient administration and operation of criminal justice agencies, and to connect such systems directly or indirectly with similar systems in this or other states. The secretary of public safety shall appoint and fix the salary of an executive director, after reviewing final applicants with and securing the approval of the board. Such executive director shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter thirty-one or section nine A of chapter thirty. Said director shall be responsible for all data processing, for the management of the automated criminal offender record information and teleprocessing system, for the supervision of all personnel associated with that system and for the appointment of all such personnel except as otherwise provided by the board. The board may appoint such other employees, including experts and consultants, as it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities, none of whom shall be subject to the provisions of chapter thirty-one or of section nine A of chapter thirty.

The board shall make an annual report to the governor and file a copy thereof with the state secretary, the clerk of the house of representatives and the clerk of the senate.

The board is authorized to enter into contracts and agreements with, and accept gifts, grants, contributions, and bequests of funds from, any department, agency, or subdivision of federal, state, county, or municipal government and any individual, foundation, corporation, association, or public authority for the purpose of providing or receiving services, facilities or staff assistance in connection with its work. Such funds shall be deposited with the state treasurer and may be expended by the board in accordance with the conditions of the gift, grant, contribution, or bequest, without specific appropriation.

1. In general

their previous existing jurisdiction. Police Com'r of Boston v. Municipal Court of Dorchester Dist. (1978) 374 N.E.2d 272, 1978 Mass. Adv. Sh. 685.

§ 172. Dissemination of record information; certification; eligibility for access; scope of inquiry; listing; access limited; rules; use of information

Except as otherwise provided in sections one hundred and seventy-three to one hundred and seventy-five, inclusive, criminal offender record information, and where present, evaluative information, shall be disseminated, whether directly or through any intermediary, only to (a) criminal justice agencies; (b) such other agencies and individuals required to have access to such information by statute including United States Armed Forces recruiting offices for the purpose of determining whether a person enlisting has been convicted of a felony as set forth in Title 10, section 504 of the United States Code; and by adding the following sentence:—Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or chapter sixty-six A, the following shall be public records: (1) police daily logs, arrest registers, or other similar records compiled chronologically, provided that no alphabetical arrestee, suspect, or similar index is available to the public, directly or indirectly; (2) chronologically maintained court records of public judicial proceedings, provided that no alphabetical or similar index of criminal defendants is available to the public, directly or indirectly; and (3) published records of public court or administrative proceedings, and of public judicial administrative or legislative proceedings; and (c) any other agencies and individuals where it has been determined that the public interest in disseminating such information to these parties clearly outweighs the interest in security and privacy. The extent of such access shall be limited to that necessary for the actual performance of the criminal justice duties of criminal justice agencies under clause (a); to that necessary for the actual performance of the statutory duties of agencies and individuals granted access under clause (b); and to that necessary for the actual performance of the actions or duties sustaining the public interest as to agencies or individuals granted access under clause (c).

The board shall, after consultation with the council, certify those agencies and individuals requesting access to criminal offender record information that qualify for such access under clauses (a) or (b) of this section, and shall specify for each such agency or individual certified, the extent of its access. The board shall make a finding in writing of eligibility, or noneligibility of each such agency or individual which requests such access. No such information shall be disseminated to any agency or individual prior to the board's determination of eligibility, or, in cases in which the board's decision is appealed, prior to the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that such agency or individual is so eligible.

No agency or individual shall have access to criminal offender record information under clause (c), unless a majority of the board, and a majority of the council, each voting as a separate body, determines and certifies that the public interest in disseminating such information to such party clearly outweighs the interest in security and privacy. The extent of access to such information under clause (c) shall be determined by majority vote of persons comprising the membership of the board and the council voting as a single group at a duly scheduled board meeting. Certification for access under clause (c) may be either access to information relating to a specific identifiable individual, or individuals, on a single occasion; or a general grant of access for a specified period of time not to exceed two years. A general grant of access need not relate to a request for access by the party or parties to be certified. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph the procedure and requirements for certifying agencies and individuals under clause (c) shall be according to the provisions of the preceding paragraphs of this section.

Each agency holding or receiving criminal offender record information shall maintain, for such period as the board shall determine, a listing of the agencies or individuals to which it has released or communicated such information. Such listings, or reasonable samples thereof, may from time to time, be reviewed by the board or the council to determine whether any statutory provisions or regulations have been violated.

Dissemination of criminal offender record information shall, except as provided in this section and for purposes of research programs approved under section one hundred and seventy-four, be permitted only if the inquiry is based upon name, fingerprints, or other personal identifying characteristics. The board shall adopt rules to prevent dissemination of such information where inquiries are based upon categories of offense or data elements other than said characteristics; provided, however, that access by criminal justice agencies to criminal offender record information on the basis of data elements other than personal identifying characteristics, including but not limited to, categories of offense, mode of operation, photographs and physical descriptive data generally, shall be permissible, except as may be limited by the regulations of the board.

Any individual or agency, public or private, that receives or obtains criminal offender record information, in violation of the provisions of this statute, whether directly or through any intermediary, shall not collect, store, disseminate, or use such criminal offender record information in any manner or for any purpose. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the dissemination of information relative to a person's conviction of automobile law violations as defined by section one of chapter ninety C, or information relative to a person's charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor which resulted in his assignment to a driver alcohol program as described in section twenty-four D of chapter ninety, shall not be prohibited where such dissemination is made, directly or indirectly, by the motor vehicle insurance merit rating board established pursuant to section one hundred and eighty-three of chapter six, to an insurance company doing motor vehicle insurance business within the commonwealth, or to such insurance company's agents, independent contractors or insurance policyholders to be used exclusively for motor vehicle insurance purposes.

1977 Amendments. St.1977, c. 365, § 1, an emergency act, approved July 6, 1977, added a paragraph relating to the dissemination of information relative to conviction of automobile law violations.

St.1977, c. 365, §§ 6, 8 to 10, provide:

"Section 6. Any insured whose motor vehicle rates or premiums are affected by this act shall have his present motor vehicle insurance policy amended by endorsement retroactively as of its effective date to the revised rates and premiums conforming to the requirements of this act, and have it expire on January first, nineteen hundred and seventy-eight. The insurer of any insured whose motor vehicles rates or premiums are affected by this act shall return to said insured the appropriate difference in rates or premiums based on the revised rates and premiums conforming to the requirements of this act, said returns to be made either by payment to said insured or as an identified credit against any unpaid premium balance on said motor vehicle insurance policy issued to said insured. Any insured whose motor vehicle rates or premiums are affected by this act and who purchases a motor vehicle insurance policy in nineteen hundred and seventy-seven after the effective date of this act shall receive a short-term policy expiring on January first, nineteen hundred and seventy-eight, and written at rates and premiums conforming to the requirements of the act. Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from offering to any insured a motor vehicle insurance policy for a period of one year or from offering an extension of any motor vehicle insurance policy issued in nineteen hundred and seventy-seven.

"Any premium loss suffered by an insurer as a result of its compliance with the provisions of this act shall not be used as a factor in calculating future motor vehicle insurance rates for said insurer. The commissioner is hereby authorized to declare any motor vehicle insurance rate for which such has been considered as a factor as invalid and is hereby directed to take all steps necessary to correct said rate for the benefit of the insured affected by said rate.

"Section 8. The rights and remedies provided in this act shall be the sole and exclusive remedies available to be exercised by both insurers and insureds for nineteen hundred and seventy-seven motor vehicle insurance rate relief.

"Section 9. This act shall take effect upon its passage, except that the plan referred to in section three shall not become operative until January first, nineteen hundred and seventy-eight.

"Section 10. The provisions of this act are hereby declared to be severable and if any such provisions or the application of such provisions to any person or circumstances shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not be construed to affect the validity or constitutionality of any of the remaining provisions of this act or the application of such provisions to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid."

St.1977, c. 691, § 4, an emergency act, approved Oct. 29, 1977, amended the first sentence of the first paragraph by inserting "Except as otherwise provided in sections one hundred and seventy-three to one hundred and seventy-five, inclusive," at the beginning, by inserting "and where present, evaluative information," by substituting clause (b) for former clause (b) which read "such other individuals and agencies as are authorized access to such records by statute" and by adding clause (c); added, to the first paragraph, the second sentence; rewrote the first and second sentences of the second paragraph; inserted the third paragraph; amended the fourth paragraph by substituting "the board shall determine" for "is found by the board to be appropriate" following "for such period as" in the first sentence, and by deleting "advisory committee," following "reviewed by the board" from the second sentence; amended the fifth paragraph by substituting "of criminal offender record information shall, except as provided in this section and" for "from any agency in this commonwealth of criminal offender record information shall, except" following "Dissemination" and by substituting "seventy-four" for "seventy-three" following "section one hundred and" in the first sentence, and by substituting "adopt rules" for "promulgate regulations" following "The board shall" and "where inquiries are based upon . . . regulations of the board" for "except in the above situations, where inquiries are based upon categories of offense or data elements other than said characteristics" following "prevent dissemination of such information" in the second sentence; and substituted the sixth paragraph for former fifth paragraph.

St.1977, c. 341, an emergency act, approved Dec. 23, 1977, added, to clause (b), that which begins "including United States Armed Forces" and added the provision which defines "public records".

1. In general
Records of firearms discharge reports kept by city police department were not subject to blanket exemption from disclosure under c. 4, § 7 providing for disclosure of public records generally, because they may have contained criminal offender record information. Reinstein v. Police Commissioner of Boston (1979) 391 N.E.2d 881, 1979 Mass. Adv. Sh. 1509.

This section providing that alphabetical index of criminal records may not be made available to the public did not violate constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press. New Bedford Standard-Times Pub. Co. v. Clerk of Third Dist. Court of Bristol (1979) 387 N.E.2d 110, 1979 Mass. Adv. Sh. 515.

This section providing that alphabetical index of criminal records may not be made available to the public did not unconstitutionally interfere with internal functioning of judicial branch and did not violate Const. Pt. 1, Art. 30 requiring separation of powers, in view of lack of showing that denial of public access to such records impaired ability of court to function and in view of fact that Criminal Offender Record Information Act served useful rehabilitative purpose. Id.

Newspaper could not complain that provisions of Criminal Offender Records Information Act other than those mandating nondisclosure to public of alphabetical index of criminal records impermissibly interfered with internal functioning of court and thereby violated Const. Pt. 1, Art. 30.

requiring separation of powers, as any interference with court's internal functioning did not violate rights of newspaper. Id.

Section 167 of this chapter, which restricts dissemination of records and data compiled by criminal justice agencies, and this section, which sets forth procedure for dissemination of such information, did not bar Insurance Commissioner from asking defendant insurance agent about his criminal history in application form for renewal of defendant's insurance broker's license; in any event, nothing in said sections justified defendant in responding falsely to such an inquiry. Com. v. McDuffee (1979) 386 N.E.2d 754, 1979 Mass.App.Adv.Sh. 288.

Sealed record statute (c. 276, § 100A) does not operate to erase fact of prior conviction, as does § 167 et seq. of this chapter providing for purging or expungement of criminal offender information, but seeks simply to insure confidentiality; there is nothing in sealed record statute to suggest that once fact of conviction is sealed, it becomes nonexistent, and hence untrue for purposes of common law of defamation. Rzesnik v. Chief of Police of Southampton (1978) 373 N.E.2d 1128, 1978 Mass.Adv.Sh. 461.

Language in sealed records statute (c. 276, § 100A), providing that Commissioner of Probation, "in response to inquiries by authorized persons other than any law enforcement agency, any court, or any appointing authority, shall in the case of a sealed record . . . report that no record exists," must be read to imply that law enforcement agencies, courts, and appointing authorities do have access to criminal records which have been sealed. Id.

St.1977, c. 365, requiring that motor vehicle insurance carriers in Massachusetts rewrite certain automobile insurance contracts issued in 1977 retroactive to January 1, 1977, at reduced rates, and providing for rebates, is "reasonable" and constitutional, since Legislature could rationally have concluded that the competitive rate system under statute had failed and had resulted in serious financial difficulties for many policyholders. American Mfrs. Mut. Ins. Co. v. Commissioner of Ins. (1978) 373 N.E.2d 520, 1978 Mass.Adv.Sh. 58.

St.1977, c. 365, requiring motor vehicle insurance carriers in Massachusetts to rewrite certain automobile insurance contracts issued in 1977 retroactive to January 1, 1977, at reduced rates, and providing for rebates, is not invalid on asserted ground that particular rebate concerning two communities provided special discriminatory relief, since there were known circumstances from which Legislature could have concluded that policyholders in two communities in question were especially hard hit by extreme increases in premiums charged and Legislature could have rationally determined that special relief was in order. Id.

St.1977, c. 365 requiring that motor vehicle insurance carriers in Massachusetts rewrite certain automobile insurance contracts issued in 1977 retroactive to January 1, 1977, at reduced rates, and providing for rebates, is remedial rather than permissive, and is within power of Legislature as limited by Federal and State Constitutions. Id.

Criminal offender record information system act, c. 8, § 167 et seq., prohibits public dissemination of criminal offender record information which would include summaries of criminal arrest information relating to individuals prepared by police departments, district attorneys' offices, probation departments, and similar agencies, but the act would not restrain court clerks from disseminating any other kind of information. Op.Atty.Gen. Nov. 30, 1978, p. 29.

Registry of motor vehicles is prohibited by this section in conjunction with c. 4, § 7 and c. 86, § 10 from disseminating in any manner criminal offender record information to parties not certified by the criminal history systems board. Op.Atty.Gen. Oct. 29, 1974, p. 71.

2. Firearm applications

Sealed records statute (c. 276, § 100A) does not operate to preclude use of criminal offender information by gun licensing authorities. Rzesnik v. Chief of Police of Southampton (1978) 373 N.E.2d 1128, 1978 Mass.Adv.Sh. 461.

Under sealed records statute (c. 276, § 100A) city chief of police, as member of law enforcement agency, and as part of "criminal justice agency," was authorized access to sealed felony records of gun license applicant and, by implication, use of such information in determining applicant's eligibility for gun license. Id.

§ 173. Regulations for program research; monitoring; access restricted

The board shall promulgate regulations to govern the use of criminal offender record information for purposes of program research. Such regulations shall require preservation of the anonymity of the individuals to whom such information relates, shall require the completion of nondisclosure agreements by all participants in such programs, and shall impose such additional requirements and conditions as the board finds to be necessary to assure the protection of privacy and security interests.

The board may monitor any such programs to assure their effectiveness. The board may, if it determines that a program's continuance threatens privacy or security interests, prohibit access on behalf of any such program to criminal offender record information.

The board shall supervise the participation by all state and local agencies in any interstate system for the exchange of criminal offender record information, and shall be responsible to assure the consistency of such participation with the terms and purposes of sections one hundred and sixty-eight to section one hundred and seventy-eight, inclusive.

Direct access to any such system shall be limited to such criminal justice agencies as are expressly designated for that purpose by the board. ### § 175. Inspection of record information by individual concerned; corrections; procedure; restrictions

Each individual shall have the right to inspect, and if practicable, copy, criminal offender record information which refers to him. If an individual believes such information to be inaccurate or incomplete, he shall request the agency having custody or control of the records to purge, modify or supplement them. If the agency declines to so act, or if the individual believes the agency's decision to be otherwise unsatisfactory, the individual may in writing request review by the council. The council shall, in each case in which it finds prima facie basis for complaint, conduct a hearing at which the individual may appear with counsel, present evidence, and examine and cross-examine witnesses. Written findings shall be issued within sixty days of receipt by the council of the request for review. Failure to issue findings shall be deemed a decision of the council. If the record in question is found to be inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the council shall recommend to the board that the record be appropriately purged, modified or supplemented by explanatory notation. Notification of the council's recommendation and subsequent orders by the board to delete, amend or supplement the records, shall be disseminated by the board to any individuals or agencies to which the records in question have been communicated, as well as to the individual whose records have been ordered so altered within ten days of receipt of the council's recommendation. Failure of the board to act shall be deemed a decision of the board.

Agencies at which criminal offender records are sought to be inspected shall prescribe reasonable hours and places of inspection, and shall impose such additional restrictions as may be approved by the board, including fingerprinting as are reasonably necessary both to assure the record's security and to verify the identities of those who seek to inspect them.

§ 176. Appeal; de novo hearing; equitable relief

Any individual or agency aggrieved by any order or decision of the board or adverse recommendation of the council or failure of the council to issue findings may appeal such order, recommendation or decision to the superior court in the county in which he is resident or in which the board issued the order or decision from which the individual or agency appeals. The court shall in each such case conduct a de novo hearing, and may order such relief as it finds to be required by equity.

§ 177. Violations; civil liability

Any aggrieved person may institute a civil action in superior court for damages or to restrain any violation of sections one hundred and sixty-eight to one hundred and seventy-five, inclusive. If it is found in any such action that there has occurred a willful violation, the violator shall not be entitled to claim any privilege absolute or qualified, and he shall in addition to any liability for such actual damages as may be shown, be liable for exemplary damages of not less than one hundred and not more than one thousand dollars for each violation, together with costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements incurred by the person bringing the action.

§ 178. Violations; punishment

Any person who willfully requests, obtains or seeks to obtain criminal offender record information under false pretenses, or who willfully communicates or seeks to communicate criminal offender record information to any agency or person except in accordance with the provisions of sections one hundred and sixty-eight to one hundred and seventy-five, inclusive, or any member, officer, employee or agency of the board, the council or any participating agency, or any person connected with any authorized research program, who willfully falsifies criminal offender record information, or any records relating thereto, shall for each offense be fined not more than five thousand dollars, or imprisoned in a jail or house of correction for not more than one year, or both.

Amended by St.1979, c. 702, § 7.

Controlled Substances

§ 34. Unlawful possession; particular controlled substances, including heroin and marihuana; prior convictions; criminal penalties; continuance; probation; dismissal; sealing of records

No person knowingly or intentionally shall possess a controlled substance unless such substance was obtained directly, or pursuant to a valid prescription or order, from a practitioner while acting in the course of his professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by the provisions of this chapter. Except as hereinafter provided, any person who violates this section shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person who violates this section by possessing heroin shall for the first offense be punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than two years or by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars, or both, and for a second or subsequent offense shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than two and one-half years nor more than five years or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars and imprisonment in a jail or house of correction for not more than two and one-half years. Any person who violates this section by possession of marihuana or a controlled substance in Class E of section thirty-one shall be punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than six months or a fine of five hundred dollars, or both. Except for an offense involving a controlled substance in Class E of section thirty-one, whoever violates the provisions of this section after one or more convictions of a violation of this section or of a felony under any other provisions of this chapter, or of a corresponding provision of earlier law relating to the sale or manufacture of a narcotic drug as defined in said earlier law, shall be punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than two years or by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars, or both.

If any person who is charged with a violation of this section has not previously been convicted of a violation of any provision of this chapter or other provision of prior law relative to narcotic drugs or harmful drugs as defined in said prior law, or of a felony under the laws of any state or of the United States relating to such drugs, has had his case continued without a finding to a certain date, or has been convicted and placed on probation, and if, during the period of said continuance or of said probation, such person does not violate any of the conditions of said continuance or said probation, then upon the expiration of such period the court may dismiss the proceedings against him, and may order sealed all official records relating to his arrest, indictment, conviction, probation, continuance or discharge pursuant to this section; provided, however, that departmental records which are not public records, maintained by police and other law enforcement agencies, shall not be sealed; and provided further, that such a record shall be maintained in a separate file by the department of probation solely for the purpose of use by the courts in determining whether or not in subsequent proceedings such person qualifies under this section. The record maintained by the department of probation shall contain only identifying information concerning the person and a statement that he has had his record sealed pursuant to the provisions of this section. Any conviction, the record of which has been sealed under this section, shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes of any disqualification or for any other purpose. No person as to whom such sealing has been ordered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failure to recite or acknowledge such arrest, indictment, conviction, dismissal, continuance, sealing, or any other related proceeding, in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose.

Notwithstanding any other penalty provision of this section, any person who is convicted for the first time under this section for the possession of marihuana or a controlled substance in Class E and who has not previously been convicted of any offense pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, or any provision of prior law relating to narcotic drugs or harmful drugs as defined in said prior law shall be placed on probation unless such person does not consent thereto, or unless the court files a written memorandum stating the reasons for not so doing. Upon successful completion of said probation, the case shall be dismissed and records shall be sealed.

The commissioner shall comply with such request provided (1) that said person's court appearance and court disposition records, including termination of court supervision, probation or sentence for any misdemeanor occurred not less than ten years prior to said request; (2) that said person's court appearance and court disposition records, including termination of court supervision, probation or sentence for any felony occurred not less than fifteen years prior to said request; (3) that said person had not been found guilty of any criminal offense within the commonwealth in the ten years preceding such request, except motor vehicle offenses in which the penalty does not exceed a fine of fifty dollars; (4) said form includes a statement by the petitioner that he has not been convicted of any criminal offense in any other state, United States possession or in a court of federal jurisdiction, except such motor vehicle offenses, as aforesaid, and has not been imprisoned in any state or county within the preceding ten years; and (5) said person's record does not include convictions of offenses other than those to which this section applies. This section shall apply to court appearances and dispositions of all offenses provided, however, that this section shall not apply in case of convictions for violations of sections one hundred and twenty-one to one hundred and thirty-one H, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and forty or for violations of chapter two hundred and sixty-eight or chapter two hundred and sixty-eight A.

In carrying out the provisions of this section, notwithstanding any laws to the contrary:

1. Any recorded offense which was a felony when committed and has since become a misdemeanor shall be treated as a misdemeanor.
  2. Any recorded offense which is no longer a crime shall be eligible for sealing forthwith, except in cases where the elements of the offense continue to be a crime under a different designation.
  3. In determining the period for eligibility, any subsequently recorded offenses for which the dispositions are "not guilty", "dismissed for want of prosecution", "dismissed at request of complainant", "nol prossed", or "no bill" shall be held to interrupt the running of the required period for eligibility.
  4. If it cannot be ascertained that a recorded offense was a felony when committed said offense shall be treated as a misdemeanor.
- When records of criminal appearances and criminal dispositions are sealed by the commissioner in his files, he shall notify forthwith the clerk and the probation officer of the courts in which the convictions or dispositions have occurred, or other entries have been made, of such sealing, and said clerks and probation officers likewise shall seal records of the same proceedings in their files.
- Such sealed records shall not operate to disqualify a person in any examination, appointment or application for public service in the service of the commonwealth or of any political subdivision thereof; nor shall such sealed records be admissible in evidence or used in any way in any court proceedings or hearings before any boards or commissions, except in imposing sentence in subsequent criminal proceedings.
- An application for employment used by an employer which seeks information concerning prior arrests or convictions of the applicant shall include the following statement: "An applicant for employment with a sealed record on file with the commissioner of probation may answer 'no record' with respect to an inquiry herein relative to prior arrests, criminal court appearances or convictions. An applicant for employment with a sealed record on file with the commissioner of probation may answer 'no record' to an inquiry herein relative to prior arrests or criminal court appearances. In addition, any applicant for employment may answer 'no record' with respect to any inquiry relative to prior arrests, court appearances and adjudications in all cases of delinquency or as a child in need of services which did not result in a complaint transferred to the superior court for criminal prosecution." The attorney general may enforce the provisions of this paragraph by a suit in equity commenced in the superior court.
- The commissioner, in response to inquiries by authorized persons other than any law enforcement agency, any court, or any appointing authority, shall in the case of a sealed record or in the case of court appearances and adjudications in a case of delinquency or the case of a child in need of services which did not result in a complaint transferred to the superior court for criminal prosecution, report that no record exists. (Added by 1971, 686, § 1, approved August 19, 1971; by § 2 it takes effect July 1, 1972; amended by 1973, 533, §§ 2, 3, approved July 10, 1973, effective 90 days thereafter; 1973, 1102, approved Nov. 28, 1973, effective 90 days thereafter; 1974, 525, approved July 11, 1974, effective 90 days thereafter; 1975, 278, approved June 2, 1975, effective 90 days thereafter.)

§ 100B. Sealing of Certain Juvenile Record Files; Conditions; Effect.

Any person having a record of entries of a delinquency court appearance in the commonwealth on file in the office of the commissioner of probation may, on a form furnished by the commissioner, signed under the penalties of perjury, request that the commissioner seal such file. The commissioner shall comply with such request provided (1) that any court appearance or disposition including court supervision, probation, commitment or parole, the records for which are to be sealed, terminated not less than three years prior to said request; (2) that said person has not been adjudicated delinquent or found guilty of any criminal offense within the commonwealth in the three years preceding such request, except motor vehicle offenses in which the penalty does not exceed a fine of fifty dollars nor been imprisoned under sentence or committed as a delinquent within the commonwealth within the preceding three years; and (3) said form includes a statement by the petitioner that he has not been adjudicated delinquent or found guilty of any criminal offense in any other state, United States possession or in a court of federal jurisdiction, except such motor vehicle offenses as aforesaid, and has not been imprisoned under sentence or committed as a delinquent in any state or county within the preceding three years.

When records of delinquency appearances and delinquency dispositions are sealed by the commissioner in his files, the commissioner shall notify forthwith the clerk and the probation officer of the courts in which the adjudications or dispositions have occurred, or other entries have been made, and the department of youth services of such sealing, and said clerks, probation officers, and department of youth services likewise shall seal records of the same proceedings in their files.

Such sealed records of a person shall not operate to disqualify a person in any future examination, appointment or application for public service under the government of the commonwealth or of any political subdivision thereof; nor shall such sealed records be admissible in evidence or used in any way in any court proceedings or hearings before any boards of commissioners, except in imposing sentence for subsequent offenses in delinquency or criminal proceedings.

Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, the commissioner shall report such sealed delinquency record to inquiring police and court agencies only as "sealed delinquency record over three years old" and to other authorized persons who may inquire as "no record". The information contained in said sealed delinquency record shall be made available to a judge or probation officer who affirms that such person, whose record has been sealed, has been adjudicated a delinquent or has pleaded guilty or has been found guilty of and is awaiting sentence for a crime committed subsequent to sealing of such record. Said information shall be used only for the purpose of consideration in imposing sentence. (Added by 1972, 404, approved June 8, 1972, effective 90 days thereafter.)

§ 100C. Sealing of Certain Criminal Records; Effect.

In any criminal case wherein the defendant has been found not guilty by the court or jury, or a no bill has been returned by the grand jury, or a finding of no probable cause has been made by the court, the defendant may, on a form furnished by the commissioner of probation, request that the commissioner seal said court appearance and disposition recorded in his files. The commissioner shall comply with such request and he shall notify forthwith the clerk and the probation officers of the courts in which the proceedings occurred or were initiated who shall likewise seal the records of the proceedings in their files.

In any criminal case wherein a nolle prosequi has been entered, or a dismissal has been entered by the court, except in cases in which an order of probation has been terminated, and it appears to the court that substantial justice would best be served, the court shall direct the clerk to seal the records of the proceedings in his files. The clerk shall forthwith notify the commissioner of probation and the probation officer of the courts in which the proceedings occurred or were initiated who shall likewise seal the records of the proceedings in their files.

Such sealed records shall not operate to disqualify a person in any examination, appointment or application for public employment in the service of the commonwealth or of any political subdivision thereof.

The attorney general may enforce the provisions of this section by a suit in equity commenced in the superior court.

The commissioner, in response to inquiries by authorized persons other than any law enforcement agency or any court, shall, in the case of a sealed record report that no record exists. After a finding or verdict of guilty on a subsequent offense such sealed record shall be made available to the probation officer and the same, with the exception of a not guilty, a no bill, or a no probable cause, shall be made available to the court. (Added by 1973, 322, § 1, approved May 29, 1973, effective 90 days thereafter.)

1. In general

Information compiled by boards of registration in connection with licensing and certification is personal data, and disclosure of such information is restricted by § 2 of this chapter. Op.Atty.Gen., May 18, 1977, p. 167.

§ 2. Holders maintaining personal data system; duties

Every holder maintaining personal data shall:—

(a) identify one individual immediately responsible for the personal data system who shall insure that the requirements of this chapter for preventing access to or dissemination of personal data are followed;

(b) inform each of its employees having any responsibility or function in the design, development, operation, or maintenance of the personal data system, or the use of any personal data contained therein, of each safeguard required by this chapter, of each rule and regulation promulgated pursuant to section three which pertains to the operation of the personal data system, and of the civil remedies described in section three B of chapter two hundred and fourteen available to individuals whose rights under chapter sixty-six A are allegedly violated;

(c) not allow any other agency or individual not employed by the holder to have access to personal data unless such access is authorized by statute or regulations which are consistent with the purposes of this chapter or is approved by the data subject whose personal data are sought if the data subject is entitled to access under clause (f). Medical or psychiatric data may be made available to a physician treating a data subject upon the request of said physician, if a medical or psychiatric emergency arises which precludes the data subject's giving approval for the release of such data, but the data subject shall be given notice of such access upon termination of the emergency. A holder shall provide lists of names and addresses of applicants for professional licenses and lists of professional licensees to associations or educational organizations recognized by the appropriate professional licensing or examination board. A holder shall comply with a data subject's request to disseminate his data to a third person if practicable and upon payment, if necessary, of a reasonable fee;

(d) take reasonable precautions to protect personal data from dangers of fire, theft, flood, natural disaster, or other physical threat;

(e) comply with the notice requirements set forth in section sixty-three of chapter thirty;

(f) in the case of data held in automated personal data systems, and to the extent feasible with data held in manual personal data systems, maintain a complete and accurate record of every access to and every use of any personal data by persons or organizations outside of or other than the holder of the data, including the identity of all such persons and organizations which have gained access to the personal data and their intended use of such data and the holder need not record any such access of its employees acting within their official duties;

(g) to the extent that such material is maintained pursuant to this section, make available to a data subject upon his request in a form comprehensible to him, a list of the uses made of his personal data, including the identity of all persons and organizations which have gained access to the data;

(h) maintain personal data with such accuracy, completeness, timeliness, pertinence and relevance as is necessary to assure fair determination of a data subject's qualifications, character, rights, opportunities, or benefits when such determinations are based upon such data;

(i) inform in writing an individual, upon his request, whether he is a data subject, and if so, make such data fully available to him or his authorized representative, upon his request, in a form comprehensible to him, unless doing so is prohibited by this clause or any other statute. A holder may withhold from a data subject for the period hereinafter set forth, information which is currently the subject of an investigation and the disclosure of which would probably so prejudice the possibility of effective law enforcement that such disclosure would not be in the public interest, but this sentence is not intended in any way to derogate from any right or power of access the data subject might have under administrative or judicial discovery procedures. Such information may be withheld for the time it takes for the holder to complete its investigation and commence an administrative or judicial proceeding on its basis, or one year from the commencement of the investigation or whichever occurs first. In making any disclosure of information to a data subject pursuant to this chapter the holder may remove personal identifiers relating to a third person, except where such third person is an officer or employee of government acting as such and the data subject is not. No holder shall rely on any exception contained in clause Twenty-sixth of section seven of chapter four to withhold from any data subject personal data otherwise accessible to him under this chapter.

(j) establish procedures that (1) allow each data subject or his duly authorized representative to contest the accuracy, completeness, pertinence, timeliness, relevance or dissemination of his personal data or the denial of access to such data maintained in the personal data system and (2) permit personal data to be corrected or amended when the data subject or his duly authorized representative so requests and there is no disagreement concerning the change to be made or, when there is disagreement with the data subject as to whether a change should be made, assure that the data subject's claim is noted and included as part of the data subject's personal data and included in any subsequent disclosure or dissemination of the disputed data;

(k) maintain procedures to ensure that no personal data are made available in response to a demand for data made by means of compulsory legal process, unless the data subject has been notified of such demand in reasonable time that he may seek to have the process quashed;

(l) not collect or maintain more personal data than are reasonably necessary for the performance of the holder's statutory functions.
Added by St.1975, c. 776, § 1. Amended by St.1976, c. 249, § 2; St.1977, c. 691, §§ 7 to 12.

1976 Amendment. St.1976, c. 249, § 2, an emergency act, approved July 16, 1976, inserted another clause (j) which was deleted in 1977 and related to providing of lists of names and addresses of professional license applicants and lists of professional licenses to associations or educational organizations.

1977 Amendments. St.1977, c. 691, § 7, an emergency act, approved Oct. 29, 1977, substituted, in the introductory paragraph, "holder maintaining personal data" for "agency maintaining a personal data system".

Section 3 rewrote clause (c) which formerly read: "(c) not allow any other agency or individual not employed by the holding agency to have access to personal data unless such access is authorized by statute or regulation, or is approved by the holding agency and by the data subject whose personal data is sought. Medical or psychiatric data may be made available to a physician treating a data subject, upon the request of said physician, if a medical or psychiatric emergency arises which precludes the data subject's giving approval for the release of such data; provided, however, that the data subject shall be given notice of such access upon termination of the emergency."

Section 3 amended clause (f) by substituting "data held in automated personal data systems, and to the extent feasible with data held in manual personal data systems," for "automated personal data systems, and to the maximum extent feasible with manual personal data systems," following "in the case of", by substituting "by persons or organizations outside of or other than the holder of the data," for "in any personal data system" following "use of any personal data", by substituting "which" for "who" following "persons and organizations", and by adding "and the holder need not record any such access of its employees acting within their official duties".

Section 10 amended clause (i) by deleting "in the personal data system" following "is a data subject", by inserting "or his authorized representative" following "available to him" and "this clause or any other" following "is prohibited by"; and by adding the second through the fifth sentences.

Section 11 deleted clause (j) added by St.1976, c. 249, § 2, which read:

2.05: Regulations and Advisory Rulings.

(1) Initial Procedure to Handle Recommended Regulations. Upon receipt of a petition for the adoption, amendment or repeal of a regulation submitted pursuant to 803 CMR 6.12 upon written recommendation by a member of the CHSB that a regulation be adopted, amended, or repealed, the CHSB shall determine whether to schedule proceedings in accordance with 803 CMR 2.05(2). ## MASSACHUSETTS notify the Secretary of State of the public hearing at least thirty (30) days in advance thereof in accordance with M.G.L. c. 6, s. 171, c. 30A, s. 2. The CHSB shall publish the notice in at least one (1) newspaper of general circulation, and where appropriate, in such trade, industry or professional publications as the CHSB may select. The CHSB shall notify in writing any person or group which has filed a written request for notice pursuant to 803 CMR 2.05, or specified by law to receive such notice. The notice shall contain the following:

1. the CHSB's statutory authority to adopt, amend or repeal regulations;
2. the time and place of the public hearing;
3. the express terms or substance of the proposed repeal of a regulation.
4. any additional matter required by any law.

The above notwithstanding, the CHSB shall also comply with any applicable statute which contains provisions for notice which differ from those contained herein.

(b) Procedure. At the time and place designated in the notice referred to in 803 CMR 2.05(2)(a), the CHSB shall hold a public hearing. The hearing shall be presided over by the chairman or other member designated by the chairman. Within ten (10) days after the close of the public hearing, written statements and arguments may be filed with the CHSB unless the CHSB in its discretion finds such to be unnecessary. The CHSB shall consider all relevant matters presented to it before adopting, amending or repealing any regulation.

(c) Oral Participation. All interested persons shall be given an opportunity to make an oral presentation. In its discretion, the CHSB may limit the length of oral presentation.

(d) Emergency Rule. If the CHSB finds that the immediate adoption of a regulation is necessary for the public health, safety or general welfare, and that observance of requirements of notice and public hearings would be contrary to the public interest, the CHSB may dispense with such requirements and adopt the regulation as an emergency in accordance with M.G.L. 30A, s. 2.

The CHSB's finding and brief statement of the reasons for its finding shall be incorporated in the emergency regulations as filed with the Secretary of State. Any emergency regulation so adopted shall state the date on which it is to be effective and the date upon which it shall expire. If no effective date is stated, the regulation shall be presumed to take effect upon being filed with the Secretary of State under 803 CMR 2.05(4). An emergency regulation shall not remain in effect for longer than three (3) months unless during the time it is in effect the CHSB gives notice and holds a public hearing and adopts it as a permanent regulation in accordance with these regulations.

(3) Availability of Regulations. The Chairman of the CHSB shall be responsible for keeping all the CHSB's regulations. All the regulations of the CHSB shall be available for inspection during normal business hours at the CHSB's offices. Copies of all regulations shall be available to any person on request. The CHSB may charge a reasonable fee for each copy.

(4) Filing of Regulations. Upon the adoption of a regulation, two attested copies shall be filed with the Secretary of State together with a citation of the statutory authority under which the regulation has been promulgated. The regulation shall take effect upon publication pursuant to M.G.L. c. 30A, s. 6 unless a later date is required by any law or is specified by the CHSB.

(5) Advisory Ruling.

- (a) Any interested person or his or her attorney may at any time request an advisory ruling with respect to the applicability to any factual situation of any statute or regulation enforced or administered by the CHSB. The request shall be to the CHSB by mail or delivered in person during normal business hours.

(b) All requests shall be signed by the requesting party or the requesting party's attorney, contain the requesting party's address or the address of his or her attorney, and state clearly and concisely the substance of the request. The request may be accompanied by any supporting data, or arguments. If the CHSB determines that an advisory ruling will not be rendered, the CHSB shall as soon as practicable notify the requesting party that the request is denied. If an advisory ruling is rendered, a copy of the ruling shall be sent to the requesting party or his or her attorney.

(c) The CHSB may notify any person that an advisory ruling has been requested and may receive and consider arguments or data from persons other than the person requesting the ruling.

(6) Request for Notice.

(a) Any person or organization may file a request in writing to receive notice of meeting, rulings, hearings or regulations which may affect such person or group.

Michigan Statutes Annotated

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

Act 442, 1976, p —; eff April 13, 1977.

AN ACT to provide for public access to certain public records of public bodies; to permit certain fees; to prescribe the powers and duties of certain public officers and public bodies; to provide remedies and penalties; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

§ 4.1801(1) Short title.] SEC. 1. (1) This act shall be known and may be cited as the "freedom of information act".

Public policy.] (2) It is the public policy of this state that all persons are entitled to full and complete information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts of those who represent them as public officials and public employees, consistent with this act. The people shall be informed so that they may fully participate in the democratic process. (MCL §15.231.)

Former act. Chapter 2 of the Administrative Procedures Act of 1969, which was former §§3.560(121)-3.560(123), dealt with publication, inspection, and copying of materials.

§ 4.1801(2) Definitions.] SEC. 2. As used in this act:

(a) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, firm, organization, or association.

(b) "Public body" means:

(i) A state officer, employee, agency, department, division, bureau, board, commission, council, authority, or other body in the executive branch of the state government, but does not include the governor or lieutenant governor, the executive office of the governor or lieutenant governor, or employees thereof.

(ii) An agency, board, commission, or council in the legislative branch of the state government.

(iii) A county, city, township, village, intercounty, intercity, or regional governing body, council, school district, special district, or municipal corporation, or a board, department, commission, council, or agency thereof.

(iv) Any other body which is created by state or local authority or which is primarily funded by or through state or local authority.

(v) The judiciary, including the office of the county clerk and employees thereof when acting in the capacity of clerk to the circuit court, is not included in the definition of public body.

(c) "Public record" means a writing prepared, owned, used, in the possession of, or retained by a public body in the performance of an official function, from the time it is created. This act separates public records into 2 classes: (i) those which are exempt from disclosure under section 13, and (ii) all others, which shall be subject to disclosure under this act.

(d) "Unusual circumstances" means any 1 or a combination of the following, but only to the extent necessary for the proper processing of a request:

(i) The need to search for, collect, or appropriately examine or review a voluminous amount of separate and distinct public records pursuant to a single request.

MICHIGAN

(ii) The need to collect the requested public records from numerous field offices, facilities, or other establishments which are located apart from the particular office receiving or processing the request.

(e) "Writing" means handwriting, typewriting, printing, photographing, photocopying, and every other means of recording, and includes letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combinations thereof, and papers, maps, magnetic or paper tapes, photographic films or prints, microfilm, microfiche, magnetic or punched cards, discs, drums, or other means of recording or retaining meaningful content. (MCL §15.232.)

§ 4.1801(3) Public record; request, inspection, copy, receipt of copy; subscription, six months validity; renewal.] SEC.

3. (1) Upon an oral or written request which describes the public record sufficiently to enable the public body to find the public record, a person has a right to inspect, copy, or receive copies of a public record of a public body, except as otherwise expressly provided by section 13. A person has a right to subscribe to future issuances of public records which are created, issued, or disseminated on a regular basis. A subscription shall be valid for up to 6 months, at the request of the subscriber, and shall be renewable.

Public body; functions and duties; rules.] (2) A public body shall furnish a requesting person a reasonable opportunity for inspection and examination of its public records, and shall furnish reasonable facilities for making memoranda or abstracts from its public records during the usual business hours. A public body may make reasonable rules necessary to protect its public records and to prevent excessive and unreasonable interference with the discharge of its functions.

Same; same; exceptions.] (3) This act does not require a public body to make a compilation, summary, or report of information, except as required in section 11.

This act does not require a public body to create a new public record, except as required in sections 5 and 11, and to the extent required by this act for the furnishing of copies, or edited copies pursuant to section 14(1), of an already existing public record.

Public record; certified copy.] (5) The custodian of a public record shall, upon request, furnish a requesting person a certified copy of a public record. (MCL §15.233.)

Former act. Former §3.560(121) required an agency to publish and make available for public inspection and copying during its business hours, or on subscription on request of any person, final orders or decisions in contested cases and the records on which they were made, promulgated rules, and other written statements implementing or interpreting law, rules or policy, including, but not limited to, guidelines, manuals and forms with instructions, adopted or used by the agency in the discharge of its functions. To the extent required to prevent an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, the agency could delete identifying details when it published or made available a matter required to be published and made available for public inspection. The publications could be in pamphlet, loose-leaf or other appropriate form in printed, mimeographed, or other written manner.

§ 4.1801(4) Fees; actual costs; waiver or reduction of fee; affidavits, public assistance recipient, indigency.] SEC. 4. (1)

A public body may charge a fee for providing a copy of a public record. Subject to subsection (3), the fee shall be limited to actual mailing costs, and to the actual incremental cost of duplication or publication including labor, the cost of search, examination, review, and the deletion and separation of exempt from nonexempt information as provided in section 14. Copies of public records may be furnished without charge or at a reduced charge if the public body determines that a waiver or reduction of the fee is in the public interest because furnishing copies of the public record can be considered as primarily benefiting the general public. A copy of a public record shall be furnished without charge for the first $20.00 of the fee for each request, to an individual who submits an affidavit stating that the individual is then receiving public assistance or, if not receiving public assistance, stating facts showing inability to pay the cost because of indigency.

Deposits.] (2) At the time the request is made, a public body may request a good faith deposit from the person requesting the public record or series of public records, if the fee provided in subsection (1) exceeds $50.00. The deposit shall not exceed 1/2 of the total fee.

Calculation of costs; establishment and publication of procedures for implementation.] (3) In calculating the costs under subsection (1), a public body may not attribute more than the hourly wage of the lowest paid, full-time, permanent clerical employee of the employing public body to the cost of labor incurred in duplication and mailing and to the cost of examination, review, separation, and deletion. A public body shall utilize the most economical means available for providing copies of public records. A fee shall not be charged for the cost of search, examination, review, and the deletion and separation of exempt from nonexempt information as provided in section 14 unless failure to charge a fee would result in unreasonably high costs to the public body because of the nature of the request in the particular instance, and the public body specifically identifies the nature of these unreasonably high costs. A public body shall establish and publish procedures, and guidelines to implement this subsection.

Exceptions.] (4) This section does not apply to public records prepared under an act or statute specifically authorizing the sale of those public records to the public, or where the amount of the fee for providing a copy of the public record is otherwise specifically provided by an act or statute.

Joint committee review.] (5) Three years after the effective date of this act a bipartisan joint committee of 3 members of each house shall review the operation of this section and recommend appropriate changes. The members of the house of representatives shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The members of the senate shall be appointed by the majority leader of the senate. (MCL §15.234.)

Former act. The final sentence of former §3.560(121) stated that, except as otherwise provided by law, the agency might charge not more than cost for each copy of the publication.

§ 4.1801(5) Request to inspect or receive copy; oral or written.] SEC. 5. (1) A person desiring to inspect or receive a copy of a public record may make an oral or written request for the public record to the public body.

Response to request for disclosure; time limits; written notice of denial; extensions.] (2) When a public body receives a request for a public record it shall immediately, but not more than 5 business days after the day the request is received unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the person making the request, respond to the request by 1 of the following:

- (a) Grant the request.
- (b) Issue a written notice to the requesting person denying the request.

(c) Grant the request in part and issue a written notice to the requesting person denying the request in part.

(d) Under unusual circumstances, issue a notice extending for not more than 10 business days the period during which the public body shall respond to the request. A public body shall not issue more than 1 notice of extension for a particular request.

Failure to respond; denial of request; damages.] (3) Failure to respond to a request as provided in subsection (2) constitutes a final decision by the public body to deny the request. If a circuit court, upon an action commenced pursuant to section 10, finds that a public body has failed to respond as provided in subsection (2), and if the court orders the public body to disclose or provide copies of the public record or a portion thereof, then the circuit court shall assess damages against the public body as provided in section 10[(5)].

Notice of denial; contents.] (4) A written notice denying a request for a public record in whole or in part shall constitute a final determination by the public body to deny the request or portion thereof and shall contain:

(a) An explanation of the basis under this act or other statute for the determination that the public record, or the portion thereof, is exempt from disclosure, if that is the reason for denying the request or a portion thereof.

(b) A certificate that the public record does not exist under the name given by the requester or by another name reasonably known to the public body, if that is the reason for denying the request or a portion thereof.

(c) A description of a public record or information on a public record which is separated or deleted as provided in section 14, if a separation or deletion is made.

(d) A full explanation of the requesting person's right to seek judicial review under section 10. Notification of the right to judicial review shall include notification of the right to receive attorneys' fees and damages as provided in section 10.

Signature.] (5) The individual designated in section 6 as responsible for the denial of the request shall sign the written notice of denial.

Extension of response period; notice; contents; action to be taken.] (6) If a public body issues a notice extending the period for a response to the request, the notice shall set forth the reasons for the extension and the date by which the public body shall do 1 of the following:

- (a) Grant the request.
- (b) Issue a written notice to the requesting person denying the request.

