INTRODUCTION

The North Dakota Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program involves the collection, compilation, and analysis of crime and arrest statistics reported by the various local law enforcement agencies throughout the state. Fifty sheriff's offices and 42 police departments reported to the UCR program in 1994.

Law enforcement agencies may report UCR data in two ways:

INCIDENT-BASED REPORTING: Law enforcement agencies use a standard incident form to collect data on each incident reported to their respective agencies. This form collects much more detailed information than is collected using summary reporting. Data collected includes: type of incident, where and when the incident took place, victim characteristics, suspect/arrestee characteristics, property involved in the incident, etc. Seventy-nine agencies reported incident data for all or part of 1994.

In order to continue the statistical time-series begun with summary reporting, computer programs were written to extract summary data from the incident data reported. Crime in North Dakota, 1994 is a report on summary data. In the future, reports utilizing the more detailed incident data will be published.

SUMMARY REPORTING: Law enforcement agencies use a tally system to report the number of crime index offenses and arrests for each month. Thirteen law enforcement agencies reported summary data for the full year of 1994.

The federal counterpart of the North Dakota UCR program is the National UCR program under the direction of the FBI. The UCR program has been used nationally and in North Dakota for many years to measure the extent, distribution and fluctuation of crime through the crime index. The crime index is not an absolute measure, but rather an indication of the amount and type of crime occurring in any given jurisdiction. The index is composed of seven crimes recognized as the most serious crimes in our society and the most frequently reported to law enforcement. The seven crimes are subclassified as follows:

VIOLENT CRIME:	Murder/Non-Negligent Manslaughter
	Forcible Rape
	Robbery
	Aggravated Assault
PROPERTY CRIME:	Burglary
	Larceny/Theft
	Motor Vehicle Theft

A Modified Crime Index is also calculated at the federal level. This includes arson as the fourth property crime and the eighth index offense. Data on arson is not included in this report.

Prior to an offense becoming recorded in the UCR program, it must first be brought to the attention of local law enforcement officials and then must be reported by the local agency to the UCR program. Therefore, the UCR program can only reflect crime indirectly in its reports as the statistics gathered in the program are based on reported offenses only. No one can state precisely how much crime goes unreported each year. Reporting of crimes depends on several factors, including actual perception of an act as a crime, the probability of loss of status for reporting (as in cases of rape), and the perceived probability of action on the part of the law enforcement agency contacted.

Several types of data are gathered, including:

Offense Data

- Number of known crime index offenses
- Type and value of stolen property
- Additional information on homicides and arsons
- Law enforcement officers killed or assaulted

Arrest and Clearance Data

- Number and type of offenses cleared
- Number and type of index offenses cleared involving juveniles
- Number of persons arrested by offense
- Characteristics of persons arrested (age, sex, race)

To allow for comparison among several geographic and/or jurisdictional areas with differing populations, or to allow comparison across time of an area undergoing population fluctuations, the UCR program provides for the calculations of crime rates to remove any potential biases created by population differences. Because a rate relates the incidence of activity to population, it is possible to measure annual fluctuations in criminal activity by comparing rates of crime reported in any given year with those reported in other years. Federally, UCR crime index rates are calculated based on the number of reported offenses per 100,000 population.

North Dakota Crime Summary, 1994

In 1994, 17,487 crime index offenses were reported by local law enforcement agencies. This is a decrease of 2 percent from the total of 17,875 reported in 1993.

Crime index offenses include: murder/non-negligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny/theft, and motor vehicle theft.

The Census Bureau estimate of North Dakota's population for 1994 was 638,000. The index crime rate per 100,000 population for 1994 was 2740.9. The index crime rate for 1993 was 2815.0.

The total number of reported violent index crimes (murder, rape, robbery and aggravated assault) was 528. This represents a decrease of 5.2 percent from the total of 558 reported in 1993.

Violent crime accounted for 3 percent of total index crimes reported in 1994.

Collectively, property crimes (burglary, larceny/theft and motor vehicle theft) decreased by 2 percent from 17,317 reported in 1993 to 16,959 reported in 1994.

Ninety-seven percent of index crimes reported in North Dakota were property crimes.

The 13,898 larceny/thefts reported in 1994 accounted for 79 percent of total index crimes.

Over $9.6 million worth of property was reported lost to crime in 1994, with 48 percent of that amount reported as recovered by law enforcement officials.

VIOLENT CRIME

- Violent crime includes the offenses of murder/non-negligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault. See Appendix A for UCR definitions of these and other offenses.
- In 1994, 528 violent crimes were reported in North Dakota. This is a 5.4 percent decrease from the 1993 total of 558 offenses.
- Violent crime totaled 3 percent of reported index crimes in North Dakota.
- Figure 2 below illustrates the yearly totals of violent crimes reported in North Dakota for the period 1975-1994. See Appendix D for yearly totals and rates of violent crime.

