Preface

This State Drug Resources: A National Directory is a comprehensive guide to State agencies that address drug abuse concerns. Organized by State, the directory provides agency names, addresses, and telephone numbers. Also included are listings of Federal agencies that people frequently contact for information, as well as several quick references of State agencies by area of specialty. The directory was compiled by the Drugs & Crime Data Center & Clearinghouse, which is a national resource center for drug-related crime information.

Individuals seeking specific State-level drug data often do not know where to turn and may require several referrals before the correct office is found. It is hoped that this directory will serve as a road map to the most appropriate source.

Following this introduction is a description of the functions and responsibilities of the types of State agencies listed for each State. The individual State listings that follow are organized alphabetically and present, for each agency listed, its name, address, and telephone number. Approximately 15 drug abuse, criminal justice, and policy offices are listed for each State. Although most States have at least one of each type of agency some States do not. In those cases the category was not included in the State listings.

The State listings are followed by nine appendixes that list federally sponsored drug control offices, national clearinghouses, national associations, and national drug abuse or criminal justice resources. Finally, as a quick reference, those drug control or statistical agencies common to each State have been assembled and listed alphabetically by State.

Although great care was taken in compiling and proofreading the agency listings, the Data Center & Clearinghouse necessarily relied on national mailing lists that may contain errors or may be outdated. Users are urged to report any corrections to the clearinghouse on the form provided at the end of this Directory so that they can be reflected in subsequent editions.

With funding from the U.S. Department of Justice's Bureau of Justice Assistance, the Bureau of Justice Statistics sponsors the Drugs & Crime Data Center & Clearinghouse to support drug control policy research and development. Since 1987 the Data Center & Clearinghouse has responded to policymakers' needs for the most current data about:

- illegal drug trafficking
- drug-law violators
- drug-using offenders in the criminal justice system
- the impact of drugs on criminal justice administration.

The Data Center & Clearinghouse coordinates with and refers callers to other federally sponsored clearinghouses that address drug issues including the National Criminal Justice Reference Service, the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol and Drug Information, and the Drug Information and Strategy Clearinghouse.

Data analysis and evaluation are performed primarily at the Research Triangle Institute in North Carolina. The Clearinghouse is located at Aspen Systems Corporation in Rockville, Maryland. To learn more about the Data Center & Clearinghouse or to obtain specific information, use the order form at the end of this Directory or call or write the drugs-and-crime information specialists at:

One free phone call can give you access to a growing data base on drugs & crime

The new Drugs & Crime Data Center & Clearinghouse is managed by the Bureau of Justice Statistics. To serve you, the center will —

- Respond to your requests for drugs and crime data.
- Let you know about new drugs and crime data reports.
- Send you reports on drugs and crime.
- Conduct special bibliographic searches for you on specific drugs and crime topics.
- Refer you to data on epidemiology, prevention, and treatment of substance abuse at the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol and Drug Information of the Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration.
- Publish special reports on subjects such as assets forfeiture and seizure, economic costs of drug-related crime, drugs and violence, drug laws of the 50 States, drug abuse and corrections, and innovative law enforcement reactions to drugs and crime.

- Prepare a comprehensive, concise report that will bring together a rich array of data to trace and quantify the full flow of illicit drugs from cultivation to consequences.