(c) Grant the request in part and issue a written notice to the requesting person denying the request in part.

Denial; right to commence suit.] (7) If a public body makes a final determination to deny in whole or in part a request to inspect or receive a copy of a public record or portion thereof, the requesting person may commence an action in circuit court, as provided in section 10.

(MCL §15.235.)

History.
As amended by Pub Acts 1978, No. 329, imd eff July 11.

Analysis of New Notes.

- 11. Construction and effect.
- 20. Punitive damages.

11. Construction and effect.
Public body's failure to notify, in writing, party seeking disclosure of information that request has been denied constitutes violation of Freedom of Information Act. Bredemeier v. Kentwood Board of Education, 95 Mich App 767.

20. Punitive damages.

Prerequisites to award of punitive damages in action brought pursuant to Freedom of Information Act are court-ordered disclosure and finding that defendant acted arbitrarily and capriciously in refusing to provide requested information. Bredemeier v. Kentwood Board of Education, 95 Mich App 767.

§ 4.1801(6) Individuals responsible for approval of denial to disclose requested information.] SEC. 6. (1) For a public body which is a city, village, township, county, or state department, or under the control thereof, the chief administrative officer of that city, village, township, county, or state department, or an individual designated in writing by that chief administrative officer, shall be responsible for approving a denial under section 5(4) and (5). In a county not having an executive form of government, the chairperson of the county board of commissioners shall be considered the chief administrative officer for purposes of this subsection.

(2) For all other public bodies, the chief administrative officer of the respective public body, or an individual designated in writing by that chief administrative officer, shall be responsible for approving a denial under section 5(4) and (5). (MCL §15.236.)

§ 4.1801(10) Action to compel disclosure; order for production of material; jurisdiction; burden of proof; private viewing of disputed record by court; contempt.] SEC. 10. (1) If a public body makes a final determination to deny a request or a portion thereof, the requesting person may commence an action in the circuit court to compel disclosure of the public records. If the court determines that the public records are not exempt from disclosure, the court shall order the public body to cease withholding or to produce a public record or a portion thereof wrongfully withheld, regardless of the location of the public record. The circuit court for the county in which the complainant resides or has his principal place of business, or the circuit court for the county in which the public record or an office of the public body is located shall have jurisdiction to issue the order. The court shall determine the matter de novo and the burden is on the public body to sustain its denial. The court, on its own motion, may view the public record in controversy in private before reaching a decision. Failure to comply with an order of the court may be punished as contempt of court.

Commencement of action; confirmation of oral request in writing.] (2) An action under this section arising from the denial of an oral request may not be commenced unless the requesting person confirms the oral request in writing not less than 5 days before commencement of the action.

Expedition of actions.] (3) An action commenced pursuant to this section and appeals therefrom shall be assigned for hearing and trial or for argument at the earliest practicable date and expedited in every way.

Attorneys' fees; costs; disbursements.] (4) If a person asserting the right to inspect or to receive a copy of a public record or a portion thereof prevails in an action commenced pursuant to this section, the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements. If the person prevails in part, the court may in its discretion award reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements or an appropriate portion thereof. The award shall be assessed against the public body liable for damages under subsection [(5)].

Damages; actual, compensatory; punitive; assessment against public body.] (5) In an action commenced pursuant to this section, if the circuit court finds that the public body has arbitrarily and capriciously violated this act by refusal or delay in disclosing or providing copies of a public record, the court shall, in addition to any actual or compensatory damages, award punitive damages in the amount of $500.00 to the person seeking the right to inspect or receive a copy of a public record. The damages shall not be assessed against an individual, but shall be assessed against the next succeeding public body, not an individual, pursuant to whose public function the public record was kept or maintained.

History.
As amended by Pub Acts 1978, No. 329, imd eff July 11.

Analysis of New Notes.

- 12. Construction and effect.
- 15. Inspection by court.
- 16. Burden of proof.
- 17. Attorneys' fees and costs.
- 18. Damages.
- 20. Award.

12. Construction and effect.
Terms "arbitrarily" and "capriciously" would be given their generally accepted meaning in determining whether defendant violated provision of Freedom of Information Act providing for award of punitive damage upon finding that defendant public body has arbitrarily and capriciously violated Act by refusing or delaying in disclosing or providing copy of public record to person seeking inspection thereof. Williams v. Martinucci, 88 Mich App 198.

15. Inspection by court.
In order to reconcile policy of preserving an agency's policy-making processes with fundamental policy against secrecy of former statute, and to prevent unwarranted invasions of privacy, plaintiff corporate taxpayer's entitlement under public disclosure provisions of former Administrative Procedures Act to reports of hearing officers in hearings conducted on questions of liability for income tax assessments would be held to be subject to in-camera inspection of reports by circuit court for deletion of identifying details necessary to prevent unwarranted invasion of privacy, statements of hearing officers which reflected on revenue department's general policy discussions, and materials relating only indirectly to disposition of cases discussed in reports, with any reasonable doubt in categorizing materials being resolved in favor of disclosure. International Business Mach. Corp. v. Department of Treasury, 71 Mich App 526.

16. Burden of proof.
In action brought pursuant to Michigan Freedom of Information Act, government agency bears burden of establishing that denial of request for disclosure is statutorily supported. Penokie v. Michigan Technological University, 93 Mich App 650.

§ 4.1801(11) Publications to be disclosed by state agency.] SEC. 11. (1) A state agency shall publish and make available to the public all of the following:

- (a) Final orders or decisions in contested cases and the records on which they were made.
- (b) Promulgated rules.
- (c) Other written statements which implement or interpret laws, rules, or policy, including but not limited to guidelines, manuals, and forms with instructions, adopted or used by the agency in the discharge of its functions.

Same; form.] (2) Publications may be in pamphlet, looseleaf, or other appropriate form in printed, mimeographed, or other written matter.

Nonpublished material; effect; necessity for notice.] (3) Except to the extent that a person has actual and timely notice of the terms thereof, a person shall not in any manner be required to resort to, or be adversely affected by, a matter required to be published and made available, if the matter is not so published and made available.

Exemptions.] (4) This section does not apply to public records which are exempt from disclosure under section 13.

Compliance; commencement of suit; attorneys' fees, costs, disbursements; jurisdiction.] (5) A person may commence an action in the circuit court to compel a state agency to comply with this section. If the court determines that the state agency has failed to comply, the court shall order the state agency to comply and shall award reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements to the person commencing the action. The circuit court for the county in which the state agency is located shall have jurisdiction to issue the order.

State agency, contested case, rules; defined.] (6) As used in this section, "state agency", "contested case", and "rules" shall have the same meanings as ascribed to those terms in Act No. 306 of the Public Acts of 1969, as amended, being sections 24.201 to 24.315 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. (MCL §15.241.)

Former act. The initial paragraph of former §3.560(123) was substantially identical to paragraph (3) of this section.

The second paragraph of the aforesaid former section empowered the circuit court for the county wherein the agency records were situated to order, on petition of any person, the production of "any identifiable material improperly withheld from public inspection and copying."

Statutory reference. Act No. 306 of 1969, above referred to, is §§3.560(101)-3.560(215), supra.

§ 4.1801(13) Exemptions; withholding of information.] SEC. 13. (1) A public body may exempt from disclosure as a public record under this act:

(a) Information of a personal nature where the public disclosure of the information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of an individual's privacy.

(b) Investigating records compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that disclosure as a public record would do any of the following:

- (i) Interfere with law enforcement proceedings.
- (ii) Deprive a person of the right to a fair trial or impartial administrative adjudication.
- (iii) Constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(iv) Disclose the identity of a confidential source, or if the record is compiled by a criminal law enforcement agency in the course of a criminal investigation, disclose confidential information furnished only by a confidential source.

(v) Disclose law enforcement investigative techniques or procedures.

(vi) Endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel.

(c) A public record which if disclosed would prejudice a public body's ability to maintain the physical security of custodial or penal institutions occupied by persons arrested or convicted of a crime or admitted because of a mental disability, unless the public interest in disclosure under this act outweighs the public interest in nondisclosure.

(d) Records or information specifically described and exempted from disclosure by statute.

(e) Information the release of which would prevent the public body from complying with 20 USC section 1232g.

(f) A public record or information described in this section which is furnished by the public body originally compiling, preparing, or receiving the record or information to a public officer or public body in connection with the performance of the duties of that public officer or public body, if the considerations originally giving rise to the exempt nature of the public record remain applicable.

(g) Trade secrets or commercial or financial information voluntarily provided to an agency for use in developing governmental policy if:

(i) The information is submitted upon a promise of confidentiality by the public body.

(ii) The promise of confidentiality is authorized by the chief administrative officer of the public body or by an elected official at the time the promise is made.

(iii) A description of the information is recorded by the public body within a reasonable time after it has been submitted, maintained in a central place within the public body, and made available to a person upon request. This subdivision shall not apply to information submitted as required by law or as a condition of receiving a governmental contract, license, or other benefit.

(h) Information or records subject to the attorney-client privilege.

(i) Information or records subject to the physician-patient, psychologist-patient, minister, priest or Christian science practitioner, or other privilege recognized by statute or court rule.

(j) A bid or proposal by a person to enter into a contract or agreement, until the time for the public opening of bids or proposals, or if a public opening is not to be conducted, until the time for the receipt of bids or proposals has expired.

(k) Appraisals of real property to be acquired by the public body until (i) an agreement is entered into; or (ii) 3 years has elapsed since the making of the appraisal, unless litigation relative to the acquisition has not yet terminated.

(l) Test questions and answers, scoring keys, and other examination instruments or data used to administer a license, public employment, or academic examination, unless the public interest in disclosure under this act outweighs the public interest in nondisclosure.

(m) Medical, counseling, or psychological facts or evaluations concerning an individual if the individual's identity would be revealed by a disclosure of those facts or evaluation.

(n) Communications and notes within a public body or between public bodies of an advisory nature to the extent that they cover other than purely factual materials and are preliminary to a final agency determination of policy or action. This exemption shall not apply unless the public body shows that in the particular instance the public interest in encouraging frank communications between officials and employees of public bodies clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure. This exemption does not constitute an exemption under state law for purposes of section 8(h) of Act No. 267 of the Public Acts of 1976, being section 15.268 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. As used in this subdivision, "determination of policy or action" includes a determination relating to collective bargaining, unless the public record is otherwise required to be made available under Act No. 336 of the Public Acts of 1947, as amended, being sections 423.201 to 423.216 of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(o) Records of law enforcement communication codes, or plans for deployment of law enforcement personnel, which if disclosed would prejudice a public body's ability to protect the public safety unless the public interest in disclosure under this act outweighs the public interest in nondisclosure in the particular instance.

(p) Information which would reveal the exact location of archeological sites. The secretary of state may promulgate rules pursuant to Act No. 306 of the Public Acts of 1969, as amended, being sections 24.201 to 24.315 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, to provide for the disclosure of the location of archeological sites for purposes relating to the preservation or scientific examination of sites.

(q) Testing data developed by a public body in determining whether bidders' products meet the specifications for purchase of those products by the public body, if disclosure of the data would reveal that only 1 bidder has met the specifications. This subdivision shall not apply after 1 year has elapsed from the time the public body completes the testing.

(r) Academic transcripts of an institution of higher education established under sections 5, 6 or 7 of article 8 of the state constitution of 1963, where the record pertains to a student who is delinquent in the payment of financial obligations to the institution.

(s) Records of any campaign committee including any committee that receives monies from a state campaign fund.

(t) Unless the public interest in disclosure outweighs the public interest in nondisclosure in the particular instance, public records of a police or sheriff's agency or department, the release of which would do any of the following:

- (i) Identify or provide a means of identifying an informer.
- (ii) Identify or provide a means of identifying a law enforcement undercover officer or agent or a plain clothes officer as a law enforcement officer or agent.

(iii) Disclose the personal address or telephone number of law enforcement officers or agents or any special skills that they may have.

(iv) Disclose the name, address, or telephone numbers of family members, relatives, children, or parents of law enforcement officers or agents.

(v) Disclose operational instructions for law enforcement officers or agents.

(ix) Disclose personnel records of law enforcement agencies.

(x) Identify or provide a means of identifying residences which law enforcement agencies are requested to check in the absence of their owners or tenants.

(2) This  $\diamond$  [act shall] not authorize the withholding of information otherwise required by law to be made available to the public, or to a party in a contested case under Act No. 306 of the Public Acts of 1969, as amended.

Notes of Decisions

Construction and application 2 Eligibility 1

1. Eligibility

The offices of superintendent of the bureau of criminal apprehension, and chief supervisor of the state highway patrol are not incompatible and Governor may therefore appoint the same person to both offices, and having the power of both offices, but to draw only one salary. Op.Atty.Gen.1940, No. 287, p. 360.

Regarding the bombing of a union organizer's automobile, if a matter which the bureau of criminal apprehension had been requested to investigate required rendering of "police service in connection with strikes and other industrial disputes" the bureau would be prevented from rendering such service, but if no such dispute was involved, bureau could make investigation. Op.Atty.Gen., 985, June 24, 1952.

Under this section, if superintendent of bureau of criminal apprehension determined that items of expense of money paid into a mechanical device to secure evidence of gambling, cost of renting rooms for surveillance purposes, and money paid to person not a state employee were essential to apprehension and conviction of alleged criminals reimbursement therefor could be made to officer or employee subject to limitation that total expense of Bureau during any year not exceed appropriation therefor. Op.Atty.Gen., 985-G, March 22, 1950.

2. Construction and application

State highway patrol is only state agency whose members are specifically authorized to make arrests for traffic violations, however superintendent of bureau of criminal apprehension may, in reasonable exercise of sound discretion, require members of that agency to devote a reasonable portion of time to apprehension and arrest of violators of traffic laws. Op.Atty.Gen., 980-A-24, Oct. 3, 1953.

MINNESOTA

Members of the bureau of criminal apprehension do not have the power to make a search, but only the power to make an arrest, and therefore the members of the bureau should not execute a search warrant. Op. Atty. Gen., 985, Oct. 13, 1949.

Members of the bureau of criminal apprehension may accompany the sheriff when he makes a search. Id.

Bureau of criminal apprehension may not render service in connection with strikes or other industrial disputes. Op. Atty. Gen. 985, 270-D-9, May 14, 1948.

similar agencies, political subdivisions or statewide systems on a temporary basis until a proposed statute can be acted upon by the legislature. The application for temporary classification is public.

Upon the filing of an application for temporary classification, the data which is the subject of the application shall be deemed to be classified as set forth in the application for a period of 45 days, or until the application is disapproved or granted by the commissioner, whichever is earlier.

Subd. 2. Contents of application for private or confidential data. An application for temporary classification of data on individuals shall include and the applicant shall have the burden of clearly establishing that no statute currently exists which either allows or forbids classification as private or confidential; and either

(a) That data similar to that for which the temporary classification is sought has been treated as either private or confidential by other state agencies or political subdivisions, and by the public; or

(b) That a compelling need exists for immediate temporary classification, which if not granted could adversely affect the public interest or the health, safety, well being or reputation of the data subject.

Subd. 3. Contents of application for nonpublic or nonpublic protected data. An application for temporary classification of government data not on individuals shall include and the applicant shall have the burden of clearly establishing that no statute currently exists which either allows or forbids classification as nonpublic or protected nonpublic; and either

(a) That data similar to that for which the temporary classification is sought has been treated as nonpublic or protected nonpublic by other state agencies or political subdivisions, and by the public; or

(b) Public access to the data would render unworkable a program authorized by law; or

(c) That a compelling need exists for immediate temporary classification, which if not granted could adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of the public.

Subd. 4. Procedure when classification affects others. If the commissioner determines that an application for temporary classification involves data which would reasonably be classified in the same manner by all agencies, political subdivisions, or statewide systems similar to the one which made the application, the commissioner may approve or disapprove the classification for data of the kind which is the subject of the application for the use of all agencies, political subdivisions, or statewide systems similar to the applicant. If the commissioner deems this approach advisable, he shall provide notice of his intention by publication in the state register and by notification to the intergovernmental information systems advisory council, within ten days of receiving the application. Within 30 days after publication in the state register and notification to the council, an affected agency, political subdivision, the public, or statewide system may submit comments on the commissioner's proposal. The commissioner shall consider any comments received when granting or denying a classification for data of the kind which is the subject of the application, for the use of all agencies, political subdivisions, or statewide systems similar to the applicant. Within 45 days after the close of the period for submitting comment, the commissioner shall grant or disapprove the application. Applications processed under this subdivision shall be either approved or disapproved by the commissioner within 90 days of the receipt of the application. For purposes of subdivision 1, the data which is the subject of the classification shall be deemed to be classified as set forth in the application for a period of 90 days, or until the application is disapproved or granted by the commissioner, whichever is earlier. If requested in the application, or determined to be necessary by the commissioner, the data in the application shall be so classified for all agencies, political subdivisions, or statewide systems similar to the applicant until the application is disapproved or granted by the commissioner, whichever is earlier. Proceedings after the grant or disapproval shall be governed by the provisions of subdivision 5.

Subd. 5. Determination. The commissioner shall either grant or disapprove the application for temporary classification within 45 days after it is filed. If the commissioner disapproves the application, he shall set forth in detail his reasons for the disapproval, and shall include a statement of what classification he believes is appropriate for the data which is the subject of the application. Twenty days after the date of the commissioner's disapproval of an application, the data which is the subject of the application shall become public data, unless the responsible authority submits an amended application for temporary classification which requests the classification deemed appropriate by the commissioner in his statement of disapproval or which sets forth additional information relating to the original proposed classification. Upon the filing of an amended application, the data which is the subject of the amended application shall be deemed to be classified as set forth in the amended application for a period of 20 days or until the amended application is granted or disapproved by the commissioner, whichever is earlier. The commissioner shall either grant or disapprove the amended application within 20 days after it is filed. Five working days after the date of the commissioner's disapproval of the amended application, the data which is the subject of the application shall become public data. No more than one amended application may be submitted for any single file or system.

If the commissioner grants an application for temporary classification, it shall become effective immediately, and the complete record relating to the application shall be submitted to the attorney general, who shall review the classification as to form and legality. Within 25 days, the attorney general shall approve the classification, disapprove a classification as confidential but approve a classification as private, or disapprove the classification. If the attorney general disapproves a classification, the data which is the subject of the classification shall become public data five working days after the date of the attorney general's disapproval.

Subd. 6. Expiration of temporary classification. Emergency classifications granted before July 1, 1979 are redesignated as temporary classifications. All temporary classifications granted under this section prior to April 24, 1980 and still in effect, and all temporary classifications thereafter applied for and granted pursuant to this section shall expire on July 31, 1981 or 24 months after the classification is granted, whichever occurs later.

or to the person bringing the action. In making the determination as to whether investigative data shall be disclosed, the court shall consider whether the benefit to the person bringing the action or to the public outweighs any harm to the public, to the agency or to any person identified in the data. The data in dispute shall be examined by the court in camera.

Subd. 6. Access to data for crime victims. The prosecuting authority shall release investigative data collected by a law enforcement agency to the victim of a criminal act or his legal representative upon written request unless the prosecuting authority reasonably believes:

- (a) That the release of that data will interfere with the investigation; or
- (b) That the request is prompted by a desire on the part of the requestor to engage in unlawful activities.

Subd. 7. Withholding public data. A law enforcement agency may temporarily withhold response or incident data from public access if the agency reasonably believes that public access would be likely to endanger the physical safety of an individual or cause a perpetrator to flee, evade detection or destroy evidence. In such instances, the agency shall, upon the request of any person, provide a statement which explains the necessity for its action. Any person may apply to a district court for an order requiring the agency to release the data being withheld. If the court determines that the agency's action is not reasonable, it shall order the release of the data and may award costs and attorney's fees to the person who sought the order. The data in dispute shall be examined by the court in camera.

Subd. 8. Public benefit data. Any law enforcement agency may make any data classified as confidential pursuant to subdivision 5 accessible to any person, agency or the public if the agency determines that the access will aid the law enforcement process, promote public safety or dispel widespread rumor or unrest.

Subd. 9. Public access. When data is classified as public under this section, a law enforcement agency shall not be required to make the actual physical data available to the public if it is not administratively feasible to segregate the public data from the confidential. However, the agency must make the information described as public data available to the public in a reasonable manner. When investigative data becomes inactive, as described in subdivision 5, the actual physical data associated with that investigation, including the public data, shall be available for public access.

Subd. 10. Protection of identities. A law enforcement agency may withhold public access to data on individuals to protect the identity of individuals in the following circumstances:

- (a) When access to the data would reveal the identity of an undercover law enforcement officer;
- (b) When access to the data would reveal the identity of a victim of criminal sexual conduct or intrafamilial sexual abuse or of a violation of section 617.246, subdivision 2;
- (c) When access to the data would reveal the identity of a paid or unpaid informant being used by the agency if the agency reasonably determines that revealing the identity of the informant would threaten the personal safety of the informant; or
- (d) When access to the data would reveal the identity of a victim of or witness to a crime if the victim or witness specifically requests that his identity not be revealed, and the agency reasonably determines that revealing the identity of the victim or witness would threaten the personal safety or property of the individual.

152.18 Discharge and dismissal

Subdivision 1. If any person is found guilty of a violation of section 152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2) after trial or upon a plea of guilty, the court may, without entering a judgment of guilty and with the consent of such person, defer further proceedings and place him on probation upon such reasonable conditions as it may require and for a period, not to exceed the maximum term of imprisonment provided for such violation. The court may give the person the opportunity to attend and participate in an appropriate program of education regarding the nature and effects of alcohol and drug abuse as a stipulation of probation. Upon violation of a condition of the probation, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. The court may, in its discretion, dismiss the proceedings against such person and discharge him from probation before the expiration of the maximum period prescribed for such person's probation. If during the period of his probation such person does not violate any of the conditions of the probation, then upon expiration of such period the court shall discharge such person and dismiss the proceedings against him. Discharge and dismissal hereunder shall be without court adjudication of guilt, but a nonpublic record thereof shall be retained by the department of public safety solely for the purpose of use by the courts in determining the merits of subsequent proceedings against such person. The court shall forward a record of any discharge and dismissal hereunder to the department of public safety who shall make and maintain the nonpublic record thereof as hereinbefore provided. If the court determines, after hearing, that such person was discharged and the proceedings against him dismissed, it shall enter such order. The effect of the order shall be to restore the person, in the contemplation of the law, to the status he occupied before such arrest or indictment or information. No person as to whom such an order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failure to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or trial in response to any inquiry made for him for any purpose.

Subd. 3. Any person who has been found guilty of a violation of section 152.09 with respect to a small amount of marijuana which violation occurred prior to April 11, 1978, and whose conviction would have been a petty misdemeanor under the provisions of section 152.15, subdivision 2, clause (3) in effect on April 11, 1978, but whose conviction was for an offense more serious than a petty misdemeanor under laws in effect prior to April 11, 1978, may petition the court in which he was convicted to expunge from all official records, other than the nonpublic record retained by the department of public safety pursuant to section 152.15, subdivision 2, clause (3), all recordation relating to his arrest, indictment or information, trial and conviction of an offense more serious than a petty misdemeanor. The court, upon being satisfied that a small amount was involved in the conviction, shall order all the recordation expunged. No person as to whom an order has been entered pursuant to this subdivision shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failure to recite or acknowledge conviction of an offense greater than a petty misdemeanor, unless possession of marijuana is material to a proceeding.

"Whenever a person committed to the board upon conviction of a crime is discharged from its control other than by expiration of the maximum term of commitment as provided in this chapter, or by termination of its control under the provisions of section 242.27, such discharge shall, when so ordered by the board, restore such person to all civil rights and shall have the effect of setting aside the conviction and nullifying the same and of purging such person thereof. The board shall file a copy of the order with the district court of the county in which the conviction occurred, whereupon the court shall order the conviction set aside."

"Whenever a person has been placed on probation by the court pursuant to section 242.13 and, after satisfactory fulfillment thereof, is discharged therefrom, the court, on application of the defendant or on its own motion and after notice to the county attorney, in its discretion may likewise so order.

"Such orders restore the defendant to his civil rights and purge and free him from all penalties and disabilities arising from such conviction and it shall not thereafter be used against him, except in a criminal prosecution for a subsequent offense if otherwise admissible therein."

A. Act means Minn. Stat. §§ ~~46-163~~ 15.161 through ~~46-167~~ 15.1699, as amended, commonly referred to as the "Data Privacy Act" or the Minnesota Fair Information Practices Act, officially entitled the "Minnesota Government Data Practices Act".

D. B. Data means "data on individuals" as defined in § 15.162, subd. 3 of the Act, unless stated otherwise.

1. Data can be maintained in any form, including, but not limited to, paper records and files, microfilm, computer medium, or other processes.

2. The duration of the existence of data, including whether certain data is temporary rather than permanent, is not relevant to compliance with these rules.

3. All data, in whatever form it is maintained, is "data on individuals" if it can in any way identify any particular individual.

Code numbers representing unique individuals in certain data constitute "data on individuals" provided a list or index of any type is made available by which the code number can be crossreferenced to identify unique individuals. Such data may qualify for treatment as summary data, pursuant to 2 MCAR § 1.209.

4. Code numbers, which are used to represent particular individuals, constitute "data on individuals" if a list or index of any type is available by which the code number can be cross referenced to a name or other unique personal identifier so that any individual's identity is revealed. Code numbers, lists of code numbers or data associated with code numbers may qualify for treatment as summary data, pursuant to 2 MCAR § 1.209.

a. Code number means the labeling or enumeration of data by use of a letter, number, or combination thereof, which is used in place of an individual's name, including but not limited to index numbers, dummy numbers, SOUNDEx codes, and social security numbers.

The purposes of this chapter are (a) to control and coordinate criminal offender recordkeeping within this state; (b) to assure periodic reporting to the governor and legislature concerning such recordkeeping; and (c) to establish a more effective administrative structure for the protection of individual privacy in connection with such recordkeeping.

or other persons in charge of correctional institutions in this state to furnish the center with any other data deemed necessary by the center to carry out its responsibilities under this chapter.

(2) All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies shall obtain, or cause to be obtained, fingerprints according to the fingerprint system of identification established by the director of the federal bureau of investigation, full face and profile photographs (if equipment is available) and other available identifying data, of each person arrested or taken into custody for an offense of a type designated in subsection (1) of this section, of all persons arrested or taken into custody as fugitives from justice and of all unidentified human corpses in their jurisdictions, but photographs need not be taken if it is known that photographs of the type listed, taken within the previous year, are on file. Any record taken in connection with any person arrested or taken into custody and subsequently released without charge or cleared of the offense through court proceedings shall be purged from the files of the center and destroyed. All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies shall submit to the center detailed descriptions of arrests or takings into custody which result in release without charge or subsequent exoneration from criminal liability within twenty-four (24) hours of such release or exoneration.

(3) Fingerprints and other identifying data required to be taken under subsection (2) shall be forwarded within twenty-four (24) hours after taking for filing and classification, but the period of twenty-four (24) hours may be extended to cover any intervening holiday or weekend. Photographs taken shall be forwarded at the discretion of the agency concerned, but, if not forwarded, the fingerprint record shall be marked "Photo Available" and the photographs shall be forwarded subsequently if the center so requests.

(4) All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies shall submit to the center detailed descriptions of arrest warrants and related identifying data immediately upon determination of the fact that the warrant cannot be served for the reasons stated. Also, the agency concerned must annually, no later than January 31 of each year and at other times if requested by the center, confirm all such arrest warrants which continue to be outstanding. The center shall purge and destroy files of all data relating to an offense when an individual is subsequently exonerated from criminal liability of that offense.

(5) All persons in charge of state correctional institutions shall obtain fingerprints, according to the fingerprint system of identification established by the director of the federal bureau of investigation or as otherwise directed by the center, and full face and profile photographs of all persons received on commitment to such institutions. The prints so taken shall be forwarded to the center, together with any other identifying data requested, within ten (10) days after the arrival at the institution of the person committed. At the time of release, the institution will again obtain fingerprints, as before, and forward them to the center within ten (10) days, along with any other related information requested by the center. The institution shall notify the center immediately upon the release of such person.

(6) All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies, all court clerks, all municipal justices where they have no clerks, all justice court judges and all persons in charge of state and county probation and parole offices, shall supply the center with the information described in subsections (4) and (10) of this section on the basis of the forms and instructions to be supplied by the center.

(7) All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies in this state shall furnish the center with any other identifying data required in accordance with guidelines established by the center. All law enforcement agencies and correctional institutions in this state having criminal identification files shall cooperate in providing the center with copies of such items in such files which will aid in establishing the nucleus of the state criminal identification file.

(8) All law enforcement agencies within the state shall report to the center, in a manner prescribed by the center, all persons wanted by and all vehicles and identifiable property stolen from their jurisdictions. The report shall be made as soon as is practical after the investigating department or agency either ascertains that a vehicle or identifiable property has been stolen or obtains a warrant for an individual's arrest or determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the individual has committed a crime. In no event shall this time exceed twelve (12) hours after the reporting department or agency determines that it has grounds to believe that a vehicle or property was stolen or that the wanted person should be arrested.

(9) All law enforcement agencies in the state shall immediately notify the center if at any time after making a report as required by subsection (8) of this section it is determined by the reporting department or agency that a person is no longer wanted or that a vehicle or property stolen has been recovered. Furthermore, if the agency making such apprehension or recovery is not the one which made the original report, then it shall immediately notify the originating agency of the full particulars relating to such apprehension or recovery.

(10) All law enforcement agencies in the state and clerks of the various courts shall promptly report to the center all instances where records of convictions of criminals are ordered expunged by courts of this state as now provided by law. The center shall promptly expunge from the files of the center and destroy all records pertaining to any convictions that are ordered expunged by the courts of this state as provided by law.

§ 45-27-11. Inspection of criminal offender records; correction of errors in records.

The center shall make a person's criminal records available for inspection by him or his attorney upon written application. Should such person or his attorney contest the accuracy of any portion of such records, the center shall make available to such person or his attorney a copy of the contested record upon written application identifying the portion of the record contested and showing the reason for the contest of accuracy. Forms, procedures, identification and other related aspects pertinent to such access may be prescribed by the center in making access available.

If an individual believes such information to be inaccurate or incomplete, he may request the original agency having custody or control of the records to purge, modify or supplement them and to so notify the center of such changes. Should the agency decline to so act or should the individual believe the agency's decision to be otherwise unsatisfactory, the individual or his attorney may within thirty (30) days of such decision enter an appeal to the county or circuit court of the county of his residence or to such court in the county where such agency exists. The court in each such case shall conduct a de novo hearing and may order such relief as it finds to be required by law. Such appeals shall be entered in the same manner as other appeals are entered.

Should the record in question be found to be inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the court shall order it to be appropriately expunged, modified or supplemented by an explanatory notation. Each agency or individual in the state with custody, possession or control of any such record shall promptly cause each and every copy thereof in his custody, possession or control to be altered in accordance with the court's order. Notification of each such deletion, amendment and supplementary notation shall be promptly disseminated to any individuals or agencies to which the records in question have been communicated as well as to the individual whose records have been ordered so altered.

Agencies, including the center, at which criminal offender records are sought to be inspected may prescribe reasonable hours and places of inspection and may impose such additional procedures, fees or restrictions, including fingerprinting, as are reasonably necessary both to assure the record's security, to verify the identities of those who seek to inspect them and to maintain an orderly and efficient mechanism for such access.

195.290. Records, how expunged, exception

After a period of not less than six months from the time that an offender was placed on probation by a court, such person, who at the time of the offense was twenty-one years of age or younger, may apply to the court which sentenced him for an order to expunge from all official records, except from those records maintained under the comprehensive drug abuse prevention and control act, as enacted in 1970, and all recordations of his arrest, trial and conviction. If the court determines, after a hearing and after reference to the controlled dangerous substances registry, that such person during the period of such probation and during the period of time prior to his application to the court under this section has not been guilty of any offenses, or repeated violation of the conditions of such probation, he shall enter such order. The effect of such order shall be to restore such person, in the contemplation of the law, to the status he occupied prior to such arrest and conviction. No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest or trial or conviction in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose.

ARREST RECORDS

610.100. Arrest records, closed, when—expunged, when.—If any person is arrested and not charged with an offense against the law within thirty days of his arrest, official records of the arrest and of any detention or confinement incident thereto shall thereafter be closed records except as provided in section 610.120.

610.105. Effect of nolle pros—dismissal—sentence suspended on record.—If the person arrested is charged but the case is subsequently nolle prossed, dismissed, or the accused is found not guilty or imposition of sentence is suspended in the court in which the action is prosecuted, official records pertaining to the case shall thereafter be closed records when such case is finally terminated except as provided in section 610.120.

610.106. Suspended sentence prior to September 28, 1981, procedure to close records.—Any person as to whom imposition of sentence was suspended prior to September 28, 1981, may make a motion to the court in which the action was prosecuted after his discharge from the court's jurisdiction for closure of official records pertaining to the case. If the prosecuting authority opposes the motion, an informal hearing shall be held in which technical rules of evidence shall not apply. Having regard to the nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and character of the defendant and upon a finding that the ends of justice are so served, the court may order official records pertaining to the case to be closed, except as provided in section 610.120.

610.110. Failure to recite closed record excepted—exceptions.—No person as to whom such records have become closed records shall thereafter, under any provision of law, be held to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failure to recite or acknowledge such arrest or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose, except as provided in section 491.050, RSMo, and section 610.120.

610.115. Penalty.—A person who knowingly violates any provision of sections 610.100, 610.105, 610.106, or 610.120 is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

610.120. Records to be confidential—accessible to whom, purposes

Records required to be closed shall not be destroyed; they shall be inaccessible to the general public and to all persons other than the defendant except as provided in this section. They shall be available only to courts, administrative agencies, and law enforcement agencies for purposes of prosecution, litigation, sentencing, and parole consideration. All records which are closed records shall be removed from the records of the courts, administrative agencies, and law enforcement agencies which are available to the public and shall be kept in separate records which are to be held confidential and, where possible, pages of the public record shall be retyped or rewritten omitting those portions of the record which deal with the defendant's case. If retyping or rewriting is not feasible because of the permanent nature of the record books, such record entries shall be blacked out and recopied in a confidential book.

- (ii) court records.

(5) (a) "Criminal intelligence information" means information associated with an identifiable individual, group, organization, or event compiled by a criminal justice agency:

MONTANA

(5) A criminal justice agency described in subsection (1)(a) may photograph and fingerprint an accused if he has been arrested for the commission of a misdemeanor, except that an individual arrested for a traffic, regulatory, or fish and game offense may not be photographed or fingerprinted unless he is incarcerated.

(6) Within 10 days the originating agency shall send the state repository a copy of each fingerprint taken on a completed form provided by the state repository.

(7) The state repository shall compare the fingerprints received with those already on file in the state repository. If it is determined that the individual is wanted or is a fugitive from justice, the state repository shall at once inform the originating agency. If it is determined that the individual has a criminal record, the state repository shall send the originating agency a copy of the individual's complete criminal history record.

(8) Photographs and fingerprints taken shall be returned by the state repository to the originating agency, which shall return all copies to the individual from whom they were taken:

- (a) if a court so orders; or
- (b) upon the request of the individual:
  - (i) if no charges were filed;
  - (ii) if a misdemeanor charge did not result in a conviction; or
  - (iii) if the individual was found innocent of the offense charged.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 525, L. 1979.

44-5-203 through 44-5-210 reserved.

44-5-211. Records — form, contents, limits on use. A criminal justice agency originating initial offense reports, initial arrest records, bail records, or daily jail occupancy rosters may maintain a chronological or numerical record of these items. These records may not contain any prior criminal history record information and may not be used to gain access to any other public criminal justice information.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 525, L. 1979.

44-5-212. Record preservation. Unless required by federal law, expunging, purging, or destroying of criminal justice information is not required based on the length of time such records are held.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 525, L. 1979.

44-5-213. Procedures to ensure accuracy of criminal history records. In order to ensure complete and accurate criminal history record information:

- (1) the department of justice shall maintain a centralized state repository of criminal history record information to serve all criminal justice agencies in the state;
- (2) dispositions resulting from formal proceedings in a court having jurisdiction in a criminal action against an individual who has been photographed and fingerprinted under 44-5-202 shall be reported to the originating agency and the state repository within 15 days. If the dispositions can readily be collected and reported through the court system, the dispositions may be submitted to the state repository by the administrative office of the courts.

MONTANA

(3) an originating agency shall advise the state repository within 30 days of all dispositions concerning the termination of criminal proceedings against an individual who has been photographed and fingerprinted under 44-5-202;

(4) the department of institutions shall advise the state repository within 30 days of all dispositions subsequent to conviction of an individual who has been photographed and fingerprinted under 44-5-202;

(5) each criminal justice agency shall query the state repository prior to dissemination of any criminal history record information to ensure the timeliness of the information. When no final disposition is shown by the state repository records, the state repository shall query the source of the document or other appropriate source for current status. Inquiries shall be made prior to any dissemination except in those cases in which time is of the essence and the repository is technically incapable of responding within the necessary time period. If time is of the essence, the inquiry shall still be made and the response shall be forwarded as soon as it is received.

(6) each criminal justice agency shall ensure that all its criminal justice information is complete, accurate, and current; and

(7) the department of justice shall adopt rules for criminal justice agencies other than those that are part of the judicial branch of government to implement this section. The department of justice may adopt rules for the same purpose for the judicial branch of government if the supreme court consents to the rules.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 525, L. 1979.

Compiler's Comments

Statement of Intent. The statement of intent attached to SB 271 (Ch. 525, L. 1979) provided in part:

"Section 9(7) requires the department of justice to adopt rules to implement that section, entitled 'Procedures To Ensure Accuracy Of Criminal History Records.' The section provides that the department of justice is required to maintain a centralized state repository of criminal history record information; that criminal justice agencies are required to report dispositions of criminal cases to that state repository; that, where time allows, criminal justice agencies are required to check their records against the state repository's to assure their completeness before disseminating them; and that criminal justice agencies are responsible for the completeness and accuracy of their own files. The intent of the legislature in granting rulemaking authority with respect to this provision is to require the state repository to establish uniform procedures for the reporting of dispositions to it. These rules should include clear-cut directives regarding the format and nature of the information to be reported. For example, the rules could require the use of standard forms for reporting. Or, these rules could provide for a unique tracking number to facilitate the linking of dispositions to specific arrests."

44-5-214. Inspection or transfer of criminal history records. (1) An individual or his agent may inspect any criminal history record information maintained about the individual or transfer copies of that information to any other person upon the presentation of satisfactory identification to the criminal justice agency maintaining the criminal history record information. Fingerprints may be required for identification. An agent must also submit a notarized authorization from his principal or an authorization order from a district court.

(2) If an individual's criminal history record information is maintained in the state repository, copies of the records shall be transferred to the local agency for inspection upon proper request of the individual or his agent. A local agency shall honor a verified affidavit accompanying a request by an individual for a transfer of copies of criminal history record information concerning that individual to a criminal justice agency of another state for the purpose of complying with this chapter.

(3) (a) An individual may request inspection or transfer of copies, or both, of criminal history record information only during normal working hours.

COLONEL PAUL A. DOYON DIRECTOR

NEW HAMPSHIRE
State of New Hampshire

DEPARTMENT OF SAFETY
DIVISION OF STATE POLICE
HEADQUARTERS CONCORD, N.H. 03301

S O P

EXPIRATION DATE	NUMBER
SUBJECT
NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE POLICE BUREAU OF CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION

SOP State Police, Bureau of Criminal Identification

I. PURPOSE: The purpose of this SOP is to establish operating instructions for the Department of Safety, Division of State Police, State Bureau of Criminal Identification (hereinafter referred to as the BCI), which operates under the supervision of the Supervisor, Records and Reports Unit.

II. SCOPE: This SOP establishes the administrative and unique central repository requirements of the BCI.

1. Physical Security

A. The criminal history record information manual files are housed in the Bureau of Criminal Identification at the Department of Safety, Division of State Police. As such, they are under constant police supervision and control 24 hours a day. The records section is staffed during the day by the personnel actually working on the records. At night, at other times when the bureau is not staffed, the coded records, in locked filing cabinets, are monitored by Communications personnel in the next room.

B. The physically secure building housing the Department of Safety and the Department of Public Works and Highways is surrounded by perimeter lighting at night and manned at all times by a uniformed officer, utilizing television cameras and identification logs. The building itself is constructed with protective, non-combustible material, and is in compliance with both the Life Safety Code and the National Building Code. The actual location in the interior of the building precludes damage from acts of nature. A new office building being constructed for the Department of Safety with occupancy scheduled for January 1977, will provide security in excess of that enumerated above.

C. Access to our manual files are limited to personnel of the records section.

D. There are no back-up files.

2. Personnel Selection

A. The BCI is staffed by both uniformed and civilian members of the State Police. The over all responsibility for the administration of this operation falls to the Supervisor of the Records and Reports Unit - a uniformed officer. He is, in turn, responsible to the Commander of the Detective Bureau.

B. Civilian personnel who work with criminal records are employees of the State Police. These classified employees are hired by the Division after passing entrance examinations conducted by the Department of Personnel and after successful completion of an extensive background check designed to assess prior work habits, honesty, and suitability for this sensitive position. In actual practice, most employees in this section are prior employees of the Department of Safety who have transferred to the Division of State Police.

C. After hiring, personnel are further cautioned as to the critical nature of their functions and as to the sanctions applied for malfeasance, in addition to procedures for dismissal promulgated by the Department of Personnel. During the initial days of their employment, probationary clerks are closely monitored by the uniformed supervisor and a senior clerk. Throughout the remainder of their probation period (6 months), they are closely checked by the senior clerk.

D. All employees are required to sign a memorandum from the Director concerning the security and privacy of criminal history record information. This memorandum advises them of their responsibilities and requires compliance of the regulations designed to prevent intentional violations of this data. A copy of this memorandum is attached.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

3. Limits on Dissemination

A. The BCI recognizes three classes of criminal history record information;

1. All data available at the Central repository including, but not limited to, raw arrest data, data containing not guilty and not processed findings, incomplete data, data regarding dispositions (supported or unsupported by arrest date), data regarding juvenile arrests and/or dispositions, and acknowledgement that a criminal record does not exist.

2. All of #1 above with the exception of juvenile data.

3. Data containing documented arrests with guilty dispositions, and data containing guilty dispositions only, as well as the acknowledgement that a record does not exist.

B. Dissemination of the above classes of data are limited to the following:

1. Police departments - class 2

2. Other criminal justice agencies - class 3

3. Non-criminal justice agencies with statutory requirements or an executive order allowing access - class 3.

4. Agencies approved by the Director, Division of State Police, under his statutory authority - class 3.

5. Individuals and agencies pursuant of a specific agreement with the State Police to provide services required for the administration of criminal justice pursuant to that agreement. The agreement specifically authorizes access to data, limits the use of data to purposes for which given, insures the security and confidentiality of the data consistent with these regulations and provides sanctions for violation thereof - class 1.

6. Individuals and agencies whether authorized by court order or court rule - class 1.

7. Individuals and agencies for the express purpose of research, evaluative, or statistical activities pursuant to an agreement with the SAC, said agreement similar to agreement under B5 above and conforming to section 524(a) of the act - class 1.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

8. Any person, agency, or institution approved for dissemination by the Director under his statutory authority who has written authorization from the person whose record they are interested in obtaining - class 2.

9. Any individual may obtain his own record upon satisfactory identification - class 1.

C. Dissemination

1. Dissemination of criminal history record information to criminal justice agencies will require that the agencies have a certification form of file at the BCI. This certificate form will have to be on file before information can be given out. Once a form is on file, no further certification form will be required for these criminal justice agencies.

2. Non-criminal justice agencies approved for dissemination by the Director under his statutory authority, or those authorized by statute, will be required to complete a certification on a yearly basis.

3. Individuals, after executing a Right to Access form, will be allowed to view their record and receive a copy of that portion they desire to challenge. Completed access forms will be kept on file at the BCI.

a. When a copy is given to an individual, it will include the notation, "For review and challenge only and any other use thereof will be in violation of 42 USC, page 3771," or a similar warning.

4. Dissemination logs will be maintained on all copies of records given to qualified recipients. These logs will be kept in the individual jacket along with the individual master rap sheet.

5. All copies of records given out above, will include the notation to the effect that the information is given for a specified use only and that sanctions will be applied for misuse.

D. In order to insure that under no conditions will an annulled or expunrecord be disseminated, all such information will be destroyed by the Supervisor of the records and upon receipt of a court order to do same. In addition, all court orders sealed records will be carried out by the Supervisor.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

4. Audit and Quality Control

A. In order to insure the accuracy of the criminal history record information at the BCI, the following source documents will be the only ones utilized as a vehicle to post information to an individual's rap sheet. ( Specific clerical instructions will be promulgated by the Supervisor)

1. All notations of an arrest must be documented by a fingerprint card submitted by the arresting agency. These fingerprint cards must be classified or verified before entering the data onto the record. Fingerprint cards to support every arrest after the effective date of this SOP will be kept on file at the BCI. Only arrest records of misdemeanors and felonies of a criminal nature will be posted to an individual's criminal record.

2. All notations as to the disposition of an arrest must be supported by a court abstract. These abstracts will be cross matched, to the maximum extent feasible, to a corresponding arrest. All dispositions ( guilty, not guilty, not proessed, continued for sentence) will be entered. The Supervisor of the Records and Reports Unit will maintain an active list of those offenses not allowed on a rap sheet (e.g. intoxication, vagrancy, motor vehicle violations, Fish & Game violations, etc). All abstracts entered on a rap sheet will be maintained in the individual's jacket.

3. Strict adherence to the above requirements for posting and filing will insure the reliability of the audit trail.

B. The completeness of the criminal history record information will be insured by limiting the dissemination of arrests for which there is no disposition (class 1 and 2) to police agencies only. Arrests which show no disposition after 30 days will require a query to the police department or the corresponding court, if it appears that a disposition will be forthcoming, prior to the dissemination of this information.