MURDER/NON-NEGLIGENT MANSLAUGHTER

The UCR program defines Murder/Non-Negligent Manslaughter as the "willful killing of one human being by another." Attempts to murder, assaults to murder, suicides, accidental deaths, justifiable homicides, and deaths caused by gross negligence are not included in this category.

- Five murder/non-negligent manslaughters were known to the North Dakota UCR program in 1994.
- All of the victims were adults and four of the five were female.
- Three victims were slain with firearms. One victim was run over with an automobile and one was strangled.
- In each incident in 1994, the victim knew the assailant.
- The 1994 state murder/non-negligent manslaughter rate was 0.8 per 100,000 population. This compares with a rate of 3.5 per 100,000 in 1993 when 22 deaths due to this offense were reported.
- Figure 3 below presents the yearly murder/non-negligent manslaughter totals for the period 1975-1994. Data prior to 1978 does not include deaths occurring on the state's reservations. While law enforcement officials on the reservations do not report crime data to the UCR program, any known homicides are included in North Dakota's state total.

FORCIBLE RAPE

The UCR program defines Forcible Rape as "carnal knowledge of a female forcibly and against her will." Assaults to rape, attempts to commit rape by force or threat of force are included. Carnal abuse, statutory offenses (no force -- victim under age of consent), and other sex offenses are not included.

- In 1994, 154 forcible rapes were reported to local law enforcement in North Dakota. This is an increase of approximately 3 percent from the 1993 total of 150 offenses.
- Of the forcible rape offenses, 142 were rapes by force and 12 were reported as assaults or attempts to rape.
- Figure 4 is a graph of yearly totals for reported rapes during the period 1975 through 1994. See Appendix D for yearly totals and rates of forcible rape.
- Since the UCR definition states that victims of rape must be female, the rate of occurrence for reported rapes is calculated based only on the female population. The Census Bureau's 1994 population estimate for North Dakota is 638,000. The number of females is approximately half of that figure. The resulting rate is 48.3 reported rapes per 100,000 females in 1994, compared with 47.2 per 100,000 females in 1993.
- In North Dakota, forcible rape accounted for about 29 percent of violent index crimes and less than 1 percent of total index crimes reported.

ROBBERY

Robbery is defined by the UCR program as "the taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear."

- Seventy robberies were reported in North Dakota in 1994, an increase of 16 incidents from the 54 reported in 1993.
- Figure 5 presents reported robbery totals each year for the twenty-year period 1975-1994.
- The 1994 robbery rate was approximately 11.0 per 100,000 population as compared with 8.5 per 100,000 population in 1993.
- Even though the number of robbery incidents increased, the value of property stolen in robbery incidents decreased from $37,608 in 1993 to $14,030 in 1994.
- The average robbery in 1994 involved $200 worth of property.

FIGURE 5
Robbery Totals
1975-1994

- The UCR program categorizes robberies both by type of weapon used and place of occurrence. Table 4 is a distribution of robberies by type of weapon used. Fifty percent of the reported robberies involved the use of personal weapons (hands, fists, feet, etc.). Firearms were used in 10 percent of the incidents.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

The UCR program defines Aggravated Assault as "an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault is usually accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. Attempts are included since it is not necessary that an injury result when a gun, knife, or other weapon is used which could and probably would result in serious personal injury if the crime were successfully completed."

- In 1994, 299 aggravated assaults were reported in North Dakota. In 1993, 332 aggravated assaults were reported.
- The aggravated assault rate for North Dakota in 1994 was 46.9 per 100,000 population compared with 52.3 per 100,000 population in 1993.
- Figure 6 illustrates the yearly totals of aggravated assaults for the period 1975-1994. See Appendix D for yearly totals and rates for aggravated assaults.
- Table 7 on the following page is a percentage distribution of the types of weapons used in aggravated assaults.

- Approximately 46 percent of reported aggravated assaults in North Dakota in 1994 involved the use of personal weapons (hands, fists, feet, etc.). Firearms were used in approximately 7 percent of the total aggravated assaults.

PROPERTY CRIME

- Property crime includes the offenses of burglary, larceny/theft and motor vehicle theft.
- In 1994, the total number of property crimes reported was 16,959. This is a decrease of 2 percent from the 1993 total of 17,317 offenses.
- Property crime accounted for approximately 97 percent of the index offenses reported in North Dakota.
- Figure 7 presents property crime totals in North Dakota for the period from 1975 through 1994. See Appendix D for yearly totals and rates for property crimes.

