ITEMS AND DEFINITIONS

- I. Include adult probationers who have been placed under the supervision of a probation agency as part of a court order — regardless of whether convicted.
- Individuals entering probation more than once during the year should be counted as multiple entries.
 - A. Probation without incarceration is a sentence to probation with no jail or prison term.
 - B. Probation with incarceration is a sentence to probation with a term of incarceration in jail or prison (e.g., those individuals who entered probation from a correctional facility).
- 3. Individuals exiting probation more than once during the year should be counted as multiple exits.
 - A. Successful completion's are probationers who completed their sentence and were discharged or who were discharged early.
 - B. 1. All probationers and returned absconders removed from probation supervision because of incarceration with a new sentence.
 - 2. All probationers and returned absconders whose probation was revoked and who were incarcerated under their current sentence.
 - C. All discharged probationers who had failed to report and could not be located.
 - D. Probationers transferred to another jurisdiction while still on probation, only if legal responsibility was also transferred to the other jurisdiction. Exclude interstate compact cases unless jurisdition is no longer retained by your jurisdiction.
 - F. Specify type of discharge within the categories of successful, unsuccessful, and other.
 - 1. Other successful discharges are those whose sentence was not completed.
 - 2. Other unsuccessful discharges are those other than absconder or incarcerated.
 - The count of adult probationers at yearend 1999. This figure should equal the population on January 1, plus the total entering probation in 1999, minus the total released from probation in 1999.