5. Annual Audits

A. The BCI will undergo a yearly audit by the Security and Privacy Committee in order to insure compliance with this SOP and the New Hampshire State Security and Privacy Plan. All resources and files of the BCI will be open to the Security and Privacy Committee at this time.

B. The Supervisor of the Records and Reports Unit or his designated representative will conduct annual audits of a representative sample of local and county law enforcement agencies. Departments to be reviewed will be selected by the Security and Privacy Staff of the SAC. Areas of consideration for this annual audit will be those suggested by the S and P staff.

6. Certification with the BCI

A. Every agency or individual who maintains or receives criminal history record information will certify with the BCI that the information is secure and dissemination is limited to a need to know basis.

B. These certifications will be kept on permanent file at the BCI. If another CJA is in doubt as to the certification of an agency or individual, they may query the BCI for certification status.

C. Violations of security and privacy of criminal history record information will result in immediate removal from the certification list of agencies or individuals pending review of the Director.

7. Individual Review and Appeal

A. Upon the receipt of a Right to Access form, the Supervisor will verify the identity of the requester and allow him to view the rap sheet. A copy of challenged entries will be provided with the proper notations.

B. When the individual challenges an entry, the determination of whether or not to change the entry will be made by the Supervisor with the advice and consent of the Director.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

C. Appeals from the BCI decision will be directed to the Security and Privacy Appeal Body.

D. Appeals from the decision of other criminal justice agencies will be given to the BCI who will investigate the complaint and forward a report to the Appeal Body.

Notes of Decisions

Construction and application 1
Date of conviction or disposition 2
Statutes and offenses 3

1. Construction and application

Under the expungement chapter, a petitioner may not qualify for expungement if he has been convicted of any prior or subsequent crime or has been adjudged a disorderly person or petty disorderly person on more than two occasions and, therefore, the court cannot know whether the statutory qualifications for expungement are satisfied unless every crime and offense, whether resulting in acquittal or conviction, is revealed in the petition. State v. DeMarco, 174 N.J.Super. 411, 416 A.2d 949 (1980).

2. Date of conviction or disposition
The subsection of this section relating to petitions for expungement which requires a petition for expungement to include the date of conviction "or date of disposition of the matter if no conviction resulted" clearly demonstrates that an expungement petition must include enumeration of any arrests not resulting in convictions. State v. DeMarco, 174 N.J.Super. 411, 416 A.2d 949 (1980).

3. Statutes and offenses

This section which provides in relevant part that every petition for expungement shall include the "statute or statutes and offense or offenses for which petitioner was arrested and of which petitioner was convicted" requires the recitation of charges which resulted in arrest as well as of charges leading to conviction; the relative clauses "for which petitioner was arrested" and "of which petitioner was convicted" modify the topic "statute or statutes and offense or offenses" and, because the relative clauses are connected by the conjunctive, they are grammatically parallel and should be given equal effect. State v. DeMarco, 174 N.J.Super. 411, 416 A.2d 949 (1980).

2C:52-8. Statements to Accompany Petition

There shall be attached to a petition for expungement:

a. A statement with the affidavit or verification that there are no disorderly persons, petty disorderly persons or criminal charges pending against the petitioner at the time of filing of the petition for expungement.

b. In those instances where the petitioner is seeking the expungement of a criminal conviction, a statement with affidavit or verification that he has never been granted expungement, sealing or similar relief regarding a criminal conviction by any court in this State or other state or by any Federal court. "Sealing" refers to the relief previously granted pursuant to P.L. 1973, c. 191 (C. 2A:85-15 et seq.).

c. In those instances where a person has received a dismissal of a criminal charge because of acceptance into a supervisory treatment or any other diversion program, a statement with affidavit or verification setting forth the nature of the original charge, the court of disposition and date of disposition. L.1979, c. 178, § 115, eff. Sept. 1, 1979.

2C:52-10. Service of Petition and Documents

A copy of each petition, together with a copy of all supporting documents, shall be served pursuant to the rules of court upon the Superintendent of State Police; the Attorney General; the county prosecutor of the county wherein the court is located; the chief of police or other executive head of the police department of the municipality wherein the offense was committed; the chief law enforcement officer of any other law enforcement agency of this State which participated in the arrest of the individual; the superintendent or warden of any institution in which the petitioner was confined; and, if a disposition was made by a municipal court, upon the magistrate of that court. Service shall be made within 5 days from the date of the order setting the date for the hearing upon the matter.

2C:52-11. Order Expungement Where No Objection Prior to Hearing

If, prior to the hearing, there is no objection from those law enforcement agencies notified or from those offices or agencies which are required to be served under 2C:52-10, and no reason, as provided in section 2C:52-14, appears to the contrary, the court may, without a hearing, grant an order directing the clerk of the court and all relevant criminal justice and law enforcement agencies to expunge records of said disposition including evidence of arrest, detention, conviction and proceedings related thereto.

2C:52-12. Denial of Relief Although No Objection Entered

In the event that none of the persons or agencies required to be noticed under 2C:52-10 has entered any objection to the relief being sought, the court may nevertheless deny the relief sought if it concludes that petitioner is not entitled to relief for the reasons provided in section 2C:52-14.

2C:52-13. When Hearing on Petition for Expungement Shall Not Be Held

No petition for relief made pursuant to this section shall be heard by any court if the petitioner, at the time of filing or date of hearing, has a charge or charges pending against him which allege the commission of a crime, disorderly persons offense or petty disorderly persons offense. Such petition shall not be heard until such times as all pending criminal and or disorderly persons charges are adjudicated to finality.

L.1979, c. 178, § 120, eff. Sept. 1, 1979.

2C:52-14. Grounds for Denial of Relief

A petition for expungement filed pursuant to this chapter shall be denied when:

a. Any statutory prerequisite, including any provision of this chapter, is not fulfilled or there is any other statutory basis for denying relief.

b. The need for the availability of the records outweighs the desirability of having a person freed from any disabilities as otherwise provided in this chapter. An application may be denied under this subsection only following objection of a party given notice pursuant to 2C:52-10 and the burden of asserting such grounds shall be on the objector.

c. In connection with a petition under section 2C:52-6, the acquittal, discharge or dismissal of charges resulted from a plea bargaining agreement involving the conviction of other charges. This bar, however, shall not apply once the conviction is itself expunged.

d. The arrest or conviction sought to be expunged is, at the time of hearing, the subject matter of civil litigation between the petitioner or his legal representative and the State, any governmental entity thereof or any State agency and the representatives or employees of any such body.

NEW JERSEY

e. A person has had a previous criminal conviction expunged regardless of the lapse of time between the prior expungement, or sealing under prior law, and the present petition. This provision shall not apply:

(1) When the person is seeking the expungement of a municipal ordinance violation or,

(2) When the person is seeking the expungement of records pursuant to section 2C:52-6.

f. 1. Construction and application of Defendant's subsequent acquittal of a crime did not disqualify him from obtaining expungement of a prior disorderly persons conviction and was not a ground for denying relief. State v. DeMarco, 174 N.J.Super. 411, 416 A.2d 949 (1980).

2C:52-15. Records to Be Removed; Control

If an order of expungement of records of arrest or conviction under this chapter is granted by the court, all the records specified in said order shall be removed from the files of the agencies which have been noticed of the pendency of petitioner's motion and which are, by the provisions of this chapter, entitled to notice, and shall be placed in the control of a person who has been designated by the head of each such agency which, at the time of the hearing, possesses said records. That designated person shall, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, insure that such records or the information contained therein are not released for any reason and are not utilized or referred to for any purpose. In response to requests for information or records of the person who was arrested or convicted, all noticed officers, departments and agencies shall reply, with respect to the arrest, conviction or related proceedings which are the subject of the order, that there is no record information.

47:1A-2. Public records; right of inspection; copies; fees

the Governor, all records which are required by law to be made, maintained or kept on file by any board, body, agency, department, commission or official of the State or of any political subdivision thereof or by any public board, body, commission or authority created pursuant to law by the State or any of its political subdivisions, or by any official acting for or on behalf thereof (each of which is hereinafter referred to as the "custodian" thereof) shall, for the purposes of this act, be deemed to be public records. Every citizen of this State, during the regular business hours maintained by the custodian of any such records, shall have the right to inspect such records. Every citizen of this State shall also have the right, during such regular business hours and under the supervision of a representative of the custodian, to copy such records by hand, and shall also have the right to purchase copies of such records. First page to tenth page ..... $0.50 per page,
All pages over 20 ..... 0.10 per page,

If the custodian of any such records shall find that there is no risk of damage or mutilation of such records and that it would not be incompatible with the economic and efficient operation of the office and the transaction of public business therein, he may permit any citizen who is seeking to copy more than 100 pages of records to use his own photographic process, approved by the custodian, upon the payment of a reasonable fee, considering the equipment and the time involved, to be fixed by the custodian of not less than $5.00 or more than $25.00 per day. L.1963, c. 73, § 2.

47:1A-3. Records of investigations in progress

Notwithstanding the provisions of this act, where it shall appear that the record or records which are sought to be examined shall pertain to an investigation in progress by any such body, agency, commission, board, authority or official, the right of examination herein provided for may be denied if the inspection, copying or publication of such record or records shall be inimical to the public interest; provided, however, that this provision shall not be construed to prohibit any such body, agency, commission, board, authority or official from opening such record or records for public examination if not otherwise prohibited by law. L.1963, c. 73, § 3.

47:1A-4. Proceedings to enforce right to inspect or copy; award of costs and attorney's fee

Any such citizen of this State who has been or shall have been denied for any reason the right to inspect, copy or obtain a copy of any such record as provided in this act may apply to the Superior Court of New Jersey by a proceeding in lieu of prerogative writ for an order requiring the custodian of the record to afford inspection, the right to copy or to obtain a copy thereof, as provided in this act. A plaintiff in whose favor such an order issues shall be entitled to taxed costs and may be awarded a reasonable attorney's fee not to exceed $500.00. #### 29-10-1. Short title.

This act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978] may be cited as the "Arrest Record Information Act."

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-1, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 1.

Cross-references. — For right to inspect public records, see 14-2-1 NMSA 1978. For children's code, inspection of social and legal records, see 32-1-44 NMSA 1978.

Generally. — The Arrest Record Information Act

may be viewed as establishing statutory exceptions to the fundamental right to inspect. It does so, however, in a rather conflicting manner, and it appears that virtually all arrest record information is subject to at least a limited or conditional disclosure. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

29-10-2. Purpose of act.

The legislature finds and declares that the responsible exchange of complete and accurate information among law enforcement agencies is recognized as necessary and indispensable to effective law enforcement. Individual rights, however, may be infringed if information is inaccurate, incomplete or is disseminated irresponsibly. The Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978] is for the purpose of protecting those rights.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-2, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 2.

Violation not limited. — The Arrest Record Information Act does not limit the violation of the act to any particular class of persons. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9). See notes to 29-10-3 NMSA 1978.

29-10-3. Definitions.

As used in the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978]:

A. "arrest record information" means notations of the arrest or detention, or indictment or filing of information or other formal criminal charge against an individual made by a law enforcement agency which resulted in a negative disposition; and

B. "negative disposition" means that:

(1) criminal proceedings have been concluded and the defendant was found not guilty;

(2) a prosecutor has elected not to refer a matter for prosecution; or

(3) criminal proceedings have been indefinitely postponed, and includes but is not limited to acquittal, case continued without finding, charge dismissed, charge dismissed due to insanity or mental incompetence, charge still pending due to insanity or mental incompetence, nolle prosequi, deceased, deferred disposition, pardoned, extradition proceedings have been concluded and mistrial-defendant discharged.

NEW MEXICO

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-3, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 3; 1977, ch. 339, § 1.

Section A includes both felony and misdemeanor arrest records. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9).

Definition of "arrest record information" does not include investigative reports. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Application of statute. — The Arrest Record Information Act does not come into play until after the filing of a "formal criminal charge" or the "arrest" of an individual, followed by a "negative disposition" of the charges. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Only those notations of an arrest or detention or formal criminal charge filed by a law enforcement agency which result in dispositions which are included in Subsection B(1), (2) or (3) are subject to the confidentiality provisions of the Arrest Record Information Act. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Disclosure proper where no negative disposition results. — The records of an adult charged with an offense which does not result in a "negative disposition" would be disclosable, as those records would not constitute "arrest record information" as defined by this section. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

What legislature intended by term "negative disposition" is a disposition which is either not favorable to the state, favorable to the individual charged or inconclusive. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

29-10-4. Confidentiality of arrest records.

The arrest record information maintained by the state or any of its political subdivisions pertaining to any person charged with the commission of any crime shall be confidential and dissemination or the revealing the contents thereof, except as provided in the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978], is unlawful.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-4, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 4.

Cross-reference. — For crimes defined and classified, see 30-1-4 to 30-1-6 NMSA 1978.

Penalty provision repealed. — While this section still provides that violations of the Arrest Record Information Act are "unlawful," there are no longer any criminal sanctions for releasing arrest record information in violation of the provisions of the act, since 39-10-7, 1953 Comp., the penalty provision, was repealed by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 6. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

29-10-5. Exchange of information.

A law enforcement agency may disseminate arrest record information to a federal, state or local government law enforcement agency, provided that when such arrest record information is disseminated to a law enforcement agency situated outside this state, such information shall be accompanied by a statement substantially embodying the intent set forth in Section 29-10-4 NMSA 1978 of the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978]. Nothing in the Arrest Record Information Act prohibits direct access by the attorney general, district attorney or the courts to such information where it is deemed necessary in the performance of their functions under law. Nothing in the Arrest Record Information Act prohibits direct access by a law enforcement agency to automated wanted information pertaining to a person or to stolen property information.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-5, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 5; 1977, ch. 339, § 2.

29-10-6. Access by individuals.

A. Upon satisfactory verification of his identity, any individual may inspect, in person, through counsel or through his authorized agent, arrest record information maintained by [a] law enforcement agency concerning him.

B. Personnel assigned to contractual research for a state or federally approved criminal justice project shall be permitted access to arrest record information. Approval personnel shall not further disseminate such information except as statistical or analytical records or reports in which individuals are not identified and from which their identities are not ascertainable.

NEW MEXICO

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-6, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 260, § 6; 1977, ch. 339, § 3.

29-10-7. Application.

A. The provisions of the Arrest Record Information Act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978] do not apply to criminal history record information contained in:

- (1) posters, announcements or lists for identifying or apprehending fugitives or wanted persons;
- (2) original records of entry such as police blotters maintained by criminal justice agencies, compiled chronologically and required by law or long-standing custom to be made public, if such records are organized on a chronological basis;
- (3) court records of public judicial proceedings;
- (4) published court or administrative opinions or public judicial, administrative or legislative proceedings;
- (5) records of traffic offenses and accident reports;
- (6) announcements of executive clemency; and
- (7) statistical or analytical records or reports in which individuals are not identified and from which their identities are not ascertainable.

B. Nothing in this act [29-10-1 to 29-10-8 NMSA 1978] prevents a law enforcement agency from disclosing to the public arrest record information related to the offense for which an adult individual is currently within the criminal justice system. Nor is a law enforcement agency prohibited from confirming prior arrest record information to members of the news media or any other person, upon specific inquiry as to whether a named individual was arrested, detained, indicted or whether an information or other formal charge was filed, on a specified date, if the arrest record information disclosed is based on data enumerated by Subsection A of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-8, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 4.

Repeal and reenactment. — Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 4, repeals 39-10-8, 1953 Comp., relating to the application of the Arrest Record Information Act, and enacts the above section.

Information to be included in police blotter. — The following information may be appropriately included by a law enforcement agency in a police blotter or original record of entry: the name, physical description, place and date of birth, address and occupation of the individual arrested; the time and place of arrest; the offense for which the individual was arrested or detained; and the name of the arresting officer. This list should be interpreted as a minimum requirement but not to the exclusion of additional information which may presently appear on the initial records of entry or police blotters being used by some law enforcement agencies. 1975 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 75-37 (opinion superseded by 1978 Op.

Att'y Gen. No. 78-9).

Repeal and reenactment broadened exemption. — In the repeal and reenactment of this section, the phrase "indexed chronologically" in Subsection A(2) became "compiled chronologically," thus removing the requirement that the records must be "indexed" to qualify as "original records of entry." The phrase "or long-standing custom" was added also, thereby legitimating a long-standing custom by which many law enforcement agencies had released information from police blotters and other such original records. 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

Meaning of "within the criminal justice system". — While the statute does not specify what is meant by "within the criminal justice system," the term appears to relate to the status of an adult who has been arrested or formally charged with a criminal offense until such time as there is a final "negative disposition." 1978 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 78-9.

29-10-8. Review of arrest record information.

A person who believes that arrest record information concerning him is inaccurate or incomplete shall, upon satisfactory verification of his identity, be entitled to review such information and obtain a copy of it for the purpose of challenge or correction. In the event a law enforcement agency refuses to correct challenged information to the satisfaction of the person to whom the inaccurate or incorrect information relates, the person shall be entitled to petition the district court to correct such information.

History: 1953 Comp., § 39-10-9, enacted by Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 5.

Repealing clause. — Laws 1977, ch. 339, § 6, repeals 39-10-7, 1953 Comp.

28-2-4. Power to refuse, renew, suspend or revoke public employment or license.

Sec.

28-2-5. Nonapplicability to law enforcement agencies.

28-2-6. Applicability.

28-2-1. Short title.

Sections 1 through 6 [28-2-1 to 28-2-6 NMSA 1978] of this act may be cited as the "Criminal Offender Employment Act."

History: 1953 Comp., § 41-24-1, enacted by Laws 1974, ch. 78, § 1.

28-2-2. Purpose of act.

The legislature finds that the public is best protected when criminal offenders or ex-convicts are given the opportunity to secure employment or to engage in a lawful trade, occupation or profession and that barriers to such employment should be removed to make rehabilitation feasible.

History: 1953 Comp., § 41-24-2, enacted by Laws 1974, ch. 78, § 2.

28-2-3. Employment eligibility determination.

A. Subject to the provisions of Subsection B of this section and Sections 3 [4] and 4 [5] [28-2-4, 28-2-5 NMSA 1978] of the Criminal Offender Employment Act, in determining eligibility for employment with the state or any of its political subdivisions or for a license, permit, certificate or other authority to engage in any regulated trade, business or profession, the board or other department or agency having jurisdiction may take into consideration the conviction, but such conviction shall not operate as an automatic bar to obtaining public employment or license or other authority to practice the trade, business or profession.

B. The following criminal records shall not be used, distributed or disseminated in connection with an application for any public employment, license or other authority:

- (1) records of arrest not followed by a valid conviction; and
- (2) misdemeanor convictions not involving moral turpitude.

History: 1953 Comp., § 41-24-3, enacted by Laws 1974, ch. 78, § 3.

Cross-reference. — For persons convicted of felonious or infamous crime ineligible for public office unless pardoned or restored to political rights, see 10-1-2 NMSA 1978.

Compiler's note. — The probable legislative intent was to refer to Laws 1974, ch. 78, §§ 4 and 5, as indicated by the brackets in Subsection A.

State board of education subject to act. — The state board of education is subject to the provisions of Criminal Offender Employment Act (COEA), because it is an agency which determines eligibility for employment with the state. Bertrand v. New Mexico State Bd. of Educ., 88 N.M. 611, 544 P.2d 1176 (Ct. App. 1975), cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70 (1976).

28-2-4. Power to refuse, renew, suspend or revoke public employment or license.

A. Any board or other agency having jurisdiction over employment by the state or any of its political subdivisions or the practice of any trade, business or profession may refuse to grant or renew, or may suspend or revoke, any public employment or license or other authority to engage in the public employment, trade, business or profession for any one or any combination of the following causes:

(1) where the applicant, employee or licensee has been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and the criminal conviction directly relates to the particular employment, trade, business or profession; or

(2) where the applicant, employee or licensee has been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and the criminal conviction does not directly relate to the particular employment, trade, business or profession, if the board or other agency determines, after investigation, that the person so convicted has not been sufficiently rehabilitated to warrant the public trust.

B. The board or other agency shall explicitly state in writing the reasons for a decision which prohibits the person from engaging in the employment, trade, business or profession, if the decision is based in whole or part on conviction of any crime described in Paragraph (1) of Subsection A of this section. Completion of probation or parole supervision, or of a period of three years after final discharge or release from any term of imprisonment without any subsequent conviction, shall create a presumption of sufficient rehabilitation for purposes of Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of this section.

Meaning of rehabilitation. — While "rehabilitation" is not defined in this section (although the statute does create a presumption of rehabilitation after completion of parole, or after a certain period has elapsed after release from prison) its dictionary definition is to restore a condition of good health, ability to work or the like. Bertrand v. New Mexico State Bd. of Educ., 88 N.M. 611, 544 P.2d 1176 (Ct. App. 1975), cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70 (1976).

Where court accepted board rehabilitation decision. — Probative evidence of rehabilitation of a teacher who was on one year's probation for one count of distribution of marijuana included her conscientious and successful performance at her job and the parents' perception of her as a person with whom they would trust their children; but evidence that she had become angry when her probation officer would not let her see her file, made a derogatory comment about the laws and "narcs," told a student who asked her about drugs that he could get in some trouble because of some bad laws, but for him to do what he wanted, was probative of what the board could conclude was a poor attitude towards criminal offenses for one who was a teacher, and since the state board members spoke to her at some length themselves and were able to draw their own impressions of her progress towards rehabilitation, the appellate court would not substitute its judgment for that of the board. Bertrand v. New Mexico State Bd. of Educ., 88 N.M. 611, 544 P.2d 1176 (Ct. App. 1975), cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70 (1976).

Writing requirement explained. — When a decision is made on grounds that a criminal conviction directly relates to a person's profession, the reasons for such a decision must be explicitly stated in writing. It is not sufficient to merely recite the language of the statute, but rather the "reasons" for the conclusion that there is a direct relation must be given, especially so that a reviewing body may know the reasons for the administrative body's conclusion; and if the conviction of a crime is to operate as other than an automatic bar to employment, the administrative agencies must explain what they perceive the detrimental effect of employment to be. Bertrand v. New Mexico State Bd. of Educ., 88 N.M. 611, 544 P.2d 1176 (Ct. App. 1975), cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70 (1976).

Knowledge of public record not imputed to estop dismissal. — Where the local school board did not have knowledge of a teacher's conviction until approached by her probation officer, although it was a matter of public record, the court of appeals declined to impute this knowledge to the board so as to estop it from dismissing her. Bertrand v. New Mexico State Bd. of Educ., 88 N.M. 611, 544 P.2d 1176 (Ct. App. 1975), cert. denied, 89 N.M. 5, 546 P.2d 70 (1976).

Inspection of Public Records

14-2-1. Right to inspect public records; exceptions.
14-2-2. Officers to provide opportunity and facilities

Sec.

14-2-3. Penalties for violation of act.

14-2-1. Right to inspect public records; exceptions.

Every citizen of this state has a right to inspect any public records of this state except:

- A. records pertaining to physical or mental examinations and medical treatment of persons confined to any institutions;
- B. letters of reference concerning employment, licensing or permits;
- C. letters or memorandums which are matters of opinion in personnel files or students' cumulative files; and
- D. as otherwise provided by law.

History: 1941 Comp., § 13-501, enacted by Laws 1947, ch. 130, § 1; 1953 Comp., § 71-5-1; Laws 1973, ch. 271, § 1.

14-2-2. [Officers to provide opportunity and facilities for inspection.]

All officers having the custody of any state, county, school, city or town records in this state shall furnish proper and reasonable opportunities for the inspection and examination of all the records requested of their respective offices and reasonable facilities for making memoranda abstracts therefrom, during the usual business hours, to all persons having occasion to make examination of them for any lawful purpose.

History: 1941 Comp., § 13-502, enacted by Laws 1947, ch. 130, § 2; 1953 Comp., § 71-5-2.

Purpose and intent. — The legislature has clearly and unequivocally indicated that public records are to be made public with the exception of certain confidential information and except as otherwise provided by law. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-197. See 14-2-1 NMSA 1978 as to right of inspection.

Term "officer" as employed in this section, although having application to superintendents or administrative officials of school systems, does not apply to school teachers, school nurses or other school employees. 1961-62 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-137.

Right to make copies. — The right to inspect or examine public records commonly includes the right of making copies thereof as the right to inspect would be valueless without this correlative right. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-170.

It is permissible for an individual or a company such as an abstractor to photocopy voter registrations in the offices of the county clerks so long as adequate precautions are taken to insure the integrity of the records and to preserve their availability for inspection by others. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-170.

Subject to reasonable restrictions and conditions, etc. — The right to inspect public records commonly carries with it the right to make copies thereof, subject, however, to reasonable restrictions and conditions imposed as to their use, reasonable regulations as to appropriate times when and places where they may be inspected and copied and such reasonable supervision by the custodian thereof as may be necessary for their safety and as will secure equal opportunity for all to inspect and copy them. Ortiz v. Jaramillo, 82 N.M. 445, 483 P.2d 500 (1971).

But charges not to be imposed. — A charge of $25.00 per month may not be imposed by counties upon abstract and title companies for such facilities as lights, telephone and janitorial services to reimburse the counties therefor in connection with abstract and title companies inspecting and copying public records, because this practice amounts to a denial of the right to inspect records. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-102.

Public's right to inspection is not absolute. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-89.

Section does not require agencies furnishing information to abstract and copy records themselves. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-89.

County fair board records subject to inspection. — Since the legislature has specifically granted counties the authority to conduct county fairs, a county fair board is an arm of the county and its records are county records which are subject to inspection as provided in 14-2-1 NMSA 1978 and this section. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-109.

Privilege of inquiry as to faculty salary matters must be suspended until the board of regents reaches its final conclusion, i.e., the culmination of the contract between the board and the individual. Sanchez v. Board of Regents of E.N.M. Univ., 82 N.M. 672, 486 P.2d 607 (1971).

Thought processes, or the offer of a contract, are not such a public record as would require public inspection. Sanchez v. Board of Regents of E.N.M. Univ., 82 N.M. 672, 486 P.2d 608 (1971).

Right to inspect records of the board of regents of a state university on the subject of salary contract negotiations before the task was completed should be denied. Sanchez v. Board of Regents of E.N.M. Univ., 82 N.M. 672, 486 P.2d 608 (1971).

14-2-3. [Penalties for violation of act.]

If any officer having the custody of any state, county, school, city or town records in this state shall refuse to any citizen of this state the right to inspect any public records of this state, as provided in this act [14-2-1 to 14-2-3 NMSA 1978], such officer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or be sentenced to not less than sixty (60) days nor more than six (6) months in jail, or both such fine and imprisonment for each separate violation.

14-3-2. Definitions.

As used in the Public Records Act [14-3-1 to 14-3-16, 14-3-18 NMSA 1978]:

- A. "commission" means the state commission of public records;
B. "administrator" means the state records administrator;
C. "public records" means all books, papers, maps, photographs or other documentary materials, regardless of physical form or characteristics, made or received by any agency in pursuance of law or in connection with the transaction of public business and preserved, or appropriate for preservation, by the agency or its legitimate successor as evidence of the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations or other activities of the government, or because of the informational and historical value of data contained therein. Library or museum material of the state library, state institutions and state museums, extra copies of documents preserved only for convenience of reference and stocks of publications and processed documents are not included;

D. "agency" means any state agency, department, bureau, board, commission, institution or other organization of the state government, the territorial government and the Spanish and Mexican governments in New Mexico;

E. "records center" means the central records depository which is the principal state facility for the storage, disposal, allocation or use of noncurrent records of agencies, or materials obtained from other sources; and

F. "microphotography system" means all microphotography equipment, services and supplies.

The 1977 amendment added Subsection F.

Term "public records" in this section includes the records of various public officials as that term is used in the Inspection of Public Records Act, 14-2-1 to 14-2-3 NMSA 1978, being those "public records" which are necessary or incidental to fulfilling the public officer's duties imposed upon his office by operation of law. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-139.

In order to be considered a "public record," an item must have some continuing significance or importance. There must be some purpose or reason for its preservation. Therefore, general correspondence files

30-31-28. Conditional discharge for possession as first offense.

A. If any person who has not previously been convicted of violating the laws of any state or any laws of the United States relating to narcotic drugs, marijuana, hallucinogenic or depressant or stimulant substances, is found guilty of a violation of Section 23 [30-31-23 NMSA 1978], after trial or upon a plea of guilty, the court may, without entering a judgment of guilty and with the consent of the person, defer further proceedings and place him on probation upon reasonable conditions and for a period, not to exceed one year, as the court may prescribe.

B. Upon violation of a condition of the probation, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. The court may, in its discretion, dismiss the proceedings against the person and discharge him from probation before the expiration of the maximum period prescribed from the person's probation.

C. If during the period of his probation the person does not violate any of the conditions of the probation, then upon expiration of the period the court shall discharge such person and dismiss the proceedings against him. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without court adjudication of guilt, but a nonpublic record shall be retained by the attorney general solely for the purpose of use by the courts in determining whether or not, in subsequent proceedings, the person qualifies under this section. A discharge or dismissal shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime including the penalties prescribed under this section for second or subsequent convictions or for any other purpose. Discharge and dismissal under this section may occur only once with respect to any person.

D. Upon the dismissal of a person and discharge of the proceedings against him under this section, a person, if he was not over eighteen years of age at the time of the offense, may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records all recordation relating to his arrest, indictment or information, trial, finding or plea of guilty, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to this section except nonpublic records filed with the attorney general. If the court determines, after hearing, that the person was dismissed and the proceedings against him discharged and that he was not over eighteen years of age at the time of the offense, it shall enter the order. The effect of the order shall be to restore the person, in the contemplation of the law, to the status he occupied before the arrest or indictment or information. No person in whose behalf an order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose.

Practice Commentary

By Joseph W. Bellacosa

In 1972 the Executive Law was amended to create a Division of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) which absorbed the former fingerprinting and record keeping functions of the New York State Identification and Intelligence System (NY-SIIS).

This section had codified the instances where fingerprinting of an arrestee or accused was mandated. The listing was a mixture of the generic and the specific in that all felonies qualified; only misdemeanors defined in the Penal Law qualified excluding the myriad others found in other statutory provisions; also qualifying were non-Penal Law misdemeanors which could be elevated to felony rank premised on a prior conviction; and finally two sex-related loitering provisions governing perversion and purveyance. In addition to adding special notoriety and infamy to the latter categories, it is likely that they are included in the mandatory fingerprinting provisions of subdivision 1 as a special recidivistic control device, a kind of known-crowd control. This is consistent with and reinforced by expressly depriving these special loiterers of the benefits of the sealing and return provisions of CPL 160.55.

Subdivision 2 prescribes broad discretionary categories for the police officer or agency to take fingerprints permissively where identity is unknown or suspected of being false or where there is reasonable suspicion that the person is wanted.

Also permissively, subdivision 3 provides additionally for photographs and palmprints to be taken whenever fingerprinting is authorized.

NEW YORK

The standards for these investigative and record-keeping actions must be in compliance with those established by the director of DCJS.

Practice Commentary

By Joseph W. Bellacosa

Curiously, this extra benefit dovetails with CPL 160.50 expressly but probably has equal effect in connection with more recently enacted 160.55 as well, by way of practical interpretation by reference. This is by no means certain, however, as a good argument to the contrary could be made in that the compromises of CPL 160.55 are so explicit as to be unavailable in this section because expressly omitted.

§ 170.56 Adjournment in contemplation of dismissal in cases involving marihuana

1. Upon or after arraignment in a local criminal court upon an information, a prosecutor's information or a misdemeanor complaint, where the sole remaining count or counts charge a violation or violations of section 221.05, 221.10, 221.15, 221.35 or 221.40 of the penal law and before the entry of a plea of guilty thereto or commencement of a trial thereof, the court, upon motion of a defendant, may order that all proceedings be suspended and the action adjourned in contemplation of dismissal, or upon a finding that adjournment would not be necessary or appropriate and the setting forth in the record of the reasons for such findings, may dismiss in furtherance of justice the accusatory instrument; provided, however, that the court may not order such adjournment in contemplation of dismissal or dismiss the accusatory instrument if: (a) the defendant has previously been granted such adjournment in contemplation of dismissal, or (b) the defendant has previously been granted a dismissal under this section, or (c) the defendant has previously been convicted of any offense involving controlled substances, or (d) the defendant has previously been convicted of a crime and the district attorney does not consent or (e) the defendant has previously been adjudicated a youthful offender on the basis of any act or acts involving controlled substances and the district attorney does not consent.

2. Upon ordering the action adjourned in contemplation of dismissal, the court must set and specify such conditions for the adjournment as may be appropriate, and such conditions may include placing the defendant under the supervision of any public or private agency. At any time prior to dismissal the court may modify the conditions or extend or reduce the term of the adjournment, except that the total period of adjournment shall not exceed twelve months. Upon violation of any condition fixed by the court, the court may revoke its order and restore the case to the calendar and the prosecution thereupon must proceed. If the case is not so restored to the calendar during the period fixed by the court, the accusatory instrument is, at the expiration of such period, deemed to have been dismissed in the furtherance of justice.

3. Upon or after dismissal of such charges against a defendant not previously convicted of a crime, the court shall order that all official records and papers, relating to the defendant's arrest and prosecution, whether on file with the court, a police agency, or the New York state division of criminal justice services, be sealed and, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section 160.50 of this chapter, not made available to any person or public or private agency; ex-the terms of office of the temporary president and the speaker to which the temporary president and speaker were elected. The four persons presently serving by appointment of the governor for fixed terms shall continue to serve until the expiration of their respective terms. Thereafter, their respective successors shall be appointed for terms of four years. The member representing local government shall be appointed for a term of four years, so long as such member shall remain a duly elected officer of a local government. The committee shall hold no less than four meetings annually. The members of the committee shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties.

(b) The committee shall:

- i. furnish to any agency advisory guidelines, opinions or other appropriate information regarding this article;
- ii. furnish to any person advisory opinions or other appropriate information regarding this article;
- iii. promulgate rules and regulations with respect to the implementation of subdivision one and paragraph (c) of subdivision three of section eighty-seven of this article;
- iv. request from any agency such assistance, services and information as will enable the committee to effectively carry out its powers and duties; and
- v. report on its activities and findings, including recommendations for changes in the law, to the governor and the legislature annually, on or before December fifteenth.

2. (a) The committee on public access to records may promulgate guidelines regarding deletion of identifying details or withholding of records otherwise available under this article to prevent unwarranted invasions of personal privacy. In the absence of such guidelines, an agency may delete identifying details when it makes records available.

(b) An unwarranted invasion of personal privacy includes, but shall not be limited to:

- i. disclosure of employment, medical or credit histories or personal references of applicants for employment;
- ii. disclosure of items involving the medical or personal records of a client or patient in a medical facility;
- iii. sale or release of lists of names and addresses if such lists would be used for commercial or fund-raising purposes;
- iv. disclosure of information of a personal nature when disclosure would result in economic or personal hardship to the subject party and such information is not relevant to the work of the agency requesting or maintaining it; or
- v. disclosure of information of a personal nature reported in confidence to an agency and not relevant to the ordinary work of such agency.

(c) Unless otherwise provided by this article, disclosure shall not be construed to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision:

- i. when identifying details are deleted;
- ii. when the person to whom a record pertains consents in writing to disclosure;
- iii. when upon presenting reasonable proof of identity, a person seeks access to records pertaining to him.

3. Each entity subject to the provisions of this article, within five business days of the receipt of a written request for a record reasonably described, shall make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgment of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date when such request will be granted or denied, including, where appropriate, a statement that access to the record will be determined in accordance with subdivision five of this section. Upon payment of, or offer to pay, the fee prescribed therefor, the entity shall provide a copy of such record and certify to the correctness of such copy if so requested, or as the case may be, shall certify that it does not have possession of such record or that such record cannot be found after diligent search. Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any entity to prepare any record not possessed or maintained by such entity except the records specified in subdivision three of section eighty-seven and subdivision three of section eighty-eight.

4. (a) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, any person denied access to a record may within thirty days appeal in writing such denial to the head, chief executive or governing body of the entity, or the person therefor designated by such head, chief executive, or governing body, who shall within seven business days of the receipt of such appeal fully explain in writing to the person requesting the record the reasons for further denial, or provide access to the record sought. In addition, each agency shall immediately forward to the committee on public access to records a copy of such appeal and the determination thereon.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, a person denied access to a record in an appeal determination under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision may bring a proceeding for review of such denial pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. In the event that access to any record is denied pursuant to the provisions of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article, the agency involved shall have the burden of proving that such record falls within the provisions of such subdivision two.

(c) The court in such a proceeding may assess, against such agency involved, reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred by such person in any case under the provisions of this section in which such person has substantially prevailed, provided, that such attorney's fees and litigation costs may be recovered only where the court finds that:

- i. the record involved was, in fact, of clearly significant interest to the general public; and
- ii. the agency lacked a reasonable basis in law for withholding the record.

5. (a)(1) A person acting pursuant to law or regulation who, subsequent to the effective date of this subdivision, submits any information to any state agency may, at the time of submission, request that the agency except such information from disclosure under paragraph (d) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article. Where the request itself contains information which if disclosed would defeat the purpose for which the exception is sought, such information shall also be excepted from disclosure.

(2) The request for an exception shall be in writing and state the reasons why the information should be excepted from disclosure.

(3) Information submitted as provided in subparagraph one of this paragraph shall be excepted from disclosure and be maintained apart by the agency from all other records until fifteen days after the entitlement to such exception has been finally determined or such further time as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) On the initiative of the agency at any time, or upon the request of any person for a record excepted from disclosure pursuant to this subdivision, the agency shall:

(1) inform the person who requested the exception of the agency's intention to determine whether such exception should be granted or continued;

(2) permit the person who requested the exception, within ten business days of receipt of notification from the agency, to submit a written statement of the necessity for the granting or continuation of such exception;

(3) within seven business days of receipt of such written statement, or within seven business days of the expiration of the period prescribed for submission of such statement, issue a written determination granting, continuing or terminating such exception and stating the reasons therefor; copies of such determination shall be served upon the person,

NEW YORK

if any, requesting the record, the person who requested the exception, and the committee on public access to records.

(c) A denial of an exception from disclosure under paragraph (b) of this subdivision may be appealed by the person submitting the information and a denial of access to the record may be appealed by the person requesting the record in accordance with this subdivision:

(1) Within seven business days of receipt of written notice denying the request, the person may file a written appeal from the determination of the agency with the head of the agency, the chief executive officer or governing body or their designated representatives.

(2) The appeal shall be determined within ten business days of the receipt of the appeal. Written notice of the determination shall be served upon the person, if any, requesting the record, the person who requested the exception and the committee on public access to records. The notice shall contain a statement of the reasons for the determination.

(d) A proceeding to review an adverse determination pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision may be commenced pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. Such proceeding must be commenced within fifteen days of the service of the written notice containing the adverse determination provided for in subparagraph two of paragraph (c) of this subdivision.

(e) The person requesting an exception from disclosure pursuant to this subdivision shall in all proceedings have the burden of proving entitlement to the exception.

(f) Where the agency denies access to a record pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article, the agency shall have the burden of proving that the record falls within the provisions of such exception.

(g) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to deny any person access, pursuant to the remaining provisions of this article, to any record or part excepted from disclosure upon the express written consent of the person who had requested the exception.

(h) As used in this subdivision the term "agency" or "state agency" means only a state department, board, bureau, division, council or office and any public corporation the majority of whose members are appointed by the governor.

6. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or abridge any otherwise available right of access at law or in equity of any party to records.

(a) A person, upon satisfactory fingerprint identification, may review all the criminal history data maintained by the Division of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) pertaining to such person, and may challenge the completeness or accuracy of such data.

(b) Review pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section may take place, during daytime business hours, at a DCJS facility or at such other places within the State as the Commissioner of DCJS may designate for that purpose.

(c) The criminal history data may be reviewed only by the subject in person or by the subject and his attorney, except that, for good cause, the commissioner may permit such review by the subject's attorney, duly authorized in writing, without requiring the presence of the subject person.

(d) A person or, where permitted pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section, a person's attorney may challenge the completeness or accuracy of criminal history data pertaining to such person by executing a "Statement of Challenge", on forms furnished by DCJS, indicating the precise nature of the alleged omission or error, and by filing such statement of challenge, by mail or otherwise, with DCJS. The challenger may submit any documentation he desires and must submit any relevant documentation required by DCJS, in support of the challenge. Such data shall be furnished only on forms provided by DCJS and shall not be identifiable to the challenger.

(e) DCJS shall act upon challenges filed pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section within a reasonable time after receipt of all required documentation in support of the challenger's claim. If the challenge is found to be substantiated, DCJS shall immediately make the appropriate corrections in its records. Upon making such corrections or, upon determining that a challenge is unsubstantiated, as the case may be, DCJS shall immediately notify the subject person in writing accordingly.

(f) Upon making corrections in its files pursuant to a successful challenge, DCJS shall immediately notify every criminal justice agency known to it to which it has disseminated the subject data, of said corrections and shall direct such disseminators to conform their records to the corrected data. A person whose record has been corrected pursuant to subdivision (e) of this section shall be entitled to ascertain from DCJS the names of those non-criminal justice agencies known to it to which the erroneous data had previously been disseminated.

(g) Initial review of a challenge pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section shall be conducted by any deputy commissioner of DCJS or by his designees. A person whose challenge is rejected upon initial review may, upon written request, have such determination reviewed by the commissioner of DCJS. A request for review by the commissioner shall be acted upon within 15 working days of receipt of the request.

(h) A person whose challenge has been rejected after review by the commissioner of DCJS may appeal such determination to the security and privacy committee by filing a written notice of appeal with DCJS within 30 days after receipt of such rejection. Upon receipt of such notice, DCJS shall promptly transmit to the security and privacy committee copies of all its records concerning the appellant along with all the papers and documents filed by the appellant in support of his challenge. The appeal shall be determined upon the records, papers and documents submitted, except that the security and privacy committee may request DCJS or the appellant to furnish such further data as it deems necessary for the determination of the appeal. The security and privacy committee shall notify both the appellant and DCJS of its decision in writing and, where such decision reverses or modifies that of DCJS, shall require DCJS to correct its records accordingly.

Division of Criminal Statistics.

§ 114-10. Division of Criminal Statistics. — The Attorney General shall set up in the Department of Justice a division to be designated as the Division of Criminal Statistics. There shall be assigned to this Division by the Attorney General duties as follows:

- (1) To collect and correlate information in criminal law administration, including crimes committed, arrests made, dispositions on preliminary hearings, prosecutions, convictions, acquittals, punishment, appeals, together with the age, race, and sex of the offender, and such other information concerning crime and criminals as may appear significant or helpful. To correlate such information with the operations of agencies and institutions charged with the supervision of offenders on probation, in penal and correctional institutions, on parole and pardon, so as to show the volume, variety and tendencies of crime and criminals and the workings of successive links in the machinery set up for the administration of the criminal law in connection with the arrests, trial, punishment, probation, prison parole and pardon of all criminals in North Carolina.
- (2) To collect, correlate, and maintain access to information that will assist in the performance of duties required in the administration of criminal justice throughout the State. This information may include, but is not limited to, motor vehicle registration, drivers' licenses, wanted and missing persons, stolen property, warrants, stolen vehicles, firearms registration, drugs, drug users and parole and probation histories. In performing this function, the Division may arrange to use information available in other agencies and units of State, local and federal government, but shall provide security measures to insure that such information shall be made available only to those whose duties, relating to the administration of justice, require such information.
- (3) To make scientific study, analysis and comparison from the information so collected and correlated with similar information gathered by federal agencies, and to provide the Governor and the General Assembly with the information so collected biennially, or more often if required by the Governor.
- (4) To perform all the duties heretofore imposed by law upon the Attorney General with respect to criminal statistics.
- (5) To perform such other duties as may be from time to time prescribed by the Attorney General. (1939, c. 315, s. 2; 1955, c. 1257, ss. 1, 2; 1969, c. 1267, s. 1.)

(b) The Attorney General is authorized to cooperate with the Division of Motor Vehicles, Department of Administration, Department of Correction and other State, local and federal agencies and organizations in carrying out the purpose and intent of this section, and to utilize, in cooperation with other State agencies and to the extent as may be practical, computers and related equipment as may be operated by other State agencies.

(c) The Attorney General, after consultation with participating agencies, shall adopt rules and regulations governing the organization and administration of the Police Information Network, including rules and regulations governing the types of information relating to the administration of criminal justice to be entered into the system, and who shall have access to such information. The rules and regulations governing access to the Police Information Network shall not prohibit an attorney who has entered a criminal proceeding in accordance with G.S. 15A-141 from obtaining information relevant to that criminal proceeding. The Attorney General may call upon the Governor's Committee on Law and Order for advice and such other assistance that the Committee may be authorized to render. #### § 114-19.1. Fees for performing certain background investigations.

When the Department of Justice determines that any person is entitled by law to receive information, including criminal records, from the State Bureau of Investigation, for any purpose other than the administration of criminal justice, the State Bureau of Investigation shall charge the recipient of such information a reasonable fee for retrieving such information. The fee authorized by this subsection shall not exceed the actual cost of locating, editing, researching and retrieving the information, and may be budgeted for the support of the State Bureau of Investigation.

As used in this section, "administration of criminal justice" means the performance of any of the following activities: the detection, apprehension, detention, pretrial release, post-trial release, prosecution, adjudication, correctional supervision, or rehabilitation of persons suspected of, accused of or convicted of a criminal offense. The term also includes screening for suitability for employment, appointment or retention of a person as a law enforcement or criminal justice officer, or as an officer of the court.

Cross References. — As to taking of fingerprints of convicted felons for submission to State Bureau of Investigation with report of disposition of charges, see § 15A-1382.

Editor's Note. —

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978, provides: "This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978."

Effect of Amendments. — The 1979 amendment substituted, in subsection (c), "juvenile except under G.S. 7A-596 through 7A-627" for "child" as defined for the purposes of G.S. 7A-278(2), unless the case has been transferred to the superior court division pursuant to G.S. 7A-280.

The 1981 amendment, effective January 1, 1982, added the second sentence of subsection (a).

CASE NOTES

Legislative Intent. — It was the intent of the legislature that photographs taken under the authority of this section could be used for any law enforcement purpose. State v. Carson, 296 N.C. 31, 249 S.E.2d 417 (1978).