BURGLARY

The UCR program defines Burglary as the "unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or theft. The use of force to gain entry is not required to classify an offense as burglary." Burglaries are classified into three categories: forcible entry, unlawful entry where no force is used, and attempted forcible entry.

- In 1994, 2,080 burglaries were reported to the UCR program. This is an 11 percent decrease from the total of 2,346 reported in 1993.
- Figure 8 illustrates burglary totals for each year for the period 1975 through 1994. See Appendix B for more information on the number of reported burglaries and rate of occurrence for each reporting jurisdiction.
- The rate of burglaries based on population was 326.0 per 100,000 inhabitants for 1994, as compared with 369.4 per 100,000 in 1993.

Burglary Totals

- The UCR program classifies burglaries by time of day and location of the incident. Table 8 below presents this breakdown.
- Approximately 53 percent were burglaries of non-residences. Fifty-seven percent of burglaries were known to have occurred at night.
- Table 9 is a percentage distribution of total burglaries reported by type of entry.
- About 59 percent of burglaries involved forcible entry.
- The average burglary involved $816 worth of property.

LARCENY/THEFT

The UCR program defines Larceny/Theft as the "unlawful taking, carrying, leading or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another. It includes crimes such as shoplifting, pocket-picking, purse-snatching, thefts from motor vehicles, thefts of motor vehicle parts and accessories, bicycle thefts, etc., in which no use of force, violence or fraud occurs. In the Uniform Crime Reporting program, this crime category does not include embezzlement, "con" games, forgery, and worthless checks. Motor vehicle theft is also excluded from this category inasmuch as it is a separate crime index offense."

- A total of 13,898 larceny/thefts were reported in North Dakota in 1994. This is a 1 percent decrease from the 1993 total of 14,031.
- The larceny/theft rate per 100,000 population was 2178.4 compared with 2209.6 in 1993.
- The average dollar value per offense increased slightly from $344 in 1993 to $348 in 1994.
- Larceny/thefts accounted for 79.5 percent of the total index offenses reported and amounted to approximately 50 percent of the total value of stolen property.
- The yearly totals of reported larceny/thefts in North Dakota during the period 1975 to 1994 are illustrated in Figure 9.

Larceny/Theft Totals
1975-1994

- A percentage distribution of reported larceny/thefts is presented in Table 11. The largest single category of reported larceny/thefts was thefts from motor vehicles, with 23 percent of the total. Approximately 29 percent of all larceny/thefts reported in North Dakota fall into the "All Other" category.
- The UCR program classifies larceny/theft offenses by the dollar values involved. See Table 12.

MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT

Motor Vehicle Theft is defined by the UCR program as "the theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle; this offense category includes the stealing of automobiles, trucks, buses, motorcycles, motorscooters, snowmobiles, etc. The definition excludes the taking of a motor vehicle for temporary use by those persons having lawful access.

- A total of 981 motor vehicle thefts were reported in 1994. This is an increase of 4 percent from the 1993 total of 940.
- The resulting motor vehicle theft rate for North Dakota is 153.8 per 100,000 population.
- Figure 10 illustrates the total motor vehicle thefts each year from 1975 through 1994.

- The UCR program classifies motor vehicle thefts by type of vehicle. Table 14 is a percentage distribution by vehicle type. The "Other Vehicles" category includes all other motor vehicles as limited by the UCR program definition. Examples include motorcycles, snowmobiles, trail bikes, etc. Thefts of farm equipment, airplanes, and construction equipment are not included in the motor vehicle theft category, but are reported as larceny/thefts.

CLEARANCES

The UCR program defines an offense as "cleared" by law enforcement when "at least one person is arrested, charged with the commission of the offense, and turned over to the court for prosecution. Several crimes may be cleared by the arrest of one person, while the arrest of many persons may clear only one offense. Law enforcement agencies may clear a crime by exceptional means when some element beyond law enforcement control precludes the placing of formal charges against the offender. Examples of circumstances which allow such clearances are the death of the offender (suicide, justifiably killed by police or private citizen, etc.); the victim's refusal to cooperate with prosecution after the offender has been identified; or the denial of extradition."

- Approximately 26 percent of the reported index offenses were reported cleared in North Dakota in 1994.
- In North Dakota, approximately 56 percent of total violent index crimes reported to the UCR program were reported cleared in 1994. Clearance rates for violent crimes ranged from 44 percent for robbery to 100 percent for murder/non-negligent manslaughter. See Table 16 for further information.
- Approximately 25 percent of the total property index crimes were reported cleared in 1994. Clearance rates for the individual property crimes range from 18 percent for burglary to 35 percent for motor vehicle theft.