The Official Commentary correctly states the legislature's intent that this section carries forward the concept of the present provisions of the former first two paragraphs of § 114-19. Those provisions have been simplified and broadened in some respects, but restricted as to motor vehicle and juvenile offenses. State v. Wilson, 296 N.C. 298, 250 S.E.2d 621 (1979).

Use of Photograph in Subsequent Identification Procedure. — Where a defendant was legally arrested for a misdemeanor and photographed under the authority of this section, the photograph could be used in a photographic identification procedure in connection with defendant's first-degree rape case. State v. Carson, 296 N.C. 31, 249 S.E.2d 417 (1978).

A photograph taken prior to the defendant's arrest for rape was not illegally taken in contravention of the provisions of this section. State v. Wilson, 296 N.C. 298, 250 S.E.2d 621 (1979).

This section does not create an exclusionary rule of evidence. State v. Wilson, 296 N.C. 298, 250 S.E.2d 621 (1979).

§ 15-223. Expunction of records for first offenders under the age of 18 at the time of conviction of misdemeanor.

(a) Whenever any person who has not yet attained the age of 18 years and has not previously been convicted of any felony, or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation, under the laws of the United States, the laws of this State or any other state, pleads guilty to or is guilty of a misdemeanor other than a traffic violation, he may file a petition in the court where he was convicted for expunction of the misdemeanor from his criminal record. The petition cannot be filed earlier than two years after the date of the conviction or any period of probation, whichever occurs later, and the petition shall contain, but not be limited to, the following:

- (1) An affidavit by the petitioner that he has been of good behavior for the two-year period since the date of conviction of the misdemeanor in question and has not been convicted of any felony, or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation, under the laws of the United States or the laws of this State or any other state.
- (2) Verified affidavits of two persons who are not related to the petitioner or to each other by blood or marriage, that they know the character and reputation of the petitioner in the community in which he lives and that his character and reputation are good.

and, if different, the county of which the petitioner is a resident, showing that the petitioner has not been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of this State at any time prior to the conviction for the misdemeanor in question or during the two-year period following that conviction.

The petition shall be served upon the district attorney of the court wherein the case was tried resulting in conviction. The district attorney shall have 10 days thereafter in which to file any objection thereto and shall be duly notified as to the date of the hearing of the petition.

The judge to whom the petition is presented is authorized to call upon a probation officer for any additional investigation or verification of the petitioner's conduct during the two-year period that he deems desirable.

Effect of Amendments. — The 1979 amendment rewrote subdivision (a)(4) and added the last paragraph of subsection (a).

Only Part of Section Set Out. — As the rest of the section was not changed by the amendment, only subsection (a) is set out.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Where Several Misdemeanor Offenses Consolidated for Trial. — Where a person under the age of 18 years, who has not previously or subsequently been convicted of any offense, is charged with several misdemeanor offenses, the charges are consolidated for trial and judgment, and the sentence imposed is within the statutory limit for conviction of a single offense, the court may order expungement of the record pursuant to this section. See opinion of Attorney General to Honorable Russell G. Walker, Jr., District Attorney, Nineteenth-B Prosecutorial District, Aug. 28, 1979.

§ 15-224. Expunction of records when charges are dismissed or there are findings of not guilty.

Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 90-96, if any person is charged with a crime, either a misdemeanor or a felony, and the charge is dismissed, or a finding of not guilty is entered, that person may apply to the court of the county where the charge was brought for an order to expunge from all official records any entries relating to his apprehension or trial. The court shall hold a hearing on the application and, upon finding that at the time any of the proceedings against him occurred the person had not attained the age of 18 years and had not previously been convicted of any felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of the United States, this State, or any other state, the court shall order the expunction. No person as to whom such an order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury, or to be guilty of otherwise giving a false statement or response to any inquiry made for any purpose, by reason of his failure to recite or acknowledge any expunged entries concerning apprehension or trial. The clerk shall send a copy of the expunction order to any public official known to be a custodian of such entries. (1979, c. 61.)

NORTH CAROLINA

§ 90-96. Conditional discharge and expunction of records for first offense.

(a) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of any offense under this Article or under any statute of the United States or any state relating to those substances included in Article 5 or 5A of Chapter 90 or to that paraphernalia included in Article 5B of Chapter 90 pleads guilty to or is found guilty of a misdemeanor under this Article by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules II through VI of this Article, or by possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited by G.S. 90-113.21, the court may, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of such person, defer further proceedings and place him on probation upon such reasonable terms and conditions as it may require. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 15A-1342(c) or any other statute or law, probation may be imposed under this section for an offense under this Article for which the prescribed punishment includes only a fine. To fulfill the terms and conditions of probation the court may allow the defendant to participate in a drug education program approved for this purpose by the Department of Human Resources. Upon violation of a term or condition, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge such person and dismiss the proceedings against him. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without court adjudication of guilt and shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions under this Article. Discharge and dismissal under this section or G.S. 90-113.14 may occur only once with respect to any person. Disposition of a case to determine discharge and dismissal under this section at the district court division of the General Court of Justice shall be final for the purpose of appeal. Prior to taking any action to discharge and dismiss under this section the court shall make a finding that the defendant has no record of previous convictions under the "North Carolina Controlled Substances Act", Article 5, Chapter 90, the "North Carolina Toxic Vapors Act", Article 5A, Chapter 90, or the "Drug Paraphernalia Act", Article 5B, Chapter 90.

(a1) Upon the first conviction only of any offense included in G.S. 90-95(a)(3) or G.S. 90-113.21 and subject to the provisions of this subsection (a1), the court may place defendant on probation under this section for an offense under this Article including an offense for which the prescribed punishment includes only a fine. The probation, if imposed, shall be for not less than one year and shall contain a minimum condition that the defendant who was found guilty or pleads guilty enroll in and successfully complete, within 150 days of the date of the imposition of said probation, the program of instruction at the drug education school approved by the Department of Human Resources pursuant to G.S. 90-96.01. The court may impose probation that does not contain a condition that defendant successfully complete the program of instruction at a drug education school if:

NORTH CAROLINA

- (1) There is no drug education school within a reasonable distance of the defendant's residence; or
  - (2) There are specific, extenuating circumstances which make it likely that defendant will not benefit from the program of instruction.
- The court shall enter such specific findings in the record; provided that in the case of subdivision (2) above, such findings shall include the specific, extenuating circumstances which make it likely that the defendant will not benefit from the program of instruction.

For the purposes of determining whether the conviction is a first conviction or whether a person has already had discharge and dismissal, no prior offense occurring more than seven years before the date of the current offense shall be considered. In addition, convictions for violations of a provision of G.S. 90-95(a)(1) or 90-95(a)(2) or 90-95(a)(3), or 90-113.10, or 90-113.11, or 90-113.12, or 90-113.21 shall be considered previous convictions.

Failure to complete successfully an approved program of instruction at a drug education school shall constitute grounds to revoke probation and deny application for expunction of all recordation of defendant's arrest, indictment, or information, trial, finding of guilty, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to this section. For purposes of this subsection, the phrase "failure to complete successfully the prescribed program of instruction at a drug education school" includes failure to attend scheduled classes without a valid excuse, failure to complete the course within 150 days of imposition of probation, willful failure to pay the required fee for the course, or any other manner in which the person fails to complete the course successfully. The instructor of the course to which a person is assigned shall report any failure of a person to complete successfully the program of instruction to the court which imposed probation. Upon receipt of the instructor's report that the person failed to complete the program successfully, the court shall revoke probation and/or deny application for expunction of all recordation of defendant's arrest, indictment, or information, trial, finding of guilty, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to this section. A person may obtain a hearing before the court of original jurisdiction prior to revocation of probation or denial of application for expunction.

This subsection is supplemental and in addition to existing law and shall not be construed so as to repeal any existing provision contained in the General Statutes of North Carolina.

(b) Upon the dismissal of such person, and discharge of the proceedings against him under subsection (a) of this section, such person, if he were not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records (other than the confidential file to be retained by the Administrative Office of the Courts under subsection (c)) all recordation relating to his arrest, indictment or information, trial, finding of guilty, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to this section. The applicant shall attach to the application the following:

- (1) An affidavit by the applicant that he has been of good behavior during the period of probation since the decision to defer further proceedings

NORTH CAROLINA

- on the misdemeanor in question and has not been convicted of any felony, or misdemeanor, other than a traffic violation, under the laws of the United States or the laws of this State or any other state;
- (2) Verified affidavits by two persons who are not related to the applicant or to each other by blood or marriage, that they know the character and reputation of the petitioner in the community in which he lives, and that his character and reputation are good;
- (3) Affidavits of the clerk of superior court, chief of police, where appropriate, and sheriff of the county in which the petitioner was convicted, and, if different, the county of which the petitioner is a resident, showing that the applicant has not been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of this State at any time prior to the conviction for the misdemeanor in question or during the period of probation following the decision to defer further proceedings on the misdemeanor in question.

The judge to whom the petition is presented is authorized to call upon a probation officer for any additional investigation or verification of the petitioner's conduct during the probationary period deemed desirable.

If the court determines, after hearing, that such person was dismissed and the proceedings against him discharged and that he was not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, it shall enter such order. The effect of such order shall be to restore such person in the contemplation of the law to the status he occupied before such arrest or indictment or information. No person as to whom such order was entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose.

The court shall also order that said conviction and the records relating thereto be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies bearing records of the same to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police or other arresting agency, as appropriate, and the sheriff, chief of police or other arresting agency, as appropriate, shall forward such order to the State Bureau of Investigation with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation. The State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the court order in like manner to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(c) The clerk of superior court in each county in North Carolina shall, as soon as practicable after each term of court in his county, file with the Administrative Office of the Courts the names of those persons granted a conditional discharge under the provisions of this Article, and the Administrative Office of the Courts shall maintain a confidential file containing the names of persons granted conditional discharges. The information contained in the file shall be disclosed only to Judges of the General Court of Justice of North Carolina for the purpose of ascertaining whether any person charged with an offense under this Article has been previously granted a conditional discharge.

(d) Whenever any person is charged with a misdemeanor under this Article by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules II through VI of this Article, upon dismissal by the State of the charges against him, upon entry of a nolle prosequi, or upon a finding of not guilty or other adjudication of innocence, such person may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records all recordation relating to his arrest, indictment or information, or trial. If the court determines, after hearing that such person was not over 21 years of age at the time any of the proceedings against him occurred, it shall enter such order. No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose.

NORTH CAROLINA

(e) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of an offense under this Article or under any statute of the United States or any state relating to controlled substances included in any schedule of this Article or to that paraphernalia included in Article 5B of Chapter 90 pleads guilty to or has been found guilty of a misdemeanor under this Article by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules II through VI of this Article, or by possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited by G.S. 90-113.21, the court may, upon application of the person not sooner than 12 months after conviction, order cancellation of the judgment of conviction and expunction of the records of his arrest, indictment, or information, trial and conviction. A conviction in which the judgment of conviction has been cancelled and the records expunged pursuant to this section shall not be thereafter deemed a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or liabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions of this Article. Cancellation and expunction under this section may occur only once with respect to any person. Disposition of a case under this section at the district court division of the General Court of Justice shall be final for the purpose of appeal.

The granting of an application filed under this section shall cause the issue of an order to expunge from all official records (other than the confidential file to be retained by the Administrative Office of the Courts under subsection (c)) all recordation relating to the petitioner's arrest, indictment, or information, trial, finding of guilty, judgment of conviction, cancellation of the judgment, and expunction of records pursuant to this section.

The judge to whom the petition is presented is authorized to call upon a probation officer for additional investigation or verification of the petitioner's conduct since conviction. If the court determines that the petitioner was convicted of a misdemeanor under this Article for possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules II through VI of this Article, or for possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited in G.S. 90-113.21, that he was not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, that he has been of good behavior since his conviction, that he has successfully completed a drug education program approved for this purpose by the Department of Human Resources, and that he has not been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of this State at any time prior to or since the conviction for the misdemeanor in question, it shall enter an order of expunction of the petitioner's court record. The effect of such order shall be to restore the petitioner in the contemplation of the law to the status he occupied before arrest or indictment or information or conviction. No person as to whom such order was entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or conviction, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose. The judge may waive the condition that the petitioner attend the drug education school if the judge makes a specific finding that there was no drug education school within a reasonable distance of the defendant's residence or that there were specific extenuating circumstances which made it likely that the petitioner would not benefit from the program of instruction.

The court shall also order that all law-enforcement agencies bearing records of the conviction and records relating thereto to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency, as appropriate, and the arresting agency shall forward the order to the State Bureau of Investigation with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation. The State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the court order in like manner to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

NORTH CAROLINA

The clerk of superior court in each county in North Carolina shall, as soon as practicable after each term of court in his county, file with the Administrative Office of the Courts the names of those persons whose judgments of convictions have been cancelled and expunged under the provisions of this Article, and the Administrative Office of the Courts shall maintain a confidential file containing the names of persons whose judgments of convictions have been cancelled and expunged. The information contained in the file shall be disclosed only to judges of the General Court of Justice of North Carolina for the purpose of ascertaining whether any person charged with an offense under this Article has been previously granted cancellation and expunction of a judgment of conviction pursuant to the terms of this Article. (1971, c. 919, s. 1; 1973, c. 654, s. 2; c. 1066; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 11B; 1979, c. 431, ss. 3, 4; c. 550; 1981, c. 922, ss. 1-4.)

(1935, c. 265, s. 4; 1943, c. 237; 1973, c. 476, s. 48; 1975, c. 696, s. 1.)

The court may order such public records to be delivered to the petitioner upon finding that the materials in issue are public records and that such public records are in the possession of a person not authorized by the custodian of the public records or by law to possess such public records. If the order of delivery does not receive compliance, the petitioner may request that the court enforce such order through its contempt power and procedures.

NORTH CAROLINA

(b) At any time after the filing of the petition set out in subsection (a) or contemporaneous with such filing, the public official seeking the return of the public records may by ex parte petition request the judge or the court in which the action was filed to grant one of the following provisional remedies:

- (1) An order directed at the sheriff commanding him to seize the materials which are the subject of the action and deliver the same to the court under the circumstances hereinafter set forth; or
- (2) A preliminary injunction preventing the sale, removal, disposal or destruction of or damage to such public records pending a final judgment by the court.

(c) The judge or court aforesaid shall issue an order of seizure or grant a preliminary injunction upon receipt of an affidavit from the petitioner which alleges that the materials at issue are public records and that unless one of said provisional remedies is granted, there is a danger that such materials shall be sold, secreted, removed out of the State or otherwise disposed of so as not to be forthcoming to answer the final judgment of the court respecting the same; or that such property may be destroyed or materially damaged or injured if not seized or if injunctive relief is not granted.

(d) The aforementioned order of seizure or preliminary injunction shall issue without notice to the respondent and without the posting of any bond or other security by the petitioner. (1975, c. 787, s. 2.)

§ 132-6. Inspection and examination of records. — Every person having custody of public records shall permit them to be inspected and examined at reasonable times and under his supervision by any person, and he shall furnish certified copies thereof on payment of fees as prescribed by law. All public records should be kept in the buildings in which they are ordinarily used. Record books should be copied or repaired, renovated or rebound if worn, mutilated, damaged or difficult to read. Whenever any State, county, or municipal records are in need of repair, restoration, or rebinding, the head of such State agency, department, board, or commission, the board of county commissioners of such county, or the governing body of such municipality may authorize that the records in need of repair, restoration, or rebinding be removed from the building or office in which such records are ordinarily kept, for the length of time required to repair, restore, or rebind them. Any public official who causes a record book to be copied shall attest it and shall certify on oath that it is an accurate copy of the original book. The copy shall then have the force of the original. (1935, c. 265, s. 7; 1951, c. 294.)

The person in charge of any state correctional institution and the person in charge of any state institution having custody of a person suspected of having committed a felony or any crime constituting a misdemeanor on the first offense and a felony on subsequent offenses, shall furnish such material to the superintendent of the bureau upon request. Fingerprints, photographs, or other descriptive information of a child under eighteen years of age shall not be procured by the superintendent or furnished by any person in charge of any state correctional institution, except as may be authorized in section 2151.313 [2151.31.3] of the Revised Code. Every court of record in this state shall send to the superintendent of the bureau a weekly report containing a summary of each case involving a felony or any crime constituting a misdemeanor on the first offense and a felony on subsequent offenses. The superintendent shall cooperate with and assist sheriffs, chiefs of police, and other law officers in the establishment of a complete system of criminal identification and in obtaining fingerprints and other means of identification of all persons arrested on charge of felony or any crime constituting a misdemeanor on the first offense and a felony on subsequent offenses. He shall also file for record the fingerprint impressions of all persons confined in any workhouse, jail, reformatory, or penitentiary, for the violation of state laws, and such other information as he may receive from law enforcement officials of the state and its subdivisions.

(B) The committee shall meet at least once every six months, or more often upon call of the superintendent or the written request of any two members. Committee members shall receive no compensation for their services as such, but are entitled to their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of committee duties, as determined by the state employees compensation board.

(C) The committee shall aid and encourage coordination and cooperation among law enforcement agencies in the operation and utilization of data processing facilities and equipment, and a statewide law enforcement communications network.

The superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation shall prepare standard impression sheets on which fingerprints may be made in accordance with the fingerprint system of identification. Such sheets may provide for other descriptive matter, which the superintendent may prescribe. Such sheets shall be furnished to each sheriff, chief of police, and person in charge of every workhouse, reformatory, or penitentiary within the state.

§ 109.59 Fingerprint impression and descriptive measurement records.

The sheriff, chief of police, or other person in charge of each prison, workhouse, reformatory, or penitentiary shall send to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation, on forms furnished by the superintendent of such bureau, such fingerprint impressions and other descriptive measurements which the superintendent may require. Such information shall be filed, classified, and preserved by the bureau.

(C) Persons who are in possession of infernal machines or other contrivances in whole or in part and reasonably believed by said sheriffs or chiefs of police to be intended to be used for unlawful purposes;

(D) All persons carrying concealed firearms or other deadly weapons reasonably believed to be carried for unlawful purposes;

(E) All persons who have in their possession inks, dies, paper, or other articles necessary in the making of counterfeit bank notes, or in the alteration of bank notes, or dies, molds, or other articles necessary in the making of counterfeit money and reasonably believed to be intended to be used by them for such unlawful purposes.

OHIO
Chapter 2951: Probation

Expungement of Record

[§ 2951.04.1] § 2951.041 [Treatment in lieu of conviction.]

(A) If the court has reason to believe that an offender charged with a felony or misdemeanor is a drug dependent person or is in danger of becoming a drug dependent person, the court shall, prior to the entry of a plea, accept that offender's request for treatment in lieu of conviction. If the offender requests treatment in lieu of conviction, the court shall stay all criminal proceedings pending the outcome of the hearing to determine whether the offender is a person eligible for treatment in lieu of conviction. At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall enter its findings and accept the offender's plea.

(B) The offender is eligible for treatment in lieu of conviction if the court finds that:

(1) The offender's drug dependence or danger of drug dependence was a factor leading to the criminal activity with which he is charged, and rehabilitation through treatment would substantially reduce the likelihood of additional criminal activity;

(2) The offender has been accepted into an appropriate drug treatment facility or program. An appropriate facility or program for rehabilitation or treatment includes a special facility established by the director of mental health pursuant to section 5122.49 of the Revised Code, a program licensed by the director pursuant to section 5122.50 of the Revised Code, a program certified by the director pursuant to division (C) of section 5122.51 of the Revised Code, a public or private hospital, the veterans administration or other agency of the federal government, or private care or treatment rendered by a physician or a psychologist licensed in the state;

(3) If the offender were convicted he would be eligible for probation under section 2951.02 of the Revised Code, except that a finding of any of the criteria listed in divisions (D) and (F) of that section shall cause the offender to be conclusively ineligible for treatment in lieu of conviction;

(4) The offender is not a "repeat offender" or "dangerous offender" as defined in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code;

(5) The offender is not charged with any offense defined in section 2925.02, 2925.03, or 2925.21 of the Revised Code.

Upon such a finding and where the offender enters a plea of guilty or no contest, the court may stay all criminal proceedings and order the offender to a period of rehabilitation. Where a plea of not guilty is entered, a trial shall precede further consideration of the offender's request for treatment in lieu of conviction.

(C) The offender and the prosecuting attorney shall be afforded the opportunity to present evidence to establish eligibility for treatment in lieu of conviction, and the prosecutor may make a recommendation to the court concerning whether or not the offender should receive treatment in lieu of conviction. Upon the request of the offender and to aid the offender in establishing his eligibility for treatment in lieu of conviction, the court may refer the offender for medical and psychiatric examination to the department of mental health or to a state facility designated by the department, to a psychiatric clinic approved by the department, or to a program or facility described in division (B)(2) of this section. However, the psychiatric portion of an examination pursuant to a referral under this division shall be performed only by a court appointed individual who has not previously treated the offender or a member of his immediate family.

(D) An offender found to be eligible for treatment in lieu of conviction and ordered to a period of rehabilitation shall be placed under the control and supervision of the county probation department or the adult parole authority as provided in Chapter 2951. of the Revised Code as if he were on probation. The court shall order a period of rehabilitation to continue for such period as the judge or magistrate determines which may be extended but the total period shall not exceed three years. The period of rehabilitation shall be conditioned upon the offender's voluntary entrance into an appropriate treatment facility or program, faithful submission to prescribed treatment, and upon such other conditions as the court orders.

(E) Treatment of a person ordered to a period of rehabilitation under this section may include hospitalization under close supervision or otherwise, release on an out-patient status under supervision, and such other treatment or after-care as the appropriate treatment facility or program considers necessary or desirable to rehabilitate such person. Persons released from hospitalization or treatment but still subject to the ordered term of rehabilitation may be rehospitalized or returned to treatment at any time it becomes necessary for their treatment and rehabilitation.

(F) If the treating facility or program reports to the probation officer that the offender has successfully completed treatment and is rehabilitated, the court may dismiss the charges pending against the offender. If the treating facility or program reports that the offender has successfully completed treatment and is rehabilitated or has obtained maximum benefits from the treatment program, and that the offender completes the period of rehabilitation and other conditions ordered by the court, the court shall dismiss the charges pending against the offender. If the treating facility or program reports that the offender has failed treatment, or if the offender does not satisfactorily complete the period of rehabilitation or the other conditions ordered by the court, the court may take such actions as it considers appropriate. Upon violation of the conditions of the period of rehabilitation, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. If at any time after treatment has commenced, the treating facility or program reports that the offender fails to submit to or follow the prescribed treatment, the offender shall be arrested as provided in section 2951.08 of the Revised Code and removed from the treatment program or facility. Such failure and removal shall be considered by the court as a violation of the conditions of the period of rehabilitation and dealt with according to law as in cases of probation violation. At any time and for any appropriate reason, the offender, his probation officer, the authority or department that has the duty to control and supervise the offender as provided for in section 2951.05 of the Revised Code, or the treating facility or program may petition the court to reconsider, suspend, or modify its order for treatment concerning that person.

(G) The treating facility or program shall report to the authority or department who has the duty to control and supervise the offender as provided for in section 2951.05 of the Revised Code, at any periodic reporting period the court requires and whenever the offender is changed from an inpatient to an out-patient, is transferred to another treatment facility or program, fails to submit to or follow the prescribed treatment, becomes a discipline problem, is rehabilitated, or obtains the maximum benefit of treatment.

(H) If, on the offender's motion, the court finds that the offender has successfully completed the period of rehabilitation ordered by the court, is rehabilitated, is no longer drug dependent or in danger of becoming drug dependent, and has completed all other conditions, the court shall dismiss the proceeding against him. Successful completion of a period of rehabilitation under this section shall be without adjudication of guilt and is not a criminal conviction for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law and upon conviction of a crime, and the court may order the expungement of records in the manner provided in sections 2953.31 to 2953.36 of the Revised Code.

(I) An order denying treatment in lieu of conviction under this section shall not be construed to prevent conditional probation under section 2951.04 of the Revised Code.

(J) Any person ordered to treatment by the terms of this section shall be liable for expenses incurred during the course of treatment and if he is treated in a benevolent institution under the jurisdiction of the department of mental health, he is subject to the provisions of Chapter 5121. of the Revised Code.

(K) An offender charged with a drug abuse offense, other than a minor misdemeanor involving marijuana and otherwise eligible for treatment in lieu of conviction may request and may be ordered to a period of rehabilitation even though the findings required by divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section are not made. An order to rehabilitation under this division shall be subject to such conditions as the court requires but shall not be conditioned upon entry into an appropriate treatment program or facility.

Chapter 2953
[Sealing of Records]

§ 2953.31 [Definition.]

As used in sections 2953.31 to 2953.36 of the Revised Code, "first offender" means anyone who has once been convicted of an offense in this state or any other jurisdiction. When two or more convictions result from or are connected with the same act, or result from offenses committed at the same time, they shall be counted as one conviction.

HISTORY: 135 v S 5. Eff 1-1-74.

The provisions of § 2 are as follows:

SECTION 2. Section 1 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1974, with the following exception: That portion of Section 1 which affects first offenders convicted of a misdemeanor shall take effect on July 1, 1975.

Research Aids

O-Jur3d: Crim L § 1855

Am-Jur2d: Crim L §§ 813, 1021

CASE NOTES AND OAG

1. (1980) The provisions of RC § 2953.31 et seq., which refer to the expungement of a record of conviction occurring in "another jurisdiction," require the expungement of only such records as are located within the territorial boundaries of this state: Barker v. Ohio, 82 OS2d 35, 18 OO3d 22, 402 NE2d 550.

2. (1979) Where one has been convicted of a misdemeanor under a statute later ruled unconstitutional, and of a felony, the misdemeanor conviction is not an offense within the meaning of RC § 2953.31, so as to deny an applicant the opportunity to have the record of the felony conviction expunged: State v. Marshall, 60 OApp2d 371, 14 OO3d 325, 397 NE2d 777.

3. (1977) Where a defendant commits two offenses of the same type, in the same general location and within a short time of each other, both crimes constitute one act for the purpose of determining his status as a "first offender," under RC §§ 2953.31 and 2953.32: State v. Penn, 52 OApp2d 315, 6 OO3d 357, 369 NE2d 1229.

4. (1975) Expungement of the criminal record of first offenders under RC § 2953.31 et seq. is not available to any person who has been convicted of more than one offense whether it be misdemeanor or felony: State v. Walsh, 73 OO2d 498 (CP).

§ 2953.32 [Sealing of record of conviction.]

(A) A first offender may apply to the sentencing court if convicted in the state, or to a court of common pleas if convicted in another state or in a federal court, for the sealing of the record of his conviction, at the expiration of three years after his final discharge if convicted of a felony, or at the expiration of one year after his final discharge if convicted of a misdemeanor.

(B) Upon the filing of the application, the court shall set a date for a hearing and shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the hearing on the application. The court shall direct its regular probation officer, a state probation officer, or the department of probation of the county in which the applicant resides to make inquiries and written reports as the court requires concerning the applicant.

(C) If the court finds that the applicant is a first offender, that there is no criminal proceeding against him, that his rehabilitation has been attained to the satisfaction of the court, and that the sealing of the record of his conviction is consistent with the public interest, the court shall order all official records pertaining to the case sealed and, except as provided in division (F) of this section, all index references to the case deleted. The proceedings in the case shall be deemed not to have occurred and the conviction of the person who is the subject of the proceedings shall be sealed, except that upon conviction of a subsequent offense, the sealed record of prior conviction may be considered by the court in determining the sentence or other appropriate disposition, including the relief provided for in sections 2953.31 to 2953.33 of the Revised Code. Upon the filing of an application under this section, the applicant shall, unless he is indigent, pay a fee of fifty dollars. The court shall pay thirty dollars of the fee into the state treasury; and twenty dollars into the county general revenue fund if the sealed conviction was under a state statute, or into the general revenue fund of the municipal corporation involved if the sealed conviction was under a municipal ordinance.

(D) Inspection of the sealed records included in the order may be made only by the following persons or for the following purposes:

(1) By any law enforcement officer or any prosecuting attorney, city director of law, village solicitor, or similar prosecuting authority, or their assistants, to determine whether the nature and character of the offense with which a person is to be charged would be affected by virtue of the person's having previously been convicted of a crime;

(2) Upon application by the person who is the subject of the records, by the persons named in his application.

When the nature and character of the offense with which a person is to be charged would be affected by the information, it may be used for the purpose of charging the person with an offense.

(E) In any criminal proceeding, proof of any otherwise admissible prior conviction may be introduced and proved, notwithstanding the fact that for any such prior conviction an order of sealing was previously issued pursuant to sections 2953.31 to 2953.36 of the Revised Code.

(F) The person or governmental agency, office, or department that maintains sealed records pertaining to convictions that have been sealed pursuant to this section may maintain a manual or computerized index to the sealed records. The index shall contain only the name of, and alpha-numeric identifiers that relate to, the persons who are the subject of the sealed records, the word "sealed," and the name of the person, agency, office, or department that has custody of the sealed records, and shall not contain the name of the crime committed. The index shall be made available by the person who has custody of the sealed records only for the purposes set forth in divisions (C), (D), and (E) of this section.

CASE NOTES AND OAG

1. (1981) The trial courts have authority to order expungement where such unusual and exceptional circumstances make it appropriate to exercise jurisdiction over the matter. When exercising this power, the court should use a balancing test which weighs the privacy interest of the defendant against the government's legitimate need to maintain records of criminal proceedings: Pepper Pike v. Doe, 66 OS2d 374, 20 OO3d 334, 421 NE2d 1303.

2. (1981) The trial courts in Ohio have jurisdiction to order expungement and sealing of records in a criminal case where the charges are dismissed with prejudice prior to trial by the party initiating the proceedings: Pepper Pike v. Doe, 66 OS2d 374, 20 OO3d 334, 421 NE2d 1303.

3. (1979) A court's jurisdiction is not properly invoked under RC § 2953.32, the statute containing the procedure for obtaining the expungement of a record of conviction, unless the applicant for expungement is in fact a first offender. In the absence of this requirement, the expungement is void for lack of jurisdiction and may be vacated at any time: State v. Thomas, 64 OApp2d 141, 18 OO3d 106, 411 NE2d 845.

4. (1978) Where criminal charges are dismissed because of mistaken identification, the exonerated arrestee may apply to the court for immediate expungement of all records of his arrest and any and all records of judicial proceedings resulting from that arrest: State v. Allen, 59 OMisc 138, 13 OO3d 346, 394 NE2d 1025 (CP).

5. (1978) The language of RC § 2953.32, which extends the remedy of expungement to the conviction records of first offenders, is silent as to the rights of an exonerated arrestee. In the interest of protecting the individual's right to privacy, the court in its sound discretion may extend the remedy of expungement to such an accused. The court in so doing may require that records of an exonerated arrestee be removed from government files and destroyed: State v. Allen, 59 OMisc 138, 13 OO3d 346, 394 NE2d 1025 (CP).

§ 2953.33 [All rights and privileges restored.]

(A) An order to seal the record of a person's conviction restores the person who is the subject of the order to all rights and privileges not otherwise restored by termination of sentence or probation or by final release on parole.

(B) In any application for employment, license, or other right or privilege, any appearance as a witness, or any other inquiry, except as provided in division (E) of section 2953.32 of the Revised Code, a person may be questioned only with respect to convictions not sealed, unless the question bears a direct and substantial relationship to the position for which the person is being considered.

§ 2953.34 [First offender may still take appeal or seek relief.]

Nothing in sections 2953.31 to 2953.33 of the Revised Code precludes a first offender from taking an appeal or seeking any relief from his conviction or from relying on it in lieu of any subsequent prosecution for the same offense.

§ 2953.42 [Expungement of record after agreed bail forfeiture; hearing; fee.]

(A) Any person who has been arrested for any misdemeanor offense and has effected an agreed bail forfeiture may apply to the court for an expungement of his record in the case. The application may be filed at any time after the expiration of one year from the date on which the agreed bail forfeiture was entered upon the minutes of the court or the journal, whichever entry occurs first.

(B) Upon the filing of the application, the court shall set a date for hearing and shall notify the prosecuting authority for the case of the hearing on the application. If the court finds that the bail forfeiture is an agreed one and that there is no criminal proceeding against the applicant in the case, the court shall dismiss the charges in the case against the person and order that all official records pertaining to the case be expunged, all index references to the case be deleted, all fingerprints and photographs of the person obtained as a result of the case be destroyed, and the proceedings in the case be deemed not to have occurred.

(C) Upon the filing of an application pursuant to this section, the applicant shall, unless he is indigent, pay a fee of fifty dollars. The court shall pay thirty dollars of the fee into the state treasury. It shall pay twenty dollars of the fee into the county general revenue fund if the expunged case was filed under a state statute or into the general revenue fund of the municipal corporation involved if the expunged case was filed under a municipal corporation ordinance.

§ 2953.43 [Questioning concerning expunged record prohibited; release of record prohibited.]

(A) In any application for employment, license, or any other right or privilege, any appearance as a witness, or any other inquiry, a person may not be questioned with respect to any record that has been expunged pursuant to section 2953.42 of the Revised Code. If an inquiry is made in violation of this section, the person whose record was expunged may respond as if the expunged arrest did not occur and the person whose record was expunged shall not be subject to any adverse action because of the arrest or his response.

(B) An officer or employee of the state or any of its political subdivisions who knowingly releases, disseminates, or makes available for any purpose involving employment, bonding, licensing or education to any person or to any department, agency, or other instrumentality of the state, or of any of its political subdivisions, any information or other data concerning any arrest, complaint, trial, adjudication, or correctional supervision, the records of which have been expunged pursuant to section 2953.42 of the Revised Code, is guilty of divulging confidential information, a misdemeanor of the fourth degree.

(B) "Local agency" means any municipal corporation, school district, special purpose district, or township of the state or any elected officer or board, bureau, commission, department, division, institution, or instrumentality of a county.

CASE NOTES AND OAG

1. (1979) Fraudulent cost reports submitted to the Ohio Department of Public Welfare were not protected by the Ohio Privacy Act since they contained only financial data relating to the operation of defendant's nursing homes, and not "personal information" as that term is defined in RC § 1347.01(E): U.S. v. Collins, 596 F2d 166 (6th Cir.).

2. (1979) The public's right to know, as codified in RC § 149.43, must be weighed against the individual's right to personal privacy. The former law prevails where the only disclosure is the names and addresses of PERS retirees to an organization formed for their benefit: State ex rel. Public Employees Retirees v. PERS, 60 OS2d 93, 14 OO3d 331, 397 NE2d 1191.

This section was about the creation of the Ohio privacy board.

§ 1347.03 [Annual notice of existence of personal information system.]

(A) Every state agency that maintains a personal information system shall, prior to the first day of December of each year, file a notice of the existence and character of the system with the director of administrative services. A state agency may file a supplemental or amended notice at any time after the original notice is filed.

(B) Every state agency that establishes a new personal information system or that substantially enlarges an existing personal information system shall do one of the following:

(1) If an original notice was filed pursuant to division (A) of this section, file a supplemental notice with the director of administrative services at any time after the original notice was filed;

(2) If an original notice was not filed pursuant to division (A) of this section, file a notice of the existence and character of the new or enlarged personal information system with the director pursuant to division (A) of this section.

(C) Notices required or permitted by divisions (A) and (B) of this section shall state the name, purpose, and use of the personal information system.

(D) The director of administrative services may order a state agency to amend a notice that does not conform to this section.

*HISTORY: 136 v H 799. Eff 1-23-81.

(D) "Maintains" means state or local agency ownership of, control over, responsibility for, or accountability for systems and includes, but is not limited to, state or local agency depositing or information with a data processing center for storage, processing, or dissemination. An agency "maintains" all systems of records that are required by law to be kept by the agency.

(E) "Personal information" means any information that describes anything about a person, or that indicates actions done by or to a person, or that indicates that a person possesses certain personal characteristics, and that contains, and can be retrieved from a system by, a name, identifying number, symbol, or other identifier assigned to a person.

(F) "System" means any collection or group of related records that are kept in an organized manner and that are maintained by a state or local agency, and from which personal information is retrieved by the name of the person or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifier assigned to the person. "System" includes both records that are manually stored and records that are stored using electronic data processing equipment. "System" does not include collected archival records in the custody of or administered under the authority of the Ohio historical society, published directories, reference materials or newsletters, or routine information that is maintained for the purpose of internal office administration, the use of which would not adversely affect a person.

(G) "Interconnection of systems" means a linking of systems that belong to more than one agency or to an agency and other organizations, which linking of systems results in a system that permits each agency or organization involved in the linking to have unrestricted access to the systems of the other agencies and organizations.

(H) "Combination of systems" means a unification of systems that belong to more than one agency, or to an agency and another organization, into a single system in which the records that belong to each agency or organization may or may not be obtainable by the others.

§ 1347.04 [Exemptions.]

(A)(1) Except as provided in division (A)(2) of this section, the following are exempt from the provisions of this chapter:

§ 1347.08 [Inspection of personal information maintained.]

(A) Every state or local agency that maintains a personal information system, upon the request and the proper identification of any person who is the subject of personal information in the system, shall:

(1) Inform the person of the existence of any personal information in the system of which he is the subject;

(2) Except as provided in divisions (C) and (E)(2) of this section, permit the person, his legal guardian, or an attorney who presents a signed written authorization made by the person, to inspect all personal information in the system of which he is the subject;

(3) Inform the person about the types of uses made of the personal information, including the identity of any users usually granted access to the system.

(B) Any person who wishes to exercise a right provided by this section may be accompanied by another individual of his choice.

(C) A state or local agency, upon request, shall disclose medical, psychiatric, or psychological information to a person who is the subject of the information or to his legal guardian, unless a physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist determines for the agency that the disclosure of the information is likely to have an adverse effect on the person, in which case the information shall be released to a physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist who is designated by the person or by his legal guardian.

(D) If an individual who is authorized to inspect personal information that is maintained in a personal information system requests the state or local agency that maintains the system to provide a copy of any personal information that he is authorized to inspect, the agency shall provide a copy of the personal information to the individual. Each state and local agency may establish reasonable fees for the service of copying, upon request, personal information that is maintained by the agency.

(E)(1) This section regulates access to personal information that is maintained in a personal information system by persons who are the subject of the information, but does not limit the authority of any person, including a person who is the subject of personal information maintained in a personal information system, to inspect or have copied, pursuant to section 149.43 of the Revised Code, a public record as defined in that section.

(2) This section does not provide a person who is the subject of personal information maintained in a personal information system, his legal guardian, or an attorney authorized by the person, with a right to inspect or have copied, or require an agency that maintains a personal information system to permit the inspection of or to copy, a confidential law enforcement investigatory record or trial preparation record, as those terms are defined in divisions (A)(2) and (4) of section 149.43 of the Revised Code.

(F) This section does not apply to the papers, records, and books pertaining to an adoption, which under section 3107.17 of the Revised Code are subject to inspection only upon consent of the court.

CASE NOTES AND OAG

1. (1981) With the exception of confidential law enforcement investigatory records, trial preparation records and adoption records, the Commission, pursuant to RC § 1347.08, must disclose to an employee who is the subject of such information all employee personnel information that is subject to the provisions of RC Chapter 1347 (the Privacy Act), including medical records and records the release of which is prohibited by state or federal law, unless state or federal law expressly prohibits disclosure of such information. If, however, it is determined that the disclosure of medical records to the employee may have an adverse effect upon the employee, the Commission must disclose the medical records to a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist designated by the employee, rather than to the employee himself: OAG No.81-038.

§ 1347.09 [Disputed information; duties of agency.]

(A)(1) If any person disputes the accuracy, relevance, timeliness, or completeness of personal information that pertains to him and that is maintained by any state or local agency in a personal information system, he may request the agency to investigate the current status of the information. The agency shall, within a reasonable time after, but not later than ninety days after, receiving the request from the disputant, make a reasonable investigation to determine whether the disputed information is accurate, relevant, timely, and complete, and shall notify the disputant of the results of the investigation and of the action that the agency plans to take with respect to the disputed information. The agency shall delete any information that it cannot verify or that it finds to be inaccurate.

(2) If after an agency's determination, the disputant is not satisfied, the agency shall do either of the following:

(a) Permit the disputant to include within the system a brief statement of his position on the disputed information. The agency may limit the statement to not more than one hundred words if the agency assists the disputant to write a clear summary of the dispute.

(b) Permit the disputant to include within the system a notation that the disputant protests that the information is inaccurate, irrelevant, outdated, or incomplete. The agency shall maintain a copy of the disputant's statement of the dispute. The agency may limit the statement to not more than one hundred words if the agency assists the disputant to write a clear summary of the dispute.

(3) The agency shall include the statement or notation in any subsequent transfer, report, or dissemination of the disputed information and may include with the statement or notation of the disputant a statement by the agency that it has reasonable grounds to believe that the dispute is frivolous or irrelevant, and of the reasons for its belief.

(B) The presence of contradictory information in the disputant's file does not alone constitute reasonable grounds to believe that the dispute is frivolous or irrelevant.

(C) Following any deletion of information that is found to be inaccurate or the accuracy of which can no longer be verified, or if a statement of dispute was filed by the disputant, the agency shall, at the written request of the disputant, furnish notification that the information has been deleted, or furnish a copy of the disputant's statement of the dispute, to any person specifically designated by the person. The agency shall clearly and conspicuously disclose to the disputant that he has the right to make such a request to the agency.

CASE NOTES AND OAG

1. (1980) There is no provision in RC Chapter 1347 for holding null and void an order made in violation of that chapter. Nor does violation of this chapter divest a public agency of subject matter jurisdiction over areas within its competence, such that a subsequent order of that agency would be void: Matheny v. Bd. of Educ., 62 OS2d 362, 16 OO3d 411, 405 NE2d 1041.

§ 1347.10 [Liability for wrongful disclosure; limitation of action.]

(A) A person who is harmed by the use of personal information that relates to him and that is maintained in a personal information system may recover damages in civil action from any person who directly and proximately caused the harm by doing any of the following:

(1) Intentionally maintaining personal information that he knows, or has reason to know, is inaccurate, irrelevant, no longer timely, or incomplete and may result in such harm;

(2) Intentionally using or disclosing the personal information in a manner prohibited by law;

(3) Intentionally supplying personal information for storage in, or using or disclosing personal information maintained in, a personal information system, that he knows, or has reason to know, is false;

(4) Intentionally denying to the person the right to inspect and dispute the personal information at a time when inspection or correction might have prevented the harm.

An action under this division shall be brought within two years after the cause of action accrued or within six months after the wrongdoing is discovered, whichever is later; provided that no action shall be brought later than six years after the cause of action accrued. The cause of action accrues at the time that the wrongdoing occurs.

(B) Any person who, or any state or local agency that, violates or proposes to violate any provision of this chapter may be enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction. The court may issue an order or enter a judgment that is necessary to ensure compliance with the applicable provisions of this chapter or to prevent the use of any practice that violates this chapter. An action for an injunction may be prosecuted by the person who is the subject of the violation, by the attorney general, or by any prosecuting attorney.

§ 1347.99 [Penalty.]

No public official, public employee, or other person who maintains, or is employed by a person who maintains, a personal information system for a state or local agency shall purposely refuse to comply with division (E), (F), (G), or (H) of section 1347.05, section 1347.071 [1347.07.1], division (A), (B), or (C) of section 1347.08, or division (A) or (C) of section 1347.09 of the Revised Code. Whoever violates this section is guilty of a minor misdemeanor.

Chapter 192 Public Records

192.001 Policy concerning public records. (1) The Legislative Assembly finds that:

(a) The records of the state and its political subdivisions are so interrelated and interdependent, that the decision as to what records are retained or destroyed is a matter of state-wide public policy.

(b) The interest and concern of citizens in public records recognizes no jurisdictional boundaries, and extends to such records wherever they may be found in Oregon.

(c) As local programs become increasingly intergovernmental, the state and its political subdivisions have a responsibility to insure orderly retention and destruction of all public records, whether current or non-current, and to insure the preservation of public records of value for administrative, legal and research purposes.

(2) The purpose of ORS 192.005 to 192.170 and 357.805 to 357.895 is to provide direction for the retention or destruction of public records in Oregon, and to assure the retention of records essential to meet the needs of the Legislative Assembly, the state, its political subdivisions and its citizens, in so far as the records affect the administration of government, legal rights and responsibilities, and the accumulation of information of value for research purposes of all kinds. All records not included in types described in this subsection shall be destroyed in accordance with the rules adopted by the Secretary of State. [1973 c.439 s.1]

"Public records" includes correspondence, public records made by photocopying and public writings, but does not include:

(a) Records of the Legislative Assembly, its committees, officers and employees.

(b) Library and museum materials made or acquired and preserved solely for reference or exhibition purposes.

(c) Extra copies of a document, preserved only for convenience of reference.

192.040 Making, filing and recording records by photocopying. A state agency or political subdivision making public records or receiving and filing or recording public records, may do such making or receiving and filing or recording by means of photocopying. (3) "Person" includes any natural person, corporation, partnership, firm or association.

(4) "Public record" includes any writing containing information relating to the conduct of the public's business, prepared, owned, used or retained by a public body regardless of physical form or characteristics.

192.420 Right to inspect public records. Every person has a right to inspect any public record of a public body in this state, except as otherwise expressly provided by ORS 192.500.
[1973 c.794 s.3]

192.440 Certified copies of public records; fees. (1) The custodian of any public record which a person has a right to inspect shall give him, on demand, a certified copy of it, if the record is of a nature permitting such copying, or shall furnish reasonable opportunity to inspect or copy.

(2) The public body may establish fees reasonably calculated to reimburse it for its actual cost in making such records available.

192.450 Petition to review denial of right to inspect state public record; appeal from decision of Attorney General denying inspection. (1) Subject to ORS 192.480, any person denied the right to inspect or to receive a copy of any public record of a state agency may petition the Attorney General to review the public record to determine if it may be withheld from public inspection. The burden is on the agency to sustain its action. The Attorney General shall issue his order denying or granting the petition, or denying it in part and granting it in part, within seven days from the day he receives the petition.

(2) If the Attorney General grants the petition and orders the state agency to disclose the record, or if he grants the petition in part and orders the state agency to disclose a portion of the record, the state agency shall comply with the order in full within seven days after issuance of the order, unless within the seven-day period it issues a notice of its intention to institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief in the Circuit Court for Marion County. Copies of the notice shall be sent to the Attorney General and by certified mail to the petitioner at the address shown on the petition. The state agency shall institute the proceedings within seven days after it issues its notice of intention to do so. If the Attorney General denies the petition in whole or in part, or if the state agency continues to withhold the record or a part of it notwithstanding an order to disclose by the Attorney General, the person seeking disclosure may institute such proceedings.

(3) The Attorney General shall serve as counsel for the state agency in a suit filed under subsection (2) of this section if the suit arises out of a determination by him that the public record should not be disclosed, or that a part of the public record should not be disclosed if the state agency has fully complied with his order requiring disclosure of another part or parts of the public record, and in no other case. In any case in which the Attorney General is prohibited from serving as counsel for the state agency, the agency may retain special counsel.

192.460 Procedure to review denial of right to inspect other public records. ORS 192.450 is equally applicable to the case of a person denied the right to inspect or receive a copy of any public record of a public body other than a state agency, except that in such case the district attorney of the county in which the public body is located, or if it is located in more than one county the district attorney of the county in which the administrative offices of the public body are located, shall carry out the functions of the Attorney General, and any suit filed shall be filed in the circuit court for such county, and except that the district attorney shall not serve as counsel for the public body, in the cases permitted under subsection (3) of ORS 192.450, unless he ordinarily serves as counsel for it.

192.465 Effect of failure of Attorney General, district attorney or public official to take timely action on inspection petition. (1) The failure of the Attorney General or district attorney to issue an order under ORS 192.450 or 192.460, denying, granting, or denying in part and granting in part a petition to require disclosure within seven days from the day of receipt of the petition shall be treated as an order denying the petition for the purpose of determining whether a person may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief under ORS 192.450 or 192.460.

(2) The failure of an elected official to deny, grant, or deny in part and grant in part a request to inspect or receive a copy of a public record within seven days from the day of receipt of the request shall be treated as a denial of the request for the purpose of determining whether a person may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief under ORS 192.450 or 192.460.

192.470 Petition form; procedure when petition received. (1) A petition to the Attorney General or district attorney requesting him to order a public record to be made available for inspection or to be produced shall be in substantially the following form, or in a form containing the same information:

I (we), _____ (name(s)), the undersigned, request the Attorney General (or District Attorney of _____ County) to order _____ (name of governmental body) and its employes to (make available for inspection) (produce a copy or copies of) the following records:

I (we) asked to inspect and/or copy these records on _____ (date) at _____ (address). The request was denied by the following person(s):

OREGON

1. _____
(Name of public officer or employee;
title or position, if known)
  2. _____
(Name of public officer or employee;
title or position, if known)
- _____

This form should be delivered or mailed to the Attorney General's office in Salem, or the district attorney's office in the county courthouse.

(2) Promptly upon receipt of such a petition, the Attorney General or district attorney shall notify the public body involved. The public body shall thereupon transmit the public record disclosure of which is sought, or a copy, to the Attorney General, together with a statement of its reasons for believing that the public record should not be disclosed. In an appropriate case, with the consent of the Attorney General, the public body may instead disclose the nature or substance of the public record to the Attorney General.

192.480 Procedure to review denial by elected official of right to inspect public records. In any case in which a person is denied the right to inspect or to receive a copy of a public record in the custody of an elected official, or in the custody of any other person but as to which an elected official claims the right to withhold disclosure, no petition to require disclosure may be filed with the Attorney General or district attorney, or if a petition is filed it shall not be considered by the Attorney General or district attorney after a claim of right to withhold disclosure by an elected official. In such case a person denied the right to inspect or to receive a copy of a public record may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief in the appropriate circuit court, as specified in ORS 192.450 or 192.460, and the Attorney General or district attorney may upon request serve or decline to serve, in his discretion, as counsel in such suit for an elected official for which he ordinarily serves as counsel. Nothing in this section shall preclude an elected official from requesting advice from the Attorney General or a district attorney as to whether a public record should be disclosed.

(2) The following public records are exempt from disclosure under ORS 192.410 to 192.500:

(a) Communications within a public body or between public bodies of an advisory nature to the extent that they cover other than purely factual materials and are preliminary to any final agency determination of policy or action. This exemption shall not apply unless the public body shows that in the particular instance the public interest in encouraging frank communication between officials and employees of public bodies clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure;

(b) Information of a personal nature such as that kept in a personal, medical or similar file, if the public disclosure thereof would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance. The party seeking disclosure shall have the burden of showing that public disclosure would not constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy;

(c) Information submitted to a public body in confidence and not otherwise required by law to be submitted, where such information should reasonably be considered confidential, the public body has obliged itself in good faith not to disclose the information, and when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure;

(d) Information or records of the Corrections Division, including the State Board of Parole, to the extent that disclosure thereof would interfere with the rehabilitation of a person in custody of the division or substantially prejudice or prevent the carrying out of the functions of the division, if the public interest in confidentiality clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure;

(e) Records, reports and other information received or compiled by the Superintendent of Banks in his administration of ORS chapters 723, 724, 725 and 726, not otherwise required by law to be made public, to the extent that the interests of lending institutions, their officers, employees and customers in preserving the confidentiality of such information outweighs the public interest in disclosure;

(f) Reports made to or filed with the court under ORS 137.075 or 137.530;

(g) Any public records or information the disclosure of which is prohibited by federal law or regulations;

(h) Public records or information the disclosure of which is prohibited or restricted or otherwise made confidential or privileged under ORS 1.440, 7.211, 7.215, 41.675, 44.040, 57.850, 135.155, 146.780, 173.230, 179.495, 181.540, 306.129, 308.290, 314.835, 314.840, 336.195, 341.290, 342.850, 344.600, 346.165, 346.167, 351.065, 411.320, 416.230, 418.135, 418.770, 419.567, 432.060, 432.120, 432.425, 432.430, 469.090, 474.160, 476.090, 483.610, 656.702, 657.665, 706.720, 706.730, 715.040, 722.414, 731.264 or 744.017;

(i) Public records or information described in this section, furnished by the public body originally compiling, preparing or receiving them to any other public officer or public body in connection with performance of the duties of the recipient, if the considerations originally giving rise to the confidential or exempt nature of the public records or information remain applicable; and

(j) Records of the Energy Facility Siting Council concerning the review or approval of security programs pursuant to subsection (3) of ORS 469.530.

(3) If any public record contains material which is not exempt under subsection (1), (2) or (4) of this section, as well as material which is exempt from disclosure, the public body shall separate the exempt and nonexempt material and make the nonexempt material available for examination.

(4) (a) Upon application of any public body prior to convening of the 1975 regular session of the Legislative Assembly, the Governor may exempt any class of public records, in addition to the classes specified in subsection (1) of this section, from disclosure under ORS 192.410 to 192.500 unless the public interest requires disclosure in the particular instance, if he finds that the class of public records for which exemption is sought is such that unlimited public access thereto would substantially prejudice or prevent the carrying out of any public function or purpose, so that the public interest in confidentiality of such records substantially outweighs the public interest in disclosure. Such exemption from disclosure shall be limited or conditioned to the extent the Governor finds appropriate.

(b) Prior to the granting of any exemption under this subsection the Governor shall hold a public hearing after notice as provided by ORS 183.335, or he may designate the Attorney General to hold the required hearing.

(c) Any exemption granted under this subsection shall expire June 14, 1975.

DIVISION 10

OREGON CRIMINAL OFFENDER
INFORMATION SYSTEM

Scope of System

257-10-010 Rules adopted herein relate solely to the Oregon Criminal Offender Information System as maintained by the Oregon State Police. The Rules do not affect in any way other agencies' original records of arrest, arrest logs, or reports of crimes available for inspection under terms of the Oregon Public Records Law (ORS 192.410 to 192.500).

Oregon Criminal Offender Information files contain information, contributed by Criminal Justice Agencies, on a person's record of arrests, the nature and disposition of criminal charges, sentencing, confinement, and release, plus identifying data only relating to fingerprints of applicants submitted under Oregon Law. These files shall not permanently contain information about the political, religious, or social views, associations, or activities of any individual, group, association, corporation, business, or partnership unless such information directly relates to an investigation of past or threatened criminal acts or activities and there are reasonable grounds to suspect the subject of the information is or may be involved in criminal acts or activities.

The Oregon CCH System is a computerization of essentially the same criminal offender information, and is maintained by the OSP under provisions of Oregon Law. Computerization of the manually accessed paper file is designed to provide faster access to criminal offender information for Oregon Criminal Justice Agencies.

ANALYSIS

1. Mandatory destruction.
2. "Acquittal or other exoneration."
3. Time for destruction.

1. Mandatory Destruction.
The remedy of destruction of photographs provided for in this section was mandatory and not permissive and as photographs were not destroyed on request, they were destroyed by court order and the person violating the statute was fined. Coalition of Black Leadership v. Doorley, 349 F. Supp. 127 (D.R.I. 1972).

2. "Acquittal or Other Exoneration."

Dismissal of charges amounts to "exoneration" for purposes of this section. Coalition of Black Leadership v. Doorley, 349 F. Supp. 127 (D.R.I. 1972).

3. Time for Destruction.

The privacy right conferred by the legislature in this section vested upon dismissal of felony charges against plaintiffs, and they were not required to wait for the statute of limitations on the felony charge to run before demanding destruction of photographs. Coalition of Black Leadership v. Doorley, 349 F. Supp. 127 (D.R.I. 1972).

or arrest records expunged or restricted, 46 A.L.R.3d 900.

12-1-13. Removal and destruction of records subsequent to conviction for misdemeanor. — Any fingerprint, photograph, physical measurements or other record of identification, heretofore or hereafter taken by or under the direction of the attorney-general, the superintendent of state police, the member or members of the police department of any city or town, or any other officer authorized by this chapter to take the same, of a person charged with a misdemeanor, prior to the final conviction and subsequent to conviction of such person for such misdemeanor, shall be destroyed by the officer or department having the custody or possession thereof upon demand of the person so photographed, measured or otherwise identified, provided, that such person has no record of conviction of a felony, and provided that such person has successfully completed any sentence or probationary period imposed upon him in connection with such misdemeanor and has not been charged with or convicted of any other crime for a period of five (5) years from the date of completion of such sentence or probationary period, and further provided that such person was not originally charged with a felony or a misdemeanor carrying as a possible penalty a fine of more than five hundred dollars ($500) or a penalty of one (1) year or more which charge was reduced to a lesser offense.

For all intents and purposes, the destruction of the aforementioned conviction shall operate and have the same effect and force in any and every situation and case as though no such arrest, arraignment or conviction ever occurred or took place.

The court in which such conviction took place shall, if any person shall refuse to carry out any of the provisions of this section, upon petition under oath setting forth sufficient facts to warrant such destruction of records, assign said petition for hearing within ten (10) days provided at least five (5) days notice of such hearing is given to the person having custody of such record by mailing him a copy of said petition with the time, date and place of hearing endorsed thereon.

If the court finds that the petitioner is entitled to relief, it shall order such destruction as provided herein.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

The Freedom of Information Act would not require the disclosure of: (1) personnel information obtained in a preliminary audit data gathering; (2) a preliminary audit report presented as an administrative briefing; (3) informal working documents collected in preparation for conducting an audit and preparing a final audit report. 1976-77 Op Atty Gen, No 77-133, p 111.

The South Carolina Freedom of Information Act does not require that the public be given access to personnel files and employment applications maintained on employees of the South Carolina House of Representatives. 1976-77 Op Atty Gen, No 77-45, p 45.

Under the decision of the South Carolina Supreme Court in Cooper v. Bales, the State of South Carolina and its political subdivisions should release only the employee's salary, grade and job description upon request under the FOIA. Any further disclosure could come only if the employee authorizes the release or if a court of competent jurisdiction orders such disclosure. 1976-77 Op Atty Gen, No 77-243, p 180.

Under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, records containing charges against residential homebuilders should be made available for public inspection and copying once a proper disposition has been made of the charge by the Residential Homebuilders' Commission. 1976-77 Op Atty Gen, No 77-288, p 219.

When the Administrator of Consumer Affairs receives information relating to consumer complaints, pursuant to Code Section 8-800.387, [1976 Code § 37-6-117] (1962), and the complaint is later determined to be groundless, the Administrator is not required to release such information under the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act. 1976-77 Op Atty Gen, No 77-132, p 111.

(1) The Freedom of Information Act does not require the disclosure of how each member of a school board voted in executive session.

(2) The school board may elect officers in a public meeting by secret ballot, but any written record of the vote by name would be public information after the votes are tabulated. 1976-77 Op Atty Gen, No 77-279, p 214.

(a) "Public body" means any department of the State, any state board, commission, agency and authority, any public or governmental body or political subdivision of the State, including counties, municipalities, townships, school districts and special purpose districts, or any organization, corporation or agency supported in whole or in part by public funds or expending public funds and includes any quasi-governmental body of the State and its political subdivisions, including, without limitation, such bodies as the South Carolina Public Service Authority and the South Carolina State Ports Authority.

Records such as income tax returns, medical records, hospital medical staff reports, scholastic records, adoption records and other records which by law are required to be closed to the public shall not be deemed to be made open to the public under the provisions of this chapter nor shall the definition of public records include those records concerning which the public body, by favorable public vote of three-fourths of the membership taken within fifteen working days after receipt of written request, concludes that the public interest is best served by not disclosing them. Provided, however, nothing herein shall authorize or require the disclosure of records of the Board of Financial Institutions pertaining to applications and surveys for charters and branches of banks and savings and loan associations or surveys and examinations of such institutions required to be made by law.

(d) "Meeting" means the convening of a quorum of the constituent membership of a public body, whether corporal or by means of electronic equipment, to discuss or act upon a matter over which the public body has supervision, control, jurisdiction or advisory power.

(b) The public body may establish and collect fees not to exceed the actual cost of searching for or making copies of records. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the custodian of the public records from charging a reasonable hourly rate for making records available to the public nor requiring a reasonable deposit of such costs prior to searching for or making copies of the records.

(c) Each public body, upon written request for records made under this chapter, shall within fifteen days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays) of the receipt of any such request notify the person making such request of its determination and the reasons therefor. When the Administrator of Consumer Affairs receives information relating to consumer complaints, pursuant to Code Section 8-800.387 [1976 Code § 37-6-117] (1962), and the complaint is later determined to be groundless, the Administrator is not required to release such information under the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act. 1976-77 Op Atty Gen, No 77-132, p 111.

Incident and Supplemental Reports prepared by Sheriff's Officers and submitted for filing in the Records Division of the Police Service Bureau do not constitute public records subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act if it can be shown that the public interest is best served by non-disclosure. (1) The Freedom of Information Act does not require the disclosure of how each member of a school board voted in executive session; (2) The school board may elect officers in a public meeting by secret ballot, but any written record of the vote by name would be public information after the votes are tabulated. 1976-77 Op Atty Gen, No 77-279, p 214.

A county council cannot pass an ordinance or resolution restricting public records from discovery under the Freedom of Information Act. ### 73-21 Organization, Purpose and Function of Departments

A. The State Law Enforcement Division Criminal Justice Information and Communication System known as SLED/CJICS, acting as the State's central criminal justice information repository, shall collect, process and store criminal justice information and records necessary to the operation of the criminal justice information system of the State Law Enforcement Division. The SLED/CJICS is comprised of four departments:

(1) The Computerized Criminal History Department has the responsibility of converting manual criminal history record information to a computerized system. Conversion of existing CHRI must be compatible with established National Crime and Information Center (NCIC) concepts and operating policies in order to enable an accurate exchange of criminal history data. A coding manual is used for conversion purposes. Alpha and numeric codes are used on code sheets for the conversion process.

The five segments used on code sheets are:

- (a) identification segment
- (b) identification add-on segment
- (c) arrest segment
- (d) judicial segment
- (e) custody-supervision segment

South Carolina statute citations and offense codes are assigned to each specific stated charge. The offense codes must meet state and national requirements for the entering of data. The ultimate goal of the CCH Unit is to serve the law enforcement agencies, courts, and public throughout the state with up to date criminal history record information.

SOUTH CAROLINA

(2) The Criminal Records Department has the responsibility of collecting, processing and storing all fingerprint cards, dispositions, and FBI rap sheets of persons arrested in the state. The criminal records supervisor will serve as the custodian of records. Fingerprints will provide the basis for CHRI. The Criminal Records Department is responsible for recording receipt of, name searching, classifying, identifying, and filing of all criminal fingerprint cards and final disposition report forms. The department is also responsible for handling expungements and dismissals as required by South Carolina Statute 44-53-450 and Statute 17-1-40. After the handling and processing at SLED is completed, the department is responsible for forwarding fingerprint cards, final dispositions report forms, expungements, and dismissals to the FBI Identification Division in Washington, D. C. The department also has the responsibility of handling all disseminations in accordance with Title 28, The South Carolina Plan for Security and Privacy of Criminal History Record Information and the NCIC Operations Manual to ensure the proper handling of criminal history record information.

(3) The Data Processing Department has the responsibility of providing the necessary systems and programming support to develop, manage and modify as required various computer applications and programs as deemed necessary by the Criminal History Department, the Criminal Records Department and the Uniform Crime Reporting Department to facilitate the automated processing of such information. This department is further charged with the responsibility to maintain computer equipment and associated software to ensure both effective and efficient information processing and message switching and to ensure that adequate levels of security are provided throughout the electronic data processing system. The Data Processing Department is also responsible for the maintenance and operation of the statewide communications network, the computer interface with the Federal Bureau of Investigation/National Crime Information Center and the National Law Enforcement Telecommunications System.

(4) The Uniform Crime Reporting Department (UCR) has the responsibility for processing, analyzing, coding and compiling of all incident and booking reports received from law enforcement agencies. The Uniform Crime Reporting Department will classify and count all incident and booking reports according to procedures defined by the International Association of Chiefs of Police Committee on Uniform Crime Reports, the Uniform Crime Reports Bureau of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the State Law Enforcement Division.

B. When practicable, the SLED/CJICS will develop systems which inform one criminal justice agency of the general nature of criminal justice information held or maintained by other criminal justice agencies.

C. The SLED/CJICS shall collect, process, maintain, and disseminate information and records with due regard to privacy interests of individuals and shall strive to maintain or disseminate only accurate and complete records.

D. Fingerprints shall be used as the basis for criminal history records.

73-22 Completeness and Accuracy of Records

To ensure the completeness and accuracy of records on file and to disseminate the most current criminal history information available, the following procedures will be followed:

SOUTH CAROLINA

A. Dispositions will be forwarded to the Criminal Records Department within ninety days for processing.

B. The Criminal Records Department will process the dispositions within a reasonable period of time following receipt of such dispositions.

C. All criminal justice agencies shall query the central repository prior to dissemination of any criminal history record information to assure that the most up to date disposition data is being used.

D. Inquiries shall be made prior to any dissemination except in those cases where time is of the essence and the repository is technically incapable of responding within the necessary time period.

E. Criminal history record information shall not knowingly contain erroneous information. To accomplish this end, all criminal justice agencies shall institute a process of data collection, entry, storage, and systematic audit that will minimize the possibility of recording and storing inaccurate information and upon finding inaccurate information of a material nature, shall notify all criminal justice agencies known to have received such information.

73-23 Dissemination of Criminal History Record Information

A. SLED/CJICS will operate and maintain a criminal justice information system which will support the collection, storage, retrieval and dissemination of all criminal history record information, both intrastate and interstate. SLED/CJICS will make available, upon request, to bona-fide city, county or state criminal justice agencies any information which will aid these agencies in the performance of their official duties; provided that the dissemination of such information would not be a violation of state or federal laws and regulations restricting its use for reasons of privacy and security. This will include conviction and nonconviction data.

B. User agency agrees to abide by all laws, rules and regulations concerning collection, storage, retrieval and dissemination of criminal justice information.

C. All criminal justice agencies who desire to exchange criminal history record information with the SLED/CJICS shall execute a standard user agreement.

D. User agency agrees to indemnify and save harmless SLED/CJICS and its officials and employees from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, suits and proceedings by others, against all liability to others, including but not limited to any liability for damages by reason of or arising out of any false arrest or imprisonment, or any cause of action whatsoever, or against any loss, cost, expense, and damage, resulting therefrom, arising out of or involving any action, inaction, slander or libel on the part of the user agency in the exercise or enjoyment of this agreement.

E. The SLED/CJICS may disseminate certain criminal history record information to private persons, authorized governmental entities, businesses and commercial establishments or their designated representatives. The CHRI disseminated shall be exclusively limited, without exception, to records of adjudications of guilt. An adjudication of guilt shall mean a judgement or sentence that determines the defendant is guilty of a violation of a criminal statute. It shall include the notation of arrest and conviction, and if known, the sentence or fine imposed, and all available probation, parole and release information pertinent to the charge.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Criminal history record information concerning an arrest shall not be disseminated if an interval of one year has elapsed from the date of that arrest and no disposition of the charge has been recorded and no indictment or accusation has been returned. Use of criminal history record information disseminated to noncriminal justice agencies under these rules and federal regulations shall be limited to the purposes for which it was given and may not be disseminated further.

(1) Criteria for dissemination to noncriminal justice agencies:

(a) Identification based on full name, race, sex, date of birth, and social security number, if available. Criminal history information disseminated based on these characteristics will be so noted: social security number will only be used in performing criminal history record searches after the individual has been informed that his/her social security number is to be used and the individual agrees.

(b) Identification based on the submission of fingerprints.

In order for a noncriminal justice agency to receive a positive identification criminal history record search, it will be necessary for the applicant to submit a complete set of legible fingerprints to the Criminal Records Department. These fingerprints shall be made using black ink and recorded on the standard FBI applicant fingerprint card (FBI form number FD258). The fingerprint card shall be completed and include all identifying data.

SOUTH CAROLINA

(2) Costs

(a) Private persons, authorized governmental entities, businesses and commercial establishments or their designated representatives shall be charged a reasonable fee for performing the criminal history record request. The fee will be established by the State Law Enforcement Division and shall not exceed the actual cost of searching, processing and producing copies of the disseminations as determined by the State Law Enforcement Division. The South Carolina State Law Enforcement Division maintains the privilege to change the fee for this service without notice and without amending these rules as the cost might dictate.

(b) Method of Payment

Payment shall be made to the South Carolina State Law Enforcement Division excluding cash, personalized checks, credit cards or other methods not conducive to the Division's accounting policies.

(3) All requests for criminal history record information by non-criminal justice agencies shall be made in writing.

(4) Any individual desiring to verify the existence or non-existence of criminal history record information housed by SLED/CJICS on himself/herself may do so by producing proper identification to the Criminal Records Department. Such inquiry shall be made during the hours between 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. (Exceptions: legal holidays observed by the State).

F. Criminal history logs shall be maintained by those agencies which disseminate criminal history record information. The logs shall contain the mechanism to correct any inaccurate information. Upon finding inaccurate information of a material nature, it is the duty of the criminal justice agency of discovery to notify all criminal justice agencies or persons known to have received such information. The following minimum information concerning the dissemination of criminal history record information shall be maintained in the logs in order to provide an audit trail:

(1) Manual log:

- (a) date of dissemination
- (b) agency requestor
- (c) individual requestor
- (d) name of record subject
- (e) state identification number
- (f) description of items released
- (g) agency providing the information if this is a secondary

dissemination

(2) Computer system log:

The same information as in Regulation 73-23, Section F. (1) shall be kept on the computer system log with the exception that the log may be in the form of electromagnetic storage medium. The log information must be in a form that can be reproduced as a printed list. All log sheets shall be made available to the SLED/CJICS instructor on a monthly basis of inspection and quality control. The manual log and computer system log will be maintained for a period of one year.

73-24 Limitations on Dissemination of Nonconviction Data

(5) - If the individual is accompanied by a potential employer, that potential employer must not be allowed to see the record. The employer must follow regular dissemination procedures even for conviction information.

(6) Waivers are meaningless. The record does not belong to the record subject; it belongs to the agency which holds it.

(7) A reasonable fee shall be charged for processing this review at SLED. The fee is not to exceed the actual cost of searching, processing and producing copies concerning the review.

(8) The Right of Inspection shall be displayed by posters at SLED.

B. Verification method:

(3) The site for the review for one to inspect his record at SLED will be the office of the criminal records supervisor or a location designated by the criminal records supervisor to ensure privacy of the individual for review.

(4) Inspection of records held by other agencies will be the responsibility of the requestor, if the agency is in South Carolina. If the information is needed from another state, SLED will attempt to obtain this information if it is from another criminal justice agency.

C. Challenge procedures:

(1) In order for a formal challenge of the record to be made, the individual will complete a printed form.

(2) After completion of this form, the individual may be given a copy of the entries which are challenged.

(3) Each copy will be marked "For Review and Challenge Only".

D. Record verification and review procedures

(1) It is the responsibility of the agency which originated the information, to accept or deny the challenge by performing an "Administrative Review" to determine the validity of the challenge.

(2) If the originating agency has purged source documents and cannot verify the accuracy of a challenged record entry, it will have to accept the challenge and modify the record. If the case was filed in court, the court should possess the necessary supporting documents.

E. Administrative Review

(1) Any individual who challenges his record is entitled to have the record appropriately removed, modified or corrected if there is no factual controversy concerning such challenge.

(2) If there is factual controversy and it is resolved against the individual, he is entitled to a review of that decision by someone in the agency other than the person who made the decision. This review would be handled by the Assistant Director of SLED.

SOUTH CAROLINA

(3) The individual shall be notified in writing of the decision of the Assistant Director of SLED within thirty days of submission of the written request.

F. Administrative Appeal

(1) If an individual's challenge or a portion of the challenge is denied with respect to the accuracy or completeness of the record, then the individual would within thirty days of receipt of the denial, be able to appeal the denial by petitioning three of the original members of the CJICS Policy Advisory Board.

(2) The individual upon requesting an administrative appeal, would receive a hearing at which the individual or his counsel could present evidence. If appeal is denied, the individual would be notified in writing of the reason for the decision and the right to a judicial appeal.

G. Notifying Agencies who Received Erroneous Information

(1) Provide every criminal justice agency, who received erroneous information during the twelve month period before the challenge was decided, with a corrected record.

(2) Instruct these agencies to provide a corrected record to every criminal justice agency who received erroneous information from them in the twelve month period prior to notification.

(3) The notification cycle will be maintained until all criminal justice agencies have been notified and the names of all noncriminal justice agencies obtained.

(4) Upon request, provide the record subject with the names of non-criminal justice agencies receiving erroneous information during the twelve month period.

SOUTH CAROLINA

(5) The individual's right to access and review of criminal history record information shall not extend to data contained in intelligence, investigatory, or other related files and shall not be constructed to include any other information than that defined under Title 28, Section 20.3(b) and Section 20.21G(6).

73-26 Security

It will be the responsibility for all agencies to provide security for information received from agencies that are subject to the regulations. These security principles and standards are for both manual and automated systems. The standards for both systems include access restraints, personnel control, disaster protection, and training.

A. Access restraints - Physical restraints of access to criminal history-record information and the area where it is located are to ensure that access to criminal history record information, system facilities, system operating environments, data file contents, whether while in use or when stored in a media library, and system documentation are restricted to authorized organizations and personnel.

(1) Physical locations such as record rooms, computer facilities, remote terminal locations, and offices where files are kept require access restraints.

(2) The Criminal Records Department should be secured by physical barriers to include either a counter or someone at a desk to provide security.

(3) All offices where criminal history record information is kept should have filing cabinets or desks with lockable drawers.

(4) All persons such as visitors, maintenance or custodial personnel, and electronic data processing (EDP) personnel working in the agency will be subject to a clearance.

SOUTH CAROLINA

(5) Criminal justice agencies will control the authority to access criminal history record information through clearance of their own employees and other individuals such as consultants who must have access to criminal history record information stored within a criminal justice agency.

B. Authority over personnel - All criminal justice agencies will screen the employees of other agencies which will have access to criminal history record information or areas where it is maintained. The criminal justice agency will have the authority to make sure that proper discipline is applied if personnel who have been screened subsequently violate security rules. Disciplinary action will be taken up to dismissal depending upon the seriousness of the incident.

(1) The regulations make the screening mandatory. Any person who is convicted of a felony or misdemeanor arrest, will not have access to criminal history record information.

(2) Personnel control measures apply to the agency's employees, other public employees who work in the computer center and private employees, if they will be able to use or access criminal history record information or parts of an automated system.

(3) Steps will be taken to ensure that criminal justice agency employees and all personnel covered by the procedures are familiar with the access and dissemination rules.

C. Disaster protection - Criminal justice agencies will develop methods to protect both automated and manual systems from natural or man made disasters. This protection would protect any central repository of criminal history record information from unauthorized access, theft, sabotage, fire, flood, wind or other natural or man made disasters.

(1) Manual system protection - Buildings should have sufficient locks on doors, and as few windows as possible if constructing a new facility. Adequate fire detection/suppression devices should be installed; emergency lighting is essential, and all files should be housed in fireproof, lockable filing cabinets. As mentioned earlier, security of the manual systems requires security during and after work hours.

(2) Automated system protection - Structured requirements would be as set forth in Regulation 73-26 C.(1). An auxiliary power supply or uninterruptible power source is recommended. Environmental monitors and controls for temperatures, air conditioning, humidity, and the like should be considered. Emergency lighting is needed. Adequate fire detection/suppression devices should be installed. System should have the capability of emergency shut down of system and/or power devices. Duplicate computer files are needed as a counter measure for unauthorized destruction of original files, and these files should be maintained off premises. A contingency plan is needed in case of total destruction. The main thrust of the security regulations in the automated system is to give criminal justice agencies control over technical data processing features designed to protect their information from unauthorized use or alteration.

(3) All criminal justice agencies shall have the right to audit, monitor and inspect the procedures needed for security. Each department using SLED's information shall develop and approve procedures necessary to protect the information from unauthorized access or alteration.

(4) Effective and technological advanced software and hardware designs should be instituted to prevent unauthorized access to such information.

SOUTH CAROLINA

D. Training - Criminal History Training Programs Have Been Adopted

(1) Each employee working in the Criminal Records Department, CCH Department, UCR Department, and the Data Processing Department have been familiarized with the substance and intent of the regulations and guidelines.

(2) Personnel involved with criminal history record information will have the ability to interpret and understand the nature of records and the information contained within a record.

(3) UCR agents and field auditors will be responsible for assisting all criminal justice agencies in any training procedures deemed necessary. The criminal records supervisor, the UCR supervisor or the director of data processing will assist and offer aid where necessary.

73-27 Expungement of Criminal Records

It shall be the responsibility of the Criminal Records Department to initiate the appropriate action to expunge any criminal information housed by the Criminal Records Department upon receipt of authority to remove such information pursuant to Section 17-1-40 and Section 44-53-450 of the 1976 Code of Laws, as amended. The Criminal Records Department will also ensure that all computer records of such criminal offense are properly disposed of and that the FBI, Washington, D.C. is notified to modify the criminal record information at the national level.

73-28 Audit Procedures

The SLED/CJICS shall institute audit procedures to ensure that criminal history record information is accurate. The Chief of SLED reserves the right to suspend the services of the SLED/CJICS system to any user agency, whether they have received federal funding or not, which knowingly and willfully violates any federal or state law or regulation pertaining to the use, collection, storage or dissemination of criminal history record information.

A. Field Audits - The Chief or Assistant Director of the State Law Enforcement Division shall appoint an auditor or auditors and/or agents who will audit and examine criminal justice agencies to ensure compliance with these rules. The auditor and agents assigned to the UCR Department shall visit on an announced or unannounced random basis all criminal justice agencies who have signed user agreements with the SLED/CJICS. A representative sample of agencies shall be visited annually. The auditor may or may not announce his presence when auditing or examining a criminal justice agency. The auditor or agents assigned to the UCR Department shall report monthly the results of examinations and audits to the criminal records supervisor. The criminal records supervisor will serve as the liaison between the auditor, UCR agents and agencies audited. It will be the responsibility of the criminal records supervisor to review these audit summaries and notify the agency of their discrepancy and render whatever assistance possible in order for them to be in compliance. If the agency has numerous discrepancies, a reaudit of the agency will be conducted in thirty days. If deemed necessary, the criminal records supervisor will visit the agency in question in order to offer assistance.

(1) Components - The SLED/CJICS field audits consist of three major parts as follows:

(a) Procedural audit - This audit examines the extent to which the procedures have been implemented to ensure compliance with federal regulations and state law. This audit will cover:

- (1) completeness of records and dispositions reporting procedures
- (2) accuracy of records
- (3) dissemination practices

SOUTH CAROLINA

(4) security

(5) individual's right of inspection

The methods the auditor will use in conducting this audit will include the review of written procedures and manuals; interviewing of personnel to evaluate the practice they use and their understanding of this practice and the observance of the site and its operations.

(b) Records audit - This audit evaluates the completeness and accuracy of SLED records as measured against records of original entry. This audit will be conducted by taking a random selection of source documents at the local agency to evaluate the following items:

- (1) Percentage of entry of arrests or dispositions into SLED and/or local files.
- (2) The accuracy of data entry to provide the error rate for critical field data.
- (3) The percentage of delinquent dispositions entered.
- (4) Delays in disposition reporting.

All evaluations will be based on statistically significant samples of original entry records.

(c) Audit of activity logs - This audit will evaluate the effectiveness of the system's tracking mechanisms. Records to be examined include dissemination logs, record correction logs, and physical and terminal access logs. In addition to the inspection of logs, the auditor will:

- (1) review logging procedures
- (2) interview personnel handling records or processing records corrections
- (3) observance of each system's daily operations

SOUTH CAROLINA

(2) Procedures with regard to terminal users:

(a) responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of information entered into the SLED/CJICS CCH system and any information transmitted for inclusion in the NCIC/CCH system.

(b) This responsibility extends only to information contained in the documents as submitted to SLED/CJICS.

(c) Removal of CHRI as required by law or court order.

(d) Entry of CHRI will be handled by SLED/CJICS only. This will also include any updates, deletions or change to existing records.

(e) audit and inspection of user agencies - An auditor or UCR agent is responsible for periodically auditing and inspecting each terminal location to ensure compliance with the published rules, policies and procedures.

(f) All criminal justice agencies that have a terminal in their agency must submit a copy of the CCH logs to the SLED/CJICS monthly for audit as previously mentioned.

B. Internal audits - The regulations also require systematic (internal) auditing as a means of guaranteeing the completeness and accuracy of CHRI. The Criminal Records Department and the CCH Department verifies the completeness and accuracy of the data by comparing any CHRI with the source documents. These include the original and subsequent fingerprint cards, arrest reports, dispositions, court corrections, probation and parole records. SLED/CJICS has a number of system edit routines that assure the entry of valid data. Error listings are produced and forwarded to the Criminal Records Department and CCH Department and, if needed, to the originating agency for correction. Errors will be corrected as soon as possible in both the manual and automated files.

At least two (2) of such criminal investigators shall be normally detailed to service in each grand division of the state, but the director shall have power to detail any and all such investigators to service in grand divisions in case of emergency. The director upon the request of the district attorney general of any circuit may assign such criminal investigators to aid such district attorney general in the investigation of any crime committed in his judicial circuit, but only when said district attorney general requests such aid. When detailed by the director to aid the district attorney general as aforesaid, such criminal investigators shall have full power to issue subpoenas for witnesses, serve the same, to administer oaths to such witnesses as they may summon, to take written statements from them and when so detailed shall have the same powers with reference to the execution of criminal process, making arrests, and the like, as does the sheriff of the county in which such investigators are at work.

The bureau of investigation also is authorized upon the request of the governor, the attorney general and reporter, any member of the board, the commissioner of correction or a district attorney general to conduct investigations into allegations of fraud, corruption, or dishonesty involving the granting, revoking or denying of paroles, release classification status or executive clemency of any type. However the bureau shall coordinate its activities whenever possible with municipal, county, and federal police agencies with emphasis toward providing strike force capabilities to high crime areas within the state. The bureau shall continue to utilize the communications systems of the department of safety.

(c) Whenever a district attorney general may refuse or neglect to present the results of any investigation undertaken hereunder to a grand jury, the director or his designated representative may appear before the grand jury and seek a presentment, and the grand jury shall have the power to issue compulsory process for the appearance of witnesses. In the event the grand jury returns a presentment and the district attorney general refuses to prosecute, the director may petition for the appointment of a district attorney pro tempore as provided for in § 8-7-106. Each peace officer of this state, upon fingerprinting any person arrested, shall furnish a copy of such fingerprints to the forensic services division of the bureau. Likewise, such fingerprints as are now on file at the state penitentiary shall be transferred therefrom to the bureau and maintained by it. Each person hereafter received at the state penitentiary shall be fingerprinted and a copy thereof furnished to the bureau. The forensic services division likewise is authorized to avail itself of the services of any and all other departments of the state where the same may be of benefit to it, including but not limited to the state chemists and other expert personnel.

(c) The Tennessee crime laboratory and all regional crime laboratories shall be under the supervision of the director of the bureau or his designated representatives.

(d) The Tennessee bureau of investigation shall charge the following fees for services rendered or administered by its forensic services division in connection with any case in a criminal, juvenile, or municipal court, or when otherwise required by law to render such services:

The appropriate clerk, after deducting five percent (5%) as compensation, shall remit all such fees to the state treasurer, to be expended only as appropriated by the general assembly.

(e) Any fees authorized for services rendered by the bureau which are not incident to a court case shall be paid to the Tennessee bureau of investigation for deposit with the state treasurer for expenditure as herein provided.

ANALYSIS

1. Constitutionality.
2. Application to other sections.
3. Public records.

1. Constitutionality.

Where, on its own volition, without reference to the attorney general or requiring other argument or action, a circuit court held this chapter unconstitutional, the Supreme Court reversed since the constitutional question had not been properly presented and was not before the court. Skiles v. State, 516 S.W.2d 75 (Tenn. 1974).

This section, even though it impliedly amends §§ 18-1-105 and 18-4-103, does not violate Tenn. Const., art. 2, § 17 which requires that the caption or body of an act make reference to any laws it repeals or amends as art. 2, § 17 does not apply to implied amendments. Martin v. State, 519 S.W.2d 793 (Tenn. 1975).

The expungement statute, providing that under certain circumstances judicial records shall be destroyed, was not unconstitutional as violating the separation of powers provisions, since control of the use of such records is properly a legislative, not judicial function, and was not unconstitutional by reason of amending or repealing a large part of the code without any recitation in the caption of the act that such was being done. Underwood v. State, 529 S.W.2d 45 (Tenn. 1975).

An interpretation of this statute that it applies to records used for internal use as well as those for public inspection does not make it unconstitutional. State v. John Doe, 588 S.W.2d 549 (Tenn. 1979).

2. Application to Other Sections.

This section has no application to cases where a defendant pleads guilty and receives a reduced sentence, imposed under § 40-20-103. Skiles v. State, 516 S.W.2d 75 (Tenn. 1974).

3. Public Records.

The term "public records" as used in this section refers to all records maintained by a public official regardless of whether such records be for public inspection or for internal use. State v. John Doe, 588 S.W.2d 549 (Tenn. 1979).

40-32-102. Officials required to destroy. — The chief administrative official of the municipal, county, or state agency and the clerk of the court where such records are recorded shall remove and destroy such records within a period of sixty (60) days from the date of filing a petition authorized by § 40-32-101. [Acts 1973, ch. 318, § 2; 1978 (Adj. S.), ch. 641, § 1; T.C.A., § 40-4002.]

Law Reviews. Special Project: Criminal Supreme Court (Julian L. Bibb and Walter Procedure as Defined by the Tennessee Sillers Weems), 30 Vand. L. Rev. (4) 691.

40-32-103. Prior charges. — The provisions of this chapter shall apply to those persons charged with a misdemeanor or a felony prior to July 1, 1973, if such person shall petition to the court having jurisdiction in such previous action as provided in § 40-32-101. [Acts 1973, ch. 318, § 3; T.C.A., § 40-4003.]

Law Reviews. Special Project: Criminal Supreme Court (Julian L. Bibb and Walter Procedure as Defined by the Tennessee Sillers Weems), 30 Vand. L. Rev. (4) 691.

40-32-104. Penalties. — Any person who shall violate the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and imprisoned in the county jail or workhouse not less than thirty (30) days and not more than eleven (11) months and twenty-nine (29) days. [Acts 1973, ch. 318, § 4; T.C.A., § 40-4004.]

Chapter 7

Public Records

10-7-503. Records open to public inspection. — All state, county and municipal records and all records maintained by the Tennessee performing arts center management corporation shall at all times, during business hours, be open for personal inspection by any citizen of Tennessee, and those in charge of such records shall not refuse such right of inspection to any citizen, unless otherwise provided by law or regulation made pursuant thereto. [Acts 1957, ch. 285, § 1; T.C.A., § 15-304; Acts 1981, ch. 376, § 1.]

Section to Section References. This section is referred to in § 10-7-504.

ANALYSIS

1. Applications for school superintendent.
2. Broad construction.
3. Public hospital records.

1. Applications for School Superintendent.

Applications of those seeking the position of school superintendent are records which are open to public inspection. Board of Educ. v. Memphis Publishing Co., 585 S.W.2d 629 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1979).

2. Broad Construction.

This section should be construed to be broad enough to encompass § 10-7-501. Cleveland Newspapers, Inc. v. Bradley County Mem. Hosp. Bd. of Dirs., 621 S.W.2d 763 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1981).

3. Public Hospital Records.

Records of public hospital which claimed governmental immunity in tort actions and met all of the criteria necessary to be considered an arm of the state carrying on a governmental function were encompassed within the provisions of this section and subject to public inspection. Cleveland Newspapers, Inc. v. Bradley County Mem. Hosp. Bd. of Dirs., 621 S.W.2d 763 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1981).

10-7-504. Confidential records. — (a) The medical records of patients in state hospitals and medical facilities, and the medical records of persons receiving medical treatment, in whole or in part, at the expense of the state, shall be treated as confidential and shall not be open for inspection by members of the public. Additionally, all investigative records of the Tennessee bureau of criminal identification shall be treated as confidential and shall not be open to inspection by members of the public. The information contained in such records shall be disclosed to the public only in compliance with a subpoena or an order of a court of record, however, such investigative records of the Tennessee bureau of criminal identification shall be open to inspection by elected members of the general assembly if such inspection is directed by a duly adopted resolution of either house or of a standing or joint committee of either house. Records shall not be available to any member of the executive branch except those directly involved in the investigation in the Tennessee bureau of investigation itself and the governor himself. The records, documents and papers in the possession of the military department which involve the security of the United States and/or the state of Tennessee, including but not restricted to national guard personnel records, staff studies and investigations, shall be treated as confidential and shall not be open for inspection by members of the public.

(b) The records of students in public educational institutions shall be treated as confidential. Information in such records relating to academic performance, financial status of a student or his parent or guardian, medical or psychological treatment or testing shall not be made available to unauthorized personnel of the institution or to the public or any agency, except those agencies authorized by the educational institution to conduct specific research or otherwise authorized by the governing board of the institution, without the consent of the student involved or the parent or guardian of a minor student attending any institution of elementary or secondary education, except as otherwise provided by law or regulation pursuant thereto and except in consequence of due legal process or in cases when the safety of persons or property is involved. The governing board of the institution, the state department of education, and the Tennessee higher education commission shall have access on a confidential basis to such records as are required to fulfill their lawful functions. Statistical information not identified with a particular student may be released to any person, agency, or the public; and information relating only to an individual student's name, age, address, dates of attendance, grade levels completed, class placement and academic degrees awarded may likewise be disclosed.

(c) Any record designated "confidential" shall be so treated by agencies in the maintenance, storage and disposition of such confidential records. These records shall be destroyed in such a manner that they cannot be read, interpreted, or reconstructed. The destruction shall be in accordance with an approved records disposition authorization from the public records commission.

(d)(1) The following books, records and other materials in the possession of the office of the attorney general and reporter which relate to any pending or contemplated legal or administrative proceeding in which the office of the attorney general and reporter may be involved shall not be open for public inspection:

(A) Books, records or other materials which are confidential or privileged by state law;

(B) Books, records or other materials relating to investigations conducted by federal law enforcement or federal regulatory agencies, which are confidential or privileged under federal law;

(C) The work product of the attorney general and reporter or any attorney working under his supervision and control;

(D) Communications made to or by the attorney general and reporter or any attorney working under his supervision and control in the context of the attorney-client relationship; or

(E) Books, records and other materials in the possession of other departments and agencies which are available for public inspection and copying pursuant to §§ 10-7-503 and 10-7-506. It is the intent of this section to leave subject to public inspection and copying pursuant to §§ 10-7-503 and 10-7-506 such books, records and other materials in the possession of other departments even though copies of the same books, records and other departments even though copies of the same books, records and other materials which are also in the possession of the attorney general's office are not

Dear Director Carson:

By recent letter, a copy of which is attached, you have requested informal advice concerning release of criminal history files to governmental non-law enforcement agencies, specifically to Commissioner John C. Neff, Commissioner of the Department of Commerce and Insurance.

You have concluded and I concur that there is no authority permitting you to furnish Commissioner Neff with criminal arrest histories or similar confidential records of the T.B.I. Indeed, T.C.A. § 40-15-106(b), (c)(1), and § 40-32-101(b), (c)(1), expressly prohibit release of such confidential records other than to other law enforcement agencies or for audit investigations by the comptroller. Those statutes, which you reference in your letter, expressly make such release a misdemeanor. Additionally, as you are no doubt aware, § 10-7-504 makes your investigative records confidential and not open to inspection by members of the public. They may be disclosed to the public only in compliance with subpoena or order of a court of record. They may be provided to members of the General Assembly upon direction by a duly approved resolution of either house or of a standing or joint committee of either house. Finally, that statute prohibits providing such records to any member of the executive branch except those persons directly involved in an investigation in the T.B.I. itself, and the governor himself. I have also enclosed two prior letters to you which discuss potential problems in release of such information. They specifically discuss our prior discussion that absence of statutory authorization prevents dissemination of criminal history information to other than law enforcement agencies.