ARRESTS

- Although primarily an indication of law enforcement activity, the number of arrests reported does provide a limited profile of the perpetrators of crime, especially for those crimes which have high clearance rates. Differing arrest practices, policies and enforcement emphases among agencies influence the volume of arrests for various offenses, particularly those against public order such as vagrancy, disorderly conduct, and related violations. However, arrests for serious crimes, e.g., robbery or burglary, are more likely to be consistent and uniform throughout all jurisdictions across the state.
- The UCR program requires that an arrest be counted on each separate occasion an individual is taken into custody. Although several charges may be lodged against a person at the time of arrest, only one arrest is counted for each separate time the person is taken into custody.
- North Dakota law enforcement agencies reported 28,737 arrests in 1994. A total of 26,670 arrests were reported in 1993.
- In 1994, approximately 29 percent of total arrests were arrests of juveniles.
- Seventy-three percent of total arrests were males.
- About 1 percent of total arrests were reported without age information.
- Juveniles were arrested most often for larceny/theft offenses.
- The offense committed most often by adult males was Driving Under the Influence. Adult females were arrested most often for Fraud. See Appendix E for arrest information by age, sex and offense.
- Fifteen percent of the reported arrests were arrests for crime index offenses. Fifty-four percent of the arrests for crime index offenses were arrests of juveniles. In 1993, 53 percent of arrests for crime index offenses were arrests of juveniles.
- The 8,607 reported arrests for DUI and liquor law violations represent approximately 30 percent of the total arrests reported in the state of North Dakota in 1994. Arrests for DUI decreased 4.8 percent from 4,418 in 1993 to 4,206 in 1994. Liquor law violation arrests increased 5.1 percent from 4,188 in 1993 to 4,401 reported in 1994.
- Table 21 reviews arrests reported in 1994 in terms of racial category. Approximately 87 percent of total arrests were white; about 11 percent were Native American.
- These statistics are provided by local law enforcement agencies which contribute to the North Dakota UCR program. No arrest figures for reservations in the state are included in these totals. Tribal law enforcement agencies do not participate in the UCR program.

INDEX OFFENSES BY JUDICIAL DISTRICT

- This section presents index crime rates calculated for each judicial district to provide for ready comparison with data on court caseloads published annually by the state court administrator. Figure 11 is a map of the judicial district boundaries. The crime rate for each district for 1994 is shown in Table 26, and a ranking is given by crime rate.
- Geographic size and population seem to impact reported crime rate most significantly when a relatively large population is grouped into a relatively small geographical area, as in the cases of the East Central and Northeast Central Judicial Districts.

RURAL-URBAN CRIME DISTRIBUTION

- The "urban" areas of the state, for purposes of this analysis, are defined as those cities which have populations of 2,500 or greater and report directly to the UCR program. If the population of a city which has been considered "urban" in the past drops below 2,500, it is no longer included as "urban" and becomes part of the "rural" analysis. Conversely, if a city's population increases to 2,500 or greater, it is no longer considered "rural" and is included as part of the "urban" analysis.
- The cities included as "urban" for 1994 include: Beulah; Bismarck; Devils Lake; Dickinson; Fargo; Grand Forks; Grafton; Hazen; Jamestown; Mandan; Minot; Rugby; Valley City; Wahpeton; West Fargo and Williston. Total urban population for 1994 is 323,768.

OFFENSES IN UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING

Offenses in Uniform Crime Reporting are divided into two groups designated as Part I and Part II crimes. Information on the number of Part I offenses known to law enforcement, the number cleared by arrest or exceptional means, and the number of persons arrested is reported monthly. Arrest data are reported for Part I and Part II offenses. The Crime Index is composed of offenses 1-7 with the exception as noted in item 1 below.

NOTE: The classifications of these offenses for UCR reporting purposes are based on law enforcement investigation as opposed to determination by a court, medical examiner, jury, or other judicial hearing.

PART I OFFENSES:

1. CRIMINAL HOMICIDE

a. Murder and Non-Negligent Manslaughter

The willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another. Deaths caused by negligence, attempts to kill, assaults to kill, suicides, accidental deaths, and justifiable homicides are excluded. Justifiable homicides are limited to: (1) the killing of a felon by a law enforcement officer in the line of duty, and (2) the killing of a felon by a private citizen.

b. Manslaughter by Negligence

The killing of another person through gross negligence. Excludes traffic fatalities. While manslaughter by negligence is a Part I crime, it is not included in the Crime Index.

2. FORCIBLE RAPE

The carnal knowledge of a female forcibly and against her will. Included are rapes by force and attempts or assaults to rape. Statutory offenses (no force used -- victim under age of consent) are excluded.

3. ROBBERY

The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence, or putting the victim in fear.

4. AGGRAVATED ASSAULT