I hope that this informal advice has proved helpful. If you should require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

JENNIFER HELTON SMALL

(1) It shall be the duty of the Director to appoint, with the advice and consent of the Commission, a Chief of the Bureau of Identification and Records, who shall be the executive officer. The Chief of the Bureau and at least one assistant shall be recognized identification experts, and with at least three years' actual experience. This Bureau shall procure and file for record, photographs, pictures, descriptions, fingerprints, measurements and such other information as may be pertinent, of all persons who have been or may hereafter be convicted of a felony within the State, and also of all well known and habitual criminals wheresoever the same may be procured. The Bureau shall collect information concerning the number and nature of offenses known to have been committed in this State, of the legal steps taken in connection therewith, and such other information as may be useful in the study of crime and the administration of justice. It shall be the duty of the Bureau to co-operate with the bureaus in other states, and with the Department of Justice in Washington, D. C. It shall be the duty of the Chief of the Bureau to offer assistance, and, when practicable, instruction, to sheriffs, chiefs of police, and other peace officers in establishing efficient local bureaus of identification in their districts.

(2) The Bureau shall make ballistic tests of bullets and firearms, and chemical analyses of bloodstains, cloth, materials and other substances, for the officers of the State charged with law enforcement. Acts 1935, 44th Leg., p. 444, ch. 181, § 14.

CHAPTER FIFTY-FIVE—EXPUNCTION OF CRIMINAL RECORDS

Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1333, ch. 604, which by § 1 amended this Chapter 55, provided in § 3:

"Any law or portion of a law that conflicts with Chapter 55, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, is repealed to the extent of the conflict."

Article 55.01. Right to expunction

A person who has been arrested for commission of either a felony or misdemeanor is entitled to have all records and files relating to the arrest expunged if each of the following conditions exist:

(1) an indictment or information charging him with commission of a felony has not been presented against him for an offense arising out of the transaction for which he was arrested or, if an indictment or information charging him with commission of a felony was presented, it has been dismissed and the court finds that it was dismissed because the presentment had been made because of mistake, false information, or other similar reason indicating absence of probable cause at the time of the dismissal to believe the person committed the offense or because it was void;

(2) he has been released and the charge, if any, has not resulted in a final conviction and, is no longer pending and there was no court ordered supervision under Article 42.13, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, nor a conditional discharge under Section 4.12 of the Texas Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476—15, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and

(3) he has not been convicted of a felony in the five years preceding the date of the arrest.

1. Construction and application

There is no right of appeal given by this chapter under which petition to expunge arrest records was filed, regardless of action of trial court. Ex parte Paprskar (Cr. App.1978) 573 S.W.2d 525.

Appeal from order that defendant's arrest record be expunged by state and city, which contended that expunction statutes relied upon were unconstitutional was dismissed by Court of Criminal Appeals for want of jurisdiction, since attempted appeals from orders entered pursuant to arts 55.01 to 55.05 were not criminal cases and since no statutory right of appeal had been conferred by this chapter. State v. Henson (Cr.App.1978) 573 S.W.2d 548.

Records of investigation of child abuse incident by county child welfare unit under V.T.C.A. Family Code, § 34.05, except for any references in those records which were based on police records and files relating to parent's arrest, were not subject to expunction. S. P. v. Dallas County Child Welfare Unit of Texas Dept. of Human Resources (Civ.App.1979) 577 S.W.2d 385, ref. n. r. e.

Procedure for expunction of arrest record applies to county child welfare units and to the State Department of Human Resources; however, nonaccusatory reports under V. T.C.A. Family Code, § 34.02 are not subject to expunction under this chapter and neither are investigations and written reports authorized by V.T.C.A. Family Code, § 34.05, except for references in such reports which are based on police records and files relating to the arrest. Id.

(2) delete from its public records all index references to the records and files that are subject to the expunction order.

(b) The court may give the petitioner all records and files returned to it pursuant to its order.

(c) If an order of expunction is issued under this article, the court records concerning expunction proceedings are not open for inspection by anyone except the petitioner unless the order permits retention of a record under Section 4 of this article and the petitioner is again arrested for or charged with an offense arising out of the transaction for which he was arrested. The clerk of the court issuing the order shall obliterate all public references to the proceeding and maintain the files or other records in an area not open to inspection.

In general 1
Review 2

1. In general

Inasmuch as allegation raised by petition for expunction of arrests patently revealed that petitioner was neither confined nor restrained pursuant to any state action which was made the subject of his petition and inasmuch as disposition of claim would not affect fact or duration of his confinement, action seeking review of order dismissing petition could not be construed as petition for writ of habeas corpus which would invoke jurisdiction of the Court of Criminal Appeals under arts. 11.22 and 11.23. Ex parte Paprskar (Cr.App.1978) 573 S.W.2d 525.

In purported appeal from order dismissing a petition to expunge arrest records, court would take judicial notice that petitioner was presently confined in the Texas Department of Corrections pursuant to conviction for murder. Id.

Order of trial court dismissing petition to expunge arrest records did not place petitioner in jeopardy in matter from which he could appeal. Id.

There is no right of appeal given by this chapter under which petition to expunge arrest records was filed, regardless of action of trial court. Id.

Art. 55.03. Effect of Expunction

After entry of an expunction order:

(1) the release, dissemination, or use of the expunged records and files for any purpose is prohibited;

(2) except as provided in Subdivision 3 of this article, the petitioner may deny the occurrence of the arrest and the existence of the expunction order; and

(3) the petitioner or any other person, when questioned under oath in a criminal proceeding about an arrest for which the records have been expunged, may state only that the matter in question has been expunged.

Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1333, ch. 604, § 1, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.

There is no constitutional or statutory authority which would confer jurisdiction on the Court of Criminal Appeals to entertain a direct appeal from order entered pursuant to motion for expunction of arrests and, thus, court had no power to entertain the cause. Id.

Fact that statutory basis of action seeking expungement of arrest records is contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure would not render case a criminal case so as to confer jurisdiction over case on the Court of Criminal Appeals. Id.

Appeal from order that defendant's arrest record be expunged by state and city, which contended that expunction statutes relied upon were unconstitutional, was dismissed by Court of Criminal Appeals for want of jurisdiction, since attempted appeals from orders entered pursuant to arts. 55.01 to 55.05 were not criminal cases and since no statutory right of appeal had been conferred by this chapter. State v. Henson (Cr.App.1978) 573 S.W.2d 548.

2. Review

Court of Civil Appeals has jurisdiction under Const. Art. 5, § 6, and Vernon's Ann.Civ.St. art. 2249 to entertain an appeal from a criminal district court order with respect to expunction of arrest records. S. P. v. Dallas County Child Welfare Unit of Texas Dept. of Human Resources (Civ. App.1979) 577 S.W.2d 385, ref. n. r. e.

Art. 55.02. Procedure for Expunction

Section 1. (a) A person who is entitled to expunction of records and files under this chapter may file an ex parte petition for expunction in a district court for the county in which he was arrested.

(b) The petitioner shall include in the petition a list of all law enforcement agencies, jails or other detention facilities, magistrates, courts, prosecuting attorneys, correctional facilities, central state depositories of criminal records, and other officials or agencies or other entities of this state or of any political subdivision of this state and of all central federal depositories of criminal records that the petitioner has reason to believe have records or files that are subject to expunction.

Sec. 2. The court shall set a hearing on the matter no sooner than thirty days from the filing of the petition and shall give reasonable notice of the hearing to each official or agency or other entity named in the petition by certified mail, return receipt requested, and such entity may be represented by the attorney responsible for providing such agency with legal representation in other matters.

Sec. 3. (a) If the court finds that the petitioner is entitled to expunction of any records and files that are the subject of the petition, it shall enter an order directing expunction and directing any state agency that sent information concerning the arrest to a central federal depository to request such depository to return all records and files subject to the order of expunction. Any petitioner or agency protesting the expunction may appeal the court's decision in the same manner as in other civil cases. When the order of expunction is final, the clerk of the court shall send a certified copy of the order by certified mail, return receipt requested, to each official or agency or other entity of this state or of any political subdivision of this state named in the petition that there is reason to believe has any records or files that are subject to the order. The clerk shall also send a certified copy by certified mail, return receipt requested, of the order to any central federal depository of criminal records that there is reason to believe has any of the records, together with an explanation of the effect of the order and a request that the records in possession of the depository, including any information with respect to the proceeding under this article, be destroyed or returned to the court.

(b) All returned receipts received by the clerk from notices of the hearing and copies of the order shall be maintained in the file on the proceedings under this chapter.

Sec. 4. (a) If the state establishes that the petitioner is still subject to conviction for an offense arising out of the transaction for which he was arrested because the statute of limitations has not run and there is reasonable cause to believe that the state may proceed against him for the offense, the court may provide in its order that the law enforcement agency and the prosecuting attorney responsible for investigating the offense may retain any records and files that are necessary to the investigation.

(b) Unless the petitioner is again arrested for or charged with an offense arising out of the transaction for which he was arrested, the provisions of Articles 55.03 and 55.04 of this code apply to files and records retained under this section.

Sec. 5. (a) On receipt of the order, each official or agency or other entity named in the order shall:

(1) return all records and files that are subject to the expunction order to the court or, if removal is impracticable, obliterate all portions of the record or file that identify the petitioner and notify the court of its action; and

Art. 6252-13c. Eligibility of persons with criminal backgrounds for certain occupations, professions, and licenses

Section 1. The definitions contained in the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) shall apply to this Act.

Sec. 2. This Act shall not apply to the Supreme Court of Texas or to persons licensed or seeking to be licensed under its authority on behalf of the judicial department of government or to any person who seeks to become or is a peace officer as defined in Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

Sec. 3. All agencies of this state and its political subdivisions with the duty and responsibility of licensing and regulating members of particular trades, occupations, businesses, vocations, or professions shall have the authority to obtain from the Texas Department of Public Safety or from a local law enforcement agency the record of any conviction of any person applying for or holding a license from the requesting agency.

Sec. 4. (a) A licensing authority may suspend or revoke an existing valid license, disqualify a person from receiving a license, or deny to a person the opportunity to be examined for a license because of a person's conviction of a felony or misdemeanor if the crime directly relates to the duties and responsibilities of the licensed occupation.

(b) In determining whether a criminal conviction directly relates to an occupation, the licensing authority shall consider:

TEXAS

- (1) the nature and seriousness of the crime;
- (2) the relationship of the crime to the purposes for requiring a license to engage in the occupation;
- (3) the extent to which a license might offer an opportunity to engage in further criminal activity of the same type as that in which the person previously had been involved; and

- (4) the relationship of the crime to the ability, capacity, or fitness required to perform the duties and discharge the responsibilities of the licensed occupation.

(c) In addition to the factors that may be considered under Subsection (b) of this section, the licensing authority, in determining the present fitness of a person who has been convicted of a crime, shall consider the following evidence:

- (1) the extent and nature of the person's past criminal activity;

notations of such law enforcement agencies which are maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement.

We have deferred decisions in those cases where an arguable claim was made that the requested information fell within section 3(a)(8), because the constitutionality of this section has been at issue in litigation.

In Houston Chronicle Publishing Company v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App. -- Houston [14th Dist.] 1975, writ ref'd n.r.e. at 19 Tex. Sup. J. 300, May 1, 1976), the court held section 3(a)(8) constitutional, dealt with the scope of the exception in relation to the constitutional right of access to information concerning crime in the community, and decided the applicability of the exception to specific records and information held by the Houston Police Department.

The court gave detailed descriptions of various records sought and held that the police blotter, show-up sheet, and arrest sheet are public records available to the press and public. The court held that the offense report and personal history and arrest record ("rap sheet") are excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8), but also held that the public and press have a constitutionally protected right to access to information maintained by law enforcement agencies relating to crime and criminal activities and that this right extends affirmatively to the information contained on the first page of the offense report as described in the opinion.

In its per curiam opinion refusing the application for writ of error in this case, the Texas Supreme Court said:

We agree with the opinion of the court below that neither the Texas Open Records Act nor the United States or Texas Constitutions requires disclosure of the complete records sought by the Houston Chronicle, and we therefore refuse the Chronicle's application for writ of error, no reversible error. Since the City of Houston has not filed an application for writ of error complaining of the court of civil appeals' judgment, it is the opinion of the majority of the court that we reserve the question as to whether the press and public have a statutory or constitutional right to obtain all of the information which the court of civil appeals has held to be public information. Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 19 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 300 (May 1, 1976).

While the Supreme Court's opinion indicates that a question remains as to some of the information held to be public by the Court of Civil Appeals, the opinion of the latter court is the most authoritative judicial interpretation of section 3(a)(8) of the Open Records Act available, and this office will follow that interpretation. See Attorney General Opinion H-373 (1974).

Your specific requests for decisions on the applicability of the section 3(a)(8) law enforcement records exception may now be considered in light of this decision.

Mr. Bickley of Dallas and Mr. Perry of Arlington have received requests for information on the names and addresses of burglary victims. This information is available on the first page of offense reports and is public. The requesting parties are entitled to access to these records. However, the city is not obligated to compile or extract this information if it can be made available by giving the requestor access to the records themselves. See Open Records Decision No. 87 (1975).

Mr. Perkins of Sherman has received a request for access to the original reports of driving while intoxicated offenses. The managing editor of the Sherman Democrat seeks access to the original records in order to perform his own compilation of DWI statistics. The form used for such reports is the Texas Department of Public Safety "DWI/DUID Traffic Case Report," form HP-21 (Rev. 1-72). Some of the information on the form is excepted from required public disclosure. This includes the item calling for the criminal record of the driver, the identification of witnesses, the information concerning chemical tests and results thereof, and, on the back of the form, the interview of the suspect.

The city is not required to provide access to those parts of the form containing information excepted from disclosure by section 3(a)(8).

The correspondence on this matter indicates that the requestor wishes to insure the authenticity and accuracy of the information the city has offered to compile. We believe that this problem of the method by which an agency must separate excepted information from public information appearing on the same page is an administrative problem which this office cannot resolve. Perhaps the availability of the desired information from the original blotter, show-up sheet, or arrest sheet will render the matter moot.

Mr. Anderson of Wichita Falls requests our decision concerning a request received by the sheriff from a private corporation asking for information as to "any record your department has on this individual." We understand this to be a request for a personal history and arrest record, or rap sheet, on a named individual. This information is excepted from disclosure by section 3(a)(8). Houston Chronicle Publishing Corp. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d at 187-188.

Mr. Hickey requests our decision on behalf of the City of Bellaire in regard to a request received by the police department for access to the contents of the files concerning the requesting individual. We have said that the Open Records Act is a general public disclosure statute giving any member of the public access to governmental records without reference to his particular circumstances, motive or need. Open Records Decision Nos. 118 (1976), 108 (1975). The only special rights of access given by the Open Records Act are those afforded to governmental employees and to students to their own records. Secs. 3(a)(2); 3(a)(14). The individual here is afforded the same right of access by the Open Records Act that every other member of the public has to records held by the police department. However, we have said that the Open Records Act is but one means of securing information, either publicly or privately, and that the Act does not restrict a right of access based on special interest. Open Records Decision No. 106 (1975). See Attorney General Opinions H-249 (1974); H-231 (1974); Open Records Decision No. 111 (1975); No. 24 (1974); No. 18A at p. 3 (1974). In regard to access by an individual to criminal history record information maintained about him, see 42 U.S.C. § 3771(b); 28 C.F.R. §§ 20.21(g), 20.34.

The only decision we are authorized to make in this instance under section 7 of the Act is that the individual's criminal history record is excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8) of the Open Records Act. However, we note that the Act does not affect any special federal statutory right which an individual may have to information.

Mr. Ross of El Paso asks our decision on the applicability of section 3(a)(8) to information requested of the Police Department. The request is for photographs, and supplemental witness statements collected in connection with the investigation of an incident wherein a death occurred, apparently by carbon monoxide asphyxiation from a gas heater.

On the basis of the facts presented, it is our understanding that the incident investigated did not lead to any criminal charges being filed. However, the purpose of the investigation and the taking of photographs and statements of witnesses was to determine whether a crime may have occurred.

The information requested here is the type which the court in the Houston Chronicle case held to be excepted from required public disclosure, in that it consists of evidentiary matters. The court said:

To open such material to the press and public in all cases might endanger the position of the State in criminal prosecutions by the use of such materials to the disadvantage of the prosecution. To have such materials open to the press and public in all cases might reveal the names of informants and pose the threat of intimidation of potential prosecution witnesses. Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d at 187.

Police investigations of incidents such as this death by other than natural causes are rarely closed completely, and what initially appears to be an accident may later be found to have involved a criminal act. Cases are not always closed by prosecution or a determination that no crime was involved.

The Open Records Act excepts from required public disclosure records of law enforcement agencies "that deal with the detection and investigation of crime." We do not believe that this exception was intended to be read so narrowly that it only applies to those investigative records which in fact lead to prosecution. We believe that it was also intended to protect other valid interests such as maintaining as confidential the investigative techniques and procedures used in law enforcement and insuring the privacy and safety of witnesses willing to cooperate with law enforcement officers. These interests in non-disclosure remain even though there is no prosecution in a particular case.

CONTINUED

It is our decision that the information requested is excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8).

Mr. Bickley of Dallas has received a request for all records of the City of Dallas and the Dallas Fire Department concerning a specified fire. Mr. Bickley contends that the investigatory records concerning this fire developed and maintained by the Arson Investigation Division of the Dallas Fire Department are excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8).

The records submitted clearly deal with the detection and investigation of crime. The issue is whether the Arson Investigation Division of the Dallas Fire Department is a "law enforcement agency" within the meaning of section 3(a)(8). This distinct division of the Dallas Fire Department is made up of peace officers. Code of Criminal Procedure, article 2.12 provides:

The following are peace officers:

. . . .

(7) each member of an arson investigating unit of a city, county or the state.

The primary purpose of the arson investigating unit is the detection and investigation of violations of the penal law.

We believe that the Arson Investigation Division of the Dallas Fire Department is a law enforcement agency within the meaning of section 3(a)(8), and that this exception is applicable to certain records held by this Division.

The information submitted with Mr. Bickley's letter includes completed forms designated "Dallas Fire-Department Investigation Fire Report" and "Investigation Report," witness statements and handwritten notes by investigators concerning witnesses' statements and the conduct of the investigation.

Guided by the Court's decision in the Houston Chronicle case that the press and the public have a right of access to information concerning crime in the community and to information relating to activities of law enforcement agencies, we believe that the press and public are entitled to access to information concerning fires in the community, including those involving arson. The Investigation Reports here include the time of the occurrence, the fire department's response, the location of the fire, how and by whom it was reported, a description of the building, estimates of the value of the building and its contents, whether and to what amount the property is insured by whom, and a description of any injuries or deaths that occurred with the name and age of the victim, nature of injury, conveyance and hospital, and date and time of death, as applicable. The investigation report also includes a detailed description of the cause and origin of the fire.

We believe the public is entitled to access to this information contained in the investigation reports.

However, certain portions of the reports include the investigator's opinion and conclusions concerning the names of suspects, the possible motive for an incendiary fire, evidence found, names of witnesses and summaries of their statements, and information concerning the description, background, and possible location of any suspect. We believe that this is the type of information the disclosure of which might impede an ongoing investigation or endanger the position of the State in criminal prosecutions, and as such is excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8). Of course, if formal charges are filed against a suspect, that information is public and should be disclosed.

Colonel Speir requests our decision on whether a Texas Department of Public Safety "Hit and Run Report" is excepted from public disclosure by section 3(a)(8). The requestor asked for information concerning a specific hit and run accident. The requestor was provided with a copy of the Department's "Texas Peace Officer's Accident Report," which is specifically made public under section 47, article 6701d, V.T.C.S. The requestor's specific request for the "Hit and Run Report" was denied on the ground that it is excepted by section 3(a)(8).

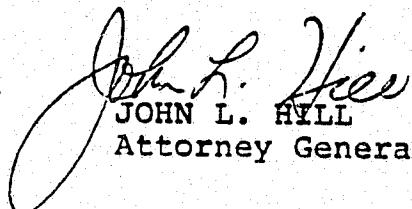

There is much duplication of information in the Accident Report and the front page of the Hit and Run Report. The only unique information in the Hit and Run Report is contained on the second page, and details the investigative steps taken in the particular case. This information on the second page is excepted from required public disclosure under section 3(a)(8) of the Open Records Act. In accordance with the Houston Chronicle decision, the front page of the report is public and should be made available.

Colonel Speir also requests our decision regarding whether a daily list of persons entering and leaving the Executive Mansion kept by the Department of Public Safety officers on duty is excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8).

The listing requested is compiled during each 24-hour period by the officer on duty on each of three shifts. It includes notations on the entry and exit of persons into and from the Mansion. The report is reviewed by the supervising sergeant and is normally disposed of by him. The Department of Public Safety officers are assigned to duty in the Executive Mansion for the purpose of providing security for the persons and property there. This listing is made in connection with this law enforcement purpose.

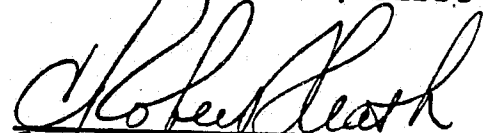

In Open Records Decision No. 22A (1974), we said that we believed that information which could assist an individual in simultaneously violating the law and avoiding detection is the type of information intended to be excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8) as an "internal record and notation maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement." We believe that requiring disclosure of the listing and report involved here would disclose the security practices of the Department of Public Safety and could assist a person in simultaneously violating the law and avoiding detection. We believe that the requested information is excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8) of the Act.

Very truly yours,

5805 N. Lamar Boulevard      Act require disclosure
Austin, Texas 78773      of conviction information from files of Department of Public Safety.

Dear Col. Speir:

You have received a request to provide information from your files concerning convictions of persons since they were pardoned. The requestor supplied a list of approximately 650 names with a Texas Department of Corrections identification number and the date the person was pardoned.

You ask whether this information is excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8) of the Open Records Act, article 6252-17a, V.T.C.S., which excepts records of law enforcement agencies that deal with the detection and investigation of crime and the internal records and notations of such law enforcement agencies which are maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement.

The information requested is available from your files or from information exchange systems to which you have access in the form of personal history and arrest records or "rap sheets."

Personal history and arrest records, which may include conviction information, have been held to be excepted from required public disclosure by section 3(a)(8) of the Act.

Title 1
Chapter 5
Public Records

§ 315. Statement of policy

It is the policy of this subchapter to provide for free and open examination of records consistent with Chapter I, Article 6 of the Vermont Constitution. Officers of government are trustees and servants of the people and it is in the public interest to enable any person to review and criticize their decisions even though such examination may cause inconvenience or embarrassment. All people, however, have a right to privacy in their personal and economic pursuits, which ought to be protected unless specific information is needed to review the action of a governmental officer. Consistent with these principles, the general assembly hereby declares that certain public records shall be made available to any person as herein-after provided. To that end, the provisions of this subchapter shall be liberally construed with the view towards carrying out the above declaration of public policy.—Added 1975, No. 231 (Adj. Sess.).

Revision note. Designation of opening paragraph as subsec. (a) was omitted to conform to V.S.A. style.

§ 316. Access to public records and documents

(a) Any person may inspect or copy any public record or document of a public agency, on any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, between the hours of nine o'clock and twelve o'clock in the forenoon and between one o'clock and four o'clock in the afternoon; provided, however, if the public agency is not regularly open to the public during those hours, inspection or copying may be made during customary office hours.

(b) If a photocopying machine or other mechanical device maintained for use by a public agency is used by the agency to copy the public record or document requested, the person requesting the copy may be charged the actual cost of providing the copy, which cost may be collected by the public agency. Nothing in this section shall exempt any person from paying fees otherwise established by law for obtaining copies of public records or documents, but if such fee is established for the copy, no additional costs or fees shall be charged.

(c) A public agency having photocopying or other mechanical copying facilities shall utilize those facilities to produce copies. If the public agency does not have such facilities, nothing in this section shall be construed to require the public agency to provide or arrange for photocopying service, to use or permit the use of copying facilities other than its own, to permit operation of its copying.

(2) if the custodian considers the record to be exempt from inspection under the provisions of this subchapter, he shall so certify in writing stating his reasons for denial of access to the record. ## GENERAL PROVISIONS

Ch. 5

(4) if a record does not exist, the custodian shall certify in writing that the record does not exist under the name given to him by the applicant or by any other name known to the custodian;

(5) in unusual circumstances as herein specified the time limits prescribed in this subsection may be extended by written notice to the person making such request setting forth the reasons for such extension and the date on which a determination is expected to be dispatched. No such notice shall specify a date that would result in an extension for more than ten working days. As used in this division, "unusual circumstances" means to the extent reasonably necessary to the proper processing of the particular request:

(A) the need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request;

(B) the need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request; or

(C) the need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject matter interest therein, or with the attorney general.

(b) Any person making a request to any agency for records under subsection (a) of this section shall be deemed to have exhausted his administrative remedies with respect to each request if the agency fails to comply within the applicable time limit provisions of this section. Upon any determination by an agency to comply with a request for records, the records shall be made available promptly to the person making such request. Any notification of denial of any request for records under this section shall set forth the names and titles or positions of each person responsible for the denial of such request.—Added 1975, No. 231 (Adj. ### § 319. Enforcement case the court shall determine the matter de novo, and may examine the contents of such agency records in camera to determine whether such records or any part thereof shall be withheld under any of the exemptions set forth in section 317 of this title, and the burden is on the agency to sustain its action.

(b) Except as to cases the court considers of greater importance, proceedings before the superior court, as authorized by this section, and appeals therefrom, take precedence on the docket over all cases and shall be assigned for hearing and trial or for argument at the earliest practicable date and expedited in every way.

(c) If the public agency can show the court that exceptional circumstances exist and that the agency is exercising due diligence in responding to the request, the court may retain jurisdiction and allow the agency additional time to complete its review of the records.

(d) The court may assess against the public agency reasonable attorney fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred in any case under this section in which the complainant has substantially prevailed.—Added 1975, No. 231 (Adj. Sess.).

§ 320. Penalties

(a) Whenever the court orders the production of any public agency records, improperly withheld from the complainant and assesses against the agency reasonable attorney fees and other litigation costs, and the court additionally issues a written finding that the circumstances surrounding the withholding raise questions whether the agency personnel acted arbitrarily or capriciously with respect to the withholding, the department of personnel if applicable to that employee, shall promptly initiate a proceeding to determine whether disciplinary action is warranted against the officer or employee who was primarily responsible for the withholding. The department, after investigation and consideration of the evidence submitted, shall submit its findings and recommendations to the administrative authority of the agency concerned and shall send copies of the findings and recommendations to the officer or employee or his representative. The administrative authority shall take the corrective action that the department recommends.

(b) In the event of noncompliance with the order of the court, the superior court may punish for contempt the responsible employee or official, and in the case of a uniformed service, the responsible member.—Added 1975, No. 231 (Adj. Sess.).

DATE 31 October 1979

TO: All Criminal Justice System Agencies; Office of the Defender General

FROM: Warren M. Cone
Warren M. Cone, Commissioner

SUBJECT: VCIC Regulations

The Department of Public Safety has adopted RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE OPERATION OF THE VERMONT CRIMINAL INFORMATION CENTER. (a copy of which is attached to this memo ) The regulations were effective 20 October 1979 and form the basic operating guidelines for VCIC as well as contributors to and users of record data maintained within the center.

It is important to note that selected sections of the regulations will not become effective until 31 March 1980. These are (a) Incident Reports; (b) revised arrest reports; and, (c) reports of disposition. This was done to permit finalization of these report formats and to preclude disruption of the present IRS program. Undoubtedly there will be some problems associated with forms during this interim period. Your cooperation during this transitional time frame is essential to the maintenance of the record data at VCIC. The Director of VCIC, Sgt. Billy Chilton, and his staff will be available to answer any questions you may have with regard to implementation of regulatory requirements.

(Code 1950, § 19.1-19.2; 1966, c. 669; 1968, c. 537; 1970, c. 118; 1975, c. 495; 1976, c. 771; 1982, c. 33.)

The 1982 amendment deleted the former second and third sentences of the section, which provided: "The Exchange shall also receive, record, and file the F.B.I. record of any person as furnished by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. sions expressly based upon such conduct, except that information concerning the arrest of an individual may not be disseminated to a noncriminal justice agency or individual if an interval of one year has elapsed from the date of the arrest and no disposition of the charge has been recorded and no active prosecution of the charge is pending; (iii) individuals and agencies pursuant to a specific agreement with a criminal justice agency to provide services required for the administration of criminal justice pursuant to that agreement which shall specifically authorize access to data, limit the use of data to purposes for which given, insure the security and confidentiality of the data; (iv) individuals and agencies for the express purpose of research, evaluative, or statistical activities pursuant to an agreement with a criminal justice agency which shall specifically authorize access to data, limit the use of data to research, evaluative, or statistical purposes, and insure the confidentiality and security of the data; (v) agencies of state or federal government which are authorized by state or federal statute or executive order of the President of the United States or Governor to conduct investigations determining employment suitability or eligibility for security clearances allowing access to classified information; and (vi) individuals and agencies where authorized by court order or court rule; (vii) agencies of any political subdivision of the State for the conduct of investigations of applicants for public employment, permit, or license whenever, in the interest of public welfare or safety, it is necessary to determine under a duly enacted ordinance if the past criminal conduct of a person with a conviction record would be compatible with the nature of the employment, permit, or license under consideration; (vii)(a) public or private agencies when and as required by federal or state law or interstate compact to investigate applicants for foster or adoptive parenthood subject to the restriction that the data shall not be further disseminated by the agency to any party other than a federal or state authority or court as may be required to comply with an express requirement of law for such further dissemination; (viii) to the extent permitted by federal law or regulation, public service companies as defined in § 56-1 of the Code of Virginia, for the conduct of investigations of applicants for employment when such employment involves personal contact with the public or when past criminal conduct of an applicant would be incompatible with the nature of the employment under consideration; (ix) the appropriate authority for purposes of granting citizenship and for purposes of international travel, including but not limited to, issuing visas and passports; (x) a person requesting a copy of his own criminal history record information as defined in § 9-169, subdivision 4, at his costs; and (xi) as otherwise provided by law.

Upon an ex parte motion of a defendant in a felony case, and upon the showing that the records requested may be relevant to such case, the court shall enter an order requiring the Central Criminal Records Exchange to furnish the defendant as soon as practicable, copies of any records of persons designated in the order on whom a report has been made under the provisions of this chapter.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, upon a written request sworn to before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments, the Central Criminal Records Exchange or the criminal justice agency in cases of offenses not required to be reported to the Exchange, shall furnish a copy of conviction data covering the person named in the request to the person making the request; provided, however, such person on whom the data is being obtained shall consent in writing, under oath, to the making of such request. A person receiving a copy of his own conviction data may utilize or further disseminate that data as he deems appropriate. In the event no conviction data is maintained on the data subject, the person making the request shall be furnished at his cost a certification to that effect.

VIRGINIA

B. Use of criminal history record information disseminated to noncriminal justice agencies under this section shall be limited to the purposes for which it was given and may not be disseminated further.

C. No criminal justice agency or person shall confirm the existence or nonexistence of criminal history record information for employment or licensing inquiries except as provided by law.

D. Criminal justice agencies shall establish procedures to query the Central Criminal Records Exchange prior to dissemination of any criminal history record information on offenses required to be reported to the Central Criminal Records Exchange to assure that the most up-to-date disposition data is being used. Inquiries of the Exchange shall be made prior to any dissemination except in those cases where time is of the essence and the normal response time of the Exchange would exceed the necessary time period. A criminal justice agency to whom a request has been made for the dissemination of criminal history record information that is required to be reported to the Central Criminal Records Exchange may direct the inquirer to the Central Criminal Records Exchange for such dissemination. Dissemination of offenses not required to be reported to the Exchange shall be made by the criminal justice agency maintaining the record as required by § 15.1-135.1. (Code 1950, § 19.1-19.2; 1966, c. 669; 1968, c. 537; 1970, c. 118; 1975, c. 495; 1976, c. 771; 1977, c. 626; 1978, c. 350; 1979, c. 480; 1981, c. 207.)

§ 19.2-390. Reports to be made by local law-enforcement officers, conservators of the peace and clerks of court; Exchange may receive, etc., material submitted by other agencies. — (a) Every state official or agency having the power to arrest, the sheriffs of counties, the police officials of cities and towns, and any other local law-enforcement officer or conservator of the peace having the power to arrest for a felony shall make a report to the Central Criminal Records Exchange, on forms provided by it, of any arrest on a charge of treason or of any felony or of any offense punishable as a misdemeanor under Title 54, or Class 1 and 2 misdemeanors under Title 18.2, except an arrest for a violation of Article 2, of Chapter 7 of Title 18.2 (§ 18.2-266 et seq.), for violation of Article 2 of Chapter 9 of Title 18.2 (§ 18.2-415), or § 18.2-119 or any similar ordinance of any county, city or town. Such reports shall contain such information as shall be required by the Exchange and shall be accompanied by fingerprints of the individual arrested. Fingerprint cards prepared by a law-enforcement agency for inclusion in a national criminal justice file shall be forwarded to the Exchange for transmittal to the appropriate bureau.

For persons arrested and released on summonses in accordance with § 19.2-74, such report shall not be required until after a conviction is entered and no appeal is noted or if an appeal is noted, the conviction is upheld upon appeal or the person convicted withdraws his appeal. Upon such conviction, the court shall remand the individual to the custody of the office of the chief law-enforcement officer of the county or city, and it shall be the duty of such law-enforcement officer, or his designee who may be the arresting officer, to insure that such report is completed after a determination of guilt. The court shall require the officer to complete the report immediately following his conviction, and the individual shall be discharged from custody forthwith, unless the court has imposed a jail sentence to be served by him.

(b) The clerk of each circuit court and district court shall make a report to the Central Criminal Records Exchange of any dismissal, indefinite postponement or continuance, charge still pending due to mental incompetency, nolle prosequi, acquittal, or conviction of, or failure of a grand jury to return a true bill as to, any person charged with an offense listed in paragraph (a) of this section. In the case of offenses not required to be reported to the Exchange by paragraph (a) of this section, the reports of any of the foregoing dispositions shall be filed by the law-enforcement agency making the arrest with the arrest record required to be maintained by § 15.1-135.1. No such report of conviction in a district court shall be filed unless the period allowed for an appeal has elapsed and no appeal has been perfected. In the event that the records in the office of any clerk show that any conviction has been nullified in any manner, he shall also make a report of that fact, and each clerk of a circuit court, upon receipt of certification thereof from the Supreme Court, shall report to the Exchange, or to the law-enforcement agency making the arrest in the case of offenses not required to be reported to the Exchange, on forms provided by the Exchange, any reversal or other amendment to a prior sentence reported to the Exchange. For each such report made by a clerk of a circuit court, he shall be allowed a fee of fifty cents to be paid from the appropriation for criminal charges.

(c) In addition to those offenses enumerated in paragraph (a) of this section, the Central Criminal Records Exchange may receive, classify and file any other fingerprints and records of arrest or confinement submitted to it by any law-enforcement agency or any correctional institution.

(d) Corrections officials responsible for maintaining correctional status information, as required by the rules and regulations of the Department of Criminal Justice Services, with respect to individuals about whom reports have been made under the provisions of this chapter shall make reports of changes in correctional status information to the Central Criminal Records Exchange.

(e) Officials responsible for reporting disposition of charges, and correctional changes of status of individuals under this section shall adopt procedures reasonably designed at a minimum (i) to insure that such reports are accurately made as soon as feasible by the most expeditious means and in no instance later than thirty days after occurrence of the disposition or correctional change of status; and (ii) to report promptly any correction, deletion, or revision of the information.

(f) Upon receiving a correction, deletion, or revision of information, the Central Criminal Records Exchange shall notify all criminal justice agencies known to have previously received the information.

As used in this section, the term "chief law-enforcement officer" means the chief of police of cities and towns and sheriffs of counties, unless a political subdivision has otherwise designated its chief law-enforcement officer by appropriate resolution or ordinance, in which case the local designation shall be controlling. (Code 1950, § 19.1-19.3; 1966, c. 669; 1968, c. 724; 1970, c. 191; 1971, Ex. Sess., c. 107; 1974, c. 575; 1975, cc. 495, 584; 1976, cc. 336, 572, 771; 1978, cc. 467, 825; 1979, c. 378; 1981, c. 529; 1982, cc. 33, 535.)

Cross reference. — As to punishment for Class 1 and 2 misdemeanors, see § 18.2-11.

Editor's note. — The above section combines § 19.1-19.3 as amended by Acts 1975, c. 584, and § 19.2-390 as enacted by Acts 1975, c. 495. The first sentence of subsection (a) is set out as amended by c. 584, and the last sentence of subsection (a) has been added pursuant to c. 495. See § 1-13.39.

The 1982 amendments. — The first 1982 amendment deleted "and information as to whether a photograph of the individual is available" from the end of the second sentence of the present first paragraph of subsection (a) and added the third sentence of that paragraph. The amendment substituted "paragraph" for "subsection" preceding "(a)" in the first and second sentences of subsection (b), and substituted "Department of Criminal Justice Services" for "Criminal Justice Services Commission" near the beginning of subsection (d) and deleted "on forms provided by it" at the end of subsection (d).

The second 1982 amendment divided subsection (a) into two paragraphs, inserted the reference to "or § 18.2-119" in the first sentence of the first paragraph, and, in the second paragraph, substituted "conviction" for "disposition of guilt" and the language beginning "and no appeal" and ending "withdraws his appeal" for "by a competent judicial authority" in the first sentence and "conviction" for "disposition" in the second sentence. The amendment also added the second paragraph of subsection (f).

Law Review. — For survey of Virginia law on evidence for the year 1972-1973, see 59 Va. L. Rev. 1526 (1973).

Copy of arrest report as evidence. — The fact that former § 8-266 provides that a copy of an arrest report filed with the Central Criminal Records Exchange may be admitted in evidence does not mean that all items in the report may be admitted for any purpose. The mere fact that a record or report qualifies as a public document does not automatically overcome the hearsay objection unless the document relates facts or events within the personal knowledge and observation of the recording official to which he could testify should he be called as a witness. Williams v. Commonwealth, 213 Va. 45, 189 S.E.2d 378 (1972).

§ 19.2-391. Records to be made available to Exchange by state officials and agencies; duplication of records. — Each state official and agency shall make available to the Central Criminal Records Exchange such of their records as are pertinent to its functions and shall cooperate with the Exchange in the development and use of equipment and facilities on a joint basis, where feasible. No state official or agency shall maintain records which are a duplication of the records on deposit in the Central Criminal Records Exchange, except to the extent necessary for efficient internal administration of such agency. (Code 1950, § 19.1-19.4; 1966, c. 669; 1975, c. 495.)

§ 19.2-392. Fingerprints and photographs by police authorities. — All duly constituted police authorities having the power of arrest may take the fingerprints and photographs of any person arrested by them and charged with a felony or with any misdemeanor or arrest for which is to be reported by them to the Central Criminal Records Exchange, or when a person pleads guilty or is found guilty after being summoned in accordance with § 19.2-74. Such authorities shall make such records available to the Central Criminal Records Exchange. Such authorities are authorized to provide, on the request of duly appointed law-enforcement officers, copies of any fingerprint records they may have, and to furnish services and technical advice in connection with the taking, classifying and preserving of fingerprints and fingerprint records. (Code 1950, § 19.1-19.6; 1968, c. 722; 1975, c. 495; 1978, c. 825.)

Cross reference. — For other provisions as to power of police authorities to take fingerprints and photographs, see § 15.1-135.

19.2-392.2. Expungement of police and court records.
19.2-392.3. Disclosure of expunged records.

§ 19.2-392.1. Statement of policy. — The General Assembly finds that arrest records can be a hindrance to an innocent citizen's ability to obtain employment, an education and to obtain credit. This chapter is intended to protect the innocent persons who are arrested from unwarranted damage which may occur as a result of being arrested. (1977, c. 675.)

Law Review. — For survey of Virginia criminal procedure for the year 1976-1977, see 63 Va. L. Rev. 1408 (1977).

VIRGINIA

§ 19.2-392.2. Expungement of police and court records. — A. If a person is charged with the commission of a crime and

1. Is acquitted, or

2. A nolle prosequi is taken or the charge is otherwise dismissed, he may file a petition setting forth the relevant facts and requesting expungement of the police records and the court records relating to the charge.

B. The petition with a copy of the warrant or indictment if reasonably available shall be filed in the circuit court of the county or city in which the case was disposed of by acquittal or being otherwise dismissed and shall contain, except where not reasonably available, the date of arrest and the name of the arresting agency. Where this information is not reasonably available, the petition shall state the reason for such unavailability. The petition shall further state the specific criminal charge to be expunged, the date of final disposition of the charge as set forth in the petition, the petitioner's date of birth, and the full name used by the petitioner at the time of arrest.

C. A copy of the petition shall be served on the Commonwealth's attorney of the city or county in which the petition is filed. The Commonwealth's attorney may file an objection or answer to the petition within twenty-one days after it is served on him.

D. Hearing by court; granting or denial of expungement. — The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition. If the court finds that the continued existence and possible dissemination of information relating to the arrest of the petitioner causes or may cause circumstances which constitute a manifest injustice to the petitioner, it shall enter an order requiring the expungement of the police and court records relating to the charge. Otherwise, it shall deny the petition.

E. The Commonwealth shall be made party defendant to the proceeding. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the court may appeal, as provided by law in civil cases.

F. Upon the entry of an order of expungement, the clerk of the court shall cause a copy of such order to be forwarded to the Department of Criminal Justice Services, which Department shall, pursuant to rules and regulations adopted pursuant to § 9-190 of this Code, direct the manner by which the appropriate expungement or removal of such records shall be effected.

G. Costs shall be as provided by § 14.1-113, but shall not be recoverable against the Commonwealth. (1977, c. 675; 1983, c. 394.)

The 1983 amendment inserted "with a copy of the warrant or indictment if reasonably available" and inserted "and shall contain, except where not reasonably available, the date of arrest and the name of the arresting agency" in the first sentence of subsection B, added the second and third sentences of subsection B, and in subsection F substituted "clerk of the court shall" for "petitioner may," substituted "forwarded to the Department of Criminal Justice Services" for "served upon the Criminal Justice Services Commission," substituted "Department" for "Commission," substituted "§ 9-190" for "§ 9-111.9," and substituted "shall be effected" for "which the court shall have ordered expunged."

Law Review. — For survey of Virginia criminal procedure for the year 1976-1977, see 63 Va. L. Rev. 1408 (1977).

Repeal of the ordinance under which a person was arrested does not render moot his request for expungement. Hearn v. Hudson, 549 F. Supp. 949 (W.D. Va. 1982).

Expungement order from federal court. — The administration of records related to law enforcement is a function close to the core of state government. An expungement order from a federal court would be a significant intrusion — and, in light of the availability of the state court procedure, an unnecessary intrusion — into the State's administration of its record-keeping. Hearn v. Hudson, 549 F. Supp. 949 (W.D. Va. 1982).

§ 19.2-392.3. Disclosure of expunged records. — A. It shall be unlawful for any person having or acquiring access to an expunged court or police record to open or review it or to disclose to another person any information from it without an order from the court which ordered the record expunged.

B. Upon a verified petition filed by the Commonwealth's attorney alleging that the record is needed by a law-enforcement agency for purposes of employment application as an employee of a law-enforcement agency or for a pending criminal investigation and that the investigation will be jeopardized or that life or property will be endangered without immediate access to the record, the court may enter an ex parte order, without notice to the person, permitting such access. An ex parte order may permit a review of the record, but may not permit a copy to be made of it.

C. Any person who willfully violates this section is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1977, c. 675; 1978, c. 713.)

§ 19.2-392.4. Prohibited practices by employers, educational institutions, agencies, etc., of state and local governments. — A. An employer or educational institution shall not, in any application, interview, or otherwise, require an applicant for employment or admission to disclose information concerning any arrest or criminal charge against him that has been expunged. An applicant need not, in answer to any question concerning any arrest or criminal charge that has not resulted in a conviction, include a reference to or information concerning arrests or charges that have been expunged.

B. Agencies, officials, and employees of the state and local governments shall not, in any application, interview, or otherwise, require an applicant for a license, permit, registration, or governmental service to disclose information concerning any arrest or criminal charge against him that has been expunged. An applicant need not, in answer to any question concerning any arrest or criminal charge that has not resulted in a conviction, include a reference to or information concerning charges that have been expunged. Such an application may not be denied solely because of the applicant's refusal to disclose information concerning any arrest or criminal charge against him that has been expunged.

C. A person who willfully violates this section is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor for each violation. (1977, c. 675.)

The 1980 amendment substituted "Commonwealth" for "State" in three places in subdivision (a) and inserted "or any employee or officer of a public body" near the end of subdivision (b).

Information gathering session not a "meeting." — A "meeting," as defined by this section, did not include a conference where board of supervisors, without giving notice or keeping minutes, met with the Attorney General for the purpose of gathering information, where the board conducted no public business and did not exclude the public. Nageotte v. Board of Supvrs., 223 Va. 259, 288 S.E.2d 423 (1982).

§ 2.1-342. Official records to be open to inspection; procedure for requesting records and responding to request; charges; exceptions to application of chapter. — (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, all official records shall be open to inspection and copying by any citizens of this Commonwealth during the regular office hours of the custodian of such records. Access to such records shall not be denied to any such citizen of this Commonwealth, nor to representatives of newspapers and magazines with circulation in this Commonwealth, and representatives of radio and television stations broadcasting in or into this Commonwealth. The custodian of such records shall take all necessary precautions for their preservation and safekeeping. Any public body covered under the provisions of this chapter shall make an initial response to citizens requesting records open to inspection within fourteen calendar days from the receipt of the request by the public body. Such citizen request shall designate the requested records with reasonable specificity. If the requested records or public body is excluded from the provisions of this chapter, the public body to which the request is directed shall within fourteen calendar days from the receipt of the request tender a written explanation as to why the records are not available to the requestor. Such explanation shall make specific reference to the applicable provisions of this chapter or other Code sections which make the requested records unavailable. In the event a determination of the availability of the requested records may not be made within the fourteen-calendar-day period, the public body to which the request is directed shall inform the requestor as such, and shall have an additional ten calendar days in which to make a determination of availability. A specific reference to this chapter by the requesting citizen in his records request shall not be necessary to invoke the time limits for response by the public body. The public body may make reasonable charges for the copying and search time expended in the supplying of such records; however, in no event shall such charges exceed the actual cost to the public body in supplying such records. Such charges for the supplying of requested records shall be estimated in advance at the request of the citizen.

(b) The following records are excluded from the provisions of this chapter:

(1) Memoranda, correspondence, evidence and complaints related to criminal investigations, reports submitted to the state and local police and the campus police departments of public institutions of higher education as established by Chapter 17 (§ 23-232 et seq.) of Title 23 of the Code of Virginia in confidence, and all records of persons imprisoned in penal institutions in this Commonwealth provided such records relate to the said imprisonment. Information in the custody of law-enforcement officials relative to the identity of any individual other than a juvenile who is arrested and charged, and the status of the charge of arrest, shall not be excluded from the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Confidential records of all investigations of applications for licenses and all licensees made by or submitted to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission.

(3) State income tax returns, personal property tax returns, scholastic records and personnel records, except that such access shall not be denied to the person who is the subject thereof, and medical and mental records, except that such records can be personally reviewed by the subject person or a physician of the subject person's choice; however, the subject person's mental records may not be personally reviewed by such person when the subject person's treating physician has made a part of such person's records a written statement that in his opinion a review of such records by the subject person would be injurious to the subject person's physical or mental health or well-being. Where the person who is the subject of scholastic or medical and mental records is under the age of eighteen, his right of access may be asserted only by his parent or guardian, except in instances where the person who is the subject thereof is an emancipated minor or a student in a state-supported institution of higher education.

(4) Memoranda, working papers and correspondence held or requested by members of the General Assembly or by the office of the Governor or Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General or the mayor or other chief executive officer of any political subdivision of the Commonwealth or the president or other chief executive officer of any state-supported institutions of higher education.

(4a) Written opinions of the city and county attorneys of the cities, counties and towns in the Commonwealth and any other writing protected by the attorney-client privilege.

(5) Memoranda, working papers and records compiled specifically for use in litigation or as a part of an active administrative investigation concerning a matter which is properly the subject of an executive or closed meeting under § 2.1-344 and material furnished in confidence with respect thereto.

(6) Confidential letters and statements of recommendation placed in the records of educational agencies or institutions respecting (i) admission to any educational agency or institution, (ii) an application for employment, or (iii) receipt of an honor or honorary recognition.

(7) Library records which can be used to identify both (i) any library patron who has borrowed material from a library and (ii) the material such patron borrowed.

(8) Any test or examination used, administered or prepared by any public body for purposes of evaluation of (i) any student or any student's performance, (ii) any employee or employment seeker's qualifications or aptitude for employment, retention, or promotion, (iii) qualifications for any license or certificate issued by any public body.

As used in this subsection (8), "test or examination" shall include (i) any scoring key for any such test or examination, and (ii) any other document which would jeopardize the security of such test or examination. Nothing contained in this subsection (8) shall prohibit the release of test scores or results as provided by law, or limit access to individual records as is provided by law. However, the subject of such employment tests shall be entitled to review and inspect all documents relative to his performance on such employment tests.

When, in the reasonable opinion of such public body, any such test or examination no longer has any potential for future use, and the security of future tests or examinations will not be jeopardized, such test or examination shall be made available to the public. However, minimum competency tests administered to public school children shall be made available to the public contemporaneously with statewide release of the scores of those taking such tests, but in no event shall such tests be made available to the public later than six months after the administration of such tests.

(9) Applications for admission to examinations or for licensure and scoring records maintained by the Department of Health Regulatory Boards or any board in that department on individual licensees or applicants. However, such material may be made available during normal working hours for copying, at the requestor's expense, by the individual who is subject thereof, in the offices of the Department of Health Regulatory Boards or in the offices of any health regulatory board, whichever may possess the material.

(10) Records of active investigations being conducted by the Department of Health Regulatory Boards or by any health regulatory board in the Commonwealth.

(11) Memoranda, legal opinions, working papers and records recorded in or compiled exclusively for executive or closed meetings lawfully held pursuant to § 2.1-344.

(13) Proprietary information gathered by or for the Virginia Port Authority as provided in § 62.1-134.1 or § 62.1-132.4.

(14) Contract cost estimates prepared for the confidential use of the Department of Highways and Transportation in awarding contracts for construction or the purchase of goods or services.

(15) Vendor proprietary information software which may be in the official records of a public body. For the purpose of this section, "vendor proprietary software" means computer programs acquired from a vendor for purposes of processing data for agencies or political subdivisions of this Commonwealth.

(16) Data, records or information of a proprietary nature, other than financial or administrative, produced or collected by or for faculty or staff of state institutions of higher learning in the conduct of or as a result of study or research on medical, scientific, technical or scholarly issues, whether sponsored by the institution alone or in conjunction with a governmental body or a private concern, where such data, records or information have not been publicly released, published, copyrighted or patented.

(17) Financial statements not publicly available filed with applications for industrial development financings.

(18) Lists of registered owners of bonds issued by a political subdivision of the Commonwealth, whether the lists are maintained by the political subdivision itself or by a single fiduciary designated by the political subdivision.

(c) Neither any provision of this chapter nor any provision of Chapter 26 (§ 2.1-377 et seq.) of this title shall be construed as denying public access to records of the position, job classification, official salary or rate of pay of, and to records of the allowances or reimbursements for expenses paid to any public officer, official or employee at any level of state, local or regional government in this Commonwealth whatsoever. The provisions of this subsection, however, shall not apply to records of the official salaries or rates of pay of public employees whose annual rate of pay is $10,000 or less. § 2.1-343. Meetings to be public except as otherwise provided; minutes; information as to time and place. — Except as otherwise specifically provided by law and except as provided in §§ 2.1-344 and 2.1-345, all meetings shall be public meetings. Minutes shall be recorded at all public meetings. However, minutes shall not be required to be taken at deliberations of (i) standing and other committees of the General Assembly, (ii) legislative interim study commissions and committees, including the Virginia Code Commission, (iii) the Virginia Advisory Legislative Council and its committees, (iv) study committees or commissions appointed by the Governor, or (v) study commissions or study committees appointed by the governing bodies or school boards of counties, cities and towns, except where the membership of any such study commission or study committee includes more than one member of a three member governing body or school board, more than two members of a governing body or school board having four members or a majority of a governing body or school board having more than four members. Information as to the time and place of each meeting shall be furnished to any citizen of this State who requests such information. Requests to be notified on a continual basis shall be made at least once a year in writing and include name, address, zip code and organization if any, together with an adequate supply of stamped self-addressed envelopes. (1968, c. 479; 1973, c. 461; 1976, c. 467; 1977, c. 677; 1982, c. 333.)

The 1982 amendment inserted "or school boards" in cl. (v) of the third sentence and substituted the language beginning "or school board" and ending "four members" for "or includes more than two members of a governing body having four or more members" at the end of the third sentence.

§ 2.1-344. Executive or closed meetings. — (a) Executive or closed meetings may be held only for the following purposes:

(1) Discussion or consideration of employment, assignment, appointment, promotion, performance, demotion, salaries, disciplining or resignation of public officers, appointees or employees of any public body, and evaluation of performance of departments or schools of state institutions of higher education where such matters regarding such individuals might be affected by such evaluation. Any teacher shall be permitted to be present during an executive session or closed meeting in which there is a discussion or consideration of a disciplinary matter, which disciplinary matter involves the teacher and some student or students, and the student or students involved in such matter are present; provided such teacher makes a written request to be present to the presiding officer of the appropriate board.

(1a) Discussion or consideration of admission or disciplinary matters concerning any student or students of any state institution of higher education or any state school system. However, any such student and legal counsel and, if such student be a minor, such student's parents or legal guardians, shall be permitted to be present at an executive or closed meeting, if such student, parents or guardians so request in writing, and such request is submitted to the presiding officer of the appropriate board.

VIRGINIA

(2) Discussion or consideration of the condition, acquisition or use of real property for public purpose, or of the disposition of publicly held property, or of plans for the future of a state institution of higher education which could affect the value of property owned or desirable for ownership by such institution.

(3) The protection of the privacy of individuals in personal matters not related to public business.

(4) Discussion concerning a prospective business or industry where no previous announcement has been made of the business' or industry's interest in locating in the community.

(5) The investing of public funds where competition or bargaining is involved, where if made public initially the financial interest of the governmental unit would be adversely affected.

(6) Consultation with legal counsel and briefings by staff members, consultants or attorneys, pertaining to actual or potential litigation, or other legal matters within the jurisdiction of the public body, and discussions or consideration of such matters without the presence of counsel, staff, consultants, or attorneys.

(7) In the case of boards of visitors of state institutions of higher education, discussion or consideration of matters relating to gifts, bequests and fund-raising activities, and grants and contracts for services or work to be performed by such institution. However, the terms and conditions of any such gifts, bequests, grants and contracts made by a foreign government, a foreign legal entity or a foreign person and accepted by a state institution of higher education shall be subject to public disclosure upon written request to the appropriate board of visitors. For the purpose of this subsection, (i) "foreign government" shall mean any government other than the United States government or the government of a state or a political subdivision thereof (ii) "foreign legal entity" shall mean any legal entity created under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof if a majority of the ownership of the stock of such legal entity is owned by foreign governments or foreign persons or if a majority of the membership of any such entity is composed of foreign persons or foreign legal entities, or any legal entity created under the laws of a foreign government; and (iii) "foreign person" shall mean any individual who is not a citizen or national of the United States or a trust territory or protectorate thereof.

(7a) In the case of the boards of trustees of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and the Science Museum of Virginia, discussion or consideration of matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and grants.

(8) Discussion or consideration of honorary degrees or special awards.

(9) Discussion or consideration of tests or examinations or other documents excluded from this chapter pursuant to § 2.1-342 (b) (8).

(10) Discussion, consideration or review by the appropriate House or Senate committees of possible disciplinary action against a member arising out of the possible inadequacy of the disclosure statement filed by said member, provided said member may request in writing that the committee meeting not be conducted in executive session.

(b) No meeting shall become an executive or closed meeting unless there shall have been recorded in open meeting an affirmative vote to that effect by the public body holding such meeting, which motion shall state specifically the purpose or purposes hereinabove set forth in this section which are to be the subject of such meeting and a statement included in the minutes of such meeting which shall make specific reference to the applicable exemption or exemptions as provided in subsection (a) or § 2.1-345. A general reference to the provisions of this chapter or to the exemptions of subsection (a) shall not be sufficient to satisfy the requirements for an executive or closed meeting. The public body holding such an executive or closed meeting shall restrict its consideration of matters during the closed portions only to those purposes specifically exempted from the provisions of this chapter.

VIRGINIA

(c) No resolution, ordinance, rule, contract, regulation or motion adopted, passed or agreed to in an executive or closed meeting shall become effective unless such public body, following such meeting, reconvenes in open meeting and takes a vote of the membership on such resolution, ordinance, rule, contract, regulation or motion which shall have its substance reasonably identified in the open meeting. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the board of directors of any authority created pursuant to the Industrial Development and Revenue Bond Act (§ 15.1-1373 et seq.), or any public body empowered to issue industrial revenue bonds by general or special law, to identify a business or industry to which subsection (a) (4) of this section applies. However, such business or industry must be identified as a matter of public record at least thirty days prior to the actual date of the board's authorization of the sale or issuance of such bonds.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the holding of conferences between two or more public bodies, or their representatives, but these conferences shall be subject to the same regulations for holding executive or closed sessions as are applicable to any other public body. (1968, c. 479; 1970, c. 456; 1973, c. 461; 1974, c. 332; 1976, cc. 467, 709; 1979, cc. 369, 684; 1980, cc. 221, 475, 476, 754; 1981, cc. 35, 471; 1982, cc. 497, 516.)

§ 2.1-345. Agencies to which chapter inapplicable. — The provisions of this chapter shall not be applicable to:

(1) to (5) [Repealed.]

(6) Parole boards; petit juries; grand juries; and the Virginia State Crime Commission.

(7) [Repealed.] (1968, c. 479; 1971, Ex. Sess., c. 1; 1973, c. 461; 1974, c. 332; 1977, c. 677; 1979, c. 369.)

§ 2.1-346. Proceedings for enforcement of chapter.

Extraordinary relief not to be casually or perfunctorily ordered. — Under this section, a single violation is sufficient to permit the grant of relief based on the inference that future violations will occur, but such an extraordinary and drastic remedy is not to be casually or perfunctorily ordered. Nageotte v. Board of Supvrs., 223 Va. 259, 288 S.E.2d 423 (1982).

When injunctive relief, etc., not justified. — The 1976 amendment to this section in effect permits a trial court to infer from a single violation that future violations will follow. However, where the court expresses the view that there will be no future violations, there is no justification for injunctive relief. Marsh v. Richmond Newspapers, Inc., 223 Va. 245, 288 S.E.2d 415 (1982).

Where violations occur under this chapter, but are not willful and knowing violations or violations that would invalidate board actions with which concerned citizens who brought suit were concerned, such violations do not justify injunctive relief or the award of attorneys' fees and costs. Nageotte v. Board of Supvrs., 223 Va. 259, 288 S.E.2d 423 (1982).

§ 2.1-346.1. Violations and penalties. — In a proceeding commenced against members of public bodies under § 2.1-346 for a violation of §§ 2.1-342, 2.1-343 or 2.1-344, the court, if it finds that a violation was willfully and knowingly made, shall impose upon such person or persons in his or her individual capacity, whether a writ of mandamus or injunctive relief is awarded or not, a civil penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, which amount shall be paid into the State Literary Fund. (1976, c. 467; 1978, c. 826.)

The 1978 amendment substituted "public bodies" for "governing bodies" near the beginning of the section.

2.1-385. Disclosure of social security number.

2.1-386. Injunctive relief.

§ 2.1-377. Short title. — This chapter may be cited as the "Privacy Protection Act of 1976." (1976, c. 597.)

Effective date. — Acts 1976, c. 597, cl. 2, provides: "That this act shall be effective in due course; provided that the operation of all or any part hereof may be suspended until a time not later than July one, nineteen hundred seventy-seven by the appropriate cabinet level secretary for any agency for which he is responsible to the Governor or by the governing body of any other agency which is not within the executive branch of the government of the Commonwealth."

Law Review. — For a discussion of this Act in the survey of Virginia administrative law for the year 1975-76, see 62 Va. L. Rev. 1357 (1976).

§ 2.1-378. Findings; purpose of chapter. — A. The General Assembly finds:

1. That an individual's privacy is directly affected by the extensive collection, maintenance, use and dissemination of personal information;

2. That the increasing use of computers and sophisticated information technology has greatly magnified the harm that can occur from these practices;

3. That an individual's opportunities to secure employment, insurance, credit and his right to due process, and other legal protections are endangered by the misuse of certain of these personal information systems; and

4. That in order to preserve the rights guaranteed a citizen in a free society, legislation is necessary to establish procedures to govern information systems containing records on individuals.

B. The purpose of this chapter is to ensure safeguards for personal privacy by record-keeping agencies of the Commonwealth and her political subdivisions by adherence to the following principles of information practice:

1. There should be no personal information system whose existence is secret.

2. Information should not be collected unless the need for it has been clearly established in advance.

3. Information should be appropriate and relevant to the purpose for which it has been collected.

4. Information should not be obtained by fraudulent or unfair means.

5. Information should not be used unless it is accurate and current.

6. There should be a prescribed procedure for an individual to learn the purpose for which information has been recorded and particulars about its use and dissemination.

7. There should be a clearly prescribed and uncomplicated procedure for an individual to correct, erase or amend inaccurate, obsolete or irrelevant information.

8. Any agency holding personal information should assure its reliability and take precautions to prevent its misuse.

VIRGINIA

9. There should be a clearly prescribed procedure to prevent personal information collected for one purpose from being used for another purpose.

10. The Commonwealth or any agency or political subdivision thereof should not collect personal information except as explicitly or implicitly authorized by law. (1976, c. 597.)

Law Review. — For a discussion of this Act in the survey of Virginia administrative law for the year 1975-76, see 62 Va. L. Rev. 1357 (1976).

§ 2.1-379. Definitions. — As used in this chapter:

1. The term "information system" means the total components and operations of a record-keeping process, whether automated or manual, containing personal information and the name, personal number, or other identifying particulars of a data subject.

2. The term "personal information" means all information that describes, locates or indexes anything about an individual including his real or personal property holdings derived from tax returns, and his education, financial transactions, medical history, ancestry, religion, political ideology, criminal or employment record, or that affords a basis for inferring personal characteristics, such as finger and voice prints, photographs, or things done by or to such individual; and the record of his presence, registration, or membership in an organization or activity, or admission to an institution. The term does not include routine information maintained for the purpose of internal office administration whose use could not be such as to affect adversely any data subject nor does the term include real estate assessment information.

3. The term "data subject" means an individual about whom personal information is indexed or may be located under his name, personal number, or other identifiable particulars, in an information system.

4. The term "disseminate" means to release, transfer, or otherwise communicate information orally, in writing, or by electronic means.

5. The term "purge" means to obliterate information completely from the transient, permanent, or archival records of an organization.

6. The term "agency" means any agency, authority, board, department, division, commission, institution, bureau, or like governmental entity of the Commonwealth or of any unit of local government including counties, cities, towns and regional governments and the departments and including any entity, whether public or private, with which any of the foregoing has entered into a contractual relationship for the operation of a system of personal information to accomplish an agency function. Any such entity included in this definition by reason of a contractual relationship shall only be deemed an agency as relates to services performed pursuant to that contractual relationship, provided that if any such entity is a consumer reporting agency, it shall be deemed to have satisfied all of the requirements of this chapter if it fully complies with the requirements of the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act as applicable to services performed pursuant to such contractual relationship. (1976, c. 597; 1983, c. 372.)

The 1983 amendment inserted "real or returns, and his" in the first sentence of subpersonal property holdings derived from tax vision 2.

§ 2.1-380. Administration of systems including personal information.

Chapter does not render personal information confidential. Indeed, the act does not generally prohibit the dissemination of information. Instead, it requires certain procedural steps to be taken in the collection, maintenance, use, and dissemination of such data. Hinderliter v. Humphries, — Va. —, 297 S.E.2d 684 (1982).

Burden is on plaintiff to establish lack of necessity or improper purpose for dissemination. Hinderliter v. Humphries, — Va. —, 297 S.E.2d 684 (1982).

Since public officials presumed to obey the law. — There is a presumption that public officials will obey the law, and there is nothing in this chapter that reverses such presumption or imposes the ultimate burden of proof on defendants sued under it. Consequently, the presumption stands until rebutted by contrary evidence. Hinderliter v. Humphries, — Va. —, 297 S.E.2d 684 (1982).

§ 2.1-380.1. Administration of systems including personal information; military recruiters to have access to student information, school buildings, etc. — If a public school board or public institution of higher education provides access to its buildings and grounds and the student information directory to persons or groups which make students aware of occupational or educational options, the board or institution shall provide access on the same basis to official recruiting representatives of the military forces of the Commonwealth and the United States for the purpose of informing students of educational and career opportunities available in the military. (1981, c. 377.)

§ 2.1-381. Same; dissemination of reports. — Any agency maintaining an information system that disseminates statistical reports or research findings based on personal information drawn from its system, or from other systems shall:

1. Make available to any data subject or group, without revealing trade secrets, methodology and materials necessary to validate statistical analysis, and

2. Make no materials available for independent analysis without guarantees that no personal information will be used in any way that might prejudice judgments about any data subject. (1976, c. 597.)

§ 2.1-382. Rights of data subjects. — A. Any agency maintaining personal information shall:

1. Inform an individual who is asked to supply personal information about himself whether he is legally required, or may refuse, to supply the information requested, and also of any specific consequences which are known to the agency of providing or not providing such information.

2. Give notice to a data subject of the possible dissemination of part or all of this information to another agency, nongovernmental organization or system not having regular access authority, and indicate the use for which it is intended, and the specific consequences for the individual, which are known to the agency, of providing or not providing such information, however documented permission for dissemination in the hands of such other agency or organization will satisfy this requirement. Such notice may be given on applications or other data collection forms prepared by data subjects.

3. Upon request and proper identification of any data subject, or of his authorized agent, grant such subject or agent the right to inspect, in a form comprehensible to such individual or agent:

(a) All personal information about that data subject except as provided in § 2.1-342 (b)(3).

(b) The nature of the sources of the information.

(c) The names of recipients, other than those with regular access authority, of personal information about the data subject including the identity of all persons and organizations involved and their relationship to the system when not having regular access authority.

VIRGINIA

4. Comply with the following minimum conditions of disclosure to data subjects:

(a) An agency shall make disclosures to data subjects required under this chapter, during normal business hours.

(b) The disclosures to data subjects required under this chapter shall be made (i) in person, if he appears in person and furnishes proper identification, (ii) by mail, if he has made a written request, with proper identification. Copies of the documents containing the personal information sought by a data subject shall be furnished to him or his representative at reasonable standard charges for document search and duplication.

(c) The data subject shall be permitted to be accompanied by a person or persons of his choosing, who shall furnish reasonable identification. An agency may require the data subject to furnish a written statement granting permission to the organization to discuss the individual's file in such person's presence.

5. If the data subject gives notice that he wishes to challenge, correct, or explain information about him in the information system, the following minimum procedures shall be followed:

(a) The agency maintaining the information system shall investigate, and record the current status of that personal information.

(b) If, after such investigation, such information is found to be incomplete, inaccurate, not pertinent, not timely nor necessary to be retained, it shall be promptly corrected or purged.

(c) If the investigation does not resolve the dispute, the data subject may file a statement of not more than 200 words setting forth his position.

(d) Whenever a statement of dispute is filed, the organization maintaining the information system shall supply any previous recipient with a copy of the statement and, in any subsequent dissemination or use of the information in question, clearly note that it is disputed and supply the statement of the data subject along with the information.

(e) The agency maintaining the information system shall clearly and conspicuously disclose to the data subject his rights to make such a request.

(f) Following any correction or purging of personal information the agency shall furnish to past recipients notification that the item has been purged or corrected whose receipt shall be acknowledged.

B. Nothing in this section or found elsewhere in this chapter shall be construed so as to require an agency to disseminate any recommendation or letter of reference from or to a third party which is a part of the personnel file of any data subject nor to disseminate any test or examination used, administered or prepared by any public body for purposes of evaluation of (i) any student or any student's performance, (ii) any seeker's qualifications or aptitude for employment, retention, or promotion, (iii) qualifications for any license or certificate issued by any public body.

As used in this subsection, "test or examination" shall include (i) any scoring key for any such test or examination, and (ii) any other document which would jeopardize the security of such test or examination. Nothing contained in this subsection shall prohibit the release of test scores or results as provided by law, or to limit access to individual records as is provided by law, however, the subject of such employment tests shall be entitled to review and inspect all documents relative to his performance on such employment tests.

When, in the reasonable opinion of such public body, any such test or examination no longer has any potential for future use, and the security of future tests or examinations will not be jeopardized, such test or examination shall be made available to the public. Minimum competency tests administered to public school children shall be made available to the public contemporaneously with statewide release of the scores of those taking such tests, but in no event shall such tests be made available to the public later than six months after the administration of such tests.

The 1979 amendment deleted "to the Department of Management Analysis and Systems Development" following "Every agency shall make report" near the beginning of the first sentence, deleted the former second sentence, which read "The Department shall compile and arrange the information so received and annually provide the same to the Secretary of the Commonwealth," added "An inventory listing or similar display of" at the beginning of the present second sentence and substituted "head of such agency" for "Secretary of the Commonwealth" at the end of that sentence.

tional status of an individual, which is related to the offense for which the individual is currently within the criminal justice system.

3.0 COLLECTION AND STORAGE:

It shall be incumbent upon each criminal justice agency maintaining a criminal justice information system to ensure the timeliness and accuracy of information in the system, collected after November one, nineteen hundred seventy-six, and dispositions shall be reported promptly to the Central Criminal Records Exchange when appropriate, or to the arresting agency for offenses not required to be reported to the Central Criminal Records Exchange, but in no case later than 90 days after the disposition. In the event inaccuracies are discovered in the information collected, the agency shall notify all agencies and individuals known to have received the information and corrections shall be made in the information.

There shall be no use or dissemination of criminal history record information by criminal justice agency personnel until it has been determined to be the most accurate and complete information available to the criminal justice agency.

4.0 DISSEMINATION:

All criminal history record information shall be disseminated directly or through an intermediary only in accordance with the provisions of §9-111.3 and §19.2-389, Code of Virginia (1950), as amended.

Criminal justice agencies disseminating criminal history record information shall maintain a record of such dissemination as to the receiving criminal justice agency or non-criminal justice agency or individual. The record shall consist of the date of dissemination, identifying name or number of subject record and agency or individual to whom the record was disseminated. Secondary or any subsequent dissemination by a criminal justice agency shall be guided by the same rules and regulations as outlined herein for a primary dissemination. A non-criminal justice agency or individual shall not disseminate any criminal history record information.

If a criminal justice agency determines that an agency or individual to which criminal history record information has been disseminated has further disseminated that information in violation of law, a report of that alleged violation shall be made promptly to the Commission.

A record of dissemination shall be preserved for a period of not less than three years from date of dissemination.

Prior to any dissemination of a criminal history record by a criminal justice agency, a query of the Central Criminal Records Exchange shall be made to ensure that the most up-to-date disposition data are used. Exceptions to this query are limited to those instances set forth in §19.2-389(D) Code of Virginia (1950), as amended.

VIRGINIA

"Conviction data" record information shall be disseminated to a non-criminal justice agency or individual in compliance with the existing laws and its use shall be limited to the purpose of the original dissemination and shall not be disseminated further.

No agency or individual shall confirm or deny the existence or non-existence of criminal history record information to any persons or agency that would not be eligible to receive the information itself. No dissemination of a criminal history record is to be made to a non-criminal justice agency or individual if an interval of one year has elapsed from the date of arrest and no disposition of the charge has been recorded and no active prosecution of charge is pending.

Interstate dissemination of criminal history record information shall be governed by existing state and federal law.

5.0 ACCESS AND REVIEW:

Any individual or his attorney, upon proper identification, shall have the right to inspect criminal history record information being maintained on that individual by the Central Criminal Records Exchange or any criminal justice agency.

Prior to any such inspection, the agency may request a verification of the individual's identity through the furnishing by the individual of a set of inked fingerprints. Should an agency receiving such a request not have the capabilities to handle the classification of the fingerprints, same may be submitted by mail to the Central Criminal Records Exchange, which in turn will make the appropriate search and return to the requesting agency. At a minimum, verification of identity shall be a valid motor vehicle operators' license, valid non-operators' identification card, or valid photo identification of federal or state agency.

A fee not to exceed $5.00 may be charged by the requested agency to cover administrative costs.

Any individual or his attorney may inspect his criminal history record information arising from arrests for felonies and class 1 and 2 misdemeanors maintained on him in the Central Criminal Records Exchange by applying at any law enforcement agency with terminal capabilities on the Virginia Criminal Information Network or to the Central Criminal Records Exchange, Virginia State Police, directly, during normal working hours.

The agency to which the request is directed shall provide reasonable assistance to the individual or his attorney to help understand the record.

6.0 CHALLENGE:

Individuals who desire to challenge their own criminal history record information must execute the appropriate form as required and forward it to the Central Criminal Records Exchange or the criminal justice agency maintaining the record. A duplicate copy may be maintained by the individual initiating the challenge or review. A copy of the challenged record may be furnished to the requesting individual. This copy shall be prominently marked or stamped "NOT TO BE DISSEMINATED FURTHER EXCEPT AS PROVIDED BY LAW".

VIRGINIA

A fee not to exceed $1.00 per page may be charged by the criminal justice agency.

7.0 CHALLENGE OF CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD MAINTAINED BY THE CENTRAL CRIMINAL RECORDS EXCHANGE:

If the challenge is made of a record maintained by the Central Criminal Records Exchange, the manual and/or automated record shall be flagged with the message "CHALLENGED RECORD". All records disseminated shall contain this message while under challenge.

The Central Criminal Records Exchange shall compare the original input form and the information contained in the repository files and reviewed by the individual. If no error is located, the Central Criminal Records Exchange shall forward a copy of the original challenge form, a copy of the Central Criminal Records Exchange form and any other relevant information to the agency or agencies which the Central Criminal Records Exchange records indicate as having originated the information under challenge and request them to examine all relevant files to determine validity of the challenge.

The agency responsible for originating the challenged record shall conduct an examination of the agency's source data, the contents of the challenge and information supplied by the Central Criminal Records Exchange for any discrepancies or errors and shall advise the Central Criminal Records Exchange as to the results of the examination. The Central Criminal Records Exchange shall then notify the agency in which the record was originally reviewed of the Central Criminal Records Exchange's action. The agency in which the review and challenge occurred shall notify the individual or his attorney of the Central Criminal Records Exchange's action.

8.0 CHALLENGE OF CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD MAINTAINED BY A CRIMINAL JUSTICE AGENCY OTHER THAN THE CENTRAL CRIMINAL RECORDS EXCHANGE:

If a challenge is made of a record maintained by an agency, the manual and/or automated record shall be flagged with the message "CHALLENGED RECORD". All disseminated records shall contain this message while under challenge.

If the challenged record pertains to the arrest information, the agency shall examine all relevant files to determine the validity of the challenge. If no error(s) is found, the agency shall then notify the agency where the review and challenge occurred, which shall notify the individual or his attorney of the action taken.

VIRGINIA

If the challenged record pertains to the disposition information, the agency shall compare contents of challenge with the information supplied by the Clerk of the Court. If no error(s) is found, the agency shall forward the challenge to the Clerk of the Court originating the disposition for examination of the court records pursuant to the challenge. The arresting agency shall then notify the individual or his attorney of the action. The Clerk of the Court shall cause the court records to be compared with the contents of the challenge to determine if there are discrepancies in the disposition segment of the record maintained by the arresting agency or record reviewed by the individual. The Clerk of the Court shall notify all those agencies that are party to the challenge, of the results and any corrective action. The agency in which the challenge occurred shall notify the individual or his attorney of action taken.

9.0 ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW:

After the aforementioned review and challenge has been made in either the Central Criminal Records Exchange or the arresting agency, the individual or his attorney may in writing request that the agency head review the challenge if he is not satisfied with the results of the review and challenge. The agency head or his designated official shall review the challenge and notify the individual or his attorney of the decision within 30 days of the receipt of the written request.

10.0 ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL:

After the administrative review, the individual or his attorney may in writing within 30 days of notification of the decision of the administrative review, request that the Executive Director of the Commission review the challenge and conduct an informal hearing before the Executive Director or a designated hearing officer. The decision of the hearing officer shall be communicated to the individual or his attorney.

11.0 CORRECTION:

If an error is discovered, all known copies of the record(s) shall be corrected by notifying appropriate criminal justice agencies, non-criminal justice agencies or individuals in writing of the corrections to be made. This communication shall include a request for the receiving criminal justice agencies to notify any and all additional agencies or individuals known to maintain such record(s) and to make the appropriate corrective action. Upon request, an individual or his attorney shall be given the name of all non-criminal justice agencies to whom data has been furnished.

12.0 AUDIT:

The Criminal Justice Services Commission shall conduct annual audits of a random representative sampling of state and local criminal justice agencies so as to ensure and verify adherence to rules and regulations and ensure completeness and accuracy of the criminal history records.

VIRGINIA

The audit reviews may include, but not be limited to, examination of record accuracy, completeness, effectiveness of the systematic audit procedures, evidence of dissemination limitations, security provisions and the individual right of access and challenge.

13.0 EXPUNGING AND SEALING:

13.1 COURT ORDER:

The Executive Director, upon receipt of a court order for the expungement of a criminal history record, pursuant to §19.2-392.2, Code of Virginia (1950), as amended, shall by letter with an enclosed copy of the order, direct the Central Criminal Records Exchange and those agencies and individuals known to maintain or to have obtained such a record, to remove the manual record from its repository and place it in a sealed, separate file identified by the Central Criminal Records Exchange number or other identifying number and mark "EXPUNGED RECORD TO BE UNSEALED ONLY BY COURT ORDER".

Should the record be maintained in an automated system, the Central Criminal Records Exchange or the agency known to possess such a record shall cancel the automated record in whatever manner necessary to preclude on-line or off-line access to the record. The automated record should be electronically erased if necessary to fully effect the cancellation. The procedures as outlined herein for manual records shall be followed.

Should an expungement court order be directed to a criminal justice agency other than the Commission, the directed criminal justice agency shall comply as outlined herein and without delay advise the Executive Director in writing of such order together with a copy of the order. The Executive Director shall upon receipt of such notification follow the procedure previously mentioned.

13.2 SEALED RECORDS:

No sealed record shall be subject to inspection by anyone, except pursuant to an appropriate court order.

13.3 PROCEDURE:

Expungement of records shall be made pursuant to §19.2-392.2, Code of Virginia (1950), as amended, or as otherwise provided by law.

VIRGINIA

PART II
CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD INFORMATION SECURITY

14.0 CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD SECURITY:

14.1 APPLICABILITY:

These rules and regulations are applicable to all criminal justice information systems operated within the Commonwealth of Virginia. These rules and regulations on security are not applicable to court records or other records expressly excluded by §9-111.3, Paragraph B, Code of Virginia (1950), as amended.

These rules and regulations establish a minimum set of security standards which shall apply to any manual or automated record keeping system which collects, stores, processes, or disseminates criminal history record information.

Where individuals or non-criminal justice agencies are authorized to have direct access to criminal history record information pursuant to a specific agreement with a criminal justice agency to provide services required for the administration of criminal justice, such service support agreement will embody the restrictions on dissemination and the security requirements contained in these rules and regulations and the Code of Virginia.

14.2 RESPONSIBILITIES:

A. In addition to those responsibilities mandated by State and Federal laws, the Department of State Police shall have the responsibility for the implementation of these rules and regulations in regard to the operation of the Central Criminal Records Exchange.

B. The implementation of these rules and regulations, except as set forth in sub-paragraph A, shall be the responsibility of the criminal justice agency as designated and authorized by the county or municipality in cases of political sub-divisions. Nothing in these rules and regulations shall be deemed to affect in any way the exercise of responsibility conferred on counties and municipalities of the State under Title 15.1, Code of Virginia (1950), as amended. The determination of the suitability of the actual procedures instituted by the criminal justice agency will be the subject of study in any audit by the Criminal Justice Services Commission mandated by §9-111.5, Code of Virginia (1950), as amended.

14.3 PHYSICAL ACCESS:

Access to any area in which criminal history record information is collected, stored, processed, or disseminated shall be limited to authorized persons. Control of such access shall be ensured through the use of locks, guards and/or other appropriate means. Authorized personnel shall be clearly identified.

VIRGINIA

Procedures shall be established to detect an unauthorized attempt or access. Furthermore, a procedure shall be established to be followed in those cases in which an attempt or unauthorized access is detected. Such procedures shall become part of the orientation of any employee working in criminal history record information area(s) and shall be reviewed periodically to ensure their effectiveness.

Each criminal justice agency shall provide that direct access to criminal history record information shall be available only to authorized officers or employees of a criminal justice agency and, as necessary, other authorized personnel essential to the proper operation of the criminal history record information system.

Each criminal justice agency shall institute procedures, where computer processing is not utilized, to ensure that an individual or agency authorized to have direct access is responsible for (i) the physical security of criminal history record information under its control or in its custody and (ii) the protection of such information from unauthorized access, disclosure, or dissemination.

Procedures shall be instituted to protect any central repository of criminal history record information from unauthorized access, theft, sabotage, fire, flood, wind, or other natural or man-made disasters.

All system specifications and documentation shall be carefully controlled to prevent unauthorized access and dissemination.

14.4 PERSONNEL:

In accordance with applicable laws, ordinances, and regulations, the criminal justice agency shall:

A. Screen and have the right to reject for employment, based on good cause, all personnel to be authorized to have direct access to criminal history record information.

B. Have the right to initiate or cause to be initiated administrative action leading to the transfer or removal of personnel authorized to have direct access to such information where such personnel violate the provisions of these regulations or other security requirements established for the collection, storage, or dissemination of criminal history record information.

C. Ensure that each employee working with or having access to criminal history record information shall be made familiar with the substance and intent of these regulations. All designated employees shall be briefed on their roles and responsibilities in protecting the information resources in the agency. Special procedures connected with security shall be documented and disseminated to all those with a need to know. These procedures shall be reviewed periodically to ensure their relevance and continuing effectiveness.

VIRGINIA

14.5 TELECOMMUNICATIONS:

In those systems where terminal access of criminal history record information is permitted, all terminal devices must be secure. Any terminal device capable of receiving or transmitting criminal history record information shall be attended during all periods of its operation. In all cases in which the terminal is unattended, the device, through some security means, shall be made inoperable.

Telecommunications facilities used in connection with the terminal shall also be secured. The terminal device shall be identified on a hardware basis to the host computer. In addition, appropriate identification of the terminal operator may be required. Equipment associated with the terminal device shall be reasonably protected from possible tampering or tapping. In all cases in which a computer system provides terminal access to criminal history record information, the use of dial-up lines shall be prohibited to access criminal history record information.

14.6 COMPUTER OPERATIONS:

Where computerized data processing is employed, effective and technologically advanced software and hardware designs shall be instituted to prevent unauthorized access to such information.

Computer operations, whether dedicated or shared, which support criminal justice information systems shall operate in accordance with procedures developed or approved by the participating criminal justice agencies.

Criminal history record information shall be stored by the computer in such manner that it cannot be modified, destroyed, accessed, changed, purged, or overlaid in any fashion by non-criminal justice terminals.

Operation programs shall be used that will prohibit inquiry, record updates, or destruction of records, from any terminal other than criminal justice system terminals which are so designated.

The destruction of records shall be limited to designated terminals under the direct control of the criminal justice agency responsible for creating or storing the criminal history record information.

Operational programs shall be used to detect and store for the output of designated criminal justice agency employees all unauthorized attempts to penetrate any criminal history record information system, program or file.

Programs designed for the purpose of prohibiting unauthorized inquiries, unauthorized record updates, unauthorized destruction of records, or for the detection and logging of unauthorized attempts to penetrate any criminal history record information system shall be known only to the criminal justice agency employees responsible for criminal history record information system control or individuals and agencies pursuant to a specific agreement with the criminal justice agency to provide such programs. The program(s) shall be kept continuously under maximum security conditions.

VIRGINIA

The criminal justice agency shall have the right to audit, monitor, and inspect procedures established pursuant to these rules and regulations.

15.0 EFFECTIVE DATE:

These rules and regulations shall be effective on and after June 1, 1981, and until amended or rescinded. These rules and regulations are amended pursuant to Section 9-6.14:6(ii and iv), Code of Virginia (1950), as amended and the Criminal Justice Services Commission will receive, consider, and respond to petitions by any interested person at any time for the reconsideration or revision thereof.

Injunction to restrain examination

(h) In accordance with the rules of civil procedure the district court may grant an injunction restraining the examination (including copying) of a specific public record, if the petition supported by affidavit shows and if the court finds that such examination would clearly not be in the public interest and would substantially and irreparably injure any person or persons. The district court shall take into account the policy of this chapter that free and open examination of public records is generally in the public interest, even though such examination may cause inconvenience or embarrassment to public officials or others. Such injunction shall be subject to the rules of civil procedure except that the court in its discretion may waive bond. Reasonable delay by any person in permitting the examination of a record in order to seek an injunction under this section is not a violation of this chapter, if such person believes in good faith that he is entitled to an injunction restraining the examination of such record.—Amended Dec. 6, 1972, No. 3346, Sess. The term includes information contained in records maintained by or obtained from criminal justice agencies, other than courts, which records provide individual identification of a person together with any portion of the individual's record of involvement in the criminal justice system as an alleged or convicted offender, except:

(a) Posters, announcements, or lists for identifying or apprehending fugitives or wanted persons;

(b) Original records of entry maintained by criminal justice agencies to the extent that such records are compiled and maintained chronologically and are accessible only on a chronological basis;

(c) Court indices and records of public judicial proceedings, court decisions, and opinions, and information disclosed during public judicial proceedings;

(d) Records of traffic violations which are not punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of more than ninety days;

(e) Records of any traffic offenses as maintained by the department of licensing for the purpose of regulating the issuance, suspension, revocation, or renewal of drivers' or other operators' licenses and pursuant to RCW 46.52.130 as now existing or hereafter amended;

(f) Records of any aviation violations or offenses as maintained by the department of transportation for the purpose of regulating pilots or other aviation operators, and pursuant to RCW 47.68.330 as now existing or hereafter amended;

(g) Announcements of executive clemency.

(2) "Nonconviction data" consists of all criminal history record information relating to an incident which has not led to a conviction or other disposition adverse to the subject, and for which proceedings are no longer actively pending. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that proceedings are no longer actively pending if more than one year has elapsed since arrest, citation, or service of warrant and no disposition has been entered.

(3) "Conviction record" means criminal history record information relating to an incident which has led to a conviction or other disposition adverse to the subject.

(4) "Conviction or other disposition adverse to the subject" means any disposition of charges, except a decision not to prosecute, a dismissal, or acquittal: Provided, however, That a dismissal entered after a period of probation, suspension, or deferral of sentence shall be considered a disposition adverse to the subject.

(5) "Criminal justice agency" means: (a) A court; or (b) a government agency which performs the administration of criminal justice pursuant to a statute or executive order and which allocates a substantial part of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice.

(7) "Disposition" means the formal conclusion of a criminal proceeding at whatever stage it occurs in the criminal justice system.

(8) "Dissemination" means disclosing criminal history record information or disclosing the absence of criminal history record information to any person or agency outside the agency possessing the information, subject to the following exceptions:

(a) When criminal justice agencies jointly participate in the maintenance of a single record keeping department as an alternative to maintaining separate records, the furnishing of information by that department to personnel of any participating agency is not a dissemination;

(b) The furnishing of information by any criminal justice agency to another for the purpose of processing a matter through the criminal justice system, such as a police department providing information to a prosecutor for use in preparing a charge, is not a dissemination;

(c) The reporting of an event to a record keeping agency for the purpose of maintaining the record is not a dissemination.

Added by Laws 1977, Ex.Sess., ch. 314, § 3. Amended by Laws 1979, ch. 158, § 5, eff. March 30, 1979; Laws 1979, Ex.Sess., ch. 36, § 1.

Historical Note

The first 1979 amendment substituted "licensing" for "motor vehicles" in subsec. (1)(e) and in subsec. (1)(f) substituted "department of transportation" for "aeronautics commission" and "47.68.330" for "14.04.330".

The second 1979 amendment substituted "any" for "one" following "information by" in subsec. (8)(b) and deleted "resulting from an investigation by that department" following "in preparing a charge" in the same subsection. The amendment also deleted subsec. (9) which provided:

10.97.050 Unrestricted dissemination of certain information—Dissemination of other information to certain persons or for certain purposes—Records of dissemination, contents

(1) Conviction records may be disseminated without restriction.

(2) Any criminal history record information which pertains to an incident for which a person is currently being processed by the criminal justice system, including the entire period of correctional supervision extending through final discharge from parole, when applicable, may be disseminated without restriction.

(3) Criminal history record information which includes non-conviction data may be disseminated by a criminal justice agency to another criminal justice agency for any purpose associated with the administration of criminal justice, or in connection with the employment of the subject of the record by a criminal justice or juvenile justice agency. A criminal justice agency may respond to any inquiry from another criminal justice agency without any obligation to ascertain the purpose for which the information is to be used by the agency making the inquiry.

(4) Criminal history record information which includes non-conviction data may be disseminated by a criminal justice agency to implement a statute, ordinance, executive order, or a court rule, decision, or order which expressly refers to records of arrest, charges, or allegations of criminal conduct or other nonconviction data and authorizes or directs that it be available or accessible for a specific purpose.

(5) Criminal history record information which includes non-conviction data may be disseminated to individuals and agencies pursuant to a contract with a criminal justice agency to provide services related to the administration of criminal justice. Such contract must specifically authorize access to criminal history record information, but need not specifically state that access to nonconviction data is included. The agreement must limit the use of the criminal history record information to stated purposes and insure the confidentiality and security of the information consistent with state law and any applicable federal statutes and regulations.

WASHINGTON

(6) Criminal history record information which includes non-conviction data may be disseminated to individuals and agencies for the express purpose of research, evaluative, or statistical activities pursuant to an agreement with a criminal justice agency. Such agreement must authorize the access to nonconviction data, limit the use of that information which identifies specific individuals to research, evaluative, or statistical purposes, and contain provisions giving notice to the person or organization to which the records are disseminated that the use of information obtained therefrom and further dissemination of such information are subject to the provisions of this chapter and applicable federal statutes and regulations, which shall be cited with express reference to the penalties provided for a violation thereof.

(7) Every criminal justice agency that maintains and disseminates criminal history record information must maintain information pertaining to every dissemination of criminal history record information except a dissemination to the effect that the agency has no record concerning an individual. Information pertaining to disseminations shall include:

- (a) An indication of to whom (agency or person) criminal history record information was disseminated;
- (b) The date on which the information was disseminated;
- (c) The individual to whom the information relates; and
- (d) A brief description of the information disseminated.

The information pertaining to dissemination required to be maintained shall be retained for a period of not less than one year.

10.97.060 Deletion of certain information, conditions

Criminal history record information which consists of nonconviction data only shall be subject to deletion from criminal justice agency files which are available and generally searched for the purpose of responding to inquiries concerning the criminal history of a named or otherwise identified individual when two years or longer have elapsed since the record became nonconviction data as a result of the entry of a disposition favorable to the defendant, or upon the passage of three years from the date of arrest or issuance of a citation or warrant for an offense for which a conviction was not obtained unless the defendant is a fugitive, or the case is under active prosecution according to a current certification made by the prosecuting attorney.

Such criminal history record information consisting of non-conviction data shall be deleted upon the request of the person who is the subject of the record: Provided, however, That the criminal justice agency maintaining the data may, at its option, refuse to make the deletion if:

- (2) The person who is the subject of the record has had a prior conviction for a felony or gross misdemeanor;
- (3) The individual who is the subject of the record has been arrested for or charged with another crime during the intervening period.

Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict the authority of any court, through appropriate judicial proceedings, to order the modification or deletion of a record in a particular cause or concerning a particular individual or event.

The individual's right to access and review of criminal history record information shall not extend to data contained in intelligence, investigative, or other related files, and shall not be construed to include any information other than that defined as criminal history record information by this chapter.

Every criminal justice agency shall adopt rules and make available forms to facilitate the inspection and review of criminal history record information by the subjects thereof, which rules may include requirements for identification, the establishment of reasonable periods of time to be allowed an individual to examine the record, and for assistance by an individual's counsel, interpreter, or other appropriate persons.

No person shall be allowed to retain or mechanically reproduce any nonconviction data except for the purpose of challenge or correction when the person who is the subject of the record asserts the belief in writing that the information regarding such person is inaccurate or incomplete. The provisions of chapter 42.17 RCW shall not be construed to require or authorize copying of nonconviction data for any other purpose.

The Washington state patrol shall establish rules for the challenge of records which an individual declares to be inaccurate or

(b) Make available for public inspection and copying all indexes maintained for agency use.

(4) A public record may be relied on, used, or cited as precedent by an agency against a party other than an agency and it may be invoked by the agency for any other purpose only if—

42.17.270 Facilities for copying—Availability of public records

Public records shall be available for inspection and copying, and agencies shall, upon request for identifiable public records, make them promptly available to any person. Agency facilities shall be made available to any person for the copying of public records except when and to the extent that this would unreasonably disrupt the operations of the agency. Agencies shall honor requests received by mail for identifiable public records unless exempted by provisions of this chapter. [Enacted Laws 1973 ch 1 § 27, effective January 1, 1973 (Initiative Measure No. 276 § 27); Amended by Laws 1st Ex Sess 1975 ch 294 § 15, effective July 2, 1975.]

State transportation commission's refusal to disclose plans and specifications of one competitor to another in connection with award of ferry construction contract was not arbitrary and capricious where foreign shipbuilder made no

42.17.280 Times for inspection and copying

Public records shall be available for inspection and copying during the customary office hours of the agency: Provided, that if the agency does not have customary office hours of at least thirty hours per week, the public records shall be available from nine o'clock a. m. to noon and from one o'clock p. m. to four o'clock p. m. Monday through Friday, excluding legal holidays, unless the person making the request and the agency or its representative agree on a different time. ### 42.17.290 Protection of public records—Public access

Agencies shall adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations, consonant with the intent of this chapter to provide full public access to public records, to protect public records from damage or disorganization, and to prevent excessive interference with other essential functions of the agency. Such rules and regulations shall provide for the fullest assistance to inquirers and the most timely possible action on requests for information. Nothing in this section shall relieve agencies from honoring requests received by mail for copies of identifiable public records. [Enacted Laws 1973 ch 1 § 29, effective January 1, 1973 (Initiative Measure No. 276 § 29); Amended by Laws 1st Ex Sess 1975 ch 294 § 16, effective July 2, 1975.]

42.17.300 Charges for copying

No fee shall be charged for the inspection of public records. Agencies may impose a reasonable charge for providing copies of public records and for the use by any person of agency equipment to copy public records, which charges shall not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the agency for its actual costs incident to such copying. ### 42.17.310 Certain personal and other records exempt

(1) The following shall be exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students, in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to such taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: Provided, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: Provided, further, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale, is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(2) The exemptions of this section shall be inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption shall be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

WASHINGTON

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records, exempt under the provisions of this section, may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records, is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld. [Enacted Laws 1973 ch 1 § 31, effective January 1, 1973 (Initiative Measure No. 276 § 31); Amended by Laws 1st Ex Sess 1975 ch 294 § 17, effective July 2, 1975; Laws 2nd Ex Sess 1975-76 ch 82 § 5; Laws 1st Ex Sess 1977 ch 314 § 13.]

Ops Atty Gen 1980 No. 1 (except where prohibited by RCWA 42.17.360(5), inspection and copying of an assessor's property tax assessment roll and supporting materials must be allowed unless the specific exemptions covering taxpayer information, as set forth in RCW 42.17.310(1)(c) and RCWA 84.40.020, are applicable in a given case).

Under RCWA 42.17.310(1)(i), which exempts from public disclosure intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated, only those matters revealing the deliberative process, as opposed to the facts upon which a decision is based, are exempt. Subjective evaluations are not exempt if they are treated as raw factual data by the agency and are not subject to further deliberation and consideration. Hearst Corp. v Hoppe (1978) 90 Wn 2d 123, 580 P2d 246.

For purposes of RCWA 42.17.310(1)(c), which exempts from public disclosure matters which would violate a taxpayer's right to privacy, "right to privacy" refers to essentially intimate or private matters the disclosure of which would be highly offensive to a reasonable person and which are not a subject of legitimate public concern. An agency's promise of confidentiality does not override the statutory disclosure requirements. Hearst Corp. v Hoppe (1978) 90 Wn 2d 123, 580 P2d 246.

RCWA 84.40.020, which relates to public inspection of the listing of real property for taxation, is consistent with and incorporates the overall policy of the public disclosure act (RCWA 42.17). RCWA 84.40.020 establishes a more specific and supplemental protected area of privacy as "confidential income data." Hearst Corp. v Hoppe (1978) 90 Wn 2d 123, 580 P2d 246.

For purposes of RCWA 42.17.310(1)(d), which generally exempts specific investigative records from public disclosure, files regarding particular and definite violations of the public disclosure statute (RCWA 42.17) and their investigation are specific investigative records. Ashley v Washington State Public Disclosure Com. 16 Wn App 830, 560 P2d 1156.

For purposes of RCWA 42.17.310(2), which exempts information which would violate a vital government interest from public disclosure, the commission's law enforcement related responsibilities are vital governmental interests. Ashley v Washington State Public Disclosure Com. 16 Wn App 830, 560 P2d 1156.

The Public Disclosure Commission is an "investigative agency" within the meaning of RCWA 42.17.310(1), which exempts certain files of investigative agencies from public disclosure. Ashley v Washington State Public Disclosure Com. (1977) 16 Wn App 830, 560 P2d 1156.

Under RCWA 42.17.310(2), which exempts from public disclosure records which would violate vital governmental interests, an incomplete and ongoing criminal investigation is violated or impaired by the release of all information relating thereto. Ashley v Washington State Public Disclosure Com. (1977) 16 Wn App 830, 560 P2d 1156.

42.17.315 Certain records obtained by colleges, universities, libraries or archives exempt

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 42.17.260 through 42.17.340, as now or hereafter amended, no state college, university, library, or archive shall be required by chapter 42.17 RCW to make available for public inspection and copying any records or documents obtained by said college, university, library, or archive through or concerning any gift, grant, conveyance, bequest, or devise, the terms of which restrict or regulate public access to such records or documents: Provided, That this section shall not apply to any public records as defined in RCW 40.14.010. ### 42.17.320 Prompt responses required

Responses to requests for public records shall be made promptly by agencies. Denials of requests must be accompanied by a written statement of the specific reasons therefor. Agencies shall establish mechanisms for the most prompt possible review of decisions denying inspection, and such review shall be deemed completed at the end of the second business day following the denial of inspection and shall constitute final agency action for the purposes of judicial review. [Enacted Laws 1973 ch 1 § 32, effective January 1, 1973 (Initiative Measure No. 276 § 32); Amended by Laws 1st Ex Sess 1975 ch 294 § 18, effective July 2, 1975.]

42.17.330 Court protection of public records

The examination of any specific public record may be enjoined if, upon motion and affidavit, the superior court for the county in which the movant resides or in which the record is maintained, finds that such examination would clearly not be in the public interest and would substantially and irreparably damage any person, or would substantially and irreparably damage vital governmental functions. [Enacted Laws 1973 ch 1 § 33, effective January 1, 1973 (Initiative Measure No. 276 § 33); Amended by Laws 1st Ex Sess 1975 ch 294 § 19, effective July 2, 1975.]

Key Number Digests: Records ¶14.

42.17.340 Judicial review of agency actions

(1) Upon the motion of any person having been denied an opportunity to inspect or copy a public record by an agency, the superior court in the county in which a record is maintained may require the responsible agency to show cause why it has refused to allow inspection or copying of a specific public record or class of records. The burden of proof shall be on the agency to establish that refusal to permit public inspection and copying is required.

(2) Judicial review of all agency actions taken or challenged under RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.320 shall be de novo. Courts shall take into account the policy of this chapter that free and open examination of public records is in the public interest, even though such examination may cause inconvenience or embarrassment to public officials or others. Courts may examine any record in camera in any proceeding brought under this section.

(3) Any person who prevails against an agency in any action in the courts seeking the right to inspect or copy any public record shall be awarded all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred in connection with such legal action. In addition, it shall be within the discretion of the court to award such person an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars for each day that he was denied the right to inspect or copy said public record. [Enacted Laws 1973 ch 1 § 34, effective January 1, 1973 (Initiative Measure No. 276 § 34); Amended by Laws 1st Ex Sess 1975 ch 294 § 20, effective July 2, 1975.]

WAC 365-50-010 GENERAL APPLICABILITY.

The regulations in this chapter shall apply to state and local criminal justice agencies in the state of Washington, that collect, and maintain, or disseminate criminal history record information. The regulations shall also apply to criminal justice or other agencies outside the jurisdiction of the state of Washington, for the purpose of the dissemination of criminal history record information to other agencies by state of Washington criminal justice agencies. The provisions of chapter 314, 1977 ex. sess., chapter 10.97 RCW, do not generally apply to the courts and court record keeping agencies. The courts and court record keeping agencies have the right to require and receive criminal history record information from criminal justice agencies. The regulations are intended to cover all criminal justice records systems that contain criminal history record information, whether the systems are manual or automated. Chapter 314, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., chapter 10.97 RCW, defines the rights and privileges relating to criminal history record information and should not be interpreted to redefine or amend rights or privileges relevant to any other kinds of records or information.

Each criminal justice agency shall adopt rules pursuant to RCW 10.97.080.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-100 INSPECTION—TIMELINESS AND MANNER OF AGENCY RESPONSE.

(1) A criminal justice agency shall respond to a request to review by the subject of a criminal record as soon as administratively convenient, but in no event later than ten business days from the date of the receipt of the request.

(2) If the information requested concerns felonies, gross misdemeanors where the subject arrested was taken into custody, or any other offenses for which fingerprints would be submitted to the identification section of the Washington state patrol, the agency shall respond in the following manner, unless one of the exceptions in RCW 10.97.040(1) through (5) applies:

(a) The criminal justice agency receiving the request shall, without unnecessary delay, forward the request to the identification section of the Washington state patrol for processing.

(b) At the identification section, the request shall be processed and a copy of any criminal history record information in the files of the identification sections relating to the individual requester shall be forwarded to the criminal justice agency submitting the request to the identification section.

(d) Upon notification by the criminal justice agency, the person who is the subject of the criminal history record may come to the agency during its normal business hours for the purpose of reviewing the record.

(3) If the information requested concerns misdemeanors, gross misdemeanors where the subject arrested was not taken into custody, or any offenses for which fingerprints were not in fact submitted to the identification section, or if the agency does not have, and is not willing to obtain a state identification section rap sheet, the agency shall respond by disclosing the identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, charges, and dispositions that are contained in the files of the agency.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-110 INSPECTION—TIME ALLOWED FOR REVIEW.

A reasonable period of time shall be allowed each individual to examine criminal history record information pertaining to himself for purposes of determining its accuracy and completeness or the legality of its maintenance. Unless the subject of the record clearly indicates that less time is sufficient, a reasonable period of time shall mean at least thirty minutes.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-120 INSPECTION—RETENTION OR REPRODUCTION OF RECORDS.

No subject of a record shall be allowed to retain or mechanically reproduce any nonconviction data except for the purpose of challenge or correction when the subject of the criminal history record information asserts his belief in writing that such information regarding himself is inaccurate, incomplete, or maintained in violation of law.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-130 INSPECTION—PREVENTION OF UNAUTHORIZED RETENTION OR REPRODUCTION.

Each criminal justice agency shall develop procedures to insure that improper retention or mechanical reproduction of nonconviction data by any subject of a record does not occur.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-140 INSPECTION—DESIGNATION OF PERSON TO ASSIST IN REVIEW. Any subject of a record entitled to examine criminal history record information pertaining to himself may designate another person of his choice to assist him in reading, interpreting, or otherwise reviewing his criminal record. The subject about whom the information pertains shall indicate, on the form provided by the agency pursuant to WAC 365-50-090, his consent to the inspection of criminal history record information pertaining to himself by the other person. The agency may also require the other person to sign the form. The designated person shall then be permitted to assist the subject of the criminal record in reviewing criminal history record information pertaining to the subject.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-150 INSPECTION—STATEMENT OF PROCEDURES TO BE AVAILABLE. Every criminal justice agency that maintains criminal history record information shall prominently display and make available to the public a statement which informs the public that criminal history record information is maintained by that agency and that individuals have the right to review criminal history record information pertaining to themselves and to challenge its accuracy, completeness, or the legality of its maintenance. The statement shall also set forth in summary form, the procedure for obtaining access to such information for the purpose of review and shall state the fact that there exist procedures for administrative review of a refusal by the agency to correct, complete, or delete criminal history record information challenged by the individual.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-160 INSPECTION—PROCEDURE FOR CORRECTIONAL OR DETENTION AGENCIES. Any state or local correctional or detention facility in the state of Washington having access to the identification section of the Washington state patrol shall permit an individual in custody in that facility to request to review any criminal history record information pertaining to himself maintained by the identification section. The correctional or detention facility shall follow the procedures set forth for law enforcement agencies in WAC 365-50-100. The identification section shall likewise follow the procedures set forth in WAC 365-50-100.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-170 DELETION—INDIVIDUAL'S RIGHT TO HAVE CERTAIN INFORMATION DELETED. A person who is the subject of criminal history record information consisting of nonconviction data only may request that such information be deleted from his file in accordance with the provisions of RCW 10.97.060. If two years or longer have elapsed since the record became nonconviction data as a result of the entry of a disposition favorable to the defendant, or if three years or longer have elapsed from the date of arrest or issuance of a citation or warrant for an offense for which a conviction was not obtained, unless the person is a fugitive or the case is under active prosecution, the nonconviction data shall be deleted upon the request of the subject of the record. If the case is under active prosecution, the prosecuting attorney shall so certify in writing to the agency that is the object of the request to delete.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-180 DELETION—AGENCY OPTION TO REFUSE TO DELETE. The criminal justice agency maintaining the information may refuse to make the deletion if: (1) The disposition was a deferred prosecution or similar diversion of the alleged offender; which has not become nonconviction data under 365-50-040; (2) the person who is the subject of the record has had a prior conviction for a felony or gross misdemeanor; or (3) the individual who is the subject of the record has been arrested for or charged with another crime during the intervening period.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-190 DELETION—POLICIES TO BE ADOPTED. Every criminal justice agency that maintains files that are available and generally searched for the purpose of responding to inquiries concerning the criminal history of a named or otherwise identified individual shall adopt policies to implement RCW 10.97.060. Such policies shall be designed to structure the discretionary power of the agency to refuse to delete nonconviction data under RCW 10.97.060(1) through (3), and shall be available for inspection by the public.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-200 DELETION—INQUIRIES REQUIRED. Every criminal justice agency which is the object of a request to delete nonconviction data shall inquire of the identification section of the Washington state patrol to determine whether one of the exceptions of RCW 10.97.060(1) through (3) applies. The agency shall also make inquiry of its local criminal history record information summary (local rap sheet), if one exists, or of the local prosecutorial agency, for the same purpose and to determine whether the case is under active prosecution. If none of the exceptions of RCW 10.97.060 apply the agency shall delete the nonconviction data. When an agency makes a deletion in the criminal history record information, the state identification section of the Washington state patrol shall be notified of the deletion so their files may be corrected.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-210 CHALLENGE—INDIVIDUAL'S RIGHT TO CHALLENGE. A subject seeking to challenge the accuracy, completeness, or the legality of the maintenance of any part of the criminal history record information pertaining to himself shall do so in writing, clearly identifying that information which he asserts to be inaccurate, incomplete, or maintained in violation of law. A subject may initiate a challenge at the agency where he is reviewing his criminal record by completing a form made available by that agency. It will be the agency's responsibility to supply the form and address of the agency whose record the subject is challenging. This includes only Washington state records.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-220 CHALLENGE—FORMS TO BE MADE AVAILABLE. Every criminal justice agency which maintains criminal history record information or which authorizes individuals to use its facilities for the purpose of reviewing criminal history record information pertaining to those individuals shall make available forms to be used by individuals in challenging their criminal records. Such forms shall be substantially equivalent to that set forth in WAC 365-50-510.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-230 CHALLENGE—FORWARDING OF CHALLENGE TO APPROPRIATE AGENCY. Upon receipt of a written challenge, the agency receiving the challenge shall forward a copy of the challenge to each agency which originally submitted the criminal history record information being challenged, together with a copy of that portion of the criminal history record that has been challenged (including, where practical, a copy of the information as originally submitted by the originating agency). If the information challenged was received directly from an originating agency and is contained in a record maintained by the agency receiving the challenge, the agency receiving the challenge shall examine its own records to ensure that such information was correctly recorded before forwarding the challenge to the originating agency.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-240 CHALLENGE—AGENCY TO MAKE DETERMINATION. The agency which originally submitted the criminal history record information being challenged shall:

- (1) Not later than ten business days after receiving the written challenge, acknowledge receipt of the challenge in writing; and
- (2) Promptly, but in no event later than ten business days after acknowledging receipt of the challenge, either
  - (a) make any correction of any portion of the criminal history record information which the person challenging such information has designated as being inaccurate, incomplete, or maintained in violation of law, or
  - (b) inform the person challenging the criminal history record information, in writing, of the refusal of the agency which originated such information to amend the record in accordance with his challenge, the reason for the refusal, and the procedures established for review of that refusal.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-250 CORRECTION OF ERRONEOUS INFORMATION. (1) An individual whose criminal history record has been challenged and corrected shall be provided with the names of all noncriminal justice agencies or persons to which the incorrect information has been disseminated. The originating agency must send information correcting the previously incorrect information to every criminal justice and noncriminal justice agency and persons to which the previously incorrect information was disseminated. This obligation shall be limited to disseminations made within one year of the date on which the challenge was initiated.

(2) Every criminal justice agency maintaining criminal history record information within the state shall adopt a procedure which, when significant information in a criminal history record maintained on an individual is determined to be inaccurate, leads to the dissemination of corrected information to every criminal justice and noncriminal justice agency and subject to which, the prior erroneous information was disseminated within the preceding one year.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-260 REVIEW OF REFUSAL TO ALTER RECORD. A person who is the subject of a criminal record and who disagrees with the refusal of the agency maintaining or submitting the record to correct, complete, or delete the record, may request a review of the refusal within twenty business days of the date of receipt of such refusal. The request for review shall be in writing, and shall be made by the completion in a form substantially equivalent to that set forth in WAC 365-50-520. If review is requested, not later than thirty business days from the date on which the individual requested review, the head of the agency whose record or submission has been challenged shall complete the review and make a final determination of the challenge, unless, for good cause, the head of the agency extends the thirty day period. The thirty day period may be extended for a maximum of another thirty days. If the head of the agency determines that the challenge should not be allowed, he shall state his reasons in a written decision, a copy of which shall be provided to the subject of the record. Denial by the agency head constitutes a final decision under RCW 34.04.130.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-270 DISSEMINATION—DISPOSITIONS TO BE INCLUDED. The requirements of (RCW 10.97.040) are effective as of January 1, 1978.

(1) No criminal justice agency shall disseminate criminal history record information pertaining to arrests or other formal criminal charges made after December 31, 1977 unless the record disseminated states the disposition of such arrests or charges to the extent that dispositions have been made at the time of the request for the information. Such disseminations are subject to the proviso set forth in paragraph 1 of RCW 10.97.040.

(2) No criminal justice agency shall disseminate criminal history record information concerning a felony or gross misdemeanor without first making inquiry of the identification section of the Washington State Patrol for the purpose of obtaining the most current and complete information available unless one of the exceptions of RCW 10.97.040(1) through (5) applies. Predissemination query of the state identification section is required regardless of the date the record was made and regardless of whether a conviction was obtained.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-280 DISSEMINATION—INQUIRY OF PROSECUTOR REQUIRED. If an arrest record reveals that no disposition has occurred, and more than one year has elapsed since the date of the arrest, citation, or service of a warrant, a criminal justice agency shall make inquiry of the prosecuting authority in whose jurisdiction the arrest occurred to determine whether proceedings are in fact still pending prior to making a dissemination. If proceedings are still pending, the prosecuting authority shall so certify in writing.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-290 DISSEMINATION—TO IMPLEMENT A STATUTE OR OTHER GRANT OF AUTHORITY. (1) Criminal history record information which includes nonconviction data may be disseminated to implement a statute, ordinance, executive order, or a court rule, decision, or order which expressly refers to nonconviction data and which authorizes or directs that it be available or accessible for a specific purpose. A criminal justice agency shall demand satisfactory proof of certification from the state planning agency of the requesting individual's or agency's authority to receive the information prior to any dissemination.

(2) The state planning agency shall compile a list, to be updated annually, of noncriminal justice agencies authorized to receive nonconviction data along with copies of statutes, ordinances or other grants of authority. All criminal justice agencies shall refer to these lists in making disseminations pursuant to such authority.

The state planning agency shall identify, in that listing the specific purpose, for which the agency is authorized to receive criminal history information, which includes nonconviction data, on the basis of a need to know such information in the performance of its official duties. Noncriminal justice agencies shall be required to present evidence of such authorization before dissemination is made. The form prescribed in WAC 365-50-550 may be used for this purpose.

(3) Criminal justice agencies that receive state rap sheets from the identification section of the Washington state patrol may disseminate them further, but only to the same extent to which the identification section itself would be authorized to make a dissemination in the first instance. Nonconviction data based on an incident that arose in the jurisdiction of the agency about to make the dissemination is not subject to this restriction, if the agency is otherwise authorized to disseminate such information.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-300 DISSEMINATION—PURSUANT TO CONTRACT FOR SERVICES. (1) Criminal history record information which includes nonconviction data may be disseminated pursuant to a contract to provide services, as set forth in RCW 10.97.050(5). The contract must contain provisions giving notice to the individual or agency to which the information is to be disseminated that the use of such information is subject to the provisions of chapter 10.97 RCW and these regulations, and federal statutes and regulations, which shall be cited with express reference to the penalties provided for a violation thereof.

(2) A criminal justice agency using an information system that contains criminal history record information, and that is controlled and managed by a noncriminal justice agency, the noncriminal justice agency may disseminate criminal history record information only as authorized by the criminal justice agency. Authorization shall be established in a contract between the criminal justice agency and the noncriminal justice agency providing the management service or support. The contract shall be consistent with physical security and personnel standards developed by the SPA under RCW 10.97.090. All programs, tapes, source documents, listings, and other developmental or related data processing information containing, or permitting any person to gain access to, criminal history record information, and all personnel involved in the development, maintenance, or operation of an automated information system containing criminal history record information are subject to the requirements of RCW 10.97.050(5) and these regulations. A statement to this effect shall also be included in the contract.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-310 DISSEMINATION—RESEARCH PURPOSES. (1) Criminal history record information which includes nonconviction data may be disseminated for research purposes according to the provisions of RCW 10.97.050(6). The transfer agreement provided for by that section shall be substantially similar to that set forth in WAC 365-50-530 (Model Transfer Provisions).

(2) Criminal history record information contained in agency files may be disseminated to persons for research, evaluative or statistical purposes provided the researcher enters into a contract with the agency. If such a contract is entered into, it is not necessary for the researcher to obtain consent from the individual involved. The contract with the agency shall consist of a transfer agreement with the agency to whom the request is made.

(3) Either certification by the SPA or a transfer agreement (under subsection (1) of this section), are necessary for the dissemination of nonconviction information to noncriminal justice agencies.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-320 DISSEMINATION—RECORD OF DISSEMINATIONS TO BE MAINTAINED. (1) Every criminal justice agency that maintains and disseminates criminal history record information shall maintain records indicating every dissemination of such information (including a confirmation of the existence of criminal history record information), except a dissemination or confirmation to the effect that the agency has no record concerning an individual, in accordance with the requirements of RCW 10.97.050(7). Such dissemination records may be kept separately, or may be included on the state or local criminal history record information summary (rap sheet) itself. If an agency receives a state rap sheet from the identification section of the Washington state patrol, or a local rap sheet if one exists, and makes a further dissemination of the rap sheet while retaining a copy for its own records, the agency shall make a record of the further dissemination, which may be included on the retained copy of the rap sheet.

(2) Records of information disseminated shall be for a period of not less than one year. Records of information disseminated shall include:

- (a) An indication of to whom (agency or person) criminal history record information was disseminated;
- (b) The date on which the information was disseminated;
- (c) The individual to whom the information relates;
- (d) A brief description of the information disseminated.

NEW SECTION

WAC 365-50-330 DISSEMINATION—FEES. A criminal justice agency may charge persons and agencies, other than criminal justice agencies, a reasonable fee, to reimburse agency's costs for disseminating the records. A schedule of such fees shall be posted in a convenient place accessible to the public.

(1) Every person has a right to inspect or copy any public record of a public body in this State, except as otherwise expressly provided by section four [§ 29B-1-4] of this article.

(2) A request to inspect or copy any public record of a public body shall be made directly to the custodian of such public record.

(3) The custodian of any public records, unless otherwise expressly provided by statute, shall furnish proper and reasonable opportunities for inspection and examination of the records in his office and reasonable facilities for making memoranda or abstracts therefrom, during the usual business hours, to all persons having occasion to make examination of them. The custodian of the records may make reasonable rules and regulations necessary for the protection of the records and to prevent interference with the regular discharge of his duties.

(4) All requests for information must state with reasonable specificity the information sought. The custodian, upon demand for records made under this statute, shall as soon as is practicable but within a maximum of five days not including Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays.

(a) Furnish copies of the requested information;

(b) Advise the person making the request of the time and place at which he may inspect and copy the materials; or

(c) Deny the request stating in writing the reasons for such denial.

Such a denial shall indicate that the responsibility of the custodian of any public records or public body to produce the requested records or documents is at an end, and shall afford the person requesting them the opportunity to institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief in the circuit court in the county where the public record is kept.

(5) The public body may establish fees reasonably calculated to reimburse it for its actual cost in making reproductions of such records. (1977, c. 147.)

§ 29B-1-4. Exemptions.

The following categories of information are specifically exempt from disclosure under the provisions of this article:

(1) Trade secrets, as used in this section, which may include, but are not limited to, any formula, plan pattern, process, tool, mechanism, compound, procedure, production data, or compilation of information which is not patented which is known only to certain individuals within a commercial concern who are using it to fabricate, produce or compound an article or trade or a service or to locate minerals or other substances, having commercial value, and which gives its users an opportunity to obtain business advantage over competitors;

(2) Information of a personal nature such as that kept in a personal, medical or similar file, if the public disclosure thereof would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance: Provided, that nothing in this article shall be construed as precluding an individual from inspecting or copying his own personal, medical or similar file;

§ 29B-1-5

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

(3) Test questions, scoring keys and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment or academic examination;

(4) Records of law-enforcement agencies that deal with the detection and investigation of crime and the internal records and notations of such law-enforcement agencies which are maintained for internal use in matters relating to law enforcement;

(5) Information specifically exempted from disclosure by statute;

(6) Records, archives, documents or manuscripts describing the location of undeveloped historic, prehistoric, archaeological, paleontological and battlefield sites or constituting gifts to any public body upon which the donor has attached restrictions on usage or the handling of which could irreparably damage such record, archive, document or manuscript;

(7) Information contained in or related to examination, operating or condition reports prepared by, or on behalf of, or for the use of any agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions, except those reports which are by law required to be published in newspapers; and

(8) Internal memoranda or letters received or prepared by any public body. (1977, c. 147.)

§ 29B-1-5. Enforcement.

(1) Any person denied the right to inspect the public record of a public body may institute proceedings for injunctive or declaratory relief in the circuit court in the county where the public record is kept.

(2) In any suit filed under subsection one of this section, the court has jurisdiction to enjoin the custodian or public body from withholding records and to order the production of any records improperly withheld from the person seeking disclosure. The court shall determine the matter de novo and the burden is on the public body to sustain its action. The court, on its own motion, may view the documents in controversy in camera before reaching a decision. Any custodian of any public records of the public body found to be in noncompliance with the order of the court to produce the documents or disclose the information sought, may be punished as being in contempt of court.

(3) Except as to causes the court considers of greater importance, proceedings arising under subsection one of this section shall be assigned for hearing and trial at the earliest practicable date. (1977, c. 147.)

§ 29B-1-6. Violation of article; penalties.

Any custodian of any public records who shall willfully violate the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ten days, or, in the discretion of the court, by both such fine and imprisonment. (a) Obtain and file fingerprints, descriptions, photographs and any other available identifying data on persons who have been arrested or taken into custody in this state:

1. For an offense which is a felony.

2. For an offense which is a misdemeanor or a violation of an ordinance involving burglary tools, commercial gambling, dealing in gambling devices, contributing to the delinquency of a child, dealing in stolen property, controlled substances under ch. 161, firearms, dangerous weapons, explosives, pandering, prostitution, sex offenses where children are victims, or worthless checks.

3. For an offense charged as disorderly conduct but which relates to an act connected with one or more of the offenses under subd. 2.

4. As a fugitive from justice.

5. For any other offense designated by the attorney general.

(b) Accept for filing fingerprints and other identifying data, taken at the discretion of the law enforcement agency involved, on persons arrested or taken into custody for offenses other than those listed in par. (a).

(c) Obtain and file fingerprints and other available identifying data on unidentified human corpses found in this state.

(d) Obtain and file information relating to identifiable stolen or lost property.

(e) Obtain and file a copy or detailed description of each arrest warrant issued in this state for the offenses under par. All available identifying data shall be obtained with the copy of the warrant, including any information indicating that the person named on the warrant may be armed, dangerous or possessed of suicidal tendencies.

(f) Collect information concerning the number and nature of offenses known to have been committed in this state, the legal action taken in connection with such offenses from the inception of the complaint to the final discharge of the defendant and such other information as may be useful in the study of crime and the administration of justice. The administrator of the division may determine any other information to be obtained regarding crime statistics. However, the information shall include such data as may be requested by the F.B.I. under its system of uniform crime reports for the United States.

WISCONSIN

(5) All persons in charge of law enforcement agencies, all clerks of court, all municipal justices where they have no clerks, all persons in charge of state and county penal and correctional institutions, and all persons in charge of state and county probation and parole offices, shall supply the division with the information described in s. 165.83 (2) (f) on the basis of the forms and instructions to be supplied by the division under s. 165.83 (2) (g).

Public Records

19.31 Declaration of policy. In recognition of the fact that a representative government is dependent upon an informed electorate, it is declared to be the public policy of this state that all persons are entitled to the greatest possible information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts of those officers and employees who represent them. Further, providing persons with such information is declared to be an essential function of a representative government and an integral part of the routine duties of officers and employees whose responsibility it is to provide such information. To that end, ss. 19.32 to 19.37 shall be construed in every instance with a presumption of complete public access, consistent with the conduct of governmental business. The denial of public access generally is contrary to the public interest, and only in an exceptional case may access be denied.

19.32 Definitions. As used in ss. 19.33 to 19.39:

(1) "Authority" means any of the following having custody of a record: a state or local office, elected official, agency, board, commission, committee, council, department or public body corporate and politic created by constitution, law, ordinance, rule or order; a governmental or quasi-governmental corporation; any court of law; the assembly or senate; a nonprofit corporation which receives more than 50% of its funds from a county or a municipality, as defined in s. 59.001 (3), and which provides services related to public health or safety to the county or municipality; or a formally constituted subunit of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Record" means any material on which written, drawn, printed, spoken, visual or electromagnetic information is recorded or preserved, regardless of physical form or characteristics, which has been created or is being kept by an authority. "Record" includes, but is not limited to, handwritten, typed or printed pages, maps, charts, photographs, films, recordings, tapes (including computer tapes), and computer printouts. "Record" does not include drafts, notes, preliminary computations and like materials prepared for the originator's personal use or prepared by the originator in the name of a person for whom the originator is working; materials which are purely the personal property of the custodian and have no relation to his or her office; materials to which access is limited by copyright, patent or bequest; and published materials in the possession of an authority other than a public library which are available for sale, or which are available for inspection at a public library.

(3) "Requester" means any person who requests inspection or copies of a record.

19.33 Legal custodians. (1) An elected official is the legal custodian of his or her records and the records of his or her office, but the official may designate an employee of his or her staff to act as the legal custodian.

(2) The chairperson of a committee of elected officials, or the designee of the chairperson, is the legal custodian of the records of the committee.

(3) The cochairpersons of a joint committee of elected officials, or the designee of the cochairpersons, are the legal custodians of the records of the joint committee.

(4) Every authority not specified in subs. (1) to (3) shall designate in writing one or more positions occupied by an officer or employee of the authority or the unit of government of which it is a part as a legal custodian to fulfill its duties under this subchapter. In the absence of a designation the authority's highest ranking officer and the chief administrative officer, if any, are the legal custodians for the authority. The legal custodian shall be vested by the authority with full legal power to render decisions and carry out the duties of the authority under this subchapter. Each authority shall provide the name of the legal custodian and a description of the nature of his or her duties under this subchapter to all employees of the authority entrusted with records subject to the legal custodian's supervision.

(5) Notwithstanding sub. (4), if an authority specified in sub. (4) or the members of such an authority are appointed by another authority, the appointing authority may designate a legal custodian for records of the authority or members of the authority appointed by the appointing authority, except that if such an authority is attached for administrative purposes to another authority, the authority performing administrative duties shall designate the legal custodian for the authority for whom administrative duties are performed.

(6) The legal custodian of records maintained in a publicly owned or leased building or the authority appointing the legal custodian shall designate one or more deputies to act as legal custodian of such records in his or her absence or as otherwise required to respond to requests as provided in s. 19.35 (4). This subsection does not apply to members of the legislature or to members of any local governmental body.

(7) The designation of a legal custodian does not affect the powers and duties of an authority under this subchapter.

(8) No elected official of a legislative body has a duty to act as or designate a legal custodian under sub. (4) for the records of any committee of the body unless the official is the highest ranking officer or chief administrative officer of the committee or is designated the legal custodian of the committee's records by rule or by law.

19.34 Procedural information (1) Each authority shall adopt, prominently display and make available for inspection and copying at its offices, for the guidance of the public, a notice containing a description of its organization and the established times and places at which, the legal custodian under s. 19.33 from whom, and the methods whereby, the public may obtain information and access to records in its custody, make requests for records, or obtain copies of records, and the costs thereof. This subsection does not apply to members of the legislature or to members of any local governmental body.

(2) (a) Each authority which maintains regular office hours at the location where records in the custody of the authority are kept shall permit access to the records of the authority at all times during those office hours, unless otherwise specifically authorized by law.

(b) Each authority which does not maintain regular office hours at the location where records in the custody of the authority are kept shall:

1. Permit access to its records upon at least 48 hours' written or oral notice of intent to inspect or copy a record; or

2. Establish a period of at least 2 consecutive hours per week during which access to the records of the authority is permitted. In such case, the authority may require 24 hours' advance written or oral notice of intent to inspect or copy a record.

(c) An authority imposing a notice requirement under par. (b) shall include a statement of the requirement in its notice under sub. (1), if the authority is required to adopt a notice under that subsection.

WISCONSIN

(d) If a record of an authority is occasionally taken to a location other than the location where records of the authority are regularly kept, and the record may be inspected at the place at which records of the authority are regularly kept upon one business day's notice, the authority or legal custodian of the record need not provide access to the record at the occasional location.

19.35 Access to records; fees. (1) RIGHT TO INSPECTION. (a) Except as otherwise provided by law, any requester has a right to inspect any record. Substantive common law principles construing the right to inspect, copy or receive copies of records shall remain in effect. The exemptions to the requirement of a governmental body to meet in open session under s. 19.85 are indicative of public policy, but may be used as grounds for denying public access to a record only if the authority or legal custodian under s. 19.33 makes a specific demonstration that there is a need to restrict public access at the time that the request to inspect or copy the record is made.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by law, any requester has a right to inspect a record and to make or receive a copy of a record which appears in written form. If a requester requests a copy of the record, the authority having custody of the record may, at its option, permit the requester to photocopy the record or provide the requester with a copy substantially as readable as the original.

(c) Except as otherwise provided by law, any requester has a right to receive from an authority having custody of a record which is in the form of a comprehensible audio tape recording a copy of the tape recording substantially as audible as the original. The authority may instead provide a transcript of the recording to the requester if he or she requests.

(d) Except as otherwise provided by law, any requester has a right to receive from an authority having custody of a record which is in the form of a video tape recording a copy of the tape recording substantially as good as the original.

(e) Except as otherwise provided by law, any requester has a right to receive from an authority having custody of a record which is not in a readily comprehensible form a copy of the information contained in the record assembled and reduced to written form on paper.

(f) Except as otherwise provided by law, any requester has a right to inspect any record not specified in pars. (b) to (e) the form of which does not permit copying. If a requester requests permission to photograph the record, the authority having custody of the record may permit the requester to photograph the record. If a requester requests that a photograph of the record be provided, the authority shall provide a good quality photograph of the record.

(g) Paragraphs (a) to (c), (e) and (f) do not apply to a record which has been or will be promptly published with copies offered for sale or distribution.

(h) A request under pars. (a) to (f) is deemed sufficient if it reasonably describes the requested record or the information requested. However, a request for a record without a reasonable limitation as to subject matter or length of time represented by the record does not constitute a sufficient request. A request may be made orally, but a request must be in writing before an action to enforce the request is commenced under s. 19.37.

(i) Except as authorized under this paragraph, no request under pars. (a) to (f) may be refused because the person making the request is unwilling to be identified or to state the purpose of the request. Except as authorized under this paragraph, no request under pars. (a) to (f) may be refused because the request is received by mail, unless prepayment of a fee is required under sub. (3) (f). A requester may be required to show acceptable identification whenever the requested record is kept at a private residence or whenever security reasons or federal law or regulations so require.

(j) Notwithstanding pars. (a) to (f), a requester shall comply with any regulations or restrictions upon access to or use of information which are specifically prescribed by law.

(k) Notwithstanding pars. (a), (b) and (f), a legal custodian may impose reasonable restrictions on the manner of access to an original record if the record is irreplaceable or easily damaged.

(l) Except as necessary to comply with pars. (c) to (e) or s. 19.36 (6), this subsection does not require an authority to create a new record by extracting information from existing records and compiling the information in a new format.

(2) FACILITIES. The authority shall provide any person who is authorized to inspect or copy a record under sub. (1) (a), (b) or (f) with facilities comparable to those used by its employees to inspect, copy and abstract the record during established office hours. An authority is not required by this subsection to purchase or lease photocopying, duplicating, photographic or other equipment or to provide a separate room for the inspection, copying or abstracting of records.

(3) FEES. (a) An authority may impose a fee upon the requester of a copy of a record which may not exceed the actual, necessary and direct cost of reproduction and transcription of the record, unless a fee is otherwise specifically established or authorized to be established by law.

(b) An authority may impose a fee upon the requester of a copy of a record for the actual, necessary and direct cost of photographing and photographic processing if the authority provides a photograph of a record, the form of which does not permit copying.

(c) Except as otherwise provided by law or as authorized to be prescribed by law, an authority may impose a fee upon a requester for locating a record, not exceeding the actual, necessary and direct cost of location, if the cost is $50 or more.

(d) An authority may impose a fee upon a requester for the actual, necessary and direct cost of mailing or shipping of any copy or photograph of a record which is mailed or shipped to the requester.

(e) An authority may provide copies of a record without charge or at a reduced charge where the authority determines that waiver or reduction of the fee is in the public interest.

(f) An authority may require prepayment by a requester of any fee or fees imposed under this subsection if the total amount exceeds $5.

(4) TIME FOR COMPLIANCE AND PROCEDURES. (a) Each authority, upon request for any record, shall, as soon as practicable and without delay, either fill the request or notify the requester of the authority's determination to deny the request in whole or in part and the reasons therefor.

(b) If a request is made orally, the authority may deny the request orally unless a demand for a written statement of the reasons denying the request is made by the requester within 5 business days of the oral denial. If an authority denies a written request in whole or in part, the requester shall receive from the authority a written statement of the reasons for denying the written request. Every written denial of a request by an authority shall inform the requester that if the request for the record was made in writing, then the determination is subject to review upon petition for a writ of mandamus under s. 19.37 (1) or upon application to the attorney general or a district attorney.

(5) RECORD DESTRUCTION. No authority may destroy any record at any time after the receipt of a request for inspection or copying of the record under sub. (1) until after the request is granted or until at least 60 days after the date that the request is denied. If an action is commenced under s. 19.37, the requested record may not be destroyed until after the order of the court in relation to such record is issued and the deadline for appealing that order has passed, or, if appealed, until after the order of the court hearing the appeal is issued. If the court orders the production of any record and the order is not appealed, the requested record may not be destroyed until after the request for inspection or copying is granted.

(6) ELECTED OFFICIAL RESPONSIBILITIES. No elected official is responsible for the record of any other elected official unless he or she has possession of the record of that other official.

19.36 Limitations upon access and withholding. (1) APPLICATION OF OTHER LAWS. Any record which is specifically exempted from disclosure by state or federal law or authorized to be exempted from disclosure by state law is exempt from disclosure under s. 19.35 (1), except that any portion of that record which contains public information is open to public inspection as provided in sub. (6).

(2) LAW ENFORCEMENT RECORDS. Except as otherwise provided by law, whenever federal law or regulations require or as a condition to receipt of aids by this state require that any record relating to investigative information obtained for law enforcement purposes be withheld from public access, then that information is exempt from disclosure under s. 19.35 (1).

(3) CONTRACTORS' RECORDS. Each authority shall make available for inspection and copying under s. 19.35 (1) any record produced or collected under a contract entered into by the authority with a person other than an authority to the same extent as if the record were maintained by the authority.

(4) COMPUTER PROGRAMS AND DATA. A computer program, as defined in s. 16.97 (4) (c), is not subject to examination or copying under s. 19.35 (1), but the material used as input for a computer program or the material produced as a product of the computer program is subject to the right of examination and copying, except as otherwise provided in s. 19.35 or this section.

(5) TRADE SECRETS. An authority may withhold access to any record or portion of a record containing information qualifying as a common law trade secret.

(6) SEPARATION OF INFORMATION. If a record contains information that may be made public and information that may not be made public, the authority having custody of the record shall provide the information that may be made public and delete the information that may not be made public from the record before release.

19.37 Enforcement and penalties (1) MANDAMUS. If an authority withholds a record or a part of a record or delays granting access to a record or part of a record after a written request for disclosure is made, the requester may pursue either, or both, of the alternatives under pars. (a) and (b).

WISCONSIN

(a) The requester may bring an action for a writ of mandamus asking a court to order release of the record. The court may permit the parties or their attorneys to have access to the requested record under restrictions or protective orders as the court deems appropriate.

(b) The requester may, in writing, request the district attorney of the county where the record is found, or request the attorney general, to bring an action for a writ of mandamus asking a court to order release of the record to the requester. The district attorney or attorney general may bring such an action.

(2) COSTS, FEES AND DAMAGES. The court shall award reasonable attorney fees, damages of not less than $100, and other actual costs to the requester if the requester prevails in whole or in substantial part in any action filed under sub. (1). Costs and fees shall be paid by the authority affected or the unit of government of which it is a part, or by the unit of government by which the legal custodian under s. 19.33 is employed and may not become a personal liability of any public official.

(3) PUNITIVE DAMAGES. If a court finds that an authority or legal custodian under s. 19.33 has arbitrarily and capriciously denied or delayed response to a request or charged excessive fees, the court may award punitive damages to the requester.

(4) PENALTY. Any authority which or legal custodian under s. 19.33 who arbitrarily and capriciously denies or delays response to a request or charges excessive fees may be required to forfeit not more than $1,000. Forfeitures under this section shall be enforced by action on behalf of the state by the attorney general or by the district attorney of any county where a violation occurs. In actions brought by the attorney general, the court shall award any forfeiture recovered together with reasonable costs to the state; and in actions brought by the district attorney, the court shall award any forfeiture recovered together with reasonable costs to the county.

19.39 Interpretation by attorney general. Any person may request advice from the attorney general as to the applicability of this subchapter under any circumstances. The attorney general may respond to such a request.

- (g) If, in the opinion of the official custodian of any public record, disclosure of the contents of the record would do substantial injury to the public interest, notwithstanding the fact that the record might otherwise be available to public inspection, he may apply to the district court of the district in which the record is located for an order permitting him to restrict disclosure. After hearing, the court may issue an order upon a finding that disclosure would cause substantial injury to the public interest. The person seeking permission to examine the record shall have notice of the hearing served upon him in the manner provided for service of process by the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure and has the right to appear and be heard. (Laws 1969, ch. 145, § 3; W.S. 1957, § 9-692.3; W.S. 1977, § 9-9-103; Laws 1981, Sp. Sess., ch. 22, § 1; 1982, ch. 62, § 3.)

trial siting council to consider the granting of a permit authorizing an electrical power cooperative to build certain units of a power plant, in the absence of any other verbatim report, is required by law to be made and kept on file by the agency. That requirement alone takes the transcript outside of the scope of the public records law classification of "memoranda." Laramie River Conservation Council v. Dinger, 567 P.2d 731 (Wyo. 1977).

Am. Jur. 2d, ALR and C.J.S. references. — Restricting public access to judicial records of state courts, 84 ALR3d 598.

- (b) If the custodian does not have the facilities for making copies, printouts or photographs of records which the applicant has the right to inspect, then the applicant shall be granted access to the records for the purpose of making copies, printouts or photographs. The copies, printouts or photographs shall be made while the records are in the possession, custody and control of the custodian thereof and are subject to the supervision of the custodian. When practical the copy work shall be made in the place where the records are kept, but if it is impractical to do so, the custodian may allow arrangements to be made for this purpose.
